C965 Everything Is out of Order

As she spoke, the secretary slowly walked to the S City map on the wall in Yin Rumeng's office and pointed to a certain location.

"This land belongs to our company. If Big Sis Yin is willing, our company can give you this land. Of course, give me this price."

To put it bluntly, he was planning to give Yin Rumeng a piece of land downtown for free so she could go there to build a clubhouse.

It had to be known that the central area of S City was basically a priceless market, and could not be bought with just money alone. A lot of the land was in the hands of some big bosses, who did not plan to sell it at all.

This Zhang Zerui was willing to bribe Yin Rumeng with such a valuable piece of land.

"That's great. It's better to thank you for me, Director Zhang. Since all of you are so sincere, then if I don't agree, then it would seem like I'm not appreciating kindness."

Yin Rumeng didn't say anything further. For this kind of thing, she would first agree before saying anything. If she could really get her hands on a plot of land, why not?

Soon, Yin Rumeng saw off the secretary. She quickly picked up the phone to inform Wu Tian about what had happened.

"I heard it on the phone just now. It really surprised me a little. That construction site's price isn't even as high as the land he promised you. Why would Zhang Zerui spend so much money?"

This matter actually made Wu Tian feel strange. He didn't think that Zhang Zerui was doing charity, so there must be something wrong.

"I really don't know about that, but what this secretary said should be true. Anyway, I agreed to it first, we'll see what Zhang Zerui will do next."

Yin Rumeng's idea was especially good. As long as the land was in her hands, she could do whatever she wanted. After all, these things were things that she could freely display.

As a woman, she didn't care about her reputation as a gentleman. As long as she had the benefits, it was enough.

However, what made Zhang Zerui a bit mad was that Yin Rumeng's men had left. However, the next day, a group of elderly, weak, women and children started to appear on the construction site.

Before she could be happy, Zhang Zerui had to send someone over to discuss it with Yin Rumeng.

"You're here again." Yin Rumeng looked at the secretary in front of her and laughed.

"Big Sis Yin, that's not right. We have already reached an agreement, how can you go back on your word?" As soon as the secretary arrived, he told Yin Rumeng that he wanted her to take responsibility for this matter.

How could Yin Rumeng have such a good temper? She immediately became angry.

"What do you mean, I did it?"

Perhaps realizing that he had said something wrong, the secretary quickly corrected him, "That's not what I meant. Our Director Zhang hopes that you can go and clean up these people. Otherwise, we really won't be able to carry out our project."

"You mean, you want us underground organizations to chase them away?"

Yin Rumeng rolled her eyes and said in a seductive tone.

Although the secretary was smart, he didn't expect Yin Rumeng to have so many thoughts.

"It's about the same with Director Zhang's consciousness. Just think about it for yourself." The secretary didn't seem to want to stay here any longer, so his words were hurried.

Yin Rumeng felt that she had yet to get a satisfactory answer, so she hurried to stop him.

"Don't go yet, you should explain yourself before you leave. Normally, although we do not abide by the law, we have never bullied the common people. You want us to deal with the old and weak, women and children, we have no experience ..."

Seeing Yin Rumeng pestering him, the secretary was getting impatient.

Isn't this simple? You go find someone and beat a few people in front of them. As long as you don't kill them, you can do it. Medical expenses or something, our Pulitzer has appeared!

After saying all that, the secretary felt that he had misspoken and decided not to say anything else. He turned around and left.

After Yin Rumeng sent the secretary off, she turned around and hurried into her office.

She took out a recording pen from the cabinet. She wrote down everything she said earlier and sent it to Wu Tian.

Wu Tian looked at the recording pen and listened to the contents inside. To be honest, he was a bit conflicted. This was indeed a crime in the strict sense, but it was not a big deal.

If there was no conclusive evidence, they might not care if Zhang Zerui was the one attacking.

"President Wu, Yin Rumeng is still waiting for your reply. What exactly is the matter? Is she going to find someone to put on a show?"

Loong Yun said as she poured a cup of tea for Wu Tian.

The weather outside was very clear and calm, but a thin layer of mist floated on the ground. Standing on the top floor, they were unable to see the bottom floor.

It gave off a feeling of being in the clouds.

But just like the current situation, they weren't very clear on what trump card they had.

"Forget it, let's just leave this recording pen here for now. It doesn't matter to Yin Rumeng if it's just a play." But remember not to cause any trouble. I don't want her to be a target for the police right now. "

Yin Rumeng was also an important subordinate of Wu Tian. If anything happened to her, it would be quite troublesome for Wu Tian to save her.

Strictly speaking, Yin Rumeng was after all the boss of an underground organization. There was no way to deny her identity.

"President Wu, what's next ..."

Wu Tian sighed, looked at the scenery outside the window, and slowly said: "Let's take things one step at a time. I have already forged an iron plate with Wu Group Company. It just depends on how this Zhang Zerui plans on doing things."

On the other hand, Zhang Zerui was not in a good condition right now in the Pulitzer consortium. A big problem had been defeated in front of Zhang Zerui. The Moka

Company that they had previously purchased was now in arrears due to a large amount of wages.

This amount was already several hundred million. Even for a powerful consortium like the Pulitzer Financial Group, they were beginning to have a shortage of funds.

After all, not long ago, Wu Tian tricked away 200 billion, so they don't have much cash left.

C966 Hard-handed Tactics

Seeing that his secretary finally came back, Zhang Zerui gave him an inquiring look.

The secretary quickly nodded at Zhang Zerui, which made Zhang Zerui feel a little relieved.

"Director Zhang, the Board of Directors is about to begin. Are you still not going over?" The secretary looked at his watch and started to urge Zhang Zerui to join the board.

Zhang Zerui looked at the document in his hand and rubbed his temple. He replied helplessly, "I'll start moving now."

When he moved, the secretary saw that Zhang Zerui seemed to be holding a bill of credit in his hand, which was written in eagle language.

However, the secretary knew he couldn't speak carelessly, so he kept it to himself and didn't say anything.

The board of directors was already filled to the brim with people, but the attitude and expressions of the people present were not very good. All of them had a straight face, as if someone owed them a lot of money.

"Director Zhang, before this, the matter regarding Nanhe Securities Corporation was a complete scam! Now that we don't have any money left, what do you think we should do? "

Seeing that Zhang Zerui had arrived, the shareholders immediately started to group up and attack him.

Zhang Zerui looked at them but did not say anything. His face was expressionless and no one could guess what he was thinking.

"Let's put this matter aside first. The most recent matter is the problem of the Moka Company's arrears to the salaries of the staff members. We still have several hundred million on our hands, do we need to spend this money or not?"

The secretary looked at the tense atmosphere in the meeting and hurried out to take charge of the situation.

"The company is in a critical situation right now, yet you're still considering this matter!"

"That's right. In one or two weeks, the people from Britain will be asking us for money!"

"These few hundred million is not enough to pay back the money. The two hundred billion is supposed to pay back the money, but now that you've done this, I want to see just how you're going to fill this hole!"

All of a sudden, the directors started attacking Zhang Zerui as if he was some heinous person.

"That's it? Is that what you're worried about? " Zhang Zerui smiled and slowly stood up.

His voice was very low, as if it came from the coldest hell in the world.

Zhang Zerui started pacing in the meeting room as he spoke, occasionally touching the chairs of the board members.

"If people do not think about the future, they will definitely be troubled. Furthermore, have you forgotten why we came to the China? Aren't we just here to hide our debts? "

After Zhang Zerui said this, the group of people that were just getting excited also stopped talking.

Zhang Zerui sneered, then continued to speak without mercy: "Originally, all of this is not my problem, did I owe the one trillion yuan of debt on the Pulitzer? That's not right. Moreover, this two hundred billion was originally money I brought from Zhixing Technology Company, right? This money has nothing to do with you. "

After he finished talking, the directors became more and more speechless. For a moment, no one dared to speak, because they felt a faint murderous intent from Zhang Zerui.

"And what do you intend to do?"

A director carefully asked as he wiped the sweat off his forehead. He was really regretting it now. He shouldn't have belittled himself just now, thinking that he could criticize Zhang Zerui.

"How did I plan to do that? This matter is very simple. Let's first repay the debt of Mecca Company. This is the most urgent matter."

Zhang Zerui didn't hesitate at all in this matter. Although he didn't do well in other areas, Zhang Zerui never liked owing money to others, especially to the workers.

"Whatever you say, we will do!" The board of directors began to be in harmony, and there was no disagreement.

However, Zhang Zerui didn't seem to plan on letting this matter go.

He grumbled as he walked behind one of the people and said with a smile, "Richard, I heard that you have been doing something that you shouldn't have done recently."

The board member who was called immediately felt cold all over, trembling like sieve chaff, because Zhang Zerui's voice was like a demon that wanted him dead.

"No, no, no. I didn't do anything. I didn't do anything."

Richard quickly tried to defend himself, but Zhang Zerui's eyes were filled with disdain.

"Is that so? Then how come I heard that you took the company's money to buy an island in Britain? "

Hearing Zhang Zerui's words, Richard began to tremble. He never thought that this matter would be known by someone.

This was obviously something that happened yesterday, and Zhang Zerui found out today.

"Director Zhang, listen to my explanation ..."

"No need, the Pulitzer consortium doesn't need people like you. You can hand over your shares to the board of directors." Saying that, Zhang Zerui reached out his hand to touch the side of Richard's face.

With a sudden burst of strength, he slammed Richard's face into the table with such force that blood splattered everywhere.

The huge force directly created a hole in the table, but Richard was no longer moving. There was only his brain under his head. The people on the board of directors were all speechless.

Everyone was incomparably shocked.

Zhang Zerui remained expressionless, as if he just crushed an ant, and didn't have much of a reaction.

After this incident, the directors finally remembered that other than being their chairman, this Zhang Zerui was also the Sect Leader of Tianying Sect.

And that unlucky Richard had gone too far, thinking that he could do something bad in secret and not be found out.

However, Zhang Zerui was very clear about it.

After the meeting was over, someone came to clean up the meeting room. Richard's corpse was also placed into a large bag and thrown out along with the rubbish.

All of the trash in Pulitzer consortium had their own place to handle, so this guy's body was sent to the underground combustion station along with the trash.

A clever young man noticed the package with the corpse when he was on duty. He was shocked when he opened it.

However, this fellow did not call the police. Instead, he notified someone else.

Wu Tian, who was just finishing his meal, suddenly received a photo on his phone. He opened the photo without any doubt and nearly spat out everything he had eaten.

Wu Tian nearly knocked over his table. His expression changed drastically, and the phone in his hand fell onto the table.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 967 - Self-trouble

C967 Self-trouble

Wu Tian's expression changed drastically, and the phone in his hand fell onto the table.

Loong Yun, who was near him, heard the commotion and quickly ran over to check. When she saw Wu Tian's slightly frightened expression, she felt her heart clench.

"What happened to President Wu!"

She carefully looked at Wu Tian and thought that he might be injured or something. However, Wu Tian was dressed neatly and he didn't seem to be in pain.

"That scared me to death. Who sent it to me, was it intentional?"

After saying that, Wu Tian pointed at his phone. Loong Yun picked it up and frowned.

However, when she took a closer look, she discovered that the person sent this photo was actually a spy they had sent out.

"Wait a moment, President Wu, something seems to be wrong!"

Loong Yun quickly took the phone because there was a line of small words underneath the photo.

"This was found in the Pulitzer consortium. Our people have hidden the corpses and haven't burned them yet."

After hearing what you said, Wu Tian took the phone and carefully looked at it to confirm that she was right.

"Wait a minute, I seem to have grasped something incredible!"

"If you think so! Since it was found in the Pulitzer consortium, it must be related to Zhang Zerui. "

Loong Yun nodded her head affirmatively. However, it would be hard to say how they would use this matter.

"I have to hurry and put this thing away! We need to hurry up and support them! "

Wu Tian quickly dealt with this matter. Soon, the Security Team personnel brought the corpse back from the outside.

To be honest, this matter was handled with some astonishment. After all, this was a corpse ... Not anything else.

Moreover, no one knew how Wu Tian would deal with it when he brought it back.

However, it still made people feel very unlucky.

However, Wu Tian's face was full of joy. He looked at this person's identity with interest. After some investigation, he found out that this person was a director of Pulitzer Financial Group.

Sunn Hongsheng didn't know why Wu Tian called him over. He thought Wu Tian had made some progress and ran over excitedly.

As a result, when he reached Flower Island, he was directly dragged by Wu Tian into their basement.

Seeing Wu Tian being so secretive, Sunn Hongsheng was puzzled.

"What's wrong with you? Why have you become so mysterious ..."

"You'll know soon enough."

Wu Tian didn't elaborate and instead brought Sunn Hongsheng to a corner of the Flower Island basement. There was a table placed there, and on it was the corpse covered by a cloth.

When Sunn Hongsheng saw this scene, he immediately had a feeling that it was due to his instinctive reaction to being a police officer for many years.

"This place is ..." Sunn Hongsheng's eyes were filled with surprise as he looked towards Wu Tian.

Wu Tian nodded and slowly explained, "This one is not mine, I found it."

Even though he said that, Sunn Hongsheng was still wary of Wu Tian. This was too weird.

"You better explain yourself to me later. Otherwise, I'm afraid I'll have to investigate you."

Although the two of them were on good terms, they had to be serious in this regard.

No matter how close their relationship was, it was useless. There was no point in discussing this matter.

"Don't worry, how could I possibly do such a thing ..."

Wu Tian grumbled on the side, "If I killed this person, or had something to do with me, would I still call you over? That's not asking for trouble. "

"Wait, why does this look like a foreigner?"

Sunn Hongsheng looked at the corpse carefully. Although his face was already ruined, he could still tell that there was some difference between him and the China people.

"I didn't say he's from China, so he's indeed a foreigner. Moreover it was found from the Pulitzer consortium. "

At this time, Wu Tian did not hide anything anymore, and directly told her everything he knew.

Sunn Hongsheng quickly wrote it down on the side. With his professional ability, there was no doubt about it. After getting a record, he immediately planned to go back to the unit to report about this.

However, Wu Tian stopped him, "This matter hasn't been resolved yet. I don't think the other party will leave behind any evidence. I suggest that you don't alert the enemy."

The underlying meaning of his words was that he was afraid that Sunn Hongsheng and the others would reveal something regarding their Police Station, and then expose himself.

"Our investigation is not based on evidence. Wasn't the purpose of investigation to find evidence? Besides, if it has nothing to do with you, what are you worried about? "

Sunn Hongsheng's words made sense, leaving Wu Tian speechless.

"Oh yeah, don't do anything about this, hurry up and lock this place up. I'll bring people here to investigate immediately."

Sunn Hongsheng gave his instructions carefully and then left in a hurry.

Wu Tian didn't say anything. According to his request, they formed a cordon around here.

Actually, this place was just a place to park the body, and it wasn't a crime scene.

Then, as if nothing had happened, everyone went back to their own things.

Wu Tian didn't expect this matter to bring down Zhang Zerui. After all, this person had a lot of tricks up his sleeves and there wasn't any direct evidence to prove that he was a murderer. It would be difficult to convict him.

Sunn Hongsheng was very fast. In less than an hour, dozens of police cars had arrived.

They, Hao, quickly entered the Flower Island and rushed towards the underground room.

Seeing that they were indeed on guard, Sunn Hongsheng was slightly relieved.

However, when he brought his men to the basement, he looked at the empty stage with a puzzled expression.

"No, where's the body?"

Sunn Hongsheng quickly turned around to look for the people from Wu Group company and asked Wu Tian what was going on.

However, Wu Tian didn't know that he left right away and never went back to that place.

"What did you say? The corpse disappeared? How is that possible?!"

Wu Tian also didn't believe it. He instructed Loong Yun to quickly investigate the surveillance footage on the side and found that the surveillance cameras nearby had long been destroyed.

Nothing was recorded, and things started to get troublesome. The police also shifted their suspicion towards Wu Tian.

After all, when he saw the corpse, it was inside Wu Group of Wu Group of Wu Group company, and it wasn't in any other place.

Wu Tian panicked a little. He originally thought that this would be a troublesome matter for Zhang Zerui, but all of a sudden, the trouble fell on him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 968 - No One Believe That He Have Not Do This Thing

C968 No One Believe That He Have Not Do This Thing

All of a sudden, Wu Tian felt like he had become the new suspect, because Sunn Hongsheng was looking at him with a wary expression.

"I don't know what's going on with this matter. Wait a moment, let's quickly investigate."

Wu Tian quickly gave a look to Loong Yun beside him. No matter what, this kind of thing wasn't easy to deal with, so they had to get rid of this suspicion as soon as possible.

They had to know that this wasn't a small matter. If they didn't get the truth about this problem, then Wu Tian's Wu Group company might be implicated because of this matter.

"President Wu, from my point of view, you have to properly explain this matter to us." At this time, Sunn Hongsheng was already very suspicious of Wu Tian. After all, this situation was too strange.

"I have nothing to say on this matter. If I really want to cause trouble on this matter, do I still need to find you ..."

Wu Tian was also helpless. Obviously, he didn't need to do this sort of thing the most.

Sunn Hongsheng sighed. He knew that if Wu Tian did this, it wouldn't benefit him at all, so the most important thing was to investigate the whereabouts of the body as soon as possible.

He arranged for a few policemen to investigate the nearby traces, while he, along with Loong Yun and the others, went to the main control room of Flower Island to see what was going on.

There were countless cameras up and down the Flower Island, and not only were there visible ones, there were even some that couldn't be seen.

"The surveillance cameras in the vicinity of the basement were destroyed. By the time we discovered them, half an hour had already passed."

Loong Yun had called out the surveillance cameras, but nothing had been recorded.

"Enlarge the area to the surrounding areas. I don't believe that he didn't leave any clues behind."

Wu Tian also looked carefully on the side, but the effect wasn't what he imagined. Soon, there was a new breakthrough.

"There's nothing abnormal everywhere ..." Loong Yun also felt that something was wrong, but this was the truth. Although there were a lot of people coming and going, they seemed to be normal employees.

Sunn Hongsheng crossed his arms and frowned as he looked at the screen carefully. Based on his many years of experience, he clearly felt that there was something wrong here.

"Are they all your employees? Are there any strangers among them? "

Loong Yun shook her head. It was unknown what she typed on the keyboard, but information about some personnel began to appear on the screen.

"That won't happen. Our surveillance system can detect the identity of the staff member at any time, as well as some information about his body condition, including his body temperature."

This thing looked very high-tech, but it was also required for Flower Island.

Wu Tian requested for this place to be absolutely safe. Otherwise, there would be no need to build this place.

"That's strange. The only people who might be involved in this basement and have a chance are these people, but there's no one suspicious?"

Sunn Hongsheng felt that the difficulty of the job had become a little too much.

While they were talking, another technician beside them, who was also checking the monitors, suddenly said, "Sister Long, there's a car that's acting a little strange today. When it left, it was a bit heavy!"

Upon hearing this, a few of them immediately ran over. Looking at the monitor screen, they became interested.

It was a small black car. It didn't seem like much of a deal, but as the technician had said — the car seemed to weigh nearly a hundred kilograms more than it had when it came in.

"Lock on to this car!" Sunn Hongsheng immediately shouted excitedly. If nothing unexpected happened, there might be a problem with this car!

The police began to have a new direction of investigation, so they no longer doubted Wu Tian.

However, what Wu Tian didn't expect was that not long after, Wu Zaiyao rushed over with a tablet in her hand.

"President Wu, not good!"

Seeing how anxious Wu Zaiyao was, Wu Tian waved his hand with a smile.

"Don't be in such a hurry. Slow down."

"Look at this!" Wu Zaiyao handed over the item in her hand. It seemed to be a video being played.

Wu Tian curiously opened the video and was instantly stunned.

Seeing that his reaction was abnormal, Loong Yun also went over.

She saw that one person was beating another person on the screen, and the person hitting the person was actually Wu Tian's face. Furthermore, the clothes he wore were no different from Wu Tian's.

They looked at each other, not knowing what to say.

"This video is fake. Give me the link, I want to know who purposely made it." Loong Yun immediately reacted. This wasn't a joke. Making such a video at this critical moment meant that he had something to do with the disappearance of the corpse.

Moreover, after some identification, Loong Yun had even confirmed that the person who had been beaten up was actually the face of the deceased ... Things started to get complicated and confusing.

"There are rumors about this on the internet right now and there's no way to investigate it. "A lot of netizens are broadcasting this video..."

This was what Wu Zaiyao was worried about. The situation of public opinion had suddenly turned sour, and this was something that no one could have predicted.

"We don't care about that anymore. When the news from the police comes out, these words will naturally die down. It seems like Zhang Zerui is attacking me."

Wu Tian understood the reasoning behind this. Things needed to be solved one after the other, so it was impossible for him to solve all the problems at once.

"President Wu, there's a video now..." Sunn Hongsheng, who went out to make some arrangements, quickly walked in and was about to tell Wu Tian about the video.

However, he coincidentally noticed that the video was in Wu Tian's hands.

"I've already seen it. This is fake, the person inside is not me."

Wu Tian still explained this matter.

"I know, but the police are in a difficult position now. You are already under suspicion, so the police are requesting that you not leave the Flower Island, and that you accept our investigation at any time."

Sunn Hongsheng said as he took out the restriction order.
