

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 880 - Milk Tea Shop

C880 Milk Tea Shop

Wu Tian also smiled. He wasn't an idiot. The reason he decided to make a lot of money this time was because he had some skill in it.

On the way back, Loong Yun still didn't quite understand.

"President Wu, if we sell them like this, won't it be enough for them to just buy a batch? In the future, they won't need to buy any more ..."

After all, this item could be reused. If one person was finished using it, it could be used by others.

Their item's profit wasn't very high, so it was still difficult to earn big money.

"That's because you're too naive. Am I that kind? If he really bought it, then so be it. If he's finished with his experiment and doesn't plan on buying it, then I have other methods to use." Wu Tian already had victory in his grasp, so he wasn't afraid of this problem at all.

On the way back, Wu Tian saw that they were going to pass a pretty good shopping street, so he pulled Loong Yun down to take a walk.

He hadn't had a good rest during this period, and now that he had this opportunity, Wu Tian didn't want to miss it.

Loong Yun was still a little nervous as she was afraid of encountering danger in this place.

To be honest, the previous few attacks had made these people feel like they were going insane.

They were always afraid that someone would suddenly attack them.

"You don't have to worry about that. If the two of us were to enter the crowd, we would just be ordinary people. No one would know us."

Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun's expression and tried to persuade her.

"I'm not nervous, I'm usually like this." Loong Yun would never admit her fear.

Of course, Wu Tian had nothing to say to that.

He excitedly walked down the street.

This sort of place would often have many people lining up by the roadside from day to night. It seemed that business was already doing quite well.

Wu Tian walked over with interest as he noticed that there seemed to be a milk tea shop nearby.

There were already quite a few people lined up in front of them. They had no idea what was so amazing about this thing that could make people fall in love with it.

"Loong Yun, have you heard of this first class milk tea?" Wu Tian has often heard of some online red tea shop recently.

Many people loved milk tea, but he could not see how these shops could be so amazing.

Loong Yun shook her head. Other than the fact that her gender was female and she usually wore female attire, she didn't like what normal girls liked at all.

"What? None of you have heard of it? "You guys might not know, but this thing is really popular online right now. I see that everyone in my circle of friends is drinking this stuff."

A young man on the side seemed to have heard the conversation between Wu Tian and Loong Yun, so he wanted to have a chat with them.

"So you've had this milk tea?" Wu Tian was curious, he also wanted to know what kind of mentality everyone had.

The young man shook his head, "Of course I haven't. This is my first time here, I just need to experience it. I don't actually like drinking this kind of thing."

His words were very direct, and could be said to be simple and crude.

"Hahaha, there is actually such a thing..." Wu Tian also felt it was funny. People nowadays seemed to have completely different attitudes. This was something he didn't expect. Following the trend, following the tide has become a guideline for some people.

It had to be said that this was a bit stupid.

"President Wu, look over there, it seems like someone is selling this." Loong Yun looked at the signboard of the tea shop. It seemed to say something about joining a union.

Wu Tian also knows that, it's just joining his brand and setting up a similar store.

This pattern was quite common, but he didn't know how effective it was.

"Why don't we take a look? It's boring anyway. " Wu Tian said and walked towards the door of the tea shop.

He pointed at the joining list on the signboard and asked the owner.

At this time, a man in a suit and leather shoes was sitting inside the tea shop, drinking something. Hearing Wu Tian's question, he stood up and walked towards him.

"Hello, were you interested in joining us just now?"

Wu Tian looked at this person and immediately knew what he was doing. He was dressed in a suit and looked like a pair of leather shoes. He was clearly a salesman.

Honestly speaking, Wu Tian didn't like people like this sort of people. He had a nagging feeling that people who did sales would forcefully chat with him for free.

This made Wu Tian very annoyed. But after he became rich, he basically never saw such a thing again.

"It's nothing, I'm just asking."

Wu Tian quickly waved his hand. He was afraid that the salesperson would pester him, so he was like a slug who couldn't get rid of him.

"This is great! I am the promotional staff for our first grade milk tea!" If you are interested in opening such a shop, I can introduce you to our store. "

Wu Tian's worry became reality. This guy was really a salesperson for this joining brand.

He looked at Loong Yun. Originally, he had hoped that Loong Yun would be able to help him out, but she had stood aside and pretended not to see anything.

Loong Yun couldn't count on it anymore, so she had to do it herself.

"Then tell me, what's your advantage?"

Thinking that he had nothing to do, Wu Tian decided to listen to what this guy could say.

If he could really make money, this small amount of money wouldn't be a problem for Wu Tian.

"This joining brand of ours can be said to have very little investment and a very low threshold ..."

When Wu Tian heard this, he started to have an idea of what this thing was.

"I have never come into contact with this field. If I join your store, will I fail?"

The salesman quickly shook his head, "Of course not, you don't have to worry about that. We have long done this for you. "Right now, our alliance can have zero foundation."

Heh, Wu Tian felt it was funny.

Joining this store didn't require any skill, money, or experience.

To put it bluntly, there was still something fishy going on.

If there was such a good thing, Wu Tian would be the first one to be willing to do it.
