

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 973 - Convening of the Conference

C973 Convening of the Conference

Although Old Master Chu was stunned, he wasn't a fool. He knew how strong unity was.

"Alright, I think what you said makes sense. I'll go and contact them right now!"

Old Master's mobility could be said to be perfect. He could do whatever he wanted without any hesitation.

With his personality, he was naturally suited to doing business. Efficiency was just a tool to make money.

"President Wu, is this really okay?" Loong Yun whispered at the side.

She was also shocked at the investment these foreigners made in the Pulitzer Financial Group. However, she felt that even with so many people, they still couldn't do anything to the Pulitzer Financial Group.

After all, they were still people of the China, so it was rather difficult for them to do anything big in the Britain.

"You don't have to worry about that. This is also the biggest difference between us and them. If it wasn't for our identity, I really don't know how to cooperate with them."

Wu Tian wasn't worried at all. As for the specific development, it all depended on how they discussed it later.

Soon, Old Master Chu came back. However, he didn't bring anyone with him. Instead, he carried the two beds on his back.

"Even if all these people are gathered together, it would still take at least one or two days. So, you should stay here with me for the time being."

When Old Master Chu spoke, he was an amiable Old Master, treating everyone as if they were his own family.

Because when he said that, it was already a bit late.

If Wu Tian and co. can't get any results, then they really have to find somewhere else to live later.

"Then I'm really sorry to bother you."

Wu Tian bowed politely towards Old Master Chu.

Liu Yue felt that this was a good opportunity, and it seemed like she had nothing to do with it.

Wouldn't she be free now? No matter what, she had returned home.

"Erm, if there's nothing else, I'll be leaving first."

With that, Liu Yue turned around and prepared to leave.

However, how could Wu Tian, who was very sharp, let her run so easily? He immediately stopped her with a single sentence.

"Wait, why are you in such a hurry? Why don't you come back and live with us? If that's the case, you can act as our guide."

In front of Old Master Chu, Wu Tian gave Liu Yue more face.

Old Master Chu also nodded, "That's right, Xiao Yue, you should stay at Uncle Chu's place too. Anyway, my house is big and has a lot of rooms, so it won't be too crowded for you guys."

Since his words had come to this point, although Liu Yue was reluctant, she could only nod in agreement.

There was nothing much to say for the dinner that followed, it was all the taste of their China people. Wu Tian was born picky and ate rather well.

The only one who was slightly nervous was Loong Yun.

For the sake of safety, she had made arrangements for half a day, and those few Security Team s had also been tormented for half a day.

Fortunately, on the morning of the second day, people started to rush into Old Master Chu's yard from the outside.

They had all heard of Old Master Chu's call to come. In just half a day, they had already gathered close to a hundred people.

Moreover, the number of people was still increasing. They predicted that it would increase in the afternoon.

Old Master Chu's yard was quite large. Sitting in it with hundreds of people, it didn't make people feel crowded at all.

"So many people." Wu Tian opened his mouth wide in shock. He didn't expect so many people to be owed so much money. The key thing was that the amount of money they owed was not a small amount. It was a very large sum.

If a person had hundreds of thousands of points, then the total number of people would be astronomical.

"This is only a fraction of the number of victims like us. There are still many people in other provinces, and they won't be able to get here in a short period of time."

Old Master Chu didn't become happy just because he saw so many people, because it meant that the impact would be even greater for expatriates.

Seeing that it was almost evening, the appointed meeting time finally arrived.

Old Master Chu said a few words and talked with everyone on the stage about defeating the Pulitzer consortium. He raised the morale and quickly introduced Wu Tian.

"Today, we have a very special guest, Wu Tian."

He did not expect that the people below really knew about it. Many of the overseas citizens would often come and go between China s, so they were quite clear about the news on both sides. Wu Tian was also very famous recently.

"Isn't this the suspect who was said to have absconded?"

"What? Are you talking about that Wu Group company?"

Immediately, some people started whispering. Hearing these words, Long Yu's expression immediately became awkward. She nervously looked at Wu Tian and found that he wasn't affected by the verbal attack at all.

"Just as everyone has guessed, I am Wu Tian, the chairman of Wu Group company. I am also the suspect that you all are talking about. I might as well just tell you all this, the reason why I suffered all of this is because the current chairman of Pulitzer consortium created it for me. "

Wu Tian cleverly explained what happened to him and these people. After he finished, he and the rest of the people below were all victims.

"What, so he's like that too ..."

"This Pulitzer consortium is really a devil. They are really harming people!"

The direction of public opinion changed very quickly. This was within Wu Tian's expectations.

He had already figured out the rules of this place. People really didn't know anything, but if you wanted to take the lead, it was actually very simple.

As long as you say something that suits his interests, he will take the initiative to stand by your side.

"I called everyone here today because I wanted to know if there is any possibility of cooperation between us.

Look, you are the creditors of this Pulitzer Financial Group, but you have no foundation in the China, so if they are hiding in the China, you can't do anything about it.

As for me, although I do have some power in China, I actually do not have any weapon that can allow me to fight them head on. "

Wu Tian started to tell his thoughts step by step, as if they were partners that were compatible with each other.

He really couldn't think of a better way to work together than they did.

C974 Cooperation for Winning

However, Wu Tian's words did not have a huge impact like he expected.

However, many people became silent and did not say much.

"No, could it be that you don't want us to work together?"

Wu Tian felt that it was strange. Isn't this of interest to both sides?

"Wu, actually it's like this, before us, there was also someone who said that we should form a group and come to this Pulitzer consortium to ask for money, but who would have thought that that person would send everyone's savings away. It turns out that everything from the beginning to the end was just a scam, so they no longer have any confidence in this matter, especially towards this warm up situation."

Old Master Chu sighed helplessly at the side. Actually, this couldn't be blamed on these people. After all, they were just individuals. They would definitely be worried if they received such a blow.

"So that's how it is. I understand." Wu Tian was deep in thought. He started to wonder if there was any other way.

At this moment, little girl, who looked to be in her teens, suddenly stood up from the stage and stared at Wu Tian with her big eyes.

"Uncle, can you really make this company pay us back?"

Wu Tian heard the voice and felt that little girl was quite cute. She was still young, but she could actually understand these things.

"I can't guarantee you that. little girl, where are your parents? Why aren't they here for you?"

When he said this, Wu Tian's smile suddenly disappeared because he saw tears at the corner of little girl's eyes. At this moment, she started to cry.

"What happened to you?"

Wu Tian thought he did something wrong or scared little girl.

"Her parents committed suicide a few months ago. Because the Pulitzer consortium didn't return the money, they didn't have the means to live. They had to work a few jobs by themselves. The pressure was too great and they died." Old Master Chu explained in a low voice on the side, while his eyes were full of sadness.

After all, they were all overseas Chinese, and in the end, they all ended up like this. What did this little girl do wrong? What was she supposed to do?

"Alright, I understand." Wu Tian jumped down from the stage with a serious expression. He squatted in front of the little girl and helped her wipe her tears.

"Don't cry, uncle promises you. I'll definitely get this money for you!"

Wu Tian's words seemed to ignite a fire, causing everyone to set their sights on Wu Tian.

Wu Tian also started to scan the entire venue with his eyes. He found that the situation with this little girl was probably more than just one case, because there were still some children from other grades who weren't that old, as well as the older ones.

They all had worried looks. It was obvious that this incident had dealt a huge blow to them.

"Everyone, if you are willing to believe me, I hope that you can lend me your power. To be honest, this matter is of course beneficial for me. I can only say that since I moved to Pulitzer Financial Group, I don't have to be on tenterhooks every day. However, I still hope to be able to help you. "

To Wu Tian, money was no longer attractive. It had purely become a tool to maintain and develop the company.

Wu Tian's words were very touching. At the beginning, there were some people who were skeptical of Wu Tian's identity and motive, but now, that worry was lifted.

"These are not the problem, it's just that Wu, what is your plan? What do we do next? This is useless if you want to prosecute. Each of us has a stack of court documents in our hands. But in the Britain, whoever's lawyer was powerful would have their own methods. However, after such a long period of time, we have won and we have lost. The only similarity is that this Pulitzer consortium did not pay back the money they had lost. "

To put it bluntly, going by the law was beneficial to the Pulitzer consortium.

"There are no mandatory authorities. Let's see if they can supervise this matter."

Wu Tian felt that the Britain must have a body in this area. Otherwise, it wouldn't be a country.

"Of course there is, it's hard to put into words. The people controlling these organizations are all white. Not only did they not receive any losses from Pulitzer consortium, they even earned a lot of money."

As a result, they would never make a decision to benefit their people. That was the main reason why they hadn't made any progress in such a long time.

After thinking about it, Wu Tian felt that this matter still couldn't be handled from Britain, and had to be handled from China.

After all, he was not a citizen of this place. Furthermore, these expatriates had been plowing here for so many years, yet he had no other choice.

"This way, I have a new idea. We might as well set up a company, gather all the bonds together and become the shareholders of this company. Then, we can use this company's name to go to China to ask for money."

At this moment, Wu Tian suddenly had an idea. This way, on one hand, they wouldn't need to spend money, and on the other hand, they could gather their strength.

After all, a person's bonds are very small relative to the total.

By gathering his strength in this way, he would be able to easily find them and force them.

Old Master Chu was the first to nod in agreement, "Alright, this is a good idea! We will claim the shares with bonds! That way, we can even trade it. If you don't want to do it anymore, you can also see if you can sell this stake to someone else. "

This was equivalent to killing two birds with one stone. He could also attribute these scattered bonds to form large bonds.

This way of speaking would naturally have more weight.

"That's right. Moreover, I will be the one to pay for all the operating expenses of this company. You don't need any investment." Wu Tian's words completely dispelled their worry. After all, wasn't that what these people were afraid of? If Wu Tian wanted money from them, then it would be no different from that swindler.

"Alright!"

"We are willing!"

The crowd below immediately cheered, as if they had already seen the light of hope. Even though it was already sunset, for them, dawn was about to arrive.

C975 Means

Even though it was already sunset, for them, dawn was about to arrive.

The statistics and collection of bonds were already progressing very quickly, and the establishment of the company did not take much time.

With Wu Tian's strength and Loong Yun's work efficiency, this task was very easy and easy.

Everything was developing according to Wu Tian's current situation.

Old Master Chu didn't expect Wu Tian to be so powerful at the beginning. This time, he didn't come to play around and let it go, he really wanted to have a good fight.

"How is it?"

At night, Old Master Chu came to their room. There were files everywhere and he was busy.

Even Liu Yue had been captured to become a strong man. One could only imagine how serious this matter would be.

"It's just that it's more complicated, everything else is still fine." Wu Tian didn't even raise his head. At this moment, he was completely focused on what was in his hands and was working seriously.

Old Master Chu nodded. He didn't walk in. If he couldn't help, it would be a waste of time to go in.

Hearing that Old Master Chu was leaving, Wu Tian suddenly raised his head.

"Old Master Chu, please wait a moment. I have something to discuss with you."

What can I do for you? Old Master Chu was surprised, but he happily accepted it.

"Speak. What is it? As long as it's something that I can do, I will definitely help you."

Wu Tian nodded. He remembered the crying girl in front of him again.

"It's like this, I think some of us are really having a hard time. I don't want me to just pay for their bonds, that way they can relieve the pressure, and with the bonds in my hands, everyone should be able to trust me more."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Old Master Chu was filled with emotion. This was an outstanding young man. No matter where he was, Wu Tian was definitely capable of accomplishing something.

"You're the first person I've ever heard say such a thing. Alright, I'll do it for you! I will select some truly difficult people! " Old Master Chu patted his chest and took responsibility for this.

Seeing him leave, Loong Yun quickly ran to Wu Tian's side.

"President Wu, why did you decide not to discuss it with me!? Don't you know the difficulty? "

Loong Yun was furious. Originally, they didn't have much pressure on Wu Tian when they were in this situation.

Because he didn't lend any money to the Pulitzer Financial Group, even if he failed, it wouldn't hurt Wu Tian much.

Therefore, Loong Yun felt that it was the best choice for them to organize the business. However, Wu Tian wanting to buy the debt at this time was equivalent to bringing trouble to themselves.

"About that, we can't do things that way ..." Wu Tian felt that it was nothing, he couldn't possibly stay out of this matter.

"Our funds have never been enough!" This was the reason why Loong Yun was so stingy. If they had enough money, Wu Tian would say whatever he wanted, and no one would say anything.

"Didn't I get 200 billion just now ..." Wu Tian's face was full of shock. They shouldn't have invested that much recently, so it was impossible for them to have spent all of their money.

Loong Yun snorted, then said snappily: "Otherwise, do you think that just the expenses of Security Team alone is an astronomical figure? Not to mention that they have recently started upgrading their new equipment, Su Cancan directly asked for my budget for this matter ..."

Wu Tian was shocked. There was actually something he didn't know in this company ... However, if this was the case, wouldn't things become a little troublesome?

He had already said it. If Wu Tian really did not have the money to sell this debt, then he would be done for. Then, the trust he built up with great difficulty would collapse.

"Then what should we do?" Wu Tian couldn't calm down anymore.

Loong Yun massaged her temples. She really didn't expect Wu Tian to make things difficult for her on this matter.

"We should still have a few hundred million that we can misappropriate right now. If we were to buy them, we would at most have this amount of money."

Wu Tian nodded. One billion is one billion, it's better than nothing.

After the day passed, people didn't expect Wu Tian to pull Wu Zaiyao over.

He formed a shooting team.

Old Master Chu looked at Wu Tian, not knowing what he was doing.

"Wu, what are you doing? Could it be that you want to interview someone from some television station?"

Wu Tian waved his hand and said with a smile, "Of course not, it's like this. I plan to make a documentary first and tell you the truth about this matter. We have to occupy the moral high ground for our public opinion at least."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Old Master Chu was also overjoyed. He began to gather people to cooperate fully.

After today's efforts, Wu Tian finally finished most of what he was doing. The rest was to go back and face this Pulitzer Financial Group head-on.

Very quickly, under Wu Zaiyao's push, a picture of a little girl participating in the conference by herself started to become popular on China network.

Everyone felt that it was inconceivable that this little girl, who was clearly only around ten years old, was so mature that she looked like an adult.

This caused quite a big commotion, and this girl was the one who talked to Wu Tian that day, little girl.

As soon as the public sentiment heated up, Wu Zaiyao immediately started to ferment and sent out many photos. It was like a stone that caused a thousand ripples. Gradually, people began to pay attention to the people living in this foreign land. They wanted to know how exactly did they live and why did such a thing happen.

Seeing that the time had come, Wu Zaiyao released the documentary she had prepared a long time ago. Immediately, it caused a huge uproar on the internet.

All of a sudden, the voices that had been pointing fingers at Wu Tian disappeared, and all the spearheads started to be aimed at the Pulitzer Financial Group that was being targeted.

When the news reached home, Zhang Zerui already couldn't eat anymore.

C976 Sneaking Employees

When the news reached home, Zhang Zerui already couldn't eat anymore.

To be honest, he didn't expect Wu Tian to use such a trick.

He grabbed the cup on his desk and slammed it down in front of him.

"Director Zhang, should we leave these matters for now?" The secretary said carefully. Since things had come to this, there was no need to think too much about it.

Their original goal was to get out of this debt. Those creditors were all people from Britain, so they normally wouldn't be affected much by it.

"Do you think this will work? Was he, Wu Tian, a fool? With this gun, he will definitely find trouble with us as soon as he returns! " Zhang Zerui was very clear that this was not the first time Wu Tian did such a thing.

Besides, both sides had made it clear to each other that they wanted each other to die.

"Then we might as well repay a portion of the debt. In that case, perhaps the direction of public opinion is still beneficial to us."

The secretary did some calculations and they actually didn't have much money left, but it shouldn't be a big problem if they acted like that. After all, they still had a few companies in their possession and they were also very important assets.

As long as Nanhe Securities Corporation and Moka Company could always give them money, then this matter was not a big deal.

In any case, there was no deadline for him to sign a repayment agreement with those people when he borrowed money from them.

Then there's a lot of room for manoeuvre.

After Zhang Zerui heard this, he did not speak but looked at the map in silence. In the end, he used his finger to tap on the table, then slowly said, "How about this, you book me a plane ticket to Britain. I'm going out for a few days."

The secretary was a bit surprised, but he still went to prepare for Zhang Zerui. Since he had such a plan, he probably had other plans.

Very quickly, just as Zhang Zerui had guessed, Wu Tian began to advertise Pulitzer Corporation's dark history as soon as he came back.

All of a sudden, public opinion on the internet turned 180 degrees, because it was clear that people liked to stand on the moral high ground and criticize others. Previously, they criticized Wu Tian, but that wasn't enough.

Just guessing. But this time was different, because the Pulitzer consortium's arrears truly existed, and Wu Tian had announced all of this to the public.

Furthermore, the joint venture that Wu Tian created had already begun operating and actively started contacting the Pulitzer consortium.

However, Zhang Zerui never came out to clarify the situation or to express any opinions. This made Wu Tian a little curious. It was obvious that the longer this matter dragged on, the worse it would be for Zhang Zerui.

However, Wu Tian still came personally. As the chairman of the creditor company, he sent a letter to the Pulitzer Financial Group to collect the debt.

Wu Tian stretched his back after the item was sent out. On the whole, he felt that the problem should not be too big this time.

He had finished his own work, so the rest depended on what the opponent was planning to do.

Wu Tian hadn't been in the company during this period of time, and coincidentally, he was free once again. Thus, he decided to walk around Flower Island and look at the situation of each department.

At this time, he coincidentally saw a small group of people hurrying away. He didn't know what they were going to do, but they were afraid of being seen by others, so they were a little afraid.

Wu Tian became curious when he saw that these people seemed to be ordinary employees. He didn't know what they were planning to do and was curious immediately.

He followed behind these people, planning to secretly see where they were going and what they were doing.

After all, there had been a case of a corpse being lost in the Flower Island before, and now, everyone was extremely wary of it.

The few of them jogged to avoid the direction of the crowd and arrived at a relatively hidden garden.

There was a pavilion in the middle of the garden, surrounded by a few trees, which served as a good cover.

"Quick, take it out for me to take a look!"

"Yes, yes, yes. We've been waiting for a month!"

"Why are you in such a hurry? I haven't told you how difficult it is!"

The few of them immediately started chattering, and at the same time, looked at the distance as if they were taking something out from their bags.

Wu Tian didn't see it clearly, so he decided to move closer.

"Let me tell you, this is prohibited goods, don't tell anyone!"

"Don't worry Old Wang, you can't trust us. It's not the first time we've met, and it's not the first time we've done this kind of thing."

"That's right, that's right. We've all been looking forward to it for so long, so don't keep us in suspense."

That staff member called Old Wang nodded. Looking at their attitudes, he felt that they were rather satisfied.

"Then after you finish reading, you should delete it quickly. Come, let's copy it."

Wu Tian was listening in confusion, but he didn't understand what was going on, so he quietly walked towards the pavilion.

These people were so focused on the items in their hands that they didn't notice Wu Tian at all.

However, Wu Tian directly put his hand on their shoulders and also looked curiously at the space between their heads.

In their hands was a very old CD-ROM with a reading machine in the middle, and they were copying the contents of the CD-ROM.

"What is it?" Wu Tian asked curiously.

"You don't even know this, how did you follow us?"

Old Wang said with a smile. He raised his head to look at the speaker and suddenly realized that there seemed to be another person among them.

"You're President Wu!"

After clearly seeing Wu Tian's face, the few of them were so scared that they couldn't even stand straight anymore. They wanted to flee in panic.

However, how could Wu Tian let them succeed so easily? He stopped his body and said angrily: "Don't run, come back here!"

Hearing Wu Tian's words, the others immediately stopped moving and returned in anger with their heads lowered.

The few of them stood in a row, not daring to speak.

"Tell me, what is this thing?" Wu Tian pointed at the disc in the middle of the small stone table. He was very curious, if it was a normal thing, they wouldn't hide it like that.
