Chapter 266 Is It Han Kun?

"No, I need to hand them over to the police," I said.

Chu Xiaoxiao reminded me, "Zhang Chao, have you forgotten that the police all sit on the Chens' side? If you hand them over to the police, they might even be set free on the spot."

"I still want to hand them over. Don't worry, I know what I'm doing."

Yue Mangong still wanted to stop me, but Chu Xiaoxiao nodded at my explanation and asked no more. Yue Mangong had to follow suit.

When I brought the two assassins upstairs, I asked Zhao Zichen where the police were.

"I made the report late last night, but the police haven't shown up yet," Zhao Zichen said.

I scoffed and called the police myself. The police officer had just spoken when I interrupted him, "Tell Xu Xiang that if he doesn't send officers here, I'll send these two assassins to Sheng City. Let me see how far the Chen family's arm reaches and if the Public Security Department in Sheng City is also at the bidding of the Chens."

If anything happened to Qingqing and Ma Dazhuang, I would never forgive myself. I had

Chen Yuzhou, if you were a decent person, you would only target me and I might even let you have your life. But since you're acting against the people by my side, I won't show any mercy.

A short while after the call, two police officers showed up. They made small talk, then slowly,

"I did," I said.

They looked at me and recognized who I was. "Zhang Chao, can you be more polite when

"You...you dare to threaten us!"

they had taken out.

I put my hands together as if for him to handcuff. "Come on, don't be shy."

"I found the attempted murderers. These two." I pointed to the men.

"That's strange. Why not call Xia Genghuai for this? He can take the credit."

"Why isn't it clear to you?" I asked back. "Go back and tell your boss Xu Xiang that this matter

The two police officers were left speechless by me. They could only take the two assassins and leave.

"I think they'll cover for Chen Yuzhou."

Cigarette dangling from my mouth, I said tiredly, "Of course, they're Xu Xiang's men. Xu Xiang yourselves in the coming days."

"What happened?"

Yue Mangong shot me a disagreeable look. "Your life is the most important here. The stability of the martial arts world is on you. We can't just sit there and do nothing."

"What can they do? You have a treaty but no leader, and you can't hurt anyone willy-nilly."

A sly grin appeared on Yue Mangong's face. "Who knows he's a Yin? His surname is Chen. We'd just be warning him, not really hurting him."

Chu Xiaoxiao chimed in, "That's right. Just scare him, until he pees his pants. We can't let something as serious as this go."

My phone in my pocket was still buzzing. I patted their shoulders and stepped aside to answer the phone. It was Lu Tong.

"Don't add to the chaos, you two. Chen Yuzhou won't be bouncing around for much longer. Watch

"Master Zhang, it's really bad. There are issues with all our company's loans and the

"I'm surprised that Chen Yuzhou has such resources. He's really grown. Not bad, let's see what he does next."

I laughed. "Don't worry. We'll wait and see. Take a long break. Tell the employees that I'll pay their salaries as usual."

"Hold on. What are we going to do next?"

This was different from fighting in the street with the Black Dragons. This was the power of the administration. It was about "authority".

If Chen Ruhai was still alive, I believe he could have done it. But life was fleeting, and Chen Ruhai was gone. Who would not help Chen Yuzhou for Chen Ruhai's sake?

I called Gan and asked him to investigate the matter.

I was very surprised by Chen Yuzhou's capabilities. I thought that hiring some assassins was the most he could do, but he managed to muster even the administration and the fire brigade.

That night, I took Chu Xiaoxiao out to dinner. The television in the restaurant was showing the news, where Li Liang was being interviewed.

The reporter's questions were straightforward, asking Li Liang why the government's rescue efforts were so slow, why such a big incident had happened, and if it was a murderer's revenge on society.

Li Liang was left red-faced and unable to answer the questions.

"I heard that the matter will affect Uncle Li's advancement."

"Looks like it's about the cruise ship," Chu Xiaoxiao commented.

"Young Master, I checked with a friend. Someone is definitely making arrangements targeting you. Junran is too big and they won't take any action against us, so everything has fallen to

"Who is it?" I asked.

Gan was unexpectedly thrown by my question. He stammered and was unwilling to answer.

The first person I thought of was Han Kun. I knew he was back, and I bet that Gan knew it too.

What if it really was Han Kun? My heart threatened to jump out of my throat. I was not afraid of him, but I did not think my feelings could take it.

I suddenly found it difficult to swallow. It felt like someone had sucker-punched me. Just the mention of her filled me with revulsion. If I could, I would never want to see her again for the rest

When Gan heard this, he sighed deeply and took back his words. Instead, he asked me if I needed
