

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 865 - Airport Farce

C865 Airport Farce

Shen Xue smiled faintly. No matter what, Wu Tian had such an idea that moved her.

"Go, go. Business is more important. Only with money in our hands can we feel safe. Otherwise, even if you were to stay here, what use would it be?"

Hearing Shen Xue's words, Wu Tian was enlightened.

"That's right, I will prepare to go now. No matter what, I have to get a big order this time!"

Wu Tian gritted his teeth. Even if it was for the girls, he had to work hard.

This Blanche wasn't that easy to deal with. Although she would often stick to Wu Tian or something like that, it would be very difficult to take advantage of her.

However, it was also true that this fellow was rich.

Wu Tian quickly took the plane towards the island state.

Blanche seemed to have rented an entire island and was on vacation here.

When the Shuangxing Company company had dealt with their Char Country, it had almost completely destroyed their country's economy. Fortunately, Char Country had started to recover its vitality again. They even took advantage of Shuangxing Company company's hurried retreat to ruthlessly profit from this.

This was also one of the reasons why Blanche was now so carefree.

When they arrived at the airport, Wu Tian saw a group of people in black tailcoats waiting in a neat line on the airport parking lot.

He even curiously looked at it a few more times.

At this moment, a white guy with a full face behind Wu Tian laughed in satisfaction.

"Haha, I didn't expect them to be prepared so well for me. I clearly didn't tell my uncle that I would come here. They even prepared such a scene to welcome me, haha. "

From a glance, one could tell that this young man was from the Britain, and his whole body was emitting a very amiable aura.

Wu Tian didn't think too much and just continued to follow the crowd.

He saw the young man striding towards the servants, and standing in front of them, he said proudly: "Are you sent by my uncle? It just so happens that I'm a little tired from the flight, so give me a glass of red wine. "

After saying that, he wanted to sit down on a large leather sofa.

Unexpectedly, the attendant immediately appeared in front of him, saying respectfully yet vigilantly, "I'm sorry sir, we aren't sent by someone you said we were."

The young man was immediately shocked. Earlier, he was shouting so loudly that quite a few people on the airport saw it.

But now, he had actually recognized the wrong person. This was too embarrassing. Just for the sake of face, this young man wasn't willing to give up.

"My uncle's name is Johnny Janser. You must know it!"

The servant shook his head, and said something that was difficult to accept: "I'm sorry, but we have never heard of it. Also, can you please leave for a bit? Our guest is about to arrive. "

The young man was immediately infuriated by the servant's words. He grabbed the bottle of wine on the table and was about to smash it into the ground.

"Why, do you think I can't afford it? I'm going to enjoy myself here today. If you guys are not convinced, you can tell me your company's name, and I'll buy it right now! "

His family was an extremely large company, so they naturally had the confidence to say such words.

"I repeat, please step back." As the attendant spoke, a few people from the other side respectfully walked in front of Wu Tian.

He first bowed towards Wu Tian in a very polite manner, "Mr Wu, I've made you wait for a long time. This way, please."

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment before realizing that these people were here to pick him up ...

A moment ago, he had thought that they were welcoming that Britain guy.

At this point, the situation became even more awkward.

That young man was left alone in that place and nobody cared about him, even if he said his uncle's name.

The attendants busily served Wu Tian carefully. They treated him as if he was God.

The young man looked at Wu Tian and walked over in big steps, stopping in front of them.

"Who the hell are you?" He looked at Wu Tian in annoyance, and instead looked like Wu Tian had done something wrong.

Wu Tian had seen what happened to this person just now.

Before Wu Tian could say anything, a few attendants walked over and grabbed him, one on the left and one on the right, then threw him into a nearby trash can.

"Hey, hey, hey!" I want to call the police! This is harassment! My clothes are very expensive, you have to compensate me! "

Although this guy was yelling happily, no one here cared about what he said. Wu Tian just forgot about him and followed the attendants into the cars parked in front of the airport.

"Mr Wu, Miss has prepared a meal on the island and is waiting for you to go. By the way, Miss has also specially instructed us to prepare a swimsuit for you. "

The leader of the attendants said in a neither humble nor arrogant manner. His attitude was very polite, making Wu Tian feel very comfortable and at ease.

"Swimsuit? I'm not here to go to the seaside ... " Wu Tian was immediately confused. The injuries on his body might not have fully healed by now, so wouldn't it be troublesome if he went into the water now?

"We don't know what Miss is planning, but it is Miss's order."

The attendants revealed a difficult expression, they were only listening to orders and nothing more.

In order to not make things difficult for them, Wu Tian could only agree.

"Alright, alright. Whatever you want to do, just do it. Hurry up and take me to see Blanche."

When he met this main character, then everything would be negotiable.

Their car drove for a while. Then they changed ships and came to a small island not far from the shore.

A huge villa was built on the island, and it looked exceptionally luxurious. The scenery on the island was also very beautiful, making it look pleasing to the eyes.

"Mr Wu, please wait here for a moment. I'll go and inform Miss right now. " After the attendants brought Wu Tian to the VIP room, they said their goodbyes and left the room.

Wu Tian carefully observed the room. The interior was decorated in a colorful way that could be said to be very distinctive. Everywhere was filled with an exotic atmosphere.

There was a huge muslin curtain in the room. A light breeze blew by, stirring the muslin. It made people feel like they were in a dream.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 866 - Blanche's Mind

C866 Blanche's Mind

For some reason, Wu Tian started to feel sleepy after sitting on the sofa in the room for a while.

Maybe the plane was too tiring, Wu Tian thought, then he tilted his head and fell asleep against the sofa.

Anyway, he was at Blanche's hometown. Wu Tian felt that the safety of this place should still be guaranteed.

Hearing the news of Wu Tian's arrival, Blanche rushed over excitedly.

She opened the door and saw that Wu Tian had fallen asleep on the sofa.

Blanche gestured to the maids behind her. She told them not to make a sound. She tiptoed over herself.

Since the sofa wasn't big, Blanche sat beside Wu Tian gently and leaned on him.

She sniffed with her petite and exquisite nose and smelled Wu Tian's scent.

As if this wasn't enough to satisfy Blanche, she advanced step by step, even putting her hand on Wu Tian's waist from the back.

Although Wu Tian was in a dream, he still felt as if there were two balls of something soft pressing down on his back.

Sensing that there was some movement behind him, he slowly woke up and realized that he had accidentally fallen asleep.

He lowered his head and saw a pair of delicate, milky-white, jade-like hands hugging his waist.

A noble and elegant perfume smell instantly entered Wu Tian's nose.

"Who?"

Wu Tian felt that there was someone behind him, so he quickly turned around.

Unexpectedly, just as Blanche was about to raise her head up, the two of them happened to turn around and face each other.

The two men's noses bumped into each other and they immediately cried out in pain.

"I was wondering who it was, why didn't you say anything when you came ..."

Wu Tian looked at Blanche and his heart instantly relaxed. He thought it was some kind of assassin ...

During this time, Wu Tian's heart had also become a little overly agitated. There was always the feeling that some terrorists might pop up at any moment, ready to use suicide attacks to cause an explosion.

"Didn't I see you fall asleep, so I intentionally didn't disturb you ..."

Blanche pouted and rubbed her nose.

Although the warm process was interrupted by Wu Tian, but in the end, Blanche still got a lot of benefits and was quite satisfied.

"Is your nose alright ..."

Wu Tian immediately asked worriedly when he saw Blanche's nose turn red as if she was hit by him.

This fellow was a princess of Cha Er Country. If he were to disfigure her face, it would be very troublesome ...

It might even cause a diplomatic dispute, Wu Tian could not afford to offend him.

"I'm fine. The dinner is ready. I'm here to call you for dinner."

Blanche stood up and left Wu Tian with those words. Then she walked out of the room without looking back.

Outside, she leaned against the wall and took a deep breath.

Unknowingly, Blanche's face had turned bright red, and her heart started beating rapidly.

Just now, they had only made contact for a short period of time. Although their bodies were very close, they had not made any particularly intimate movements.

However, just this appearance alone was enough to make her feel extremely moved.

Of course, Wu Tian didn't notice this. He followed the maids and first changed his clothes before heading to the dining room for dinner.

Blanche's rules were quite complicated, but everything was arranged in a neat and orderly manner.

However, these things made Wu Tian feel that his head was spinning. He felt like it was a complete waste of time. At least Wu Tian was here to get the order, so he decided to put up with all this mess.

The banquet was a banquet that was unique to the Cha Er Country. Chicken sauce, caviar, and roasted goose and lamb legs were all placed on a large table.

"Come, this seems to be the first time that I have entertained you with our banquet alone. Come, let's have a taste."

Blanche gestured an invitation to Wu Tian, looking very proud and pleased with herself.

Although the food was tempting, Wu Tian had no intention of eating. He really couldn't eat anything.

He simply used his knife and fork to cut off a small piece of meat and then chewed it.

He hurriedly swallowed his saliva before he could even taste it.

"That Blanche, I came here to discuss something with you ..."

"After dinner, you will accompany me to the seaside. The night scenery was very beautiful, and it was said that it was on the other side of the coast. Tonight, there would be a grand firework. It's best not to miss such an opportunity. "

Blanche interrupted Wu Tian before he could finish his sentence.

Wu Tian didn't know what she was really up to, but he didn't think it was a good idea to directly refuse, so he agreed.

"Alright, that's the one. I have something that I want to talk to you about ..."

At this time, Blanche's eyes were wide open as she looked at Wu Tian with blinking eyes: "Last time, I really had to thank you for going against Shuangxing Company Company, otherwise, our country of Cha Er would have faced too much pressure. This goblet of wine is my toast to you. "

Wu Tian was really speechless. Does this guy not want me to say anything?

"Nothing, nothing, that's what I should do. Furthermore, this was a request from such a beautiful young miss. How could I disagree? "

Wu Tian changed his mind and stopped mentioning the purpose of his visit. Instead, he started to praise Blanche's beauty.

It had to be said that the effect was very good, and Blanche immediately became happy.

The two of them chatted and laughed for nearly an hour.

Seeing that it was almost time, Blanche urged the two of them to change their clothes and get ready to go to the seaside.

It was as if Blanche had prepared a pile of clothes for Wu Tian. Every time he did something, it seemed like there was a special set of clothes to go with it.

If he were to wear these things, Wu Tian would probably die of exhaustion. But luckily, there were a lot of maids in Blanche's mansion. With their help, Wu Tian almost just stood there and didn't move. The rest will be done with the help of these maids.

This made Wu Tian feel as if he was the emperor of ancient times. He didn't expect that the professional enjoyment was such a great thing.

This Blanche was too extravagant!

By the time he finished changing his clothes, Blanche had already arrived at the seaside. A small shed had been set up on the beach, with a table and chair beneath it.

When Wu Tian arrived at the seaside and took a look, his gaze was immediately attracted by Blanche.

She was wearing a simple and elegant long skirt. The gentle breeze from the sea breeze blew her, giving her a sense of elegance.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 867 - Transaction Completed

C867 Transaction Completed

She was wearing a simple and elegant long skirt. The gentle breeze from the sea breeze blew her, giving her a sense of elegance.

While Wu Tian was immersed in the shock that Blanche had brought him, a huge firework bloomed in the night sky on the distant shore.

Such brilliance matched with a girl as white as jade. At this moment, Wu Tian felt that his time seemed to have stopped.

His thoughts seemed to have completely stopped. He had never seen Blanche as beautiful as she was now.

"Are you stupid, Wu Tian? You were that innocent before?" Blanche snickered while covering her mouth. Although it was a joke, it made Blanche extremely satisfied to see Wu Tian treat her like this.

"This is a beauty that I have never seen before, and a beauty that I have never felt before." Wu Tian was stunned. His eyes reflected the fireworks in the sky, looking as beautiful as the starry sky.

"Look at you, come and sit." Blanche smiled brightly and called Wu Tian over to take a seat.

Seeing Wu Tian sit down, Blanche called the maid beside her and poured him a cup of black tea.

"That's enough, you don't need to pretend. What kind of beauty have you not seen before?" Blanche looked at the scenery in the distance and stared at Wu Tian indifferently.

Wu Tian immediately put away his previous silly look and his eyes lit up again.

"I can't hide it from your eyes, but you were so beautiful just now!"

Wu Tian's words were not a compliment, but his true feelings.

"Alright, why did you call me over this time? You can't possibly be here for a vacation, right?"

Blanche had a calm expression on her face, concealing the bashfulness on her face.

Wu Tian cursed in his heart. Originally, he was going to say these things when he first came, but she kept interrupting him.

"Um, I do have something I want to discuss with you. I'm here to be a salesman."

Wu Tian said as he took out his phone.

After all, he couldn't be promoting with his bare hands, so he deliberately took out that set of video of the Mechanical exoskeleton's test.

There was also the scene of Su Cancan's battle during their last operation.

It could be said that there was only one of these in the entire world. It was a truly useful exoskeleton.

Blanche looked at it with interest, and her interest was immediately piqued.

"Is this a product of your company?" Blanche's voice was already getting excited.

"Of course, I have some good stuff here, so I can't keep it for myself."

Wu Tian rubbed his hands together with a smile on his face.

Blanche rolled her eyes and smiled slyly.

"You shouldn't be able to sell this thing, right? You must be looking for me like this. Tell me, how much money do you want me to pay? I can only pay half of it!"

Oh my god, she already cut the price before he even gave his price. Wu Tian wasn't even able to make a bid yet.

"Don't be like this. Wouldn't it be impossible for the two of us to have a proper chat with each other if you do that?"

Wu Tian put on an innocent look. The two of them started arguing about this. Anyway, as long as Blanche started to be interested in the deal, it would be fine.

Speaking of price, Wu Tian made a gesture with his finger.

Blanche looked at Wu Tian and her tone started to rise, "1 million?"

"10 million!"

Blanche almost spat out the black tea in her mouth.

"Then let's not talk about the plane ticket that I'll reimburse you for ..."

Hearing that, Wu Tian immediately started acting coquettishly. He pulled Blanche's skirt and refused to leave.

"Let me tell you, you have to buy it today, even if you don't want to." He was planning to force them to buy and sell.

Blanche's efficiency was quite fast. On the plane that Wu Tian was on, she had already transferred the funds over.

"You are not a gentleman at all! This is an insult to a lady! " Blanche was so angry that her face turned red. Although she was white, she didn't think much about it.

However, being pulled around by a man like that, the effect was not really appropriate.

"I've never been a gentleman. If you don't buy today, then I won't leave today." With that, Wu Tian pulled her skirt even tighter.

Blanche didn't expect Wu Tian to be so shameless ... She didn't have any other choice but to agree.

"Stop talking, alright. I promise you, okay?"

Blanche's expression was full of humiliation, as if she was about to sign a contract that would lose her rights and disgrace her country.

"Why didn't you say that earlier? Don't worry, the price I gave you is absolutely cheap. After all, what is the relationship between us?"

Wu Tian wasn't a complete evil businessman. Blanche also had a lot of resources, so it was a good advertisement for her country to sell to Blanche.

"Then tell us the price, our funds are limited."

Wu Tian smiled and directly cut the price in half. Even so, he could still make a lot of money.

"Five million each. Lifelong maintenance. By the way, you can't reveal this price to others. Otherwise, I won't sell any of them to you in the future."

Seeing Wu Tian act like a shrewd businessman, Blanche rolled her eyes and hit Wu Tian in annoyance.

"Look at what you're saying, is our Cha Er Country really that kind of people?"

Blanche and Wu Tian finally settled this matter and decided to buy a hundred sets on the spot.

Although the transaction amount wasn't a big amount for a large company, it was still a good start.

"Alright, since the deal has been completed, I hope that we can continue to work together in the future."

Wu Tian's smile became even brighter. He didn't expect Blanche to throw the contract at him without even looking at him, so he turned around and walked away.

She probably did not expect Wu Tian to torment her like this.

"You can't be so cold, right ..." Wu Tian suddenly felt very disappointed. Obviously, the two of them were still so friendly before this.

"I've already arranged the return ticket for you. You can leave now. "Goodbye."

Blanche waved at Wu Tian, pouted her lips, and then disappeared into the night.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 868 - Heavy Blow

C868 Heavy Blow

Blanche's efficiency was quite fast. On the plane that Wu Tian was on, she had already transferred the funds over.

Five hundred million wasn't a lot for Wu Tian, but it wasn't a small amount either. After all, it was better than nothing.

Hurriedly returning to the S City, Wu Tian excitedly told Loong Yun about the news, hoping that he might be able to hear the praises from this guy who usually had a straight face.

It was definitely a strange thing to be praised by Loong Yun.

"Right, President Wu, when we went to pick the herbs, we found a pretty good item."

After Loong Yun robbed Wu Tian of his five hundred million, she suddenly thought of this.

"What?" Wu Tian was confused and didn't know what Loong Yun was talking about.

Loong Yun didn't waste her breath and showed the photo she left behind to Wu Tian.

If this photo were to be spread around the world, people would definitely think that it was some sort of supernatural photo, or some fake, deceptive, devilish thing.

"This stone can float?" Wu Tian looked at the huge rock that was still glowing, and immediately, ten thousand question marks appeared on his head.

"Yes." Loong Yun nodded her head and gave Wu Tian another clue. "According to what Chen Senior Taoist said, this seems to be the Ethereal Divine Iron that his master had gathered from refining the Vajra Ring."

Wu Tian suddenly felt as if his head was about to explode. He finally got some good news.

Previously, he got some debris for bamboo pole to examine. Now, he knew that this thing had very good performance.

However, it would not be too much to say that he had already reached the pinnacle in all aspects ...

The most important thing was that this object could float. This meant that these things were already beyond the scope of modern science.

"Where is this place? Does anyone else know? " Wu Tian said worriedly. He had already treated these things as his own.

Loong Yun thought for a moment and shook her head.

"I don't think so. Other than us and Chen Senior Taoist, no one else should have noticed it."

"Great!" Wu Tian was so excited that he wanted to jump up. He was immediately overjoyed.

He slammed his hand on the table. His entire person had a dignified expression on his face, as if a salted fish had turned over.

"President Wu, but I have to say one thing. Our current funding needs to wait until after our surveillance satellite is launched before we can do anything else ..."

Just now, Wu Tian was very satisfied and immediately became dejected. As expected, money is useful.

"Then when does this satellite start? I can't hold it in any longer. Do you know how valuable these ores are if we were to develop them?"

Wu Tian was so excited that he wanted to express it to someone.

"I know. The research institute has already submitted their report, saying that this new material has gained new research, and even created the predetermined conditions for us to develop a new server. But these are not important now ..."

Loong Yun didn't care how Wu Tian shamelessly tried to be shameless. After all, she had already decided that she wouldn't change anything.

Looking at Loong Yun's determined expression, Wu Tian knew that there was nothing he could do. He could only sigh and walk out to see Liu Yueyao.

He didn't know what had happened to Liu Yueyao. She hadn't woken up since the accident. Even Loong Zaian was at a loss for what to do.

It could be said that this was a form of self-defense in the human Sport University brain, and could be considered as actively choosing to hibernate in order to protect himself. As for when she would wake up, only the heavens knew.

Seeing Liu Yueyao lying on the bed without a sound, her face was still as beautiful as ever. It was just that there was no trace of her original spirit.

It was like a statue. Other than the rise and fall of her chest telling people that she was still awake, there was no other movement.

"Is Wu Tian here?"

Su Cancan's voice suddenly sounded from outside. Wu Tian hurried out of the ward.

"What's wrong?" Wu Tian quietly wiped away the tears on his face.

Su Cancan sized him up before putting away her usual icy tone.

"We've already found the suspect's likely location. Do you want to come with us?"

When Wu Tian heard that, his pupils immediately shrunk and the sadness on his face instantly disappeared.

"Let's go!"

Without any unnecessary words, Wu Tian's attitude was already using his actions to express his attitude.

Su Cancan didn't have to tell Wu Tian about this, but she knew how important it was to Wu Tian. He would want to avenge Liu Yueyao himself.

The two of them went to the top floor, where Security Team were already prepared. A helicopter was already on the ground floor waiting to take off.

"Big Sis, let's go together."

After a few Security Team practitioners saw Su Cancan and Wu Tian off on the plane, they were also a little eager to give it a try.

However, they were chased away by Su Cancan.

"There are very few people on their side this time, so you don't need to go. On the contrary, it might alert us, so you should be prepared to support us!"

Hearing her words, the Security Team members were a little disappointed, but they still resolutely carried out their orders.

In the dark night, this helicopter was like a Nightingale, silently flying in the direction of a corner of the S City.

Su Cancan and Wu Tian were already dressed in exoskeleton. The equipment they had prepared this time seemed to be weaker than last time.

The exoskeleton was very thin, and very small.

"The location is a bit complicated this time. Those people are hiding in a seafood market. There are a lot of people, so we can't have too much of an impact."

Su Cancan gave a brief introduction of the situation and also sent him a map of the battlefield.

Wu Tian basically didn't listen to what Su Cancan had to say. He just kept looking at the night sky outside. He clenched his fists tightly as he started to feel excited about the upcoming battle.

The plane landed on a nearby building, and the two men jumped down from it.

There were already two Security Team s, armed to the teeth, waiting here.

"Sister Su, the car has been arranged!"

"What about the target?" Su Cancan moved closer to a telescope on the side of the roof and looked at the market.

"It's still inside the room. It hasn't come out yet!"

Wu Tian took a deep breath and clenched his fist.
