

Chapter 213 Snow Leopards

"Don't just stand there, help me."

"D—do what?"

Tsai Xiaobing gulped and fiddled with her legs. However, he did not do anything, and whined at me, "She might be a prostitute, but...but..."

"What are you thinking about? Hurry up and take off her clothes. If she wakes up, she'll know I didn't touch her and we'll be found out."

"Sh—she wouldn't say anything, would she? She looks so pure..."

"Haha, prostitutes have no feelings, and actors have no morals. This woman's words can't be trusted. Hurry up."

Tsai Xiaobing shut his eyes, peeking out of a small sliver.

I was already trying my best not to look at her, but she kept twitching reflexively.

Tsai and I were red-faced and sweating by the time we got her clothes off.

"C—Captain, ya won't say anything about today, right?"

"I'm not crazy. You've got a girl and so do I. I don't want to be punished."

Tsai Xiaobing stammered, "Let's h—hurry up and go..."

But when I looked at Xiaoke, something was not right.

"Wait. Pinch her thighs a few times."

Tsai Xiaobing's face was almost purple. He glanced at Xiaoke's naked body and back at me. "Captain..."

"That's an order. Finish your task."

"This task is too much." His mouth turned down. "What's the point of this? Ya supposed to be sleeping with her, not fighting with her."

"How am I supposed to know this? I can't teach you anything here."

"Captain, ya a virgin too?"

"You shut up."

Tsai Xiaobing laughed loudly. "Captain, I thought ya would have lots of experience. But ya the same as me. Why? Sis-in-law says no? So ya scared of her."

I became annoyed when it was brought up. It felt like even God was opposing me. Every time I decided to start something with Chu Xiaoxiao, something else got in the way.

"Scared? It's called respect," I grumbled, "Enough with the nonsense. Hurry up, or I'll tell Lin Yue'er about today. You'll be in trouble then."

"Sorry, Captain..."

I pinched Xiaoke a few times on the breasts and waist. She ended up with bruises all over and she looked like she had been ravaged.

"Alright then, let's go."

If we did not leave, I was not sure what would happen. This scene was such a shock to virgin men like me and Tsai Xiaobing who had never experienced the carnal taste of flesh.

I peeked down the corridor. There was no staff member outside the doors of the resting area, but there was a naked staff member outside the doors of each room in the entertainment area.

There was usually no one patrolling the corridor, but right now, several tense-looking security guards were conducting a search while holding flashlights.

"Why aren't you going out, Captain?"

"Shh, Fang has started the search."

I pushed the door shut, leaving a small gap to look out of.

We heard the footsteps outside go past our door.

"Search everywhere. Don't miss any corners. That stupid girl is still in the building. When you find her, make sure you break her leg. Hurry up and don't let the big boss find out or we're dead! The skank is still in the building. I've already posted people to watch all the exits. There's also someone posted by the staircase of every floor. There's nowhere for her to run."

"Fang, how about the rooms with guests? We can't search inside. Maybe the bitch is hiding in one of them."

"Have someone keep an eye on the rooms with guests. Once the guest leaves, search the room immediately. The big boss is away for two days. Find that skank within these two days. If she's alive, I want to see her. If she's dead, I want to see her body!"

"Yes, ma'am!"

The footsteps split up. Two people walked towards our room. They were definitely headed our way.

"Damn. We've got to move fast. Where did you stash her? Is it safe?"

"She's on this floor. It's very safe. However, she's badly hurt and can't run."

"There's no use even if she can. This whole place is a trap. Where can a frail girl run to?"

"I checked. The facade of the building is climbable. There's a climbing rope in the fire cabinet. I can drop a rope."

"That's unrealistic. There are people outside and it's thirteen floors up. You'll be carrying a load. It's too dangerous."

"Captain, let me try. I did it before in rescue operations in Africa..."

"That was three floors up. You wouldn't die if you fell. Thirteen floors is too risky. I'll try to think of something. If I can't, I'll drop a rope. I ranked first in all comprehensive tests, you can wait your turn. Where did you hide Qiaoqiao? You're so confident she won't be found."

The corner of Tsai Xiaobing's mouth quirked up. "They can search this whole floor and never find her. Come on, I'll bring ya there. But we still need to take care of the two outside."

The two men were easily settled.

I motioned for Tsai Xiaobing to stand aside and remain silent, then I pulled open the door. As expected, the two men were standing on either side of the door. They nodded at me.

"What's this about?" I asked.

"Sir, we are your dedicated service staff. Do let us know if we can help you in any way."

I chuckled to myself. These two were quick-witted. They said it so nicely that anyone not aware of the situation would really be duped.

"Great timing. The toilet in my room is backed up. Come in and check it out."

These two were security, not sanitation, and were surprised that I actually took up their offer of help. They were stunned, but one of them was quicker to react, nodding, and entering the room.

When the second man had entered, I shut the door and chopped him on the back of his neck with my hand. At the same time, Tsai Xiaobing did the same to the other man. They never knew what hit them as they slid to the floor, unconscious.

We dragged them onto the bed and divested them of their clothes and shoes, laying them next to Xiaoke. Then, I picked up the alcohol on the table and sprinkled some on them.

"They'll wake up in about half an hour. Come, we're on a tight schedule."

Tsai Xiaobing was delighted. "Captain, it looks like your skills haven't retired along with you. You're so efficient."

"I haven't been slacking off. I hadn't expected that we have a chance to work together again. Come on, where's she? Lead the way."

What I missed most about leaving the military were the dependable and amiable comrades in the Snow Leopards. It felt like I was back in the unit.

I opened the door, about to step out, but instead, I froze and inhaled sharply.

Fang was standing outside the door.

She gazed at me uncertainly.
