

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 977 - Mysterious Master

C977 Mysterious Master

Old Wang and the others trembled. They knew that something terrible was about to happen, but they had no choice but to explain.

After all, they didn't want to lose their jobs in Wu Group Company because of this. After all, the treatment Wu Tian gave them could be said to be one of the best in the country.

"We really didn't know about this. All of these things were brought by Old Wang ..."
Seeing that Wu Tian's gaze was directed at them, the rest of them wanted to shirk their relationship, but the result made Old Wang depressed.

"Traitor!" Old Wang's lips moved. Although he did not make a sound, the shape of his lips was still very obvious. At this moment, his friends knew that they had said something wrong and shrunk their necks – they were a little embarrassed.

"Enough, stop fighting. I don't plan to do anything to you. Tell me, what exactly is this?"

Wu Tian waved his hand with a smile. He felt that these people were too sensitive. They must have felt like he was a bad guy and wanted to dismiss them all.

"President Wu, are you serious?" When Old Wang heard Wu Tian's words, his courage also started to increase.

"Really, as long as this thing of yours doesn't affect the company and isn't illegal ... I can still forgive you. "

Wu Tian nodded. This was a small matter, he wouldn't use this reason to expel them.

In other words, he had never taken the initiative to fire any of his employees, unless he made an irreparable mistake.

"The truth is, we all like the supernatural phenomenon. However, this kind of thing is very rare. The related information is very hard to find, so we used a lot of methods to find this disc."

Old Wang briefly introduced the origin of this disc, which made Wu Tian a little disappointed. He had been looking forward to it for so long, but it turned out to be for this reason?

"Do you have to care so much about a disc..."

Wu Tian was speechless.

Old Wang said somewhat embarrassedly, "You don't know that Secretary Long has a rule stating that all materials that do not conform to our company's rules are not allowed to be brought in. However, we can't help but want to see these things."

At this point, Wu Tian felt that there was nothing left to say, "Don't worry, open this thing up and let me see what's inside."

Seeing that Wu Tian didn't seem to be angry, the employees started to relax a little. They put the disc into the player and pressed the button.

Soon, a scene from the wilderness appeared on the screen. It seemed to be a video taken by some sort of recorder.

"What's so strange about that ..." Wu Tian mumbled and felt that this didn't matter.

Wu Tian saw the screen suddenly start to move. It seemed like something flew over from inside and disappeared in a flash.

"Wait, did something go by just now?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. Even with his eyesight, he couldn't see what had happened clearly.

Old Wang couldn't help but admire him as he pressed the pause button.

"President Wu has good eyesight. Back then, I had to look at it several times before I could see it clearly."

With that, he slowed down the speed of the broadcast and began to replay the scene very slowly.

This time, it was Wu Tian's turn to widen his eyes.

That was because the person who had flashed by was clearly a person.

The man's speed was so fast that the naked eye could not see him anymore. He could only feel a shadow of something through the waves of the trees and flowers.

"That's not right!" At this moment, Wu Tian suddenly pressed the stop button. He was surprised because he clearly saw that this person's shoulder seemed to be carrying something like a black bag that was as long as a person.

He zoomed in on the screen and moved closer to the screen. Observing the screen carefully, he called the others over as well.

"You guys come here and take a look, does this person carry a black bag?"

Old Wang and co. came over to take a look. They also felt that what Wu Tian said made some sense, and the more they looked, the more they felt that what Wu Tian said was true.

"Don't even mention it, it looks like there's someone inside, but this video recording device is a monitor for our outskirts of S City, this equipment is too terrible, if only the quality could get a little clearer then it would be even better."

"Coincidentally, our department has a technology that can upgrade this image through the computer!"

Wu Tian was overjoyed when he heard that. He had a faint feeling that this matter was not that simple.

"Hurry up and get to the bottom of this. This is very important to our company!"

With Wu Tian's request, these people immediately started to move. They didn't have to worry about any punishments anymore. They could be considered to have gotten a better reward for doing something wrong.

It was exactly as he had expected. One person carrying a bag, and that bag looked like it belonged to Wu Group Corporation no matter how he looked at it.

Because the top of the bag seemed to have the logo of their company.

Wu Tian had already suspected this just now, and now he was even more sure of it.

"I bought this video from a friend. He usually collects these things, so I can call him and ask where the video was recorded."

Old Wang also knew what Wu Tian wanted to ask, so he offered to help him look for clues.

When Sunn Hongsheng was notified, everyone gathered together and looked. They all felt that the case of the missing body finally had a breakthrough.

"Is this something a human can do?" Sunn Hongsheng watched the video a few times and then had a look of disbelief on his face.

To be honest, making an ordinary person believe this was indeed a bit difficult.

"The world is big and full of wonders. I finally understand why we can't find any clues. This person's martial arts is so good, he definitely won't leave any traces behind."

From an expert's perspective, Su Cancan admired this person a lot, but at the same time, she was also getting a little excited.

When she thought of how she was going to face off against such a powerful expert, she could not suppress her excitement.

C978 Effective Together

With a new lead, Sunn Hongsheng's people immediately began investigating this person in the name of the police.

Of course, Wu Tian and the others also started to investigate this person. The people who were exchanging these strange videos were also selected by Wu Tian and created a new department.

They specialized in studying this kind of phenomenon that ordinary people could not understand. Of course, many of the reasons were because some people had participated in the training to improve their body's quality. However, ordinary people did not know about it.

Even if they did, it would not be very meaningful. That was because this was not something that ordinary people could train in. They would look at other people's aptitudes more closely.

However, Wu Tian was very curious about the identity of this person and specifically went to consult Su Cancan.

"Have you ever heard of various sects and schools having such powerful experts?"

"As soon as you arrived, I knew what you wanted to ask. Qing Gong is actually something that every sect would train in, but this is the first time I've heard of someone who can practice Qing Gong to such an extent."

It could be said that Su Cancan had received a huge shock this time. Not only was she shocked, even someone like her who had cultivated since she was young was shocked as well.

As the two of them were talking, Su Wenxin and Zheng Taiwen, who had received the news, also rushed over.

Both of them were seniors, so they had much more experience in such matters.

"I'm afraid that in the entire world, only one person has this level of skill. There shouldn't be anyone from any of the sects or schools who was this powerful. I even suspect if this person is not one of us from China. "

Su Wenxin was also deeply moved. This person was definitely not an ordinary person. It was certain, but the video and photos were too blurry. She couldn't even tell what they looked like, and their bodies weren't particularly prominent either. She couldn't even tell if they were men or women.

"No, could it be that even foreigners know how to do this?" Wu Tian's face was full of surprise because from the looks of it, he seemed to be a foreigner.

Su Wenxin nodded seriously, "Of course. Those are the Ninjas of Fusang and the Assassin of Red Moon. They are all very powerful sects. Even though it is different from the cultivation of our China, it cannot be said that they do not have powerful individuals. "

Wu Tian had truly gained experience this time. He had always thought that China was the only attribute of China in the world.

Now it seemed that they really did have their own unique characteristics. However, these days, it shouldn't be common.

"Master, is there any way to find him? He must have some very important evidence on him, which is very useful to me. " Wu Tian suspected that this person was directly related to Zhang Zerui.

Su Wenxin frowned. This mysterious man's speed was so fast that it would not be easy just to find him, let alone subdue him.

"It's hard to say. We can only try our luck. Let me ask our Sect Leader and see if she has any ideas."

"Master, do you want to go back to Wudu Sect? I also want to go back and see the Sect Leader and Auntie!"

"But don't you still have a job? If you leave, who will be responsible for the security here?"

Hearing that, Su Cancan's expression immediately started to darken. It wasn't that she didn't think about it, but since she hadn't been back for such a long time, she still wanted to go back and have a look.

Wu Tian wasn't the kind of person who didn't understand the atmosphere. Of course, he could tell Su Cancan's thoughts. He took the initiative to mention this matter on the side.

"Security Team training is not bad right now, and there are all kinds of plans. Su Cancan should be fine even if she leaves for a period of time. Furthermore, we can't count on Su Cancan to be here all the time. If her Security Team leaves, she won't be able to operate it? That won't do. "

"Alright then, just follow me back."

Seeing her master nod, Su Cancan was so happy that she jumped up like a teenage girl.

Wu Tian could only wait for the news and quickly focused his attention on dealing with the Pulitzer Financial Group.

After the conversation was over, Wu Tian immediately led his men to the door of the Pulitzer Financial Group.

He got Azure Dragon to get a group of people from Yin Rumeng, and with a banner in their hands, they stood in front of the Pulitzer Corporation entrance, holding the banner to protest.

Next to him was Wu Zaiyao's production team, as well as seafood TV and Odd Fish broadcast, all of which were simultaneously broadcasted on the internet.

With this, things became interesting. The people from Pulitzer consortium did not dare to come out.

Wu Tian saw that the people inside acted like cowards, so he ordered people to block all the entrances to the company.

"You have to give us a solution. It's perfectly justified for you to repay the debt!" Wu Tian was holding a large loudspeaker and shouting at the inside of the loudspeaker.

All of a sudden, nearly a thousand people had gathered outside. However, only one hundred of them were Wu Tian's and the rest were just passersby eating melon. They were just watching for the excitement.

However, Loong Yun did not let any of these people go. She arranged for a few people to distribute flyers to the crowd and spread the news that the Pulitzer consortium would not return the money they owed. For a moment, many people started to scoff at the Pulitzer consortium. The image they had created earlier had completely collapsed.

"President Wu, President Wu, why are you doing this!" Zhang Zerui's secretary saw that there was no other way, he could only represent the Pulitzer consortium to negotiate with Wu Tian to discuss whether or not he could find a solution to this issue.

"Why? Do you recognize the eight characters behind me? I'll read it out loud for you to hear. Debt for money, that's perfectly justified! "

The secretary looked helpless. If they had the money, they would naturally pay it back. The problem was that they didn't have much money in the company right now.

If they could not repay all of this money, it would only be a small part of it. Then, the remaining people who did not get the money would naturally put a lot of pressure on them.

"That, there is no need for you to do this. We can't solve the problem. I advise you to bring these people back. As long as our chairman comes back, we will immediately give you a solution."

The secretary had done his best, but it hadn't worked.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 979 - Look down on People

C979 Look down on People

Wu Tian did not put this person in his eyes at all. This was a joke, this time he brought someone to pressure the Pulitzer consortium. If he left just like this, then this trip would have been wasted.

He slowly walked up to the secretary and smiled at him.

"It's fine if you let us go, but just say a few empty words? Do you take us for fools? "

Even though Wu Tian was young, if his interests were truly involved, he could still become a treacherous businessman.

Seeing Wu Tian and the others acting so aggressively and not leaving without paying, the secretary did not know what to do and quickly wiped the sweat from his forehead.

He was only a secretary, and didn't have the ability to arrange this and that. He came out to persuade her, and it felt like he was coming out to take the blame.

"Um, President Wu, how about you give us a plan? Let's see if we can do something. At least we can't keep going like this."

The secretary felt that he could only admit his defeat in front of Wu Tian, otherwise, there was nothing he could do.

The effect of the more than one hundred people outside would be known to everyone in the vicinity in ten minutes. Once the entire city knew about it, the news would spread across the country.

At that time, if the Pulitzer consortium wanted to do anything, it would be too late.

The secretary nodded and bowed respectfully.

Wu Tian thought for a moment, looked at the Pulitzer consortium behind him, smiled and said: "That's fine, you can use the company you own as collateral first, don't you have a lot of stocks, as long as you take these stocks out and put them on us, if you still don't pay, we won't lose too much. If you give back the money, then we can return this equity back to you."

This method was to let them use the company as collateral. Based on the current situation, if they were to mortgage out the companies they purchased, it would be even more impossible to take them back.

"President Wu is too important, I have no choice but to make this decision ..." The secretary was so scared that he almost collapsed on the floor. He didn't expect Wu Tian to be so aggressive. He came up to ask for their most important thing.

"Alright, go ask your board. You can't possibly stop running a company without Zhang Zerui, right?"

Wu Tian wasn't in a hurry at all. He waved his hand gently and told the secretary to go in first.

Of course, he still had to continue leading the crowd and shouting slogans outside.

Time passed quickly and it was almost noon. The police probably could not bear to watch any longer, so they sent a lot of people to mediate the situation. There were too many people nearby and it was obvious that they had started to obstruct the traffic.

"Wu Tian, you guys should have done pretty well here, it's time to go back." A chubby policeman tried to persuade Wu Tian, but Wu Tian didn't take it seriously.

Their men had always been peaceful demonstrations and had not committed any violence, so the police could not actually say anything about their actions.

"Go back? What about the money they owe us? " Wu Tian asked, instantly turning the cop who came to persuade him into silent.

It was also at this time that a few people walked out from the Pulitzer consortium. They seemed to be very elegant and noble, haughtily thinking that they were so high up, that they had never lowered their jaws, and had always faced the sky.

Wu Tian looked at the few of them walking towards him, and only when he got closer, he could see clearly that these were all white people, and not people with China.

"What do they do?" Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun beside him in confusion. He didn't know any of them.

With a simple glance, Loong Yun knew what these people were up to.

"They are the majority shareholders of the Pulitzer consortium. In short, they are very rich."

Wu Tian agreed. Since that was the case, he would have to properly entertain them for a while.

"Are you Mr. Wu Tian?"

At this time, the other person stood in front of Wu Tian with a foreign accent and China language, looking at Wu Tian as if he was a lowly servant.

"It's me, yes, but you don't deserve to talk to me. Call for someone higher up!" Wu Tian looked at the person he was talking to and bluntly said that.

The other party clearly did not expect Wu Tian to speak like that and was stunned.

"I am from Pulitzer consortium ..."

"I don't care what you are. Scram, as I've said, you are not fit to talk to me. If you don't leave, I will take your eyeballs off!" Wu Tian looked at his arrogant attitude and got angry. With them acting like this, wanting to negotiate with Wu Tian was really just a dream.

Even now, these white men still could not figure out who was in control of the situation. Right now, Wu Tian was going to teach them a good lesson.

The person who had spoken had been scolded until there was nothing he could do. He could only dejectedly walk behind the group of people and make the biggest antique stand out.

This person was in his senior year, so his actions were naturally not as impulsive as the young man. Looking up, he seemed very friendly.

However, Wu Tian wouldn't have too many senses just because of the expressions on their faces. If he really believed that these white people would have any good intentions, then he would really be a fool among idiots.

"Mr Wu, I'm the Acting Chairman of the Pulitzer Financial Group. May I talk to you?"

Just now, Wu Tian's accusation and insult towards the white man could be said to be extremely pleasing to the eyes of the China people nearby.

These people usually liked to put on airs, and relied on their own money. Moreover, the people from China liked to settle things peacefully, and would often do some rude actions towards the people from China.

In fact, there were already people who were unhappy with these white men, not to mention the events that had happened hundreds of years ago.

For a moment, Wu Tian seemed to have become someone who stood from his own nation's point of view, an existence that would give face to anyone from China.

"Alright, so you're the biggest official now?" Wu Tian looked at the white old man in front of him with contempt. If he could speak with his eyes, he would have scolded the white man badly.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 980 - Please Take a Proper Attitude

C980 Please Take a Proper Attitude

The old man nodded slightly. He smiled, but it was not a smile of relief or amusement.

After Wu Tian saw it, he felt that he was disgracing himself by being shameless in front of others.

The more he looked, the more Wu Tian felt angry. However, he could not tear up his pride. After all, his opponent was still a gentleman. Thus, Wu Tian could not do too much.

Noticing that Wu Tian's face was slightly flushed, Loong Yun, who was always beside Wu Tian, quickly walked over and said to Wu Tian: "President Wu, don't be provoked by him ..."

Wu Tian was enlightened by these words and realized that he let someone else lead him away.

This old fogey was a cunning old fox indeed. He had been so enraged by his expression. If it weren't for Loong Yun's reminder, who knew how much trouble he'd have to suffer if he negotiated with this old fogey.

During negotiations, one of the greatest taboos was to use one's emotions to influence one's judgement, so it was best to participate in negotiations at the most calm moment.

"What are you going to say? Have you come up with a plan?" Wu Tian had already adjusted his mood a little. At this time, he couldn't lose face in front of them anymore, there were over a thousand China people standing behind him.

"My dear Mr. Wu Tian, why can't you talk to me like a gentleman? It's like arguing with a country bumpkin here, it's not graceful at all."

The white old man didn't answer Wu Tian's question. On the contrary, he talked about something else. Wu Tian could only sneer.

"Don't tell me that, I won't listen!" Wu Tian had seen through the white old man's trick. He said so much to get him to leave this place and then go somewhere else to talk. As long as Wu Tian agreed, he would be brought in.

"Mr Wu, we're all civilized people, how can you speak like that? It's not very elegant. If it's like that, we won't be able to communicate, right?"

The white old man still refused to let him go, but Wu Tian also didn't have any intention of backing down.

I haven't even revealed my usual style and manner of speaking, and you're already like this with no sincerity at all. Alright, if you have a plan, then you can say it, or else, you can just scam wherever you want. However, don't even think about coming out by yourself!

Wu Tian's words were not a joke. With his strength and manpower, sealing off the Pulitzer Financial Group was not a problem at all. If he said he wouldn't let them out, they definitely wouldn't come out. Wu Tian could lock them up even if it was a fly.

"President Wu really knows how to joke around. Since that's the case, let's just leave it at that. There's no need to be picky about it."

Seeing that Wu Tian refused to budge, the white old man knew that he would be asking for trouble if he continued like this. He decided not to talk about the useless things anymore. Obviously, Wu Tian wanted a result.

"It's like this. Our board of directors has already discussed this matter. It has always been believed that this matter can only be discussed with the participation of all the members of our board of directors. Otherwise, it would still be a little unfair ..."

"Stop bullshitting around with me. I don't care if you're some democracy or some fairness. That's your problem. I'm just saying, it's only right for you to pay me back for what you owe!"

When Wu Tian said this, the people below immediately started to follow his words and shout their slogans. For a moment, the fame outside the Pulitzer Financial Group rose sharply.

The old man seemed to be frightened by this scene and looked towards the policeman beside him in fear.

"You all ... Why don't you care! They are invading our company! "

At this moment, the fat police officer shrugged his shoulders, indicating that he was powerless.

"I'm sorry, according to the laws of our country, they are only free to meet. We, the police, cannot take coercive measures until we commit acts of violence against you."

"You're police ..."

These white men usually talked about the legal system many times, but when it came to their interests, they all didn't want to have the law anymore.

The fat police officer seemed to be affected by Wu Tian, so he didn't want to give these people any face.

"What's wrong with the police? We police still have to abide by the law. What, could it be that the police in Britain are only after you rich people?"

Originally, Wu Tian thought that this police officer was here to cause trouble for him. However, he did not expect that he would stand beside Wu Tian when he was facing these Britain people.

During the live broadcast, the fat police officer directly logged onto the China network, and got the support of the entire country. At the same time, the Pulitzer consortium was also looked down upon.

Seeing this situation, they had no way to deal with it. The white directors could only run back to the building in a panic. Wu Tian's people started to cheer.

They didn't even have time to state their conditions before they had to retract their arrogance.

It could be said that Wu Tian had truly achieved a great victory this time.

"Fine, we'll just keep on wasting time with them. I don't believe that they can still stay here forever!" As Wu Tian spoke, he commanded his men to seal off all the entrances to the Pulitzer Financial Group.

The police even told Wu Tian what to do in the end is not against the law.

The crowd also released their pent-up anger, immediately feeling refreshed.

However, they didn't have much time to be happy before Loong Yun walked over with a nervous face. She called Wu Tian to the side and purposely avoided the crowd.

"What's wrong? What happened? " Based on his own experience, Wu Tian guessed that something must have happened. Otherwise, Loong Yun wouldn't be so nervous.

"President Wu, this is bad!" Loong Yun frowned as she looked at the scene of the protest anxiously before swallowing her saliva with some difficulty.

"Slow down, don't worry!"

"The government on Britain side sent a notice saying that our company has been investigated by the business department there. The company did not meet the requirements and requires a limited period of time to complete the change in ownership, otherwise, we would be forced to disband!"
