

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 857 - Maritime Crisis

C857 Maritime Crisis

Baili Zhenlin's suspicions were not unreasonable.

From the outside, Wu Group Corporation was like a unicorn, galloping around the entire China Country.

And it is now out of the secondary market. In other words, Wu Group had already become Wu Tian's private business.

Such people were usually very rich.

"I'm not lying, I really need some money." Wu Tian smiled bitterly. If Loong Yun hadn't told him that the company was running out of money, he wouldn't have believed that the company was short of money.

Baili Zhenlin looked at Wu Tian doubtfully. He always wondered if this guy was trapping him.

Or something else was waiting for him. Baili Zhenlin didn't dare to relax his guard at all.

"What do you want the money for?" Baili Zhenlin didn't directly refuse.

Wu Tian spread his hands and said, "Actually, I don't do anything. I just need the money to take care of my daily expenses. Actually, the many projects I have now are basically all expenses. Few of them are profitable."

Wu Tian wouldn't easily tell others about this reality. After all, if he casually said this kind of thing, it might cause a huge problem.

If it causes panic in the market, it will be even harder for Wu Tian to get some money.

"It can't be, you're already at this level?" Baili Zhenlin's face was full of surprise, he had always thought that the Flower Island planned by Wu Tian had a pretty good effect. At least the project should have made money.

Who would have thought that this guy was actually losing money.

"There's no other way. I can't hold on for much longer."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Baili Zhenlin didn't hesitate to worry anymore.

Luckily, Nanhe Securities Corporation was pretty rich, so he directly lent 10 billion to Wu Tian from the company.

Of course, he couldn't give the money to him for free, so Wu Tian could only use his Flower Island project as collateral.

But no matter what, he still managed to borrow the money.

After leaving Baili Zhenlin's place, Wu Tian was just about to drive to the location of the Flower Island project, but he didn't expect that there would be an explosion coming from a place in front of them.

Seeing that the direction of the voice seemed to come from the Flower Island, Wu Tian and Loong Yun both felt that something wasn't right and immediately sped up.

When the two of them arrived at the seaside, they saw a burning transport ship with thick smoke rising from it.

Many ships nearby came over to help. The scene was very chaotic, but luckily, there was someone commanding the scene.

Wu Tian looked over from the shore. He saw Liu Yueyao standing at the bow of a ship, directing the rescue of the wrecked ship.

From this point of view, Liu Yueyao's appearance was indeed quite handsome, with a bit of heroic spirit.

"Is this an accident?" Wu Tian also started to feel slightly relieved. Since there weren't many casualties, it was fine.

Loong Yun took out a portable drone and released it. She looked at the video that came back from above and began her investigation.

"It doesn't seem to be that simple. This ship should not explode. It transports things like earth and stone, so there's no explosives. "

Hearing Loong Yun's words, Wu Tian immediately frowned. Could it be that someone started to cause trouble again?

Before they could react, Liu Yueyao's boat suddenly exploded. Liu Yueyao, who was originally standing on the bow of the ship, fell to the deck, almost falling into the sea.

Wu Tian, who was sitting on the shore, couldn't hold it in anymore. He quickly grabbed a motorboat from the shore and got on it with Loong Yun. They rushed over there with all their might.

This was definitely not an accident!

Wu Tian was very sure that the enemy wanted to attack and hurt the people around Wu Tian.

The ship burst into flames. Many of the crew members chose to jump into the sea.

However, Wu Tian never saw Liu Yueyao.

Even when he had found some of the crew and questioned them, most said they had not seen her.

Wu Tian could only focus back on the accident ship.

Could it be that Liu Yueyao was still on it?

Without a word, Wu Tian immediately turned the boat around and drove towards the accident ship.

The flames in the cabin were already extremely large, and there were even occasional small explosions. Looking at it made one feel that it was very dangerous.

Loong Yun wanted to stop Wu Tian, but she saw that Wu Tian's eyes were already starting to turn red. She knew that she couldn't persuade him, so she tried her best to think of a way to make Wu Tian's actions more smooth.

When he reached the side of the boat, Wu Tian grabbed a rope that was hanging down from the boat and tried his best to climb up.

It was just that the hull of the boat was very hot from the fire and his hands were very hot from touching it.

Wu Tian didn't care that much and quickly climbed up.

Even with blisters on his hands, he did not stop.

"Liu Yueyao!" After reaching the deck, Wu Tian shouted at the top of his lungs. The sound of the flames was even louder than his shouts.

Wu Tian looked left and right. At the bow of the ship, there was a person lying on the deck.

He quickly rushed over, but at this moment, a flame suddenly blocked Wu Tian's path and blocked him completely.

Even if Wu Tian wanted to retreat, it was too late.

But if he didn't go, he couldn't. He saw that Liu Yueyao's side was soon to be affected by the flames.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and steeled his heart. He took off his clothes and took off the water faucet to the side, wetting his entire body.

With a run support, Wu Tian also ran over.

Flames surged on the surface of his body, and the scorching heat instantly made his skin turn red. Some parts of his skin even started to turn white.

Although Wu Tian had made some preparations, he still underestimated the power of this flame.

He felt a burning pain all over his body. Even his hair and other hair had been burnt clean at this moment.

Fortunately, Wu Tian still resisted. After enduring for a while, he finally rushed over.

He quickly ran to Liu Yueyao's side and gently helped her up. He extended his hand to check her breath. Fortunately, her breathing was steady, so it should be fine.

"President Wu, quickly leave this ship! It's going to explode soon! "

At this moment, Loong Yun's voice came from below. Wu Tian looked in the direction of her finger and saw that the flames were about to burn the gas tank.

At this moment, Loong Yun's voice came from below. Looking towards the direction of her finger, Wu Tian saw that the flames were about to burn the gas tank.

Seeing this, Wu Tian didn't have any time to think. He picked up Liu Yueyao, stomped on the ground a few times, and rushed forward.

The flames behind him had already soared into the sky as a huge tongue of fire chased after Wu Tian.

Wu Tian immediately felt the heat behind him, but he was already jumping in the air.

The two of them arced through the air and landed on the surface of the water at the same time.

It was also at this time that an even larger explosion occurred, and the ship was almost completely smashed into smithereens.

Wu Tian fell into the water, but he didn't dare to stop for a moment. He quickly pulled Liu Yueyao and desperately swam upwards.

The water was a mess. Sharp objects slid down Wu Tian's body, and blood soaked into the sea.

Wu Tian grimaced in pain because his wound was exposed to the sea water.

"President Wu!" "President Wu!" Loong Yun's voice sounded on the surface of the sea. She only saw Wu Tian and Liu Yueyao fall into the water at the same time, but she could not find any trace of them.

Wu Tian tried his best to slide his body, but he suddenly felt that his consciousness was no longer stable. His vision was starting to darken and his chest was burning. He almost couldn't bear it anymore.

He had to survive! With this thought in his mind, Wu Tian closed his eyes in the sea water and lost his consciousness.

When he woke up again, Wu Tian felt that his body was already warm.

Moreover, he no longer felt wet, but rather, his entire body was in burning pain. This made him very unhappy.

"President Wu? "President Wu?"

Wu Tian heard someone calling his name. He struggled to open his eyes and saw several people standing beside him.

Everyone stared at him blankly, some of them still tearing up.

"It's Loong Yun ..." Wu Tian looked at the person closest to him. It was indeed Loong Yun. Her face was anxious and the corners of her eyes were red.

Standing beside her was Su Cancan. Her face didn't look any better, but when she saw that Wu Tian had woken up, she immediately put on a cold expression for a few seconds. However, her eyes were very hot.

"President Wu, you're awake!" Loong Yun finally breathed a sigh of relief and relaxed.

"Where's Liu Yueyao?" Wu Tian thought that he couldn't be the only one who survived. There was also Liu Yueyao. What exactly happened to her?

"Miss Liu is fine. She is no longer in danger." Wu Tian was slightly relieved at Loong Yun's reply.

But as Loong Yun spoke, Wu Tian saw that both of her hands were wrapped in bandages. He stretched out his hands and grabbed Loong Yun.

"What happened to you?"

Wu Tian felt that if he remembered correctly, the person closest to him at that time should be Loong Yun.

He and Liu Yueyao both fell into the water. How did she save them both on the boat?

Wu Tian realized that he couldn't think too deeply about some things. The reality was too heavy.

"Rest well. We still need to investigate this matter when your body recovers!" Su Cancan's tone was indifferent, but her words were for Wu Tian's sake.

She was always like this.

"You guys can go back to your work first ..." Wu Tian was also very weak at this moment. After saying those words, he already felt very tired and wanted to rest as soon as possible.

After settling Wu Tian down, Loong Yun and the others walked out of the room.

Everyone's expression was solemn.

Wu Tian didn't notice that a lot of parts of his body had started to fester.

Loong Zaian only dealt with the situation simply. However, if this went on, Wu Tian's situation would only get worse.

"Can't President Wu really be cured as soon as possible?" After Su Cancan came out, she was also worried about Wu Tian. At this moment, the usually cold her started to frown. Anxiety had already appeared on her face.

Loong Zaian sighed helplessly.

"It's not that there's nothing we can do about it. We just need to find some precious herbs, such as Tian Lingli grass, and a thousand-year-old ice cube. Such healing effects are extremely quick."

Although the method was simple, almost no one had heard of this Tian Lingli, let alone searched for her.

The thousand year old ice was relatively easy to obtain, but it was usually found in the mountains. It was an extremely dangerous place.

"Tian Lingli and the thousand-year old Ice Magic? If these two things can be found, does that mean that you can cure President Wu? "

Su Cancan didn't care that it was hard to find, she only cared about the effects.

"If we have these two items, I can heal his burns within two to three days!" Loong Zaian patted his chest and promised.

"Alright, I will provide you with these two items as soon as possible!"

Without another word, Su Cancan turned around and prepared to leave. Her actions had always been swift and decisive.

However, Loong Yun immediately stopped her.

"What are you doing?" Su Cancan glanced at Loong Yun. Did she still want to stop her?

"We still need someone to investigate the explosion. Let me look for these two things ..." Actually, Loong Yun was also injured.

Loong Zaian's heart ached for his daughter when he saw her like this.

He wanted to persuade her, but he was too familiar with his daughter's temper to stop her.

"Do you know how hard it is to find?" Su Cancan didn't look down on Loong Yun. She knew that this woman was very powerful, but Tian Lingyao was an extremely rare and dangerous woman.

Of course, Su Cancan was confident enough to look for Tian Lingyao, because their Wudu Sect were located deep in the mountains. Furthermore, since she was young, she had been travelling through the mountains and plains, so she was fairly confident in herself.

What's more, Loong Yun's hands were injured and she couldn't do any heavy work.

"I can do it. President Wu was injured, but we all have to do something. I feel that the situation this time's explosion is not simple, so I'm worried that I won't be able to deal with it alone."

Of course, Loong Yun had her own reasons for making such a decision.

Loong Yun's hands were injured and she couldn't do any heavy work.

"I can do it. President Wu was injured, but we all have to do something. I feel that the situation this time's explosion is not simple, so I'm worried that I won't be able to deal with it alone."

Of course, Loong Yun had her own reasons for making such a decision.

Su Cancan looked at Loong Yun's face and laughed.

She understood this girl's decision. If it were her, she would definitely do the same thing.

"Fine, I hope you can do it."

Su Cancan left these words behind before she turned around and left.

Loong Zaian looked at his daughter and tears started streaming down his face.

"My daughter, dad, I'll go with you ..." Loong Yun's hands no longer had any strength left. If she went this time, she would definitely suffer a lot.

Hearing her father's voice, a smile immediately appeared on Loong Yun's face.

"It's okay, I will have them accompany me. Dad, just stay here and take care of them."

Loong Yun was a very sensible and obedient girl, but she also had her own way of thinking. Since she was young, she had never needed to be worried about.

However, the current her, in Loong Zaian's eyes, really made his heart ache.

"Child, you must be careful!" Loong Zaian was afraid to look at his daughter, afraid that he would be reluctant to part with her.

Even if he didn't want to, he knew that if his daughter decided to do something, he wouldn't be able to stop her.

Time was tight. Loong Yun bade her father farewell and immediately went to find out where she could find these things.

The thousand-year cold ice was still alright, but there were plenty of it in those snowy mountains. However, Loong Yun knew that this Tian Ling grass was something that only existed in legends and could not be found.

However, this did not hinder Loong Yun from doing so. She immediately started searching the internet for relevant information.

This item was not easy to find even on the internet, so Loong Yun decided to use a more tricky method.

In reality, this Tian Linghua looked quite special. She only had three petals, and all of them were of different colors.

If someone found out, it would be easier to tell the difference with its outstanding appearance.

Loong Yun might as well have searched for such an example on the internet, or had anyone seen it before.

After searching for several hours, Loong Yun finally found what she wanted on a certain forum.

This forum was actually a forum for tourism exchanges. Inside, there was a post with a photo of the person Loong Yun was looking for, Tian Lingli.

When Loong Yun saw the existence of this thing, she was so excited that she almost jumped up.

She quickly followed the map and found the location. Luckily, Loong Yun contacted the donkey friend who uploaded the photo and asked for the address of the place.

At this point, it could be said that everything was going smoothly. Everything was progressing according to Loong Yun's wishes.

She took advantage of the fact that it wasn't dark yet and called Azure Dragon over. For convenience's sake, just the two of them were going.

There are places where it makes no sense to go with a lot of people.

That night, Loong Yun flew to the southwest mountain range.

By the time the two of them got off the plane, it was already midnight.

"Let's find a place to rest first. I'll rent a car tomorrow!" Azure Dragon looked at the time and then looked at Loong Yun.

Now that Loong Yun was injured, it would be more appropriate for her to take a short rest.

"Alright! We don't need to save money on something like this right now, just buy a car. " Loong Yun's voice became a little faint as she spoke. Her physical condition was much worse than before, and her physical strength was barely able to keep up.

"Alright, leave this matter to me. You must rest well tonight, and walk a long way tomorrow. "

The two of them had a rough night's rest in this small town.

Early the next morning, Azure Dragon got out of bed and went to get his car ready, as well as some equipment that they needed.

The two cars quickly left the only nearby town.

Outside of this small town, there were endless mountains and forests.

The climate was tropical, the smell high, and there were plenty of insects.

However, their target was the west. The further they went to the west, the higher the altitude was, and the temperature began to drop abruptly.

After driving for an entire day, at night, the two of them realized that they had nowhere to rest.

Luckily, Azure Dragon had prepared the camping equipment.

After another few days, the two finally arrived at their destination. According to the traveling friend, they discovered that the flower was on the top of a nearby mountain peak. They didn't know its name, but they were able to see two mountain peaks connected to each other.

As they walked forward, they found that there was no way out. The altitude of this place was very high, and the temperature was so low that it even started to snow.

Loong Yun and Azure Dragon gave up their cars and started to walk into the mountain.

If there were professionals amongst them, they would have thought that they were courting death by entering the mountain like this.

In this kind of wild forest, there might be some fierce beasts like bears or tigers.

These were not things that could be dealt with by ordinary people. Once they met, it could be said that they would be easily attacked.

The sky started to darken, and soon it was snowing in the mountains.

Azure Dragon looked at the weather. He felt that he couldn't move forward anymore. The visibility was very low and it was easy for something to go wrong.

"Let's go take a rest."

Loong Yun shook her head. From the start, she had no intention of stopping.

"It's okay, Brother Azure Dragon. Don't worry about me, I'm also very strong!" Loong Yun turned to Azure Dragon and smiled, her lips pale.

Azure Dragon gritted his teeth and sighed. He was ready to continue walking forward.

At this time, the wind in the mountain suddenly became stronger, blowing a snowflake onto Loong Yun's face.

"It's okay, Brother Azure Dragon. Don't worry about me, I'm also very strong!" Loong Yun turned to Azure Dragon and smiled, her lips pale.

Azure Dragon gritted his teeth and sighed. He was ready to continue walking forward.

At this time, the wind in the mountain suddenly became stronger, blowing a snowflake onto Loong Yun's face.

She stretched out her hand to sweep the snow, but the moment she let go of the staff, the wind blew and Loong Yun immediately fell to the ground, unable to stand still.

There was no friction at all in the snow and Loong Yun was rolling down the hill.

Startled, Azure Dragon also rushed down to save Loong Yun.

But in just two or three seconds, Loong Yun had disappeared.

Azure Dragon collapsed on the hillside. He had a look of disbelief on his face.

"Loong Yun!" Azure Dragon's voice echoed in the valley. He was a bit unconvinced, so he tied a rope around his waist and continued searching.

At the bottom of the hill, Loong Yun was in a daze.

She used her hand to gently support her head and move her body. When she realized that she could still move, she felt slightly relieved.

It was fortunate that the snow here was thick enough. Otherwise, if she had broken her bones in this place, she would have basically lost her life here.

Loong Yun looked at the thing beside her. At this moment, the thing beside her was just a walking stick.

Her backpack had been lost when she rolled down.

Loong Yun struggled to stand up. The surrounding temperature was already very low, so she couldn't stay here any longer.

Suddenly, from the distance, a faint sound could be heard. It sounded like a bell ringing.

Loong Yun looked around carefully, but it was all white, and nothing could be seen.

However, this bell sound gave Loong Yun hope. She tried her best to walk towards the direction of the sound.

As the wind and snow blew, the sky began to darken. A large cloud had covered the sky above Loong Yun's head.

The temperature was also getting lower and lower. Loong Yun's clothes were already getting wet from the snow. At this moment, her entire body was ice-cold.

She was trembling, and every step she took was torture.

After walking for an unknown amount of time, Loong Yun finally couldn't hold on any longer and fell headfirst onto the ground.

When she woke up again, the bone-piercing chill was gone. Replacing it was warmth.

"Am I dead?"

Loong Yun clearly remembered that she had fallen into a pile of snow. That sort of cold was still deeply etched in her memory.

The sound of burning firewood entered her ears, making her feel as if she was beside a warm fireplace, enjoying the beautiful winter.

"Are you awake?"

A voice sounded from the side. It sounded a bit excited.

Loong Yun tried her best to open her eyes, but it seemed that a figure was sitting beside her.

He wore a green tunic and held a small fan in his hand to increase the firepower in the furnace.

This person ... Loong Yun felt as if she had seen him somewhere before.

"It's better if you don't move around too much. There are some wounds from the frost on your body. Recover first. Drink this while it's hot to warm up your body." The man brought a bowl of soup from the side. It was brown in color and smelled like herbs.

Loong Yun was a little worried about the ingredients of the pill. However, she hesitated for a moment and started to get conflicted.

"Don't worry, this is made from herbal concocted and specializes in treating frostbite. If you're worried, I'll take a sip."

As he spoke, this man was about to take a sip.

Seeing this, Loong Yun felt that it was not a good time for her to persevere any longer.

"No need, I'll just drink."

Loong Yun frowned as she took the pill, but still drank it all.

After drinking this, Loong Yun felt much better, and her face started to regain some color.

Only then did Loong Yun take a closer look at the person in front of her, shocking her greatly.

No wonder she felt that she looked familiar towards this person just now. She didn't expect that the person who saved her was the Taoist Chen Shiran that Wu Tian served before.

Could the world be so small? She actually met him in such a desolate and desolate place.

"Chen Senior Taoist ..." Loong Yun said in surprise, but her heart felt a lot more at ease now that she had met someone she knew. No matter what, her heart felt a lot more at ease.

"You know me?" Chen Shiran was even more surprised. Loong Yun didn't know whether to laugh or to cry.

"Of course, I was there when President Wu was entertaining you."

"President Wu?" Chen Shiran thought for a long time, then suddenly slapped his thigh and said, "So it's the person who invited me to a drink, I'm sorry, I forgot. "The last time I drank too fiercely, even my head was spinning when I slept the next day. If you didn't mention it, I wouldn't have remembered it at all. Sorry about that."

It wasn't the first time that Loong Yun had witnessed Chen Shiran's bad memory, so she didn't find it strange.

"Hey, then why did you come to this place? This place is so remote, and ordinary people would not come here." Chen Shiran suddenly asked this question with a hint of suspicion.

"I came here to look for an herb ..." Loong Yun thought for a while and felt that since Senior Taoist was a local, he should understand the local situation better. Perhaps this guy could help her.

Chen Shiran replied. He looked out of the window and chuckled, "So, you're here to find Tian Lingli?"

Loong Yun looked at Chen Shiran in disbelief. She clearly hadn't said the name of this herb yet.

"How do you know?"

Chen Shiran laughed and pointed out the window. Outside, there was a flower blooming on the mountain wall. They were all three different colored petals.

"There's only this one medicinal herb in this valley. This is the only thing you're looking for."

Loong Yun quickly stood up when she heard about this matter with Tian Lingli. She looked in that direction, feeling overjoyed.

She had spent so much effort, but it seemed like she hadn't wasted it all.

When Loong Yun's condition improved a little, Chen Shiran brought her around the vicinity.
