

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 943 - Small Action Start -

C943 Small Action Start

Taking out two hundred billion in one go, even the Pulitzer Corporation was starting to find it unbearable.

All of this pressure was on Zhang Zerui alone. Although he was unruly, this 200 billion was not a small amount.

However, he didn't plan on letting this matter go just like that. He still had a lot of cards to play, so of course he wouldn't fail just like that.

Watching Wu Tian and the others leave, Zhang Zerui knocked on the wall beside him in annoyance. After being silent for a while, he walked into the dark and took out his phone to make a call.

"Get them to move! I want to teach this Wu Tian a lesson!"

His voice was accompanied by a pair of vicious eyes. If others were to see it, they would definitely think that it wasn't the personality that Zhang Zerui usually showed.

Returning to the Wu Group company, Wu Tian was still happy without end.

Putting everything else aside, the 200 billion he had was real. With this much money, Wu Tian felt that he could stop worrying about the money for the time being.

It was just that this matter did not meet their expectations. They originally thought that Zhang Zerui would think of a way to discard the shares in Nanhe Securities Corporation, but they never thought that this guy would be so stubborn that he would not let go.

He would rather spend so much money to pay Wu Tian's bill than to do such a thing.

It has to be said that the total value of Nanhe Securities Corporation was only one hundred billion, but Zhang Zerui spent two hundred billion for them. He had really suffered a huge loss.

Although Wu Tian had the money, he didn't say anything about it. Otherwise, there would definitely be people asking him for the project funds.

Wu Tian passed a beautiful day. However, he didn't expect that some bad news would come out before he had enjoyed a comfortable day for too long.

Yu Naixin came to find Wu Tian early in the morning, worried.

At that time, Wu Tian had just woken up. Before he could put on his clothes, he heard someone knocking on the door in a hurry.

Wu Tian had a weird expression when he saw Yu Naixin. Normally, she rarely came to Wu Tian in such a hurry.

"What's wrong?"

"President Wu, it's bad, our place has been attacked!"

Yu Naixin was not worried for no reason, but because something big had happened.

"What?!" Wu Tian was immediately shocked and quickly followed Yu Naixin to the control room to check the situation.

It was already a mess here with people coming and going everywhere. Wu Tian looked left and right, but he couldn't find Su Cancan and Loong Yun.

"What's the situation now?"

Yu Naixin brought Wu Tian to the main hall of the control room. The central control room monitored the entire S City. In the middle, there was a huge screen, and the content was a map of the S City.

The research institute and the Wu Group Building were now marked in red.

"President Wu, last night, we had an explosion at these two places. We determined that the explosion was intentional, and now that Secretary Loong and CEO Su are handling this matter, the Security Team has started moving!"

Hearing Yu Naixin's explanation, Wu Tian finally understood why he didn't see Loong Yun today.

"That's good. Are there any injured people? We need to find out who did this attack! "

Although Wu Tian was slightly relieved, he wouldn't look down on this matter. The attack this time was too much of a coincidence. Looking at the time, it just so happened to be the night he came back from Pulitzer Financial Group's place.

Zhang Zerui must be related to this matter. Wu Tian's first thought was that this guy was doing something bad, he just couldn't find any evidence.

"We haven't received any reports yet, but it's said that the situation isn't very good. There might be some casualties." Yu Naixin's expression turned grave as she talked about these things.

Of course, she knew how difficult this matter was, but she didn't have any better ideas. She could only wait for the news from the front lines.

Wu Tian was silent for a long time before he suddenly thought of a question.

"Yu Naixin, the Security Team has already left. What should we do about the safety of the Flower Island?"

Yu Naixin didn't seem to have thought about this question and was stunned for a moment.

"The safety of Flower Island isn't too much of a problem. Our entire island is already covered with monitoring systems and every employee has an identification module on them. If someone from outside enters, we'll be able to find out immediately."

Even if they didn't have any manpower to defend, their skill level was still quite high. They could easily find the enemy just as they were about to enter.

Besides, Flower Island was a special location. It was a kilometer away from the shore, so it would be hard to enter.

"Alright, you guys continue to monitor the situation over there." Wu Tian felt that he wouldn't be able to help here, so he left this place and went to another department to understand the situation of his work.

Unknowingly, a day had passed.

Su Cancan and Loong Yun's group did not return until nightfall. It seemed like the situation over there was not going well.

Wu Tian could only pray that their mission went smoothly.

In the middle of the night, while Wu Tian was sleeping, he suddenly felt as if someone had barged in.

A sound came from the corridor, but Wu Tian didn't know where it came from.

He felt that something was wrong, so he simply got off the bed and sneaked to the door. He placed his ear against the door and quietly listened.

As expected, there were footsteps outside, but the Flower Island monitoring system didn't seem to issue an alarm, which meant that there shouldn't be any big problems.

Thinking like this, Wu Tian didn't care about this anymore. He just felt that he was a bit too worried, so he went back to sleep again.

He had not gone far when he heard a knock on the door and a sound of talking came from outside.

"Did President Wu rest?"

Wu Tian suddenly felt weird. Why would someone come to look for him at this time? He felt that something wasn't right.

"President Wu, another place was attacked!" The voice outside took a step forward and started to sound anxious.

Wu Tian, who was originally a bit worried, immediately opened the door without any fear.

At such a time, he could no longer avoid it, as the company's business was more important.
