

C908 Be Responsible to Me

Wu Tian didn't expect this girl to be so powerful.

She actually had so many bodyguards, Wu Tian didn't even have this kind of show to put on.

"What do you want?"

The big and tall bodyguard fiercely looked at Wu Tian. His bear-like body gave off a huge pressure.

However, it wasn't that Wu Tian wasn't open-minded. In front of him, he was still not afraid at all.

"What am I doing? You guys have to be reasonable, right? He just did those things to me and then let it go?"

Wu Tian said stubbornly, looking as if he had suffered some sort of great injustice.

Perhaps she felt that Wu Tian was too troublesome, Jessica frowned and took out a portion of the cash from her bag with a look of disgust.

"Don't you want money!? Here you are! Hurry up and get the hell away from me. "

Jessica's attitude was very vile. She was sure that Wu Tian wanted to touch the porcelain.

To Jessica, threatening her because of what happened just now was nothing special.

This small amount of money was nothing to her. She didn't even blink.

A bunch of money was disdainfully spilled on the ground, but Wu Tian's gaze did not move at all.

He continued to keep a close eye on Jessica, looking at her full body full of goosebumps.

"Who told you I wanted money? Right now, I want you to explain to me exactly what it was like to kiss me! "

Wu Tian's attitude turned cold. No matter what he said, she didn't want to hear it.

Now she had to make him do it. In a sense, he deserved it.

"I think you're courting death!"

Before Jessica could say anything, the bodyguard was already annoyed. He grabbed Wu Tian and threw him into the air and viciously smashed him onto the ground.

However, Wu Tian was not an idiot. His body twisted in the air and then he wrapped his leg around the bodyguard's neck instead.

He twisted his body and knocked the bodyguard to the ground.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! A lot of things in the bar were smashed apart.

A lot of people immediately surrounded him, and the bar staff looked as if they had died.

At this moment, Jessica also seemed to realize that she had provoked someone she shouldn't have because Wu Tian didn't show any fear and was instead extremely calm and collected.

To him, it felt like it happened a lot, which made Jessica start to doubt whether she was right or not.

"Who the hell are you?"

Jessica's expression turned even colder as she frowned and stared at the man before her.

"Who do you care who I am? I'm asking you for the answer I wanted.

"Don't think too much of it, okay? I only kissed you for that fool to see, to let him give up!"

Jessica didn't care that much at this time and directly told her what she had thought at that time.

Wu Tian was still talking nonsense with her, but the crowd beside them had already started to talk about it.

Wu Tian didn't know this woman, but someone did.

"Isn't that the daughter of the CEO of the Britain Financial Group, who's rumored to be very powerful?"

"Who?"

"You don't know, it's the consortium that recently invested in Mecca Company. It's said that they are expatriates of our China."

Wu Tian's ears listened very well. He immediately understood why she looked like a China person, but her name was given a western name.

So it turned out that they were living outside the country, so it was normal for such a situation to occur.

However, Wu Tian's mind was on something else. He really didn't think that this woman was the daughter of the boss of a large corporation.

Wu Tian rarely came into contact with such things before, but he has heard about it recently.

Legend has it that this consortium was very powerful, and their funds and abilities were extremely uential in the world.

"Then who is this person? Isn't it courting death to nd trouble with this woman?"

"Who knows. Maybe he has taken a fancy to someone who has money ..."

Wu Tian had always kept a low pro le and no one would want to know why he was here, so no one thought about it.

"Let's talk outside if there's anything ..."

Wu Tian looked at the increasing number of people surrounding them. Many of them were pointing at the two of them.

Jessica felt helpless, ghting in a bar was not a good choice either.

Her father also told her repeatedly that she must not cause any trouble outside.

"Alright! Let him go and we'll go! "

Jessica nodded to the bodyguards, and they turned around and left the bar.

Wu Tian also followed, but just as he walked two steps, he was stopped by the manager of the bar.

"You can't leave! Just now, our table and those wine glasses were all smashed! "

The bar manager had a ferocious expression, as if he was afraid that Wu Tian would run away.

Wu Tian rolled his eyes at the manager. He didn't even want to pay any attention to him.

How much could such a crappy bar be worth?

"Tell me how much do you want!"

The bar manager opened his mouth as if it was something, and looked down on Wu Tian.

"You look like you don't have any money, these things should at least cost you 5,000 yuan!"

Wu Tian replied. He turned around and looked at the money scattered on the ground. There were at least dozens of them.

However, he did not pick up any of them, not even glancing at them.

"It's only 5,000 yuan!"

Wu Tian took out a bank card from his pocket and pointed it in front of the bar manager.

This bank card was black and gold in color. It was completely black in color, but there was a golden border on it.

This was the supreme member black card of the S City Bank, not something that could be obtained just by relying on money. Many people did not even know of the existence of this black card.

The bar manager stared blankly at the black card. Anyone who could take out this kind of bank card would have at least a hundred million yuan in assets.

"Tell your boss, I'll buy this bar!"

Wu Tian said coldly as he threw the bank card into his hands. Then, he turned around and left.

At this moment, the crowd, who were eating at the back, were also stunned. They originally thought that Wu Tian was a poor kid. He was there with Jessica, and he wanted to get some money from her.

But who would have thought that he would actually be able to take out such a card. Obviously, he was a top rich person.

When they walked out of the bar, Jessica and the others were waiting for them at the door. They didn't leave, so they kept their promises.
