

Chapter 116 Courtesy

"What are you going to do? This is still the company, don't do anything foolish." I immediately stopped it when I heard what Qingqing said.

I broke up with Lin Fang, but I was not such a useless loser that I needed to torture the other person even after breaking up with them.

If we already broke up then let it stay that way. She was at her wit's end yesterday, not even thinking about a way out. I am not someone who will hang on just because I couldn't stand losing. Seeing as we have already parted ways, then let us have a clean slate.

"Even if I don't put her in her place, someone else will. Mr. Zhang, why are you still protecting her until now? No one will think that you are very manly, but that she was the worthless wench who manipulated you."

I thought of how Qingqing treated me before. Not only did she look down on me, she must have also thought that I was the idiot who let Lin Fang manipulate him.

I replied her and said, "I don't care what other people think, I don't want to be involved with her anymore. We have already broken up so from now on we are just colleagues. She is an employee in my company so don't make a mountain out of a molehill. That's all."

Qingqing looked shocked but when she came to her senses she squinted at me, "I understand so you shouldn't worry Mr. Zhang. I will not cause any trouble for you and Miss Chu."

I could only sigh in relief but I emphasized my point again, "Don't do anything you'll regret."

It looked like Qingqing did not hear a word I said. If I get the opportunity, I needed to call a meeting and talk to the people in the company. So as to not put Lin Fang in a difficult situation.

Qingqing followed me to the elevators, agreeing with me the whole way there.

The second we stepped out of the elevator, there was a ruckus coming from the office. It sounded like a man yelling loudly and a woman sobbing.

The people in the office had become more aware of disturbances like this, especially after Chen Yuzhou had come to the office to make a scene two days ago. So when we heard it, Qingqing immediately ran over and I followed her.

The employees were all gathered together but I could not see Mr. Lu or Chu Xiaoxiao. I looked to Chu Xiaoxiao's office only to find her bag on the table but she was nowhere to be found. In that moment, my heart dropped a little.

"Mr. Zhang? Mr. Zhang? What are you looking at?"

I only returned to reality when Qingqing tugged at my shirt. She glared at me and said, "Look, what did I tell you?"

In the middle of the crowd, Lin Fang and a huge guy were both red in the face. Tears were streaming down Lin Fang's face and she bit her lip as she cried. The guy's name was Cheng Dapeng, he was one of the salesman in our company and was favoured by Mr. Lu. This guy was not bad at all, he had the clients and resources. That was why he was arrogant and looked down on others, everyone in the company both feared and respected him.

Even though Cheng Dapeng was arrogant, he was not aggressive and could get along with his colleagues well. A salesperson needed to be someone who could talk and get things done. In a regular situation, he would not offend anyone. Who knew what happened to cause him to get into such a fight with Lin Fang.

When the others saw me coming, they all turned around and greeted me enthusiastically. Calling me Mr. Zhang with perfected ease. Just the day before, I was just the forgettable security guard Zhang Chao. And just overnight, I wonder how they got their news so quickly.

"Mr. Zhang is here, let him decide." Cheng Dapeng said, "Mr. Zhang, I had this business project that I delegated to Cai to do, that made sense right? I am the salesperson who deals directly with the client, so I definitely have the authority to delegate the work load. Plus I am the person who understands what the clients want. But some people refuse to let this go and insisted on me giving her the job. And when I refused, she made a scene. Now isn't that too much?"

Lin Fang immediately explained, "That's not what happened! Yesterday that project was still mine, and this morning it suddenly went to Cai. I completed all preparations for it yesterday so why was there a sudden change? If you gave everything to Cai, then what am I supposed to do? If I don't have any projects then I would only be getting a basic salary this month. How... how am I supposed to survive like that? I still need to take care of my family..."

Cai was one of the designers in our company, she had the same role as Lin Fang.

Cai said, "Fang Fang, what do you mean by what you said? Who here doesn't have to take care of their family? The projects in the company does not belong to any one person and can be changed. That was an urgent job, and yesterday night Mr. Cheng was so anxious about it but we could not find you. You were out there enjoying your life and parading around like you were the daughter-in-law of the Chen family. Mr. Cheng did not want to bother you so he had to asked me to clock in extra hours until midnight just to complete your work. That was why he passed the job to me, so how can you blame me for it?"

When Cai finished speaking, everyone in the office was in agreement that what Cai said was true. Cai deliberately tried to provoke Lin Fang and gave her a look of delight but Lin Fang had no answer, her tears didn't stop rolling down her cheeks. Her face was completely red but what could she do? Everyone was against her and it was all because of her choices.

I couldn't bear to look anymore and just wanted everyone to disperse. Qingqing immediately blocked me and pushed me to the back of the crowd. She berated me in a low voice saying, "Mr. Zhang, don't do anything stupid. The company has its own rules and regulations, Cai and Cheng Dapeng did not break any rules. If you help Lin Fang because of your personal relationship with her, the others will be disappointed."

I replied, "Come on, what kind of personal relationship do I have with Lin Fang? They are the ones fighting so early in the morning and not doing their work."

Qingqing pressed her hands against my chest, not allowing me to move as she rolled her eyes and said, "You have a relationship with Miss Chu now. If you protect your ex-girlfriend like that, what will the others say? How will Miss Chu feel?"

Her question stunned me to silence. She is right, I could not allow Chu Xiaoxiao to be unhappy.

I replied, "Then let me go, men and women should not touch each other like that but your hands are still on my chest."

Qingqing tutted and let me go, then she murmured quietly, "Even ex-soldiers have good bodies."

"Then what should I do now? I can't just walk away without doing anything." I said, feeling a little helpless. I really can't handle matters relating to women well.

Qingqing replied, "Why don't you let me handle this? I assure you that you will walk out of this smelling like roses."

I eyed her and hesitated, could she actually do it? If I remembered correctly, she was just someone who tended to guests and handed out tea from the front desk. Even though she looked pretty, she was still known as the company fool.

If Mr. Lu was here, maybe I could hand this matter to Mr. Lu to handle. But I don't know where Mr. Lu and Chu Xiaoxiao have run off to. I may have experience being a soldier, but none to actually run a company. Maybe I should just let Qingqing try her luck.

So I gave her my consent. She dusted off her clothes, straightened her back and swaggered forward. When she did that, her chest did not look as flat as I thought it was.

"What is all this about then? Is this an office or a market? If you don't want to work here anymore then just go to human resources, take your three months pay and leave."

I almost burst out laughing at that, when this woman put on airs, she really had the styles and mannerisms of a high ranking female executive. When the others saw me standing behind her, they said nothing after that.

Lin Fang stared at me and she couldn't stop her tears from rolling down her face. Seeing her like this made my heart tug painfully, she made me feel like I was a bastard. Like I was supporting the bad guys here and not punishing them.

Cheng Dapeng was nice enough to Qingqing and shut up after that.
