C981 Pressure

Wu Tian had finally managed to organize this creditor company with great difficulty. Today, the country actually asked for his company to undergo changes in a short period of time. If he was not able to satisfy the management of Britain, they would have to force him to disband his company.

"How could this be? Is Zhang Zerui doing something weird?" The first thing that came to Wu Tian's mind was this Zhang Zerui who had gone missing. From a certain point of view, he was the only one who had the ability to do this.

Loong Yun shook her head. They didn't have any direct evidence, and to Wu Tian, who planned it was no longer important. The most important thing was how to solve this problem.

If this company was gone, then it would be very difficult for the overseas citizens of Britain to come to China and ask for the debt.

At that time, the Pulitzer Corporation would definitely be even more arrogant and would not take the initiative to return the money.

"Don't tell anyone else about this yet!" Wu Tian quickly instructed Loong Yun. This matter was of great importance to them. If they didn't deal with this matter properly, all their previous efforts would have to be wasted. Therefore, they had to hide it for the time being.

"I know, but what do we do next?"

Loong Yun pointed to the scene of the protest. If the company were to go bankrupt, there would be no point in continuing to protest here. All the people below the stage were actors' helpers that Wu Tian had found; none of them were real creditors.

"You keep them here. We can't let them find out that we have a problem! They're watching us too. "

Wu Tian squinted his eyes as he looked at the Britain people inside the Pulitzer consortium and frowned. Wu Tian had not expected such a thing to happen.

However, if he were to leave now, everything he had done would be for naught. Thus, he had to think of a way to obtain some benefits before they discovered this matter.

"Let's go back first. I'll go contact the overseas citizens of Britain."

Wu Tian knew that it was useless for him to stay here any longer, so he quickly turned around and left.

Along the way, Wu Tian thought of many solutions, but he was not satisfied with most of the ideas. The best solution would be to buy these claims.

Reduced the number of small creditors, so that Britain's governing body could not make things difficult for them.

When they arrived at Flower Island, Wu Tian immediately contacted Old Master Chu and told him about this matter.

Old Master Chu was also very shocked. He thought that this incident was already foolproof.

"Are you saying that Britain is starting to ban our company?"

"Britain means that, but we still have time, so I wonder if we can purchase their claims and transfer their bonds. That way, the Britain Management would no longer be able to control us."

Wu Tian felt that this was the only suitable solution. However, this trick was not that easy because there was another serious problem in front of them. Their actions would consume a large amount of money.

Old Master Chu was silent for a while and finally sighed.

"I feel that what you said does make sense. From the looks of it, if Britain were to really ban this company, then these people will never get the money again. But if we buy these claims, then the risk will be borne by us, the purchasers. This is a gamble. "

Old Master Chu wasn't wrong at all. This was just a gamble.

Furthermore, it was a gamble that they would gamble everything they had.

"The high risk will yield high returns. It depends on whether we have the guts or not. I have already decided to buy a portion of the debt. That way, when I am in China, I can put a lot of pressure on the Pulitzer Financial Group."

Wu Tian had nothing to hesitate. That was the only thing he could do.

"Alright, I'll buy these with you!" Old Master Chu seemed to be moved by Wu Tian and agreed to be like him. The two of them happily reached an agreement and began to prepare for it.

But good times don't last long, but when Wu Tian went to talk with these retail investors, he realized something very bad. They already have a large portion of people who have sold their shares to a Britain company.

This company was the one that Wu Tian knew, the one called BMD.

They suddenly acquired a large amount of creditor's rights and became the biggest creditor of the Pulitzer consortium in a single leap. Even Wu Tian and Old Master Chu could not compare with them.

The BMD company collected at least 300 billion in claims. This amount of money was not something Wu Tian and the others could compare to. The difference in strength was too great.

While Wu Tian was still in a state of anxiety, the representative sent by BMD put forward a request on the board of directors. Their people wanted to become chairman, organize and plan the entire creditor's rights company.

Of course, Wu Tian didn't agree. However, the other side had too many shares, so Wu Tian's opinion was drowned out.

So Wu Tian, who worked hard to set up this creditor company, became the possession of the BMD company overnight.

He and Old Master Chu started to worry, afraid that this company would do something they shouldn't, such as cancel the debt of the Pulitzer Financial Group.

"Things are not easy to deal with now. Damn it, how did I forget to investigate what Zhang Zerui was doing!"

Wu Tian's face was filled with resentment. Actually, he knew that Zhang Zerui went to Britain to ask for help, but he didn't expect that he had forgotten about this matter.

To have such a thing happen in the end, it really made people feel helpless.

"President Wu, don't be too anxious. In my opinion, this damn company also likes to cause trouble. Even if Pulitzer Financial Group owes them a huge debt, it might not be a bad thing."

On the contrary, Loong Yun was in a much better mood than Wu Tian. She was very optimistic and felt that things had turned for the better.

"What do you mean?"

"Take a look at the latest news." Loong Yun said as she handed over a newspaper. This was the latest news from this morning.

Wu Tian was also surprised when he took it and looked at it.

"How could this be ..."

It was very clear in the newspaper that BMD was in negotiations with the Pulitzer Financial Group.

Under his pressure, the Pulitzer consortium didn't negotiate with him no matter what. However, in front of this BMD corporation, the Pulitzer consortium was as obedient as a dog.

"These bastards, they look down on me!" Wu Tian shook his fist. The more he thought about it, the more he felt like they were deliberately trying to annoy him.

Otherwise, why would the Pulitzer consortium treat them so differently?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 982 - Turnover of Salted Fish

C982 Turnover of Salted Fish

The matter did not end there.

The BMD company was very harsh on the Pulitzer consortium's method of repayment and did not treat them as one of their own.

"The BMD requires the Pulitzer consortium to use the shares to make collateral. After they repay the money, the BMD will return the shares to them. Before that, we can owe them like this."

Loong Yun's previous optimism came from this point. The BMD company's request basically meant that they had their eyes on the foundation of the Pulitzer consortium.

Right now, they could only rely on Moka Company and them. These two companies had very high S City rankings. If they were to be controlled by Britain company, it would not be a simple matter for S City.

It might even cause a very serious blow to the S City in this very opposing situation.

"Isn't their movement too fast? How did the Pulitzer consortium answer that?" Wu Tian didn't dare to guess at this point because the Pulitzer Corporation seemed to be more friendly towards the Britain Corporation.

They have a very high chance of making a deal.

"Unfortunately, the Pulitzer consortium has already agreed to this method. Because their chairman, Zhang Zerui, has yet to come back, so if they want to settle this matter peacefully, they must use this method."

Loong Yun told Wu Tian what she was worried about and immediately dispelled Wu Tian's doubts. This was because they no longer had to have any expectations and Pulitzer Corporation would not be able to fight against Britain Corporation.

"We need to hurry up and increase the amount of debt we have. This is an opportunity to protect Nanhe Securities Corporation!" Since he was able to exchange his debt for a share, Wu Tian didn't want to miss out on such a feast. He turned around and said to Loong Yun.

"Then we want to ..." Loong Yun had a bad premonition.

Wu Tian chuckled and rubbed his hands embarrassedly towards Loong Yun.

"Then how much money do we have left?"

Loong Yun knew Wu Tian would ask this. He definitely wanted to spend all the money he had on the deal.

"There's about 10 billion left, that's about the most money I can squeeze out."

However, this was for the good of the company. Loong Yun knew that if she were to hide it now, it would affect the company's interests.

"We will put all of this money into the transaction. We will buy as many debts as we can!" Wu Tian waved his hand. This was the time to fight!

Loong Yun nodded and turned around to prepare for this matter.

It was morning when they spoke. By noon, Loong Yun had begun negotiations with some of the debtors, and she hoped to be able to buy their claims.

In the end, at night, a message was sent over saying that Zhang Zerui had returned.

The news surprised both Wu Tian and Loong Yun. They had thought that even if Zhang Zerui wanted to come back, he would not come so soon.

Moreover, if he came back with no money then the help of the consortium would be very limited.

It could even be said that it would be better for him not to return.

"Zhang Zerui is back. Loong Yun, quickly prepare the car. We'll go to the Pulitzer Financial Group right now!" Wu Tian's first reaction was: If he had some money, then the most important thing was for Zhang Zerui to pay it back right now.

Zhang Zerui probably did not expect Wu Tian's reaction to be so fast. Not long after he arrived at the Pulitzer consortium, he saw Wu Tian barge in from the outside. Many people seemed to be unable to stop him.

"Isn't this President Wu? Why are you so interested in coming to my place today?" Zhang Zerui had his bodyguards retreat; there was no need to go against Wu Tian.

In other words, they couldn't target Wu Tian.

"Didn't I hear that you came back? I thought you came back with money. You owe me a lot." Wu Tian went straight to the point and directly mentioned the money.

Originally, according to Wu Tian's plan, if the Pulitzer consortium didn't pay his over 20 billion debt, he would exchange it for their Zhixing Technology Company's shares. That way, he could control their company and try not to compete with himself.

It had to be known that Wu Tian had just started his spaceflight career and it was a good opportunity for him to develop. In the end, he met someone like Zhixing Technology Company, which made him very unhappy.

"I didn't expect President Wu to be so well-informed. That's right, I did bring back some money this time. What I, Zhang Zerui, hate the most is the money I owe others!"

Zhang Zerui nodded at the people beside him as he spoke. Very soon, someone brought over a laptop. Zhang Zerui was tapping on the computer with a relaxed expression.

"President Wu, how much debt do you have? I'll transfer it to you right now."

This time, it was Wu Tian's turn to be surprised. He didn't expect Zhang Zerui to be so rich that he would pay back all the money he owed without even batting an eyelid.

"No, is that true? I have 20 billion here ..." Wu Tian repeated in disbelief.

Zhang Zerui smiled slightly and transferred 20 billion yuan to Wu Tian's account without batting an eyelid.

After hearing the notification sound from his bank account, Wu Tian was sure that Zhang Zerui was telling the truth.

"No, is this for real?"

"Why would I lie to you? Although the two of us have been unhappy before, this time, I don't think there's any big problems with what I did."

Zhang Zerui had a smile on his face. He really didn't know what to say. At this moment, Wu Tian started to feel nervous, but the money was really in his account.

Now that the debt was completely settled, Wu Tian didn't need to stay here any longer. Although he was suspicious, Wu Tian still turned around and left.

"Tell me, I've been tormenting myself for so long. Why do I feel like I've returned to the beginning ..." On the way back, Wu Tian suddenly felt like he didn't do anything.

"President Wu, it seems like Zhang Zerui has found a solution this time. Since he has some money, he should be able to recover. Our next cards should not be easy to play."

Loong Yun gave a brief analysis. Actually, they had already taken the initiative and retreated back to the passive state. Before there was a better opportunity, Wu Tian didn't have any specific methods towards the Pulitzer Financial Group.

Zhang Zerui held a press conference when the whole country was paying attention to this matter. He had cleared all of the debts owed by the Pulitzer consortium. This was not a small amount, their consortium had almost two trillion in debt.

C983 Sect Leader of the Five Poisons Sect

When the people of the whole country were paying attention to this matter, Zhang Zerui directly held a press conference to clear all of the debts owed by the Pulitzer consortium. This was not a small amount, their consortium owed almost two trillion.

No one knew how Zhang Zerui found the money, but his actions still brought them a turning point. However, the BMD company didn't have any other tricks up its sleeves like Wu Tian had expected.

Like Wu Tian, they agreed immediately.

However, no matter how he thought about it, Wu Tian still felt that this matter was somewhat fishy. Zhang Zerui shouldn't be able to find money for such a high debt. Who would even invest in him?

As he thought about it, Wu Tian felt that he must investigate this matter properly. But right now, they didn't have much manpower in the Britain, so investigating this kind of thing was harder than climbing into the sky.

But after some thought, Wu Tian found Old Master Chu. He thought over and over again. He felt that this Old Master was quite reliable.

"Isn't that Wu Tian? Why did you suddenly contact me? What, did he not give you your money?"

Old Master Chu was surprised, he didn't expect Wu Tian to contact him.

"It's not like that. Old Master Chu, I want to ask you a favor."

After Old Master heard this, he immediately agreed, regardless of what Wu Tian said. In the Britain, they could also be considered to be mixed in black and white, and had their own paths to follow in every place.

"Speak your mind. As long as it is something that I can do, I will do my best to help you."

"It's like this, I want you to investigate how this Zhang Zerui found these two trillion, I suspect that it's money from Britain, he must have made some sort of deal with someone."

Wu Tian guessed. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to think of any other possibility.

Old Master Chu nodded. He had thought about it before, but he felt that since he already got the money, he shouldn't think about anything else. He might as well just let it be.

Since it was Wu Tian's request, there was nothing bad about helping him.

"Alright, I promise. But if I need your help in the future, President Wu will have to help me!"

"No problem, Old Master Chu's business is also my business!" Wu Tian agreed happily. Of course, when it came down to it, it would depend on the situation.

This matter could be considered to have come to an end for now. Wu Tian could only wait patiently for news of them.

The moment he put down the phone, he heard a burst of talking coming from outside. It seemed to be very lively. Wu Tian walked out curiously as he saw a few people walking towards them in the corridor.

Wu Tian had never seen any of them before. They were women with different figures, some were tall and some were short, some were fat and some were thin. Behind the four of them, Wu Tian saw Su Wenxin, Su Cancan, and a few others.

"They're back?" Wu Tian excitedly walked up. In that case, the four women in front should be the same as Su Cancan's group, coming out from the Wudu Sect.

"Master, Su Cancan, you're back." Wu Tian took the initiative to greet them. In the end, his actions caused the four women to be very alert. They looked at Wu Tian nervously and at the same time, they surrounded Wu Tian without any change in their expressions, putting huge pressure on him.

Su Cancan stretched out her head and saw Wu Tian was coming over. She waved at her few senior sisters, signaling them to relax.

"Senior sisters, this is the Wu Tian that we were talking about. He is the current Patriarch of Wu Family."

Only after Su Cancan's introduction did the four let Wu Tian out.

"Yo, not bad young man. You look really spirited!" A voice that sounded very sweet came from behind Su Cancan. Wu Tian followed her gaze and saw that this beautiful girl, who could not tell her age, was standing next to Su Wenxin.

If the two of them stood side by side with Su Cancan, they would look like three sisters. However, Wu Tian knew that he couldn't treat their Wudu Sect in this way. These people were all demons. Even though they were dozens of years old, they could still make themselves look like people in their twenties.

"Hehe, hello, I'm Wu Tian. It must have been hard on you to come here. I'm going to welcome you." Wu Tian wasn't stupid. Just from the feeling, he felt that this person was definitely not an ordinary person.

"He actually dares to directly speak to our Sect Leader!" At this time, the four girls suddenly exploded. Each of them grabbed Wu Tian and held him down.

Wu Tian's face was full of panic. He clearly didn't do anything wrong and only said one sentence to that great beauty. Could it be that he couldn't even speak now?

"Four, let him go, that won't stop us. Have you forgotten the purpose of our visit? "

The beauty remained calm, but her orders seemed to be very useful. Although the four beauties were a little unwilling, they still let Wu Tian go.

"Could she be the Sect Leader?" Wu Tian had long since heard of Wudu Sect, but he had never went there once, and he had never seen anyone from the Wudu Sect either.

Who would have thought that this time he would meet their Sect Leader directly.

Su Cancan looked at Wu Tian with disdain on the side. She probably felt that it was too embarrassing for him to be like this.

"You are lucky this time. Our Sect Leader has decided to personally take action!"

Hearing Su Cancan's words, Wu Tian also started to get excited. He was initially worried that it would be difficult to catch that mysterious person, but now it seemed that there was some hope.

After all, the Sect Leader must be extraordinary.

"It's not as exaggerated as they say. I just happen to want to come out and take a look as well."

The beautiful Sect Leader said with a smile. She didn't give the impression of being the head of the sect at all.

Senior sister has a very good temper, you don't have to worry about it. Alright, let's not stand here, let's go eat something first, it's the right time to take you on a tour of Flower Island.

Su Wenxin also put away her usual jovial laughter and began to enthusiastically work as a tour guide.

Wu Tian followed behind them and constantly sized up this beautiful Sect Leader. Although he didn't know how he should address her, Wu Tian was looking forward to what would happen next.

He did not know what tricks she would use.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 984 - Mow the Grass but Startle the Snake

C984 Mow the Grass but Startle the Snake

Since the others were already here, Wu Tian started to make preparations.

The first thing he needed to do was to find a way to locate this mysterious person. Otherwise, everything else would just be nonsense.

The second satellite Loong Yun thought of before was kept under Wu Tian's control. Now that she had the funds and a reason, Wu Tian no longer tried to stop her.

Very quickly, this satellite that could perform infrared detection went up into the sky, and Wu Tian and the others now could only view areas from before, extending it to indoors and even underground.

When the two satellites complemented each other, it was even possible to see the existence and location of any living creature in a region.

This is a very remarkable development. It could even be said that not only were they of great use, they were also extremely useful in areas like the police and the army.

Of course, this alone was not enough. Wu Tian was already standing guard in the monitoring hall every day, watching the big screen in the middle constantly flashing. He was starting to worry.

They had been searching for days. However, according to the height and body size, they still didn't have any leads. There were just too few clues.

"President Wu, if we keep waiting like this, when will we be able to find him?"

Sunn Hongsheng had been accompanying Wu Tian the whole time. The task of the police was quite stressful and it was no less stressful than Wu Tian. They also had a reason to solve the case.

This was a murder case, and finding the body was the most important part.

"How would I know? I've already done everything I can. You know how much this satellite will cost, but you cops are actually. You don't need to pay a cent to enjoy this kind of service."

Wu Tian mumbled to himself. He was actually a bit doubtful about this question. He couldn't just continue on like this forever.

"Actually... I have an idea. " Loong Yun said slowly on the side, attracting their attention. Wu Tian and Sunn Hongsheng were surprised.

"You have a way?" Sunn Hongsheng felt that Loong Yun was just a civilian secretary, what tricks could she come up with?

Loong Yun nodded slightly. Although she didn't have any expression on her face, her actions and actions were very nimble. She seemed very confident.

"Let her talk!" Wu Tian understood Loong Yun quite well and knew that he should never underestimate her.

"It's actually very simple. This person is actually already hiding in City S and has not made any movements. You can use the method of alerting the snake by beating the grass. Take the initiative and force him out."

Long Yun said indifferently as he pointed at the map.

"Didn't you send people to investigate a lot of areas? Now, if we let the news out, we will say that we have already locked down the suspect's location, and then we will start a big search in the entire city, regardless of whether this news is real or fake, I think this person will be a little nervous. In that case, it might even be possible for him to unleash his incomparable speed once more. "

"Previously, we had no way to detect his location, but now that he has appeared again, I think we can definitely pinpoint his location."

These words from Long Yun made Wu Tian and Sunn Hongsheng realize what was going on. Why hadn't they thought of this solution before? Although it didn't sound very reliable, it was still better than nothing.

"Okay, we'll do as you say! I'll go arrange some people right now! " Sunn Hongsheng ran out excitedly. His police team had been troubled over this matter for quite a few days.

Now that she suggested this idea, regardless of whether it worked or not, Sunn Hongsheng still planned to try it out.

"But what if he's very cunning?" Wu Tian didn't immediately make any plans because he had thought about it deeply. If the other party was a sly old fox, then this tactic would be useless against him.

"We can only take a gamble now. Otherwise, there's no other way except for him to commit the crime again." Long Yun could do nothing about it. The only solution she could come up with was this.

Although Wu Tian felt that it was a bit inappropriate, he didn't have a better solution and could only choose to compromise.

The news quickly spread. At the same time, Sunn Hongsheng's police team drove police cars everywhere in the city. They turned on their siren and started a search and arrest investigation.

Their movements were extremely imposing, and many people thought that they were practicing. Otherwise, why would they send out over a thousand officers to search for a single person?

For a moment, many people were feeling somewhat jittery. The criminals who were previously petty thieves were now too frightened to move at this time.

Originally, Wu Tian and Long Yun were trying their luck in the detection hall, but after a day or two, the system suddenly sounded an alarm, waking Wu Tian who was sleeping.

"What's wrong? What's wrong?"

Wu Tian looked at the screen above him in surprise, he didn't know what was going on.

"President Wu, the system seems to have discovered a target moving at a high speed!" A staff member beside him quickly explained. Hearing this, Wu Tian jumped up in excitement.

"Great! We've finally found him! Quickly mark his location!"

Hearing Wu Tian's request, the men under his command quickly began to move. Wu Tian also sent the coordinates message to Sunn Hongsheng and the others immediately.

At the same time, he had long since lost patience, and his Security Team had begun to move as well. They had made all sorts of plans a few days ago, hoping to succeed and capture this mysterious person.

"You found the person?" Su Cancan, who was wearing her own battle uniform, ran over to ask. Looking at Wu Tian's excited expression, she had a rough idea of what was going on.

"I've found it! Are you ready? Let's hurry up and set off!" Wu Tian also quickly changed his clothes. This time, he wanted to go to the front line.

"My side is almost done. The security is ready to depart at any time, but why did you go with them?" There was no place for Wu Tian in Su Cancan's plan.

Wu Tian looked at Su Cancan strangely, as if this guy said something that should have been expected of him.

"What do you mean? Of course I'll go there myself! Don't forget that this person's clues were found by us! It's still a good idea for Loong Yun! "

"Alright, do whatever you want." Su Cancan was too lazy to argue with Wu Tian. As long as this guy didn't go to the frontlines, it would not affect their movements.
