

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 942 - Debt Coercion

C942 Debt Coercion

Baili Zhenlin was also stunned by Wu Tian's question, then burst out laughing.

"Indeed, I can't hide anything from you ..."

By saying this, he was admitting that he had other tricks up his sleeve.

Upon hearing his words, Wu Tian heaved a sigh of relief. At least it proved that it wasn't a mistake for him to help Baili Zhenlin.

If he just let it go like this, Wu Tian would regret handing over the shares to someone like him.

"It's like this. Earlier on, I had left a way out. A lot of debt and bonds have been made in the company. If I were to exchange these debts and bonds for some shares, you would be able to hold a large amount of my debt. "

Baili Zhenlin slowly explained his plan. He had prepared this unconsciously, but he didn't expect it to be useful.

"Debt?"

Wu Tian didn't react for a while as he didn't understand how these things could be of help to Nanhe Securities Corporation.

"Yes, debt. If I let Nanhe Securities Corporation owe you a lot of money and now that Nanhe Securities Corporation is already Zhang Zerui's, you can openly ask him for money. "

Baili Zhenlin quickly gave Wu Tian a reminder. Only then did Wu Tian come to his senses.

"I understand!" Wu Tian couldn't help but secretly give a thumbs up. No matter how he thought about it, he couldn't think of such a move.

If this debt was very large, so big that Zhang Zerui couldn't pay it, then the only way he could do that was to sell his assets to repay the debt.

The only thing he needed to do now was to let Wu Tian gather all these debts and continuously increase the amount of the debt.

The higher the amount, the greater the pressure on Zhang Zerui.

If he was unable to hold on, he could only choose to let go of Nanhe Securities Corporation. Even his Pulitzer consortium would suffer a large loss.

This could be said to be a one stone, two birds with one stone, no wonder Baili Zhenlin was so relaxed now.

"You should have said that earlier! I'll send someone to deal with this right now! "

Wu Tian hurriedly called Loong Yun over and told her about it.

Baili Zhenlin, who was sitting at the side, smiled and said, "If we told it too early, then if others were to find out about this sort of thing, then Zhang Zui Rui would get the news and it wouldn't be that good."

Wu Tian also smiled as he knew that Baili Zhenlin was definitely not a fool. He naturally had his reasons for not saying anything.

That being said, things still had to be done. Wu Tian immediately started to raise funds and start to mass purchase of Nanhe Securities Corporation's bonds and debts.

At the same time, Baili Zhenlin also cooperated extremely well with Wu Tian, and even made Nanhe Securities Corporation owe Wu Group a large amount of money through some accounting methods.

With his and Nangong Ying's status in the Nanhe Securities Corporation, doing this kind of thing was extremely easy. They didn't even encounter any obstructions.

In just a few short days, Wu Tian had already grasped the debts of two hundred billion Nanhe Securities Corporation.

Since he had all the guns in his hand, he had to test the quality of the guns on Zhang Zerui.

Wu Tian intentionally picked a clear day, and then Security Team, and those executives of the businesses all followed him.

The convoy was very spectacular, directly heading towards the address of Pulitzer Corporation.

Ever since he became the chairman of the Pulitzer consortium, Zhang Zerui had always been the one showing the edge. He never thought that his opponent would actually come knocking on his door.

Looking at Wu Tian in front of him, Zhang Zerui could not believe his eyes. This was truly a Feng Shui cycle.

"Isn't this Wu Tian, President Wu? "Why would you be interested in playing with me today?"

Zhang Zerui was still gentle as usual, but the brutality that was revealed under his gentle face was already apparent on Wu Tian's face.

"Don't talk about those useless things. The reason I called you here today is to collect my debts!"

Wu Tian went straight to the point and did not give this guy any face. In any case, they were enemies that had long since fallen out with each other. Of course, he didn't have to care about all the disorderly rules of etiquette.

"Debt? If I remember correctly, our Pulitzer Corporation and yours probably do not have any direct dealings with each other, so why do you want to settle the score? "

"Stop talking about it there! "Since I'm here, there's naturally a reason for me to come!"

Wu Tian nodded at Loong Yun. Then, Loong Yun quickly handed over the debt in his hands to him.

Zhang Zerui was a bit confused, he didn't know what Wu Tian was up to.

He took over the debt and was immediately stunned when he saw it.

It was clearly stated on the debt paper that it wasn't the Pulitzer Corporation that owed Wu Tian money, but the Nanhe Securities Corporation that owed Wu Tian money.

The key point was that this amount was enormous, as high as 200 billion.

"How could that be? I've never heard of such a thing before."

Zhang Zerui was surprised. He glared at the secretary beside him. Logically speaking, these matters should have been investigated beforehand.

"Of course you don't know. These were originally set up when Baili Zhenlin and I were working on the project. Back then, he had no funds at all to make those lands, and they were all paid up by me."

Wu Tian was already beginning to speak nonsense. In any case, the debts were in all aspects. The key was that it was very legal and reasonable.

Thus, no matter how Zhang Zerui investigated, this money was still owed to him.

Buying Nanhe Securities Corporation, not only would he obtain his benefits, he would also get his debt. Now, this debt was transferred to Zhang Zerui.

"This ..."

Zhang Zerui started to sweat profusely. Although the Pulitzer Corporation was very rich, 200 billion was not a small burden for him.

"Hurry up and give me a quick answer. Are you going to pay me back or not! It's almost the deadline! "

Wu Tian started to press forward step by step. It was rare to get such an opportunity, so of course he wouldn't miss the chance to torture Zhang Zerui.

"President Wu, wait here for a moment, I'll be right there."

Zhang Zerui turned around and left, then turned around to convene the board meeting.

This sort of thing had to be made clear to the people on the board. Otherwise, he might even be kicked off the stage like Elder Zhang previously did.

After an hour or two of intense discussion, finally, Zhang Zerui walked out with an unhappy expression.

Wu Tian looked at Zhang Zerui leisurely and felt that it was funny.

"How is it? Have the results come out? "

Zhang Zerui nodded slightly and said slowly, "We are willing to repay this money with cash!"
