

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 909 - Compulsory Questioning

C909 Compulsory Questioning

Wu Tian walked out of the bar. Jessica and the others were waiting at the door. They didn't leave and kept their promises.

Seeing Wu Tian walk out, Jessica immediately frowned.

The bodyguards beside him wanted to come over and give him a beating, but they were stopped by Jessica.

"Let's not be nosy outside!"

Jessica whispered. This matter was something that her father valued greatly, so she naturally did not dare to act rashly.

"Sure enough, you guys didn't leave. Come, let's have a good chat!"

Wu Tian looked like a delinquent, his smile had the aura of a scoundrel.

"Are you all right?"

Jessica was really regretting it now. If she had known that she would run into such a troublesome person, she wouldn't have gone to look for him back then.

"I don't have any thoughts. I just want to get to know you. After all, we've already done those things ..."

Wu Tian said with a smile. His words made Jessica blush.

"Shameless!"

As Jessica said this, she turned around and left. Although those bodyguards were angry, there was nothing they could do about Wu Tian and the others. They could only watch as he continued to act arrogantly.

Wu Tian didn't chase after her but watched her leave from a distance.

All of a sudden, he turned around and returned to that bar, desperately searching for something.

Sure enough, Wu Tian found the boy that Jessica ruthlessly abandoned in a corner.

Seeing Wu Tian coming over, the little boy was stunned.

"You were here before. Do you know who that girl is?"

Wu Tian went straight to the point.

The little boy looked at him strangely. Everyone had seen what happened just now.

His eyes were full of resentment and hatred as he looked at Wu Tian in annoyance.

"Why should I tell you!?"

The little boy's clothes looked very luxurious, and he probably had some money in the house. Otherwise, he wouldn't have gone to chase after Jessica.

"Whose child are you?"

Wu Tian rubbed his hands and took out his phone. He looked through it and found the names of some large enterprises in S City.

"I know Jessica did it on purpose. She wouldn't fall in love with you!"

The little boy said with a stiff neck, as if he was going to use this kind of method to defeat Wu Tian.

"What's your name?"

"My name is Li Rui Hua."

The little boy said proudly. He probably thought that if his name was mentioned, Wu Tian would run away.

"Oh, you're the young master of the Li Group."

Wu Tian casually typed this name into his phone for more information and quickly found the results.

In terms of S City, the Li Group could be considered to have some sort of power. However, compared to Wu Tian, the difference was too big.

"It's good that you know it. I'm very annoyed right now. Hurry up and f * ck off."

The little boy Li Rui Hua still hadn't realized the seriousness of the situation. He was still immersed in the shadow of being thrown off by Jessica.

"Your company's market value is around 1.2 billion, which means if I buy it forcefully, I can get it with 1.5 billion!"

Wu Tian said indifferently and slowly took out a red and black bank card.

This one was different from the black and gold one from before, it looked even more ordinary.

But this was a special design. When Wu Tian took it out, it made Li Ruihua stare in disbelief.

In the entire S City, only one person had that card, and that was the Wu Group's boss, Wu Tian. He had heard his father say this before.

Li Rui Hua was shocked at first, but then he realized that the person in front of him couldn't be related to Wu Tian, he was probably an impostor.

"Who the hell are you? Stop putting on an act here!"

Wu Tian didn't want to waste time talking to him, he walked up and grabbed the little boy's neck.

Sometimes, this kind of little kid who didn't know when to stop was something Wu Tian really hated. He might as well be more direct and use force to deal with him.

"I asked you a question, but you still don't dare to say it? Who exactly is that girl!? "

"I'll say it, I'll say it!"

Wu Tian's sudden interruption nearly scared Li Rui Hua out of his wits, so he quickly nodded in agreement.

"She's the daughter of the CEO of Britain consortium ..."

Li Rui Hua quickly said. Actually, many of those who stayed in the bar knew about this.

Wu Tian also heard something about this from the crowd just now.

"Pulitzer consortium?"

Wu Tian rarely heard of this name. However, it seemed that during the short operation on Korea, there were some foreign consortia that entered the competition, and among them was the Pulitzer Consortium.

The effect that Wu Tian had on the Korea Market was actually very limited. The real reason why Korea had sunk into depression today was because these later companies had too much appetite and strength.

They had hollowed out all their Korea in an instant.

And Loong Yun had also mentioned before, that a new batch of funds had come in from the Mecca Company. In other words, someone else was preparing to receive the Mecca Company.

Then, did the appearance of the Pulitzer Financial Group mean that the so-called boss behind the scenes was them!

Wu Tian quickly got the idea in his head, but he still couldn't get the answer.

"Do you have her contact information?"

Wu Tian suddenly said. If he wanted to thoroughly understand this matter, it might be a good breakthrough from Jessica.

"Yes, yes!"

Li Rui Hua had been trying to please Jessica recently, so he must have her phone number.

He quickly took out his phone and gave Wu Tian a cell phone number.

Wu Tian, who was very satisfied, finally let him go and left the room that Li Rui Hua was in with an indifferent expression.

At this time, Su Wenxin and the others seemed to have had enough fun and were waiting for Wu Tian in the bar.

"What just happened?"

Su Wenxin had been dancing on the dance floor the entire time. She had heard some movement, but didn't pay any attention to it.

"It's nothing, just some kids fighting."

Wu Tian smiled and did not speak the truth. Hearing his words, Zheng Taiwen instantly threw a meaningful smile towards Wu Tian.

Indeed, he could not say that he had publicly kissed a woman he did not know.

He had enough fun outside, so Wu Tian followed them back to the company.

C910 Sneaking into a Hotel

They had enough fun outside, so Wu Tian followed them back to the company.

When Wu Tian returned to his room, he found that the girls were still awake.

Liu Yueyao, Shen Xue, and the others were waiting in their own rooms. They didn't know what was going on.

"It's already quite late, why aren't you sleeping?"

Wu Tian looked at his watch. It was already 2 or 3 in the morning.

"We want to wait for your return. You've been so busy recently that we can't even talk to you."

Liu Yueyao and the others were not angry or upset that Wu Tian returned so late.

Wu Tian quickly sat down with the girls. In front of them were snacks like peanut, melon seeds, and other snacks. It was obvious that they were eating while talking.

"You guys are really considerate. However, I've been fine recently, so you don't have to worry."

Liu Yueyao and the others weren't involved in this operation. They were still in charge of their own work.

However, they had more or less heard of Wu Tian's situation.

"If we really can't do it, S City is too dangerous, we will return to Luzhou."

Liu Yueyao had always maintained this attitude. In any case, their foundations still existed.

"That's not necessarily true. Having enemies is a good thing. In this way, I will be able to more clearly know who my enemies are, and who I should defeat."

Only by having a target would he be able to make Wu Tian feel that he had improved greatly.

"Of course it's better if you have that thought. Oh right, our hotel has been frequently reserved by foreigners recently. I wonder if something big is going to happen."

Shen Xue suddenly thought of this matter and spoke it out as if it was a joke.

After Wu Tian heard this, he didn't think it was a coincidence.

"Are you from the consortium with Britain?"

Shen Xue didn't expect Wu Tian to be more than half right before she revealed anything.

"Yes, how did you know?"

Shen Xue did feel that there had been a lot of foreign people recently. When she listened to their conversation, the content inside determined that they were the executives of some well-known financial consortia.

These people had always spent money extravagantly and extravagantly. Every time they came to their hotel, they would directly wrap an entire floor full of dishes and wine, then order the most expensive dishes and wine.

"Recently, I've also heard some news about the Britain. It seems like the Pulitzer consortium has already entered the S City."

Wu Tian scratched his head. He had always been fighting against people with China, but this time he was facing a consortium with Britain, which made him feel pressured.

The amount of funds in Britain Financial Group could be said to be more than ten times that of Wu Group.

Wu Tian looked down on other small companies, but they could also look down on Wu Tian.

With such a gap, if a conflict really broke out between the two sides, the chances of Wu Tian winning were not high.

"What are they doing? Could it be that they want to be the same as Shuangxing Company company? "

Liu Yueyao was slightly surprised. Shuangxing Company had once wanted to cause a ripple within the S City. However, these companies and groups led by Wu Tian had their teeth knocked all over the ground.

Now that there was another Pulitzer consortium, who knew if they would follow in Shuangxing Company Corporation's footsteps.

"I don't know about that, but I can't let down my guard right now."

Luckily, Wu Tian had already bought all the stocks in the secondary market. That way, no matter how rich they were, they wouldn't be able to force themselves to buy it.

At least he was a little relieved about this.

"Right, their people come to our restaurant almost every day. Do you want us to think of a way to find out how they talk?"

Shen Xue suggested. She didn't want to waste such a good opportunity.

"Can you do that?"

After Wu Tian heard this, he immediately became happy. His fingers pulled back and forth on the table while his brain was working fast, imagining how to make use of this matter.

"Of course it's fine, I have the final say in the arrangements of the hotel. Actually, we don't really care about foreigners, so we don't even remember who the waiter is."

What Shen Xue said was the truth, just like how they looked at every foreigner. The foreigners looked at the China people, and more or less felt the same way, that they looked the same.

"Alright, since that's the case, how about I make a trip over myself!"

Wu Tian thought about it and decided that it would be more appropriate for him to get on the horse himself.

Shen Xue and the other hotel attendants could stay in the private room for their meals as they were prepared to serve the guests at any time.

So this is a good opportunity to find out what they're talking about.

"Alright, I'll arrange it for you tomorrow."

Shen Xue quickly nodded her head in agreement. Liu Yueyao listened by the side and raised her hand, wanting to participate.

"You don't need to go, the project at Flower Island hasn't been completed yet. This is your most urgent mission right now."

Wu Tian straightforwardly refused Liu Yueyao's request. This made Liu Yueyao unhappy. She pouted her lips and became angry with Wu Tian.

"About that, I'm just afraid that this mission will be dangerous. Right now, you'd better not appear by my side. There are enemies watching over me at all times."

Wu Tian was not joking about this matter, especially after the incident with Liu Yueyao's injuries. Wu Tian had already made up his mind that it was impossible for them to suffer such an injury again.

Therefore, Wu Tian didn't want Liu Yueyao and the others to take any risks.

"Fine, I'll wait for your good news!"

Liu Yueyao was not the kind of unreasonable person. After knowing Wu Tian's thoughts, she no longer blamed him.

Seeing that it was late, the few of them hurriedly went to rest.

After waking up on the second day, Wu Tian went to the hotel with Shen Xue.

Almost every day, the members of the consortium would come here to eat. Every time they came, they would take all the seats on the top floor.

In their words, it was for the ultimate enjoyment.

Every night, they would have to spend at least over a million yuan. It had to be said that these people were way too rich and were so extravagant.

"They'll be here around noon. Just decide what to do when the time comes."

Shen Xue got a set of waiter's clothes for Wu Tian. In order to make these people feel at ease, they even made a Western style.

Wu Tian didn't really like this kind of tuxedo and trousers, but there was nothing he could do.

Shen Xue secretly laughed while buttoning his shirt, because Wu Tian looked really comical, like a clown performing on the street.

C911 Home

As noon approached, the hotel's lobby was already filled with people.

The hotels under the Wu Group could be said to be very famous, especially the banquet that Shen Xue was in charge of.

Among them, the western cuisine was the most top-notch western cuisine service in S City, so it was unknown where the executives of the Pulitzer consortium got the information from. In any case, they had already treated this hotel as their usual restaurant.

There were about 20 people in the company. Everyone was wondering if all the executives of the company were here.

"He's here!" Shen Xue said in a low voice before taking the initiative to walk over. She was the manager here, so of course she had to go and entertain them.

Wu Tian also stood up straight, ready to welcome these people.

Amongst this group of people, it wasn't just the people from Britain, there were also some other people from China.

Maybe this was the overseas Chinese. Wu Tian stood obediently on the side without saying anything. Right now, he was acting as a waiter, so he couldn't casually interrupt.

At this moment, the crowd walked in front of Wu Tian. He suddenly felt that there was someone with a different aura.

He was also a person of China, but he didn't seem like an ordinary person. Wu Tian didn't know how to describe it, but from his body, it was hard for people to not notice him.

To put it simply, he looked like the type of person who would become the main character wherever he went. He was extremely attractive.

Moreover, this person from China walked among the people from the Pulitzer Financial Group.

"Prepare the dishes!" Shen Xue called out and their team of waiters immediately began to move.

The dishes had already been prepared beforehand and were waiting for them to take their seats.

The ten of them sat around a large table, a total of three tables.

The price of the dishes at each table was quite high. Even Wu Tian didn't dare to spend so much money on food and drinks. Such consumption was truly astounding.

"Mr. Shi, our work this time still depends on you."

A man who seemed to be the leader sat with a very conspicuous person, talking and laughing very intimately.

Wu Tian purposely moved himself closer so that he could hear what they were saying.

"Of course, Mr Zhang is too polite. We've known each other for such a long time, so there's no need to say such polite words."

The old man who had spoken seemed to be surnamed Zhang from the information they had revealed. There was probably no big question about this.

Speaking of this surname, Wu Tian immediately thought of Zhang Zerui. He didn't know if they were related or not.

However, looking at the situation now, Wu Tian couldn't believe that it had nothing to do with them.

It was indeed very complicated. However, there was one thing that Wu Tian cared a lot about. Who exactly was this man surnamed Shi?

"Haha, you're right. Right, I heard that your people seem to have been doing something lately. Will it affect our plans?"

These people seemed to be talking about these things and didn't care if the people around them would eavesdrop on them.

When Wu Tian heard them say that, he immediately pricked up his ears and tried to listen carefully.

"This won't affect them. What they do doesn't matter anymore. It won't affect them. I can guarantee that!"

The man named Shi happily agreed. This made Elder Zhang nod his head in satisfaction.

They didn't say anything useful during the meal that followed.

Wu Tian had been thinking about this all along. What was that thing they were talking about? Did these people start doing something else at the back?

Wu Tian couldn't figure out anything just by thinking about it. There was no point in doing so. It would be better if he didn't have to worry about it and studied other things instead.

At first, he thought that this matter would end like this. However, he didn't expect that a woman's figure, accompanied by several bodyguards, would appear in Wu Tian's sight.

This person was actually the Jessica he saw in the bar before.

Wu Tian didn't expect to see this girl here. He only saw her jogging and then falling beside Elder Zhang, smiling as she sat beside him.

Wait, does this mean that Elder Zhang is the CEO of Pulitzer Financial Group?

Wu Tian was surprised to discover this fact. It seemed like the information he got before was true, and the other party was indeed plotting something.

Furthermore, since their surname was Zhang, didn't that mean that this consortium was supporting them from behind Zhixing Company?

If it was really like this, Wu Tian felt that everything could be explained now.

The matter was not as complicated as he had imagined. In fact, it could be said that it was relatively simple.

It was just that Wu Tian did not expect Zhang Zerui to be so well-hidden. He never expected Zhang Zerui to have such a background.

Now that he thought about it, this guy was really patient.

Wu Tian, who originally only wanted to watch the show, was no longer happy now that he had guessed everything.

This Zhixing Technology Company was clearly coming for Wu Tian, and it was clear that it was going to compete head on with Wu Group company.

Behind Zhixing Technology Company was the Pulitzer Consortium that had entered China on a large scale. His company's cash was very tight, so when he compared them, Wu Tian did not have any advantages.

However, he couldn't do anything if this continued. He had to quickly figure out what to do next.

Luckily, he knew about the situation in time. If they really finished the conspiracy behind the scenes, Wu Tian would not know what to do at that time.

"Dad, who is this person?" Jessica looked at Mr. Shi who was talking to Elder Zhang and asked in a low voice.

"Haha, this is your cousin's old friend, you can just call him Brother Shi."

Elder Zhang introduced the two of them. This Mr. Shi's appearance immediately attracted Jessica's attention.

"Hello, Brother Shi, may I ask what do you do?" Jessica asked, embarrassed.

Such a question seemed to make Elder Zhang a bit embarrassed. He glared at his daughter rudely, as if she asked him something that he shouldn't have.

C912 Sudden Visit to the City of Louisiana

Such a question seemed to make Elder Zhang a bit embarrassed. He glared at his daughter rudely, as if she asked him something that he shouldn't have.

Mister Shi didn't feel anything bad about this. He smiled at Jessica.

"My job is more mysterious than most people can imagine."

With that said, Jessica became even more interested and kept asking questions. This Mister Shi kept playing Taiji with her, but he didn't say anything.

Just like that, the two of them changed the topic and finished their lunch.

He was still standing near the table in a daze, staring at the place where Elder Zhang and the others had been sitting.

Suddenly he noticed something in Mr. Schmidt's position.

He went closer to take a look, it turned out to be a small leather bag.

Wu Tian quickly picked it up. He looked around to see that there was no one around and was about to take it apart to take a look, but he didn't expect the sound of footsteps came from behind.

He quickly put away his thoughts and straightened his face, pretending to clean up the table.

"This little brother, may I ask if you've seen a small bag?"

Hearing the voice, Wu Tian turned around. He didn't expect that the person who talked to him was that Mr. Shi.

After such a close contact, Wu Tian was slightly surprised. However, he was no longer an ordinary person and immediately allowed his emotions to return to normal.

"Hello, is this what you were asking about?"

Wu Tian had no choice but to hand over the bag that he picked up. He didn't even have time to look inside it.

"Thank you so much, this is a tip for you!"

As Mr. Shi spoke, he took out a thick stack of money from his purse. It looked like there were tens of thousands of dollars inside.

"Sir, it's best if you take a look at the bag to see if you've lost anything. Otherwise, I'm afraid you won't have much hope to find it again in the future."

Wu Tian said this intentionally because he wanted to see what exactly was inside by Mr. Shi. If he could find out this guy's identity, wouldn't it be even better?

However, he didn't expect this Mr. Shi to not follow Wu Tian's plan. He held the bag in his hand and waved at Wu Tian.

"No, I believe it won't be lost." After saying that, he left.

Only then did Wu Tian dare to let out a long breath. He realized that he didn't even dare to breathe loudly in front of this person.

Shen Xue looked at Wu Tian's complicated expression. She didn't know what on earth he had figured out. After quickly sending off the guests, she came back in a hurry.

"What's wrong? Any gains? "

Wu Tian shook his head, but immediately followed up with a nod. He also couldn't tell if these things were really the loot.

Mr. Shi's honesty made Wu Tian very curious, what on earth was he doing? Wu Tian would never believe it, as he couldn't possibly be a normal employee.

"It's nothing. All we can be sure of is that they will become our biggest obstacle."

Wu Tian's gaze became serious and the smile on his face disappeared without a trace.

He was still thinking about this matter. On the other side, Wu Tian and the others were already considering what to do next.

"Then what should we do? Should we think of a way to make the first move?"

Shen Xue didn't know much about the relationship between the two of them, but she knew that these opponents were not so easy to deal with since they could make Wu Tian feel like he was facing a great enemy.

"I'll go back and see what I can think of. It's really been hard on you today." At this time, Wu Tian smiled at Shen Xue. He felt that there was no need to involve everyone.

It was enough for him to come to this troubled situation by himself. Shen Xue could just happily sit there and enjoy the things she was interested in.

After he came back from the hotel, Wu Tian was about to find someone to discuss the matter, but he was called away by Loong Yun.

Because underneath the company, there were actually several cars with military photos on them.

Wu Tian was still wondering if something had happened in his company that led to the army's counterattack or something.

"What's going on? Someone from the army is coming?" Wu Tian asked Loong Yun curiously. It wasn't that they didn't communicate with the military, but they never expected to come to his place on their own accord.

"It's Captain Luo Huaicheng. He was especially excited when he came. I don't know why, but he has to see you. I've arranged for him to wait in the lounge."

Loong Yun didn't dare to act rashly towards this commander of the special forces. After all, he looked very fierce.

"Alright, bring me over to take a look." Wu Tian was also a bit unsure about what exactly this guy was here for. Could it be that there was a problem with the training system they provided?

With such doubts and confusion, Wu Tian walked into the meeting room. At this time, Luo Huaicheng seemed to have gotten impatient long ago. He stood up immediately when he saw Wu Tian enter.

"You're finally here!" Luo Huaicheng's voice was full of energy, and it made everyone's body tremble. It seemed that just the voice alone was enough to make people scared out of their wits.

"Captain Luo, what's wrong?" Wu Tian couldn't help but shiver a little when he heard that. He immediately asked and didn't forget to give Ye Zichen a pretty smile.

"What's wrong?" Luo Huaicheng glared at him, with his hands on his waist as if he was a man who was coming to collect debts.

"Is there something wrong with our product?" Wu Tian asked cautiously. He couldn't afford to offend this guy.

"Your products are simply too good! I have never seen such a useful piece of equipment! "

Luo Huaicheng looked like he was here to criticize Ye Zichen, but no one thought that the words he said were praise.

"I thought something happened, but it gave me a fright!" Wu Tian quickly touched his chest. He was worried that if anything happened to the Kaleidoscope, it might cause the army to give up on their orders.

"You don't know, but in this exercise of ours, there were almost no casualties! Our superiors were shocked, unable to believe this fact! " Luo Huaicheng was so excited that he felt like jumping up and down.

At that time, he was still suspicious as to whether the item provided by Wu Tian was really useful or just fake.

But now, he definitely wouldn't have any more doubts.
