

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 881 - The Truth about Joining the Alliance

C881 The Truth about Joining the Alliance

If there was such a good thing, Wu Tian would be the first one to be willing to do it.

Although Wu Tian had already treated this matter as a lie in his heart, he still pretended that he didn't know anything and told the young man to continue explaining it to him.

"So, this thing is that as long as I can invest 50,000 yuan and rent a shop, I will be able to do the same as this store. Is there such a good business?"

Wu Tian's tone was full of surprise, as if he was someone who had just entered the city to gain experience.

"That's right, that's right. As long as you choose our brand, we definitely won't be wrong."

Sales also said the blood was boiling, making everything seem like it was the truth.

"Alright, how about this, I'll write a white slip for you, it's considered a loan. Can you help me pay up first, and if you succeed, I'll return it back double to you."

Wu Tian was full of smiles. At this moment, he was already planning to tease this guy.

"This doesn't seem like a good idea ..." Our company really doesn't seem to have this business... "

The salesman seemed to be considering the question seriously, but this was the first time he had met someone who would say so.

"If there isn't, then forget it. I'm just making this request. However, I don't think that you guys have much of an interest in joining this alliance, and I don't feel like there's anything that would catch my attention. "

Wu Tian showed his unwillingness, which made the salesman excited.

"Boss, you can't put it like that. Doing business is a loss and a gain. Our method of joining the alliance is only to help you clear away some of the obstacles in your path. It can't be said that we completely replace one of your abilities."

Wu Tian snorted coldly in his heart after hearing what the salesman said. He said everything.

"That's fine. Seeing that you're working so hard, I'm willing to join. However, you must tell me, what are the things that I need to prepare?"

Wu Tian felt that just saying these things was not enough, so he proposed the conditions for him to join the alliance.

If this thing were to be said, it would definitely excite this salesman.

"It's very simple. Our joining fee for this first grade milk tea is 50,000 yuan, and then you need to rent a shop with an area of no less than 30 square meters. The decorations must be done in accordance with the specifications set by our company."

Something fishy was already happening inside. Wu Tian was no fool. He already knew that Wu Tian had been doing business for a long time.

"So you're saying, it's impossible to open this milk tea shop with only 50,000 yuan?"

Wu Tian's face was full of surprise, because their promotions just now said that they opened a milk tea shop with fifty thousand yuan.

"Sir, you are joking again. Our fifty thousand yuan is only for joining. The other expenses are not included in it. I hope you can understand."

Wu Tian stood up and waved his hand. He pointed at the salesman and said loudly, "You are cheating! This is clearly written on it. In the end, you told me to increase the money. If that's the case, then why did you all need to advertise in such a manner? "

The salesman did not expect Wu Tian to shout so loudly all of a sudden, causing the surrounding people to look over.

He quickly stood up and comforted Wu Tian with a terrified expression.

"Boss, I don't actually know a lot of things. This is how our company rules and regulations are, I can't do anything about it ..."

He was simply a scapegoat, and this had nothing to do with him, nor was it written by the salesman.

"I don't care! This is false propaganda! I'm going to sue the company! "

Wu Tian said as he pretended to leave. The salesman had never seen anything like this before, so he was a bit confused.

He rushed over to stop Wu Tian, but he didn't know what he should say to Wu Tian.

Seeing him like this, Wu Tian only felt that it was funny. He dared to come out and sell at such a level?

You are all liars, joining any guild is just a lie, don't think that I don't know, the joining fee is fifty thousand yuan, and you still need to decorate some other stuff, don't mention fifty thousand, I think even adding a hundred thousand yuan wouldn't be enough to open this shop.

Wu Tian's argument immediately won the approval of the people around. Some people might really be tricked by their promotions if they didn't understand the situation.

If I really paid 50,000 yuan, then if you don't rent out the store and don't renovate it, then you definitely won't be able to get back your joining fee.

This was like going up a mountain. After taking the first step, one must follow one step at a time. One simply could not turn back.

"Boss, I was really wrong. Just pretend that I never said anything about it!"

The salesman quickly packed up his stuff and didn't dare to stay here any longer. He realized that he was just chatting with Wu Tian, this guy didn't play by the rules at all. If you say you don't want to, then don't. There's no need to undermine others' reputation, right?

The reason why they were able to emerge one after another was because there were always some people who wanted to earn money simply to believe in their words.

However, the result was that each of them pushed him into a pit of fire.

How could anyone share something that could truly earn money with others? It was obviously an impossible thing to do.

Seeing the salesman leave dejectedly, Wu Tian suddenly had some thoughts in his mind.

Speaking of which, there really didn't seem to be a professional franchise company that would do such a thing. Most of them were lies.

No one would be willing to take out their ability to make money and share it with everyone.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian suddenly felt that he could do it himself.

In any case, with his Wu Group company's strength, making a brand of milk tea was naturally not a problem.

As long as they could bring out some good products and gain everyone's approval, they could naturally promote all of these things by joining the guild.

At that time, Wu Tian wouldn't need to pay any joining fee. Wouldn't it also benefit the working people?

The most important point was that Wu Tian only needed to inject a little bit of capital, he might be able to gain the goodwill of a large number of people.

With such support, the resistance of Wu Tian would be much lower in the future.

After making up his mind, Wu Tian quickly called Loong Yun over and told her the idea.

Loong Yun rolled her eyes.

Wu Tian really can do whatever he wants... There was only one thought in his head every day, and he did not care about the busy work of the people below.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 882 - Do Charity

C882 Do Charity

It was really an order from the higher-ups that their subordinates would be exhausted to death.

It could be said that the people from Wu Group company had deeply experienced this recently.

Among them, the one who suffered the most was Wu Zaibin.

Previously, Wu Zaibin's weight could be considered quite big, he looked just like a chubby boy.

However, right now, this fellow should have lost several dozens of kilograms of weight from all his work ...

According to him, Wu Zaibin can apply for a weight loss club to ensure that members can lose weight.

"President Wu, I feel like you shouldn't make such a casual decision."

Loong Yun said plainly. It was not that she did not believe Wu Tian's words, but she felt that he did not understand the main point.

Putting aside the issue of funding, this matter did not involve much money, but manpower was a big problem. Loong Yun had no way to provide the support for this matter.

"It's alright. I feel that this matter is pretty good. We did a good deed and others have benefited from it."

Wu Tian still hadn't realized the seriousness of the situation and was still lost in his beautiful imagination.

Loong Yun sighed and left the place with Wu Tian.

"That's why you don't know anything at all. Our current funding problem has not been completely solved. If we randomly randomly open a new project, it will consume a lot of money." And our employees have only reached a limit and can no longer be increased.

"It's already this serious?"

Wu Tian was a bit surprised. He thought that they were short on funds, but now, even their human resources were starting to be short.

If this situation continued, they would soon be unable to expand any further.

The size of the company will also be limited to this.

"What should we do? We can't continue like this!"

Wu Tian scratched his head. He had expected something like this to happen, so he specially prepared the institute.

He just wanted to be able to provide him with some good talent from there, but the research institute was mainly focused on the space department.

Or some other technology department. Wu Tian really didn't think about this at all.

"Right now, we don't have the funds to recruit anyone, so we need to temporarily suspend all new projects!"

Loong Yun's words could not be denied. She firmly rejected Wu Tian's request without any hesitation.

"How about this, if you don't want to, I'll find the funds and people."

Wu Tian did not intend to end these projects like this. The lack of money was easy to solve.

"That's what you said, Wu Group company cannot give you any help!"

On the contrary, Loong Yun started to argue with Wu Tian. Since that's the case, everyone wanted to see if Wu Tian could do it without the help of Wu Group company.

The two of them rode the car back to the Wu Group Tower.

After Loong Yun left, Wu Tian sat in his office, thinking about the milk tea shop.

The money was very simple for him. He directly called Nangong Ying, and this matter was solved.

Nangong Ying's funds came from Nanhe Securities Corporation, so it had nothing to do with Wu Group company.

What was left was to find an employee. Although Wu Tian wanted to make milk tea, it could be said that he didn't understand anything about it.

He even asked Shen Xue for help. However, because Shen Xue was busy with the matters of the hotel, she was completely powerless.

Let alone teaching him, she didn't even have the time to take a look.

It was obvious that this was arranged by Loong Yun on purpose. She just didn't want Wu Tian to get any help from the company.

However, he needed to be flexible in response to specific circumstances.

Since he couldn't get through here, Wu Tian started on another path.

He called Blanche, and when he told her about this, she sent two people over.

Although the two of them were actually there to monitor the execution of their orders, Blanche said that they could help Wu Tian prepare the milk tea shop as well.

One had to know, Blanche was a princess of Char Country, and they were people from genuine Western powers. Milk tea, afternoon tea and the like. They were all very familiar with these kinds of things. Their things could not be any more authentic.

Naturally, he didn't need to worry about the quality and level of the items they would create.

After getting a clear understanding of this milk tea shop, Wu Tian went to prepare for this matter boldly.

Of course, he even spent some of his money to ask Wu Zaiyao to give them an exclusive interview in order to create the heat.

In an instant, the entire web started to churn again. No one would have thought that Wu Group Corporation would suddenly develop such a business ...

This is totally contrary to their earlier claim to pursue the idea of high technology...

After all, there was nothing high-tech about milk tea.

The matter was getting bigger and bigger, and there were even quite a few reporters surrounding the Wu Group Building, wanting to interview Wu Tian for his thoughts.

This gave everyone a shock that was even more exaggerated than the shock they got when he announced that he would take the high-tech route.

After today, the people that Blanche arranged for had already arrived at the Wu Group Building. Wu Tian specially invited them to his office.

This time, both men and women came, led by one of Blanche's personal maids.

Wu Tian felt a sense of familiarity just by looking at it. This was because he had met them before on the small islands in South Asia.

"What's your name?"

Wu Tian asked politely as he looked at Blanche's personal maid in maid attire.

No matter what, they were originally guests, and there was no difference in status or status between them in the China.

"You are too polite, you are a friend of our Miss, there is no need to address us respectfully."

The personal maid was also very polite and quickly responded to Wu Tian's words.

"You can't say that. I've heard that you're very good at this aspect of black tea, so I'd like you to show it to me. "

Wu Tian had been looking forward to it for a long time. He had long since heard that their Char Country's black tea was renowned throughout the world, ordinary people simply wouldn't be able to drink the genuine royal black tea.

The personal maid took out an exquisite set of tableware from the box she carried with her. Then, she borrowed the hot water from Wu Tian's office and started to operate the tea brewing method.

It had to be said that the brewing of the tea was extremely graceful. And when the black tea was brought to his mouth, the fragrance he smelled was unprecedented.

With these skills, he could open a milk tea shop without any problems.

C883 It Is Easy for Her to Do This

With these two skills, she could handle the matter of the teahouse with ease. There was no problem at all.

Wu Tian was very satisfied and immediately decided.

"Very good, you can stay here and help me open a milk tea shop!"

The maid looked calm, but she didn't reject Wu Tian.

After all, the purpose of her visit this time was to help Wu Tian with these things. This was what Blanche had told her before she came.

"It is my honor to be able to help mister."

The maid's expression was calm, which reminded Wu Tian of Loong Yun. The two of them had the same expression.

He was leisurely drinking, and the unfortunate salesman was dejected when he returned.

Soon, he was noticed by his supervisor. The boss was a woman in her forties. Her eyes were sharp, and any change in expression from the employees below could not escape her eyes.

It was no wonder that she was able to establish such a company. Of course, she had her own methods.

"What's wrong? What happened outside today? Or is your marketing not going well? "

The boss came over and talked to the salesman. Her tone was like a big sister caring about her brother and sister — without any feeling of disgust.

"I finally met a client today. He said that he was interested in joining us, but after I finished negotiating the terms with him, he suddenly framed me and said that we were scammers, and he said it so loudly."

This matter had left a shadow in the salesman's heart and he still couldn't understand it.

Hearing this, Sister Liu burst out laughing.

"Sooner or later, this will happen to us. You don't have to worry too much about it. You have just joined our company, so you have slowly gotten used to it. Do you have any information on this client? "

Sister Liu lightly patted the salesman's shoulder. Not only did she not scold him, she even encouraged him.

"Yes, I did. I recorded the conversation between the two of us."

As he spoke, the salesman took out a small video recorder from behind his necktie.

Sometimes, when they were talking to a client, they would bring something like this with them in order to be able to reanalyze the message left behind by the client.

He took out the memory card and inserted it into the computer. He was also going to let the other salespeople in the company see this video. In the future, they would have to be careful when meeting this person.

Unexpectedly, when Sister Liu saw Wu Tian on the screen, she immediately frowned.

However, this change in her expression only lasted for a split-second. Soon, her worried expression disappeared without a trace.

The salesmen were talking about this together while Sister Liu quietly left the office and came to a corner of the staircase.

She quickly took out her phone and dialed a number.

"Tian Wei, I found traces of Wu Tian."

When the person on the other end of the phone heard this voice, he fell silent for a moment. After a long while, he slowly said, "Find two or three people to test his abilities!"

Sister Liu quickly nodded her head. Naturally, she could complete this task. She quickly informed her companions, and they soon met at the side of the street outside.

The clothes they were wearing all looked like they were ordinary people, so they couldn't tell that these two or three people were actually the 11 Devils s that shook the world.

"Tian Ling, why did you call us out in such a hurry? I'm busy. "

He was a skinny man who didn't look very old. As he mumbled to himself, his eyes were filled with dark circles. He looked extremely sleepy. He had even yawned several times after saying those words.

"Could it be that we have a new mission?"

The voice of the other person was incomparably low, as if it was a roar from hell.

Sister Liu nodded silently and handed Wu Tian's photo to the two of them.

"I've found some clues about them. We'll be staying here for a while, so he'll definitely come over."

The person who really wanted to sleep was called Di Gu. The other person with the low voice was called Di Yin.

And the code name of Sister Liu was Tian Ling, they were all members of 11 Devils.

Sometimes they don't spend much time together. Separating would only make it easier for them to conceal their identities.

"Are you sure? Let's hurry up and capture him, then we can report back to the Sect Leader. "

Di Yin couldn't take it anymore. Living in such a big city was a type of torture for him.

"If that's the case, you can do whatever you want. However, don't disturb my rest ..."

Di Gu's intention was simple. He could do anything as long as no one disturbed him during his rest. If Di Gu did not wake up from his sleep, Di Qing's temperament could be said to be extremely irritable. When he was really angry, perhaps, other than Tiangaang Disha and himself, the remaining nine people in the 11 Devils would not be able to do anything to him.

"That's not what I meant alone. I've already talked to Tian Wei about this, and he also asked for it."

Sister Liu said calmly as she led the two of them to the milk tea shop.

She stopped the car at the side of the road and waited quietly for Wu Tian to appear.

Actually, it couldn't be said that they were waiting for Wu Tian to appear. They were probably hoping for Wu Tian to appear — hoping that Wu Tian would come here again.

Sure enough, they didn't have to wait long to see Wu Tian's figure again.

However, this time, Wu Tian didn't come alone. Instead, he brought along the servant girl that he borrowed from Blanche.

Of course, when she came out, she wasn't wearing a maid outfit anymore, but a set of casual clothes instead. She looked very nimble.

It was not common to see a beauty from a foreign country appearing on the streets. Immediately, many people surrounded them, looking at the maid beside Wu Tian from head to toe.

"Try this milk tea of theirs. I actually just want to make this milk tea."

Wu Tian's demand wasn't too high. He also knew that the demand for high-end drinks from the masses wasn't high. Most people only needed this milk tea.

Therefore, he didn't want to open a milk tea shop and end up with all high-end black tea ... This is not conducive to promotion at all.

The two of them went straight to the queue and started chatting at the same time.

"Is that him? Should we go up and take a look? "

Di Yin's face was full of excitement. He finally saw his target, which made him feel as if his victory was right in front of him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 884 - Surround Them

C884 Surround Them

After thinking about it, Sister Liu could not let such a good opportunity slip by.

If they could catch Wu Tian here, then their mission would be completed.

Destroying Wu Group Corporation was only a matter of time.

The two of them immediately got out of the car, while Di Gu was still dozing off in the backseat.

Di Yin walked over in annoyance and pushed Di Gu.

"It's time to start!"

Di Gu's eyes were bloodshot. What he hated the most was having others disturb his sleep.

A few people quickly walked towards Wu Tian, but the person in question hadn't noticed at all that he was talking to the beauty from Char Country.

By the time he noticed it, the three of them had already surrounded the two of them in a triangular formation.

Wu Tian saw that something was wrong, he had never seen these three people before. Moreover, their auras were extremely violent. They were definitely not kind and could not be easily provoked.

"Hide behind me for a bit ..."

Wu Tian pulled the maid behind him. How could he let the girl stand in front of him at critical moments?

These people would come to him, Wu Tian did not expect it. However, since it had already happened, he could only accept it.

"What do you want?"

Wu Tian's expression immediately turned cold as he started to adjust his breathing.

If it was possible, Wu Tian didn't want to get into conflict with these people.

The wounds on his body had yet to completely heal. If he fought with these people, he might not be able to gain any advantage over them.

"Come with us obediently. We don't want to use violence in front of all these people!"

There was ferocity in Sister Liu's eyes. Anyone could tell that she wasn't joking.

Wu Tian carefully sized up these people. Their clothes were all different, and there was nothing similar that could be used for comparison.

He was also unable to guess the identity of these people.

However, they didn't have any weapons in their hands. Wu Tian felt that they wouldn't dare to do anything too extreme in front of so many people. He still had a chance to escape.

"And if I can't?" Wu Tian smiled and crossed his arms as he looked at them.

Although the maid was behind Wu Tian at this moment, she also started to look serious. It seemed that there was something wrong with the situation.

"Then I'm sorry, we are not good people either!" With that, she rushed towards Wu Tian at a speed that was hard to predict with her eyes.

Wu Tian felt that his vision blurred, then he subconsciously raised his hand in front of his chest.

They hadn't thought that his attack would actually block their attack. Their movements weren't big. In the eyes of the people around them, nothing seemed out of the ordinary.

However, Wu Tian clearly felt the huge power that came from his own arm.

Furthermore, the two men beside him had yet to move. Perhaps, the three of them were very powerful. In just a split-second, Wu Tian knew that he would definitely not be able to defeat them.

"Wait a moment, don't get excited!" Wu Tian quickly took a step back and distanced himself from them.

He cautiously looked at his surroundings. Running away was unrealistic, and with their speed, they could catch one person at a time in this kind of empty space.

They could only run towards the narrower areas, where there were more people.

Wu Tian looked around. Not far behind the enemies was the entrance of a commercial building. It was just right for Wu Tian to circle around them.

"Come with us! "We'll let you go, otherwise I'll break your hands and feet and bring you back."

Sister Liu felt that Wu Tian finally recognized the reality and knew how amazing she was.

She beckoned to her two companions and prepared to bring Wu Tian to the car.

However, they didn't expect Wu Tian to suddenly charge towards them at this moment. The wind also drilled through the gaps between the three of them.

Not only Wu Tian, but that foreign beauty also ran out with him. They ran directly towards the mall's main entrance at the back.

Tian Ling was stunned for a moment. She never expected Wu Tian to choose to escape. They were really stupid. Did this guy really think that the three of them would have no other choice?

Di Gu's eyes were bloodshot as he immediately wanted to chase up and cut Wu Tian into pieces to calm his emotions.

"Wait, don't make too much noise, we aren't here to startle ordinary people." Although Tian Ling, Sister Liu also wanted to get rid of Wu Tian directly and straightforwardly, but she still knew that they couldn't cause any trouble in this kind of environment.

It would be best if no one knew of their existence. Otherwise, it would not be good news for them if the police came to their doorstep.

The three of them quickly chased after him, but at this time, Wu Tian was already nowhere to be seen. There were a lot of people inside the mall, and there were all kinds of counters and things like that.

No matter how good their eyes were here, they were useless.

"Di Yin, use your method!" Seeing that she had found traces of Wu Tian, Tian Ling did not panic. Instead, she asked her companions to show her real abilities.

Di Yin didn't say anything, but he laid his body on the ground. His nose twitched a few times like a dog and he started to sniff the air.

His ability could be said to be very suitable for use in this sort of place, and it was also a good opportunity for Wu Tian and the others to escape into the mall.

It was much easier to hide one's identity from others here than outside. Naturally, Tian Ling and the rest could use even more threatening methods.

At this moment, Wu Tian and the servant girl were hiding in a fitting room. The two of them didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

There were indeed some people outside. A few salespeople were guiding customers to look at their clothes.

Hiding here, the enemy wouldn't be able to find them, and they didn't have that many eyes.

Wu Tian was thinking like this, but under the guidance of Di Yin, Tian Ling and the others started to approach the fitting room from different directions.

When they were about ten meters away from this place, Wu Tian felt his heart palpitate.

To be honest, this feeling was not very comfortable, and he immediately realized that something was wrong.

The sound of Tian Ling's high heels was like the footsteps of the grim reaper. She walked towards him, step by step.

"Oh no, we have to escape!" Wu Tian was immediately shocked. He didn't have time to worry about that and immediately rushed out to escape.
