

My Hidden Wife is Sweet

- Chapter 1690 - Troublesome Kid 2

Chapter 1690: Troublesome Kid 2

Gu Weiwei turned to the person who was speaking... it was Meng Ruya, the current girlfriend of the Second Master of the Qin Family.

Since Qin Lang had introduced his girlfriend to the guests, the boy's grandparents naturally recognized her.

Hearing what she said, he became even more certain that his grandson was not lying. This woman had hurt his precious grandson on purpose.

"You evil woman, how could you do that to a five-year-old child?"

"If anything happens to my grandson, you will pay with your life."

....

Gu Weiwei sneered and said to Meng Ruya, "Meng Ruya, which one of your eyes saw me purposely pour water on him? Which of your eyes saw me hitting him?"

"I was in the kitchen and saw you burning the child. You told him not to tell anyone about it." Meng Ruya looked determined as if she were telling the truth.

"My grandson said that you burnt him on purpose and Miss. Meng saw it with her own eyes too, are you still denying it?"

The old couple did not know that she came in with the Fu Family, because they came in when Gu Weiwei was boiling the water.

Seeing his own grandson injured, he was never going to be nice to Gu Weiwei.

"If you don't believe me, then there is nothing more to say. He doesn't look that seriously injured either." Gu Weiwei wiped off the water stain on the table, seeing the unreasonable family.

Then she picked up the milk bottle and poured some more water and milk powder into it. She decided that she would deal with them after she finished preparing her children's dinner.

But when the boy's grandfather saw her making the milk powder in such a calm way, whilst his grandson was crying next to him, and not even uttering a word of apology, he was furious.

He grabbed the milk bottle from Gu Weiwei's hands and smashed it onto the ground.

"Hey, you made the child cry, shouldn't you apologize properly?"

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth as she saw the milk bottle on the floor.

That was her little foodie Tiantian's milk bottle, and if she did not eat anything, she would burst into tears.

"Grandpa Gan, Mrs. Gan, calm down, maybe she really did not mean it." Meng Ruya stood up for Gu Weiwei as if she were a good friend.

But she knew that Grandpa Gan and Mrs. Gan must have thought that it was Mu Weiwei who had scalded their grandson and hit him, so they would never trust Mu Weiwei's words.

With the crying grandson in her arms, Mrs. Gan said to the guests passing by, "Did you know that this woman burned a five-year-old child with boiling water?"

"If you don't apologize for what happened today, the Gan Family will never forgive you," Grandpa Gan pointed at Gu Weiwei and said.

When the passers-by saw the grandson of the Gan Family crying, they became very concerned.

"Madam, children may be very naughty, but adults can't be so cruel."

"True, look at how red the child's face is, it must be so painful."

....

Everyone was concerned about the grandson of the Gan Family, but none of them noticed that Gu Weiwei's left hand had turned red too.

"Alright, let's see who is right and who is wrong. Did I really do it on purpose?"

She was just talking when Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying came in with the two children in their arms.

"Weiwei, is the milk not ready yet? Tiantian is already hungry."

With his fussing granddaughter in his arms, Fu Shengying said as he walked behind Mrs. Fu, "Tiantian, it is time for dinner, don't cry, don't cry..."

But the moment they entered the room, they saw the mess on the table. Tiantian's milk bottle was lying on the floor and milk powder was all over the place.

Fu Shengying patted Tiantian gently as he glanced at the people in the dining room.

"What is going on?"

Chapter 1691: Parents

Qin Lang, the Second Master of the Qin Family came in with Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu.

The moment he entered the room, he saw Gu Weiwei standing next to the messy dining table, whilst the crying children's Grandpa and Grandma were holding them next to her. They seemed very angry.

"Uncle Gan, what happened?"

Grandpa Gan pointed at Gu Weiwei. "This woman scalded Haohao with water and now the child is crying."

Meng Ruya gloated. Although the Fu Family were here, the Gan Family were not to be trifled with either.

The two elders of the Gan Family loved this grandson deeply and they would not let this matter go.

"Is the child alright?" Qin Lang approached the crying child and asked Meng Ruya, "Did you call the doctor?"

"I have asked the servant to bring Doctor Li here," Meng Ruya said.

Hearing their words, Mrs. Fu took a look at the reddened patch on the boy's face.

"Was it boiling water? If it was, he would have lost a layer of skin!"

Having said these words, she turned to Gu Weiwei and asked, "What is going on?"

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly. "I was pouring water for the milk when this child ran into me and some water splashed onto him."

“You lying woman, the child said that you did it on purpose, and Miss Meng saw it with her own eyes, why are you still making up stories here?” Grandma Gan was holding her crying grandson, feeling both concerned and angry.

“Why would my daughter-in-law pour water over your grandson?” Mrs. Fu snapped back with a serious expression.

“Your... your daughter-in-law?” Mrs. Gan looked at Mrs. Fu and then at Gu Weiwei.
“She is your... daughter-in-law?”

They had heard that Fu Hanzheng and Mrs. Fu were present, but they did not see her.

Could this evil woman be Fu Hanzheng’s wife?

“My grandson and granddaughter are hungry, so she came in to make the milk for them. Do you think that she is so free as to throw water at your grandson?” Mrs. Fu had one arm around Youyou and the other holding Gu Weiwei’s right hand that had turned red from the heat. She said, “Look, she spilt water on her own hands!”

“She may have scalded herself, but that doesn’t mean that she didn’t do it on purpose. The child said that she did it on purpose. She not only scalded him but also hit him.” Grandpa Gan defended his precious grandson and said with conviction, “Children never lie.”

Mrs. Fu gritted her teeth and said to Gu Weiwei.

“Hurry up and put your hand under some cold water, I will ask the Qin Family to get some burn cream.”

If Hanzheng was here, his heart would have ached at the sight

Gu Weiwei threw a look at her youngest daughter who was crying out of hunger.

So instead of dealing with the burn on her hand, she picked up the milk bottle from the floor. Luckily, the milk bottle was of good quality and it was not cracked.

She took the milk bottle and rinsed it in the kitchen, poured some more water and fed the milk to her crying daughter.

With the milk bottle in her hands, the girl stopped crying and started to drink from the milk bottle.

After coaxing her younger daughter, she shook the other bottle and gave it to her son.

When she was finished, she wiped her hands with a napkin and said to Grandpa Gan, Mrs. Gan and the crying boy, “Are you sure that your grandchild is not lying?”

Chapter 1692: The Fu Family

“Are you telling me that a five-year-old boy is lying to us?” Mrs. Gan bellowed.

Grandpa Gan followed. “Miss Meng saw it with her own eyes, what more do you want to say?”

Even if she was the daughter-in-law of the Fu Family, she would not have a good time after she hurt the grandson of the Gan Family.

“I am not trying to defend myself.” Gu Weiwei looked around the dining room and said, “There are CCTV cameras everywhere in the house today. Bring out the footage and we will know who is lying.”

Hearing her words, Meng Ruya tried to persuade her.

“Weiwei, it is the old man’s 70th birthday today, and there is no need to make such a scene. The child is crying, so just apologize and say something nice.”

Qin Lang glanced at the crowd and agreed with what Meng Ruya said.

It would be such a terrible thing if she went to the police station to investigate.

“Miss. Mu, it is a good thing that the child is not seriously injured, so you don’t have to be so extreme with so many people watching.”

Gu Weiwei’s expression sank. They all seemed to think that she had bullied that boy.

It was indeed a very simple thing to be modest, but she had done nothing wrong, so why should she apologize to anyone?

She glanced at the boy in Mrs. Gan’s arms and said, “Let’s check the CCTV and see who is right and who is wrong.”

She had been worried that he was injured since he was just a child.

But this boy kept lying and said that she splashed the water on him on purpose.

The water was cooled to more than 70 degrees Fahrenheit, and it was used to make the milk. If it had been boiling water, he would not be still crying right here.

“Weiwei, it is Old Master Qin’s birthday today and you are not giving him any face by making a big fuss,” Meng Ruya said.

Hearing her words, Qin Lang said to Mrs. Fu and Gu Weiwei, "Everyone, it is father's birthday today, please show some respect to the Qin Family and don't make a big fuss out of it, otherwise the other guests will be affected."

Grandpa Gan and Mrs. Gan said to Gu Weiwei with their arms around their grandson, "For the sake of the Qin Family and the Fu Family, she should apologize properly. If Haohao is angry, we will pursue the matter."

If she had not been Fu Hanzheng's wife, this matter would not have ended today.

Gu Weiwei found it funny. It was she who was wronged, and yet they were acting generous before she even said anything.

"I am sorry, but I am a very narrow-minded person. What is right is right and what is wrong is wrong. If it is not my fault, no one can blame it on me."

"You don't know what is good for you, do you?" Grandpa Gan did not expect that when he had compromised, the girl still did not want to give in.

Fu Shengying just could not stand it any more. With his grandson in his arms, he looked intimidating.

"Get someone to bring the CCTV here, and I will tell you the truth."

Although he did not want Gu Weiwei to marry into the Fu Family, yet they had already announced to the public that she was Mrs. Fu and the mother of the two children.

She was being bullied now, and the Fu Family would not be easily bullied.

Qin Lang looked around the restaurant. "But I remember that there are no security cameras here, and the cameras are only at the exits."

"It is easy to get the CCTV footage, I have it here." Qin Man came with a laptop when she heard the news. She placed the laptop on the table and played the CCTV video.

When Grandpa Gan and Mrs. Gan saw the scene in the video, they both turned red in embarrassment.

Chapter 1693: A Child

In the video, Gu Weiwei boiled the water and tested it after letting it cool down for a while.

Then she was about to pour water into the bottle when their grandson ran into her.

Gu Weiwei lost her balance and the water from the bottle splashed onto her hands. She did not hold the bottle well and the hot water splashed upon the grandson's face.

During the entire process, she did not spill water on the child on purpose.

Also, when the child was scalded, she did not care about the wound on her hand but tried her best to console the child.

She had not done anything to hurt the child.

Qin Man squinted at Meng Ruya who was fanning the flames. "Didn't you see Weiwei burning the child with water and hitting him? Where did you see that?"

She must have thought that she and Fu Hanzheng were a loving couple, and now they even had children together so that's why she tried to instigate the conflict out of jealousy, trying to vent her anger through the Gan Family.

But she did not know where she was.

"I... saw the child crying from the moment I came over here. From that angle, it looked as if she was hitting the child and the child said the same thing..." Meng Ruya defended herself.

Qin Man snorted. "I think you said that on purpose because there are no surveillance cameras in the kitchen. Sorry, but I installed an invisible camera."

Although it was totally at Fu Hanzheng's request, it seemed that she had now exposed Meng Ruya's good show.

Meng Ruya pursed her lips and looked at Qin Lang with reddened eyes.

"I was really wrong, I didn't mean it."

She had thought that as long as she and the child of the Gan Family spoke in this way, Weiwei would not be able to defend herself.

But what she had not expected was that Qin Man's men had installed an invisible camera so that everything that had happened within the kitchen was recorded.

Qin Lang was a bit embarrassed, but when he saw his girlfriend's pitiful look, he said to Qin Man, "Ruya did not do it on purpose, she just did not see it clearly."

“If you believe she did not see it clearly, are you the one who is blind or stupid?”

Qin Man had never liked Meng Ruya, and she just could not stand seeing her making a fuss at the Qin Family.

But no matter what she said or how much evidence she presented, her blind second brother would believe everything Meng Ruya said when he saw her shedding some tears.

Grandpa Gan and Mrs. Gan threw an embarrassed look at Gu Weiwei after seeing the CCTV. They were no longer as arrogant as before.

“Sorry, he is too young to understand anything, so don’t mind him.”

“Yes, he is just a child and he doesn’t know how to talk properly.”

....

“Now you are saying that he is just a child, and you just said that he is just a child who doesn’t know how to lie, but now you are taking advantage of me.” Gu Weiwei sneered.

He had just thought that she had hurt his grandson, so he was scolding and threatening her.

With Tiantian in his arms, Fu Shengying’s expression sank when he saw Grandpa Gan smashing her milk bottle.

“Grandpa Gan, in your family the children are so immature... and the adults are stupid!”

If they had not brought the children into the kitchen, his two grandchildren would not have been able to eat dinner.

“Children are always mischievous and inconsiderate. It is all a misunderstanding,” Grandpa Gan said with an apologetic smile.

“Inconsiderate?” Fu Shengying snorted and threw a look at their grandson in Mrs. Gan’s arms. “You are lying at such a young age and you don’t even have any manners when you are a guest at someone else’s home. What a terrible upbringing!”

Mrs. Fu threw a surprised look at Fu Shengying – what was wrong with him?

Didn’t he dislike Weiwei being his daughter-in-law? Why was he defending her now?

Chapter 1694: A Child 2

Apart from Mrs. Fu, Gu Weiwei herself also found it incredible.

Was this man, who was holding the cute Tiantian and scolding the Gan Family with a vex expression, really the Fu Shengying they knew?

“President Fu, we don’t need your advice on how to discipline our children.” Grandpa Gan got very annoyed when he heard that he was implying that the Gan Family was uncivilized.

“If you are educated, you should at least apologize after you lie, right?” Fu Shengying glanced at the three of them and said to Grandpa Gan, “You smashed someone’s things for no reason, can’t you apologize?”

Luckily, the milk bottle was of a good quality, otherwise his granddaughter would have struggled to eat her dinner.

Grandpa Gan looked a bit annoyed, although he knew that he had misunderstood her.

But he was an elder and he just could not bring himself to apologize to a junior.

“There is a misunderstanding, but it is also a fact that she scalded my grandchild.”

“Grandpa Gan, you must be reasonable. Did you not see how the water splashed on his face? Do you need me to replay the scene?” Qin Man said with a cold face.

A five-year-old child was running wild in someone else’s home, complaining, and lying.

She did not want to see such a naughty boy again.

No matter how much of an emperor he was at home, if he was messing around in the Qin Family’s territory, he would either behave himself or leave.

Qin Lang tugged at Qin Man and whispered, “It is father’s birthday, don’t embarrass the guests.”

If she defended the Fu Family in this way, the Gan Family would be humiliated.

“I didn’t mean to embarrass anyone, someone else already did it themselves,” Qin Man said angrily.

“Qin Man, is this how you talk to your elders?” Seeing that Qin Man was not giving him any face, Grandpa Gan put on the air of an elder.

Qin Man was a cold and arrogant person, and she was famous for her glib tongue.

“I don’t remember having such an elder.”

She was not going to be that easy to deal with if he wanted to show off his age in front of her.

“Qin Man!” Qin Lang could not stand it any more and bellowed.

“Stay away from me, if it had not been because of that b*tch, the situation would not have turned so ugly,” Qin Man said as she glared at Meng Ruya who was hiding behind Qin Lang’s back.

She was straightforward and not as pretentious as Meng Ruya, so she was at a disadvantage at home.

Meng Ruya’s eyes reddened constantly and she looked so wronged that she was on the verge of crying. Everyone at home would think that she was bullying someone else.

In the end, she just could not be bothered to explain anything more. She was not bullying anyone, but she was really guilty.

Whenever she met Meng Ruya, she would either make her vomit blood or hit her directly.

She just could not stand it any more.

They were just arguing when Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin came with Doctor Li whom the Qin Family had hired.

Seeing the doctor, Mrs. Gan said instantly, “Doctor Li, please take a look at the burn on my grandson’s face, will it leave a scar?”

But Doctor Li ignored her words and followed Fu Hanzheng with the medicine box, looking very obedient.

With a gloomy expression, Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands and asked Doctor Li, “What should we do?”

Seeing her grandson crying, Mrs. Gan came over to him and said, “The child has been crying for so long, can’t you check on him first?”

Chapter 1695: Not As Precious As Sister-in-law

When Mrs. Gan said that, the boy cried even louder as if he truly could not stand the pain any more.

However, the moment the words were out of his mouth, Fu Hanzheng bellowed with a cold face.

“Get out!”

The boy shivered in Mrs. Gan’s arms and did not utter a sound.

“President Fu, you have frightened the child.” Mrs. Gan shielded her grandson and reminded him loudly.

Instead of saying anything more, Fu Hanzheng glanced at Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, suggesting that they should take them away.

Mrs. Gan was about to pester them when Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin came over to see her off.

“Grandma, my brother is very angry, just stay away from him.”

“But my grandson needs to see the doctor too! Look at his face!” Mrs. Gan bellowed.

“My sister-in-law’s hands are burnt!” Fu Shiqin snorted.

“Your grandson is not as precious as my sister-in-law!” Fu Shiyi snorted.

His brother was already very nervous when his sister-in-law sneezed, and now when his woman’s hands were injured, they still dared to ask the doctor to check the boy’s wound first. How ridiculous?!

Seeing the scene, Qin Lang followed them out and said with a gentle voice, “Uncle Gan, I can ask the driver to drive you to the nearest clinic.”

He had heard from Qin Man that Fu Hanzheng doted on his wife the most, but because of the collision with the Gan Family’s child, her hands were now injured.

Fu Hanzheng was worried about his wife, and when the wounds were treated, he would then deal with them.

But it was the birthday banquet of the Qin Family, and it would not look good if there was a huge conflict among the guests.

Therefore, he had to ask them to leave with the excuse of checking the child's wound.

Mrs. Gan was not willing to leave, but Grandpa Gan understood what he meant and said to Qin Lang, "Thanks for your trouble, we will take the child to the doctor now."

Having said these words, she went into the car with his wife and grandson.

"What are you doing? Where are we going to find a clinic? There is a doctor here and so we don't have to go all the way over there." The moment Mrs. Gan got into the car, she protested to Grandpa Gan.

Grandpa Gan asked the driver to drive and said to Mrs. Gan, "Didn't you see Fu Hanzheng's expression? Also, we are not in the right, and if we continue to fight, we will offend the Qin Family and the Fu Family."

He might care about his grandson, but he still needed to stay clear-headed when it came to family interests.

In the dining room of the Qin Family, the doctor said to Fu Hanzheng as he checked her wounds, "Luckily, the water temperature was not that high, just some redness, so it's not that serious."

Gu Weiwei added. "The water was cooled down and it was only a little bit hot."

Doctor Li took out the ointment and said, "Put some ice cubes on it for a few minutes, then put on the ointment."

Hearing his words, Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin went to fetch the ice cubes.

Fu Hanzheng took the ice cubes from them and put them on the back of her burnt hands. His face was still gloomy, showing that he was still angry.

Mrs. Fu said, with Youyou in her arms, "I think Youyou is going to fall asleep."

"He didn't sleep much in the afternoon, maybe he is going to nap now," Gu Weiwei said to Mrs. Fu.

Seeing the sleepy boy in her arms, Mrs. Fu said helplessly, "I will bring him upstairs so he can sleep."

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin left the kitchen, with Tiantian in Fu Shengying's arms, leaving only Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng behind.

Seeing his unhappy expression, Gu Weiwei said with a smile, "It is just a little red, and the water wasn't that hot and so it's not too painful."

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and said, "I should have come with you."

If he had come with her, nothing like this would have happened.

Chapter 1696: Kuroda Keiko Leaves

The coldness of the ice reduced the burning pain and made her feel much better.

But seeing Fu Hanzheng's face, she felt a bit annoyed.

"In a couple of days it will be better, so don't worry."

However, Fu Hanzheng was not appeased by her words.

He put the ice cubes on her for ten minutes before applying the ointment over the wound.

"Feeling better now?"

"Much better." Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time. "The birthday banquet should start soon, so we will leave soon."

It was boring for him to stay at this banquet.

Gu Weiwei pointed out the issue with this plan. At this moment, Youyou was about to fall asleep and soon, so would Tiantian.

If they did not go home now, they would both fall asleep and it would be a problem to wake them up.

Fu Hanzheng did not want to go out before dinner, so he sat down with her. He thought that when the banquet started later, they could go home when everyone was halfway through eating.

The two of them sat for a dozen minutes alone, before the birthday banquet was announced.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of Gu Weiwei's hands and they were about to take their seats, when Yuan Meng came in with her phone.

“Here, Keiko is calling you.”

Gu Weiwei took the phone and asked Fu Hanzheng to leave first, whilst she answered the call in the dining room.

“What is it, Keiko?”

Hearing her voice, Kuroda Keiko said with a gentle voice, “Weiwei, I am going back to Japan.”

Gu Weiwei was surprised. “Now?”

Wasn't she supposed to see her off in a couple of days? Why was she leaving now?

And she had to catch the overnight flight.

“Yes, something urgent has come up at home, so I need to go home now,” Kuroda Keiko said.

Hearing that something was happening at home, Gu Weiwei did not ask her to stay.

“Are you leaving now?”

If they had left earlier, she and Fu Hanzheng would have been able to say goodbye to Keiko.

“I'm on my way, but I truly have left in a hurry and didn't have time to say goodbye to you.”

Gu Weiwei sighed regretfully. “Then be careful.”

She thought that after this separation, she and Keiko might not be able to meet again.

“Okay,” Kuroda Keiko answered and said after a moment of silence, “Weiwei, I wish you and Fu Hanzheng happiness, happiness for an entire lifetime.”

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei thanked her with a smile and said with a heavy heart, “Goodbye, Keiko.”

Kuroda Keiko stayed silent for a moment and said, “Goodbye, Weiwei.”

She ended the call, returned to the banquet site and sat down next to Fu Hanzheng.

“What is it, why did she call you?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a low voice.

Gu Weiwei sighed. "Something has come up at Keiko's home, so she has to go back to Japan. She called me to let me know and say goodbye."

Fu Hanzheng nodded and did not ask anything more.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying and found that Fu Shiqin was holding Tiantian but Youyou wasn't with them.

"Aunt, where is Youyou?"

"This boy fell asleep, so I asked the nursery teacher to keep watch in Qin Man's room so that he can sleep for a while," Mrs. Fu said.

Gu Weiwei smiled helplessly. This boy woke up at six in the morning and only slept for a short while in the afternoon. No wonder he was feeling sleepy now.

But the birthday banquet was about to start, so she couldn't go home with him in her arms.

But if he kept sleeping for a long time, he would not be able to take a bath tonight.

Chapter 1697: Youyou Gone Missing

Since Old Master Qin never liked celebrating his birthday outside, he built a huge banquet hall next to the Qin Family's villa.

They had specially invited a famous host of the capital's TV Station who was humorous and funny, so that the banquet looked very harmonious.

Sitting next to Gu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng looked distractedly at her burnt hands.

"Are they still hurting?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "The ointment worked, so they don't hurt any more."

Fu Hanzheng nodded and felt slightly calmer.

Fu Shiqin was sitting next to them with Tiantian in his arms. Seeing the food on the table, Tiantian tried her best to climb onto the table.

Fu Shiqin took hold of her, but the girl was still trying hard to pull the tablecloth.

“But you just ate dinner.” Fu Shiyi felt helpless.

Where had the large bottle of milk gone?

In the end, she had no choice but to give up when Fu Shiqin gave her snacks and cookies.

Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu did not know whether to laugh or cry. It seemed that there was nothing delicious that could be kept from Tiantian.

She was just barely able to eat some supplementary food, and if there were more things she could eat, this girl would eat it all!

Seeing his brother asking about his sister-in-law’s burn, Fu Shiqin whispered, “The Gan Family have left with the boy, what are you going to do?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at him. “That boy was a bit naughty, but you want Hanzheng to make a big fuss out of such a small matter. What would people say about us in the future?”

He drove the whole family out of the capital last time because of the school incident.

The boy bumped into her today and so what was he going to do to the Gan Family now? If he did something, he was going to ruin the Fu Family’s reputation.

“Of course it is a big deal!” Fu Shiqin said as he saw his brother’s unhappy expression. “Sister-in-law, everything about you is a big deal!”

The Gan Family might have left, but his brother was a narrow-minded man who would definitely punish them.

Instead of making any comments, Fu Hanzheng kept looking at the watch as if he could not wait to leave.

Gu Weiwei reminded him with a small voice. “Don’t look so impatient, the Qin Family might say something.”

Everyone could tell that he could not wait to leave.

“I have been here before, and I have given them face,” Fu Hanzheng said.

If he did not want to give the Qin Family face, he would not have shown up.

Hearing that they were leaving soon, Fu Shengying took his granddaughter from Fu Shiqin’s arms.

If they left together, he would not know when they would meet again.

Twenty minutes after the birthday banquet started, Fu Hanzheng said to Gu Weiwei as the banquet was about to start, "Let's go."

"I am going to the bathroom and then I'll bring Youyou downstairs with me."

Gu Weiwei got up, left her seat and went straight to the second floor of the Qin Family's villa.

Then she went to the bathroom and went straight to Qin Man's room.

But she did not see Youyou in the room, nor did she see the nursery teacher who was taking care of him.

As she was searching on the second floor, she made a call to the nursery teacher, but no one answered the call.

So she thought that maybe the boy was awake and the nursery teacher took him downstairs to play with him.

She went downstairs and searched around the residential area but failed to find her or get through to her phone.

That made her feel a bit uneasy, so she hurried back to the banquet hall to find Fu Hanzheng.

"The child and the nursery teacher are not in the room. No one answered my call either... I wonder where she went with the child."

Chapter 1698: Youyou Gone Missing 2

"They're not in the room?" Fu Hanzheng got up too.

Gu Weiwei frowned. "I called her several times but no one answered the phone. I looked around and didn't find them either."

"Don't worry, I will get someone to find them." Fu Hanzheng patted her shoulders, got up and left.

Unconvinced, Gu Weiwei followed him out.

The nursery teachers had never taken the children away from where they knew they were before, and they never ignored their calls. That made her increasingly uneasy.

Fu Hanzheng soon made a call to Yuan Meng and asked her to bring some of her men.

Qin Man was answering a call outside and asked, when she saw them coming out, "What is going on? Are you leaving so soon?"

Gu Weiwei looked anxious. "Qin Man, did you see Youyou and the nursery teacher who came with us? Youyou was in your room and she was with him. Now they are missing."

Hearing her words, Qin Man looked serious.

"I will ask someone to help you look for them. They should be around here."

The two little ones were the dearest children of the Fu Family. If something happened to them at the Qin Family, they would have to take the blame.

But with so many bodyguards of the Qin Family and the Fu Family around, nothing would happen.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin soon followed them and started to search for the twins with everyone else.

Pursing her lips, Gu Weiwei started to panic.

Ten minutes later, Yuan Meng came out of the Qin Family's villa and said to Fu Hanzheng seriously, "Come and take a look at the third floor."

Gu Weiwei's heart sank. She was about to rush upstairs when she slipped in her high-heels and almost fell.

Luckily, Fu Hanzheng was next to her and he took hold of her hands.

Then they went straight to the third floor.

The door of a utility room was opened and a bodyguard of the Fu Family was standing by the door.

When they entered the room, the only thing they saw was the nursery teacher inside, who seemed to have just woken up. But Youyou wasn't with her.

"Where is Youyou?" Gu Weiwei asked the nursery teacher when she did not see her son.

The nursery teacher shook her head with tears. "Madam, I don't know. I was guarding the young master in the room when someone put a handkerchief over my mouth and nose and I passed out. I just woke up... and now I am here."

Hearing her words, Gu Weiwei felt a chill spreading over her body, making her shake.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and said with a gentle voice, "Wait for me downstairs, I will deal with it."

As a matter of fact, he was as frightened as she was, but he had to calm himself down and deal with the situation.

Yuan Meng threw a worried look at Gu Weiwei. "I have already asked my men to check the surveillance cameras. Our men did not find any suspicious cars coming or going."

The nursery teacher was covered and hidden on the third floor, but the boy was nowhere to be seen. This was a planned kidnapping.

The other party picked a very opportune time. It was the time when the birthday banquet started and most of the people were focused on the banquet hall.

Therefore, no one noticed what was going on here.

"What do you mean? Youyou was kidnapped?" Fu Shiyi asked as he stood at the doorstep.

Yuan Meng glared at him, suggesting that he should not mention such a sensitive topic in front of Gu Weiwei.

"We are not sure yet, let's talk downstairs."

Actually, someone must have done this on purpose.

But Weiwei had always loved her two children dearly, and now when Youyou was missing, she was the one suffering the most.

Chapter 1699: The Gu Family?

Gu Weiwei had no idea how she came to the living room from the third floor, and the first step she took made her legs weak.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin paced back and forth in the living room, feeling extremely furious.

“Who would dare to do that with so many people around?”

“Who on earth attacked an eight-month-old child?”

....

Seeing Gu Weiwei who had been waiting for the news in silence, Yuan Meng turned pale.

So she bellowed at Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin.

“Can you two just shut up?”

Everyone was in a tense state, and their talking only made them more annoyed.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin looked at their brother and sister-in-law and shut up.

With one arm around Gu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng said to Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, “You two send Old Lady and our parents back to the old mansion. The Qin Family is not safe any more.”

“But Youyou...” Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin got worried when they thought of their nephew whom they had not heard anything about.

“Go now!” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look and hurried back to the banquet hall.

“Dad, mom, grandma, let’s go home.”

Seeing them coming over, Mrs. Fu asked instantly, “Didn’t you say that Youyou is missing, have you found anything?”

Fu Shiqin shook his head with a serious face. “We have found the nursery teacher, but Youyou is missing. My brother says that staying here with the Qin Family is not safe, so he asked us to drive you and Tiantian back to the old mansion first.”

“Gone? How did he disappear?” Fu Shengying asked instantly.

They were still holding him in their arms less than an hour ago, but he was placed in Qin Man’s room and someone was even guarding him there. So where was he?

“No, let’s go and see what is going on,” Mrs. Fu said with a quivering voice.

She had put Youyou into the room, and so now she was responsible for his disappearance.

“Mom, don’t cause them any more trouble, let our brother and sister-in-law find the child,” Fu Shiyi took hold of Mrs. Fu’s hands and said with a low voice.

Old Lady was startled too but she calmed herself down and said, “Shiyi is right, this place is not safe. Let’s bring Tiantian back first and wait for their news. It would be troublesome if we go now.”

Mrs. Fu got so anxious that her voice changed. “How did he disappear? It has been less than an hour and I even asked the nursery teacher to keep watch over him...”

“Mom, we are not sure what is going on. We can only help them after we drive you home.” Fu Shiqin helped them into the car and started the car.

Fu Shiyi took the passenger’s seat and asked the bodyguards to drive two cars to escort them home.

Sitting in the car, Mrs. Fu felt increasingly regretful.

“I should not have persuaded them to bring the children here. He was sleeping well, but what happened to him?”

....

Hanzheng had told her that the Qin Family was messy and it was not safe for them to be here, and she had thought that it was not that serious, so she had persuaded them to come.

But unexpectedly... something did happen.

“Our men are everywhere at the Qin’s Family home, we can’t do anything right now to help.” Fu Shiqin was driving as he analyzed calmly. “There are way too many people coming and going at the Qin Family today. We were all at the birthday banquet and no one noticed what was going on at the Qin Family’s villa.”

Fu Shengying, who had been silent, suddenly said, “Are they from the Gu Family?”

Silent for a moment, Fu Shiqin finally said, “What is going on?”

Actually, the most suspicious person was definitely the Gu Family.

Because they just could not imagine who would go against the Fu Family in this way.

“If Youyou was kidnapped, it must have been Gu Siting.” Fu Shengying’s expression turned gloomy.

They failed the carjacking last time, but this time, they had their eyes upon the two children.

Since the children had been in the villa area all the time, Gu Siting’s men had no chance of coming into contact with the children. So when they were at the Qin Family’s mansion and fewer people were guarding the place, they plotted against the child.

Mrs. Fu covered her face helplessly. “It is all my fault! I should not have forced them to come and put the child in someone else’s room!”

She knew that they were not in the safety of their home, but she still placed the sleeping Youyou in someone else’s room.

If she had not put him in the room and just kept hugging him to sleep, none of this would have happened.

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips and focused upon driving.

Fu Shiyi turned to the elders in the back seat. “Don’t worry, trust that our brother will find him. Take good care of Tiantian, and don’t distract our brother.”

Without saying anything more, Fu Shengying took hold of his granddaughter who was still chewing the cookies.

As Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin were escorting the elders of the Fu Family back home, the CCTV of the Qin Family arrived.

“Something is wrong with these two cameras, it seems that someone has tampered with them, so... we can’t see when the child was taken downstairs.”

“What about upstairs? You didn’t get anything from the cameras up there?” Gu Weiwei was anxious.

Qin Man said helplessly, “There are bedrooms upstairs and living areas, so there are no surveillance cameras.”

Also, they had never expected that they would put the child on the second floor.

“And none of the exits?” Gu Weiwei asked.

“In the past one hour, eight cars have gone out.” Yuan Meng pointed at the screen and said, “One belongs to the Gan Family, two belong to high-ranking government officials and one belongs to the Qin Family.”

Gu Weiwei was not in the mood to check every car as she said between sobs, “I just want to know which car Youyou is in.”

“We did not see anyone carrying the child directly into the car from the exit or the CCTV, so we can only check the cars involved.” Yuan Meng threw a concerned look at her and continued speaking, “According to the time when Youyou was carried upstairs, the child was taken away within half an hour and only five cars went out within this half an hour. I have asked the Qin Family to contact the people who drove the cars out.”

Soon, Qin Man came to the door and answered a call.

“We have asked two cars to return, and the drivers of the three remaining cars are not answering the phone. But I have already asked my men to track the cars using the CCTV in the city.”

She had just said the words when a text arrived.

She showed it to them and said, “One car is heading towards the port, one is heading towards a small airport in the suburbs and one seems to have met with someone on the roadside. Here are the pictures.”

Seeing the picture, Gu Weiwei grabbed the phone and enlarged it.

“Keiko? That person is Keiko?!”

It was a woman who met the driver in the picture. She was wearing a windbreaker and even the car she was driving belonged to the Fu Family.

It was not very clear, but she recognized that it was Kuroda Keiko who had called her before the birthday banquet started.

Chapter 1701: Where is Youyou?!

Yuan Meng leaned forward and said to Fu Hanzheng, “It seems to be... Keiko.”

He had reminded her that Kuroda Keiko might have stayed by Weiwei’s side on purpose, but now... was this really the case?

In the picture, Kuroda Keiko met the driver and put a cardboard box into the car.

The box was not small and could fit an eight-month-old child.

Qin Man looked at them and said, "I have told the police and traffic police to stop these cars, what should we do next..."

They had arranged people everywhere and they had checked every single one of them. How did someone manage to sneak in and steal their son?

But what happened had already happened, and it happened at the Qin Family's mansion, so they had to take the blame.

What was more, Fu Hanzheng had not planned to show up, but they had tried their best to get them to come here.

And now when something happened to the child, she felt very regretful too.

After hearing Yuan Meng's words, Lei Ning sent out her men and made a call to Lei Meng about splitting up.

Gu Weiwei threw down the phone and was about to leave after she recognized Kuroda Keiko in the picture.

"I will go to her, I will go to her..."

"Weiwei, Weiwei, calm down." Fu Hanzheng took hold of her, fearing that something would happen to her if she rushed out.

What if it was just a trap for them to kidnap the boy so that she would get confused and rush out?

"I can't calm down. You don't want me to find him, you don't want me to find him..." Gu Weiwei got so annoyed that she struggled to get rid of Fu Hanzheng's hands.

How could she be calm enough to wait here when her son was taken away?

Seeing the scene, Yuan Meng said to Fu Hanzheng, "Let her go, I will go with her."

She would go crazy if she had to wait here.

But Fu Hanzheng could not keep her company at this hour, because before the child was found, he had to be in charge here.

They were just suspecting that the boy was with Keiko, but the other two missing cars were equally suspicious.

Seeing his wife on the verge of breaking down, Fu Hanzheng released her helplessly.

“Yuan Meng, you drive, stay safe.”

The moment he released her, Gu Weiwei had already dashed off.

Hearing Fu Hanzheng’s words, Yuan Meng ran after him.

She rushed out to stop Gu Weiwei from driving. “Let me do it, I am better at driving than you.”

She was worried that she would crash the car before the child was found.

In order to stop Kuroda Keiko as soon as possible, they drove the sports car Fu Shiyi had left behind.

On the way, Qin Man called her from time to time and told her where Kuroda Keiko’s car was going.

Yuan Meng drove the sports car like a rocket. They were fast and with the cooperation of the police and traffic police, they finally stopped Kuroda Keiko at the intersection of the airport highway.

She had just stepped on the brakes when Weiwei in the passenger’s seat opened the door and went out. She rushed to Kuroda Keiko’s car and opened the paper box.

But what was inside were only some specialties of Hua Land, and the child wasn’t inside.

She just could not believe it, so she dug out everything in the suitcase and then went through the entire car.

However, there was no trace of the boy.

She grabbed hold of Kuroda Keiko and asked anxiously, “Where is my son, Youyou?”

Chapter 1702: Bastard Gu Siting

“Youyou?” Kuroda Keiko looked at Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng who suddenly appeared and asked confusedly, “What is wrong with you?”

“Youyou is missing.” Gu Weiwei was on the verge of collapsing. “What on earth did Gu Siting ask you to do here? Where is my son?”

“Gu Siting?!” Kuroda Keiko was confused and asked Yuan Meng, “What happened?”

“One hour ago, someone took Youyou away from the Qin Family.” Yuan Meng looked at her steadily and said, “One of the suspects met up with you and you took something from him.”

It was way too suspicious when she showed up around the Qin Family area.

“But those are just some specialties that my brother asked me to bring home,” Kuroda Keiko said as she looked at the two women, “Are you sure that it was the Gu Family?”

“Who else would be so crazy?” Yuan Meng said with her teeth clenched.

Gu Weiwei released Kuroda Keiko and ran her fingers through her hair, which had been messed up by the wind. She looked at the endless night helplessly and burst into tears.

Yuan Meng wanted to console her, but she had no idea where to start. No one would be able to console her well when her child was missing.

So she asked Kuroda Keiko for confirmation, “Did the driver really just give you these things?”

“Yes, he said that he was busy and asked me to pick them up from him at that place.” Kuroda Keiko confessed.

Yuan Meng bit her lips and asked, “Why are you in such a hurry to leave?”

“Something has happened to my daughter, and I am in a hurry to get back. My brother also called and asked me to bring the stuff back, so...” Kuroda Keiko said as she realized that she had been used by her brother.

No, she must have been used by Gu Siting.

“So, it really is that bastard Gu Siting,” Yuan Meng said with teeth clenched.

Keiko was the chess move that had attracted their attention. He had predicted that when they found that Keiko was in contact with the driver and got hold of a suspicious box, they would suspect her first.

They suspected that she was sent by the Gu Family, so they didn't let down their guard but unexpectedly they could still take the child away.

But in the end, Keiko was used by them too.

Having cursed, she made a call to Fu Hanzheng.

Since the child was not with Kuroda Keiko, one of the two suspicious drivers must have taken the child away.

“The child is not in the car, and she has been set up by her brother. But... we can basically confirm that it was Gu Siting who arranged it.”

Otherwise he would not have tried so hard to make them suspicious by using Keiko.

Fu Hanzheng sighed with one hand against his forehead.

“The car heading towards the port has been stopped. The child is not in the car, but the other car seems to have noticed us.”

After explaining the situation, he asked, “How is Weiwei?”

Yuan Meng glanced at the young mother who was having a mental breakdown.

“She’s doing okay, I will bring her home safe and sound.”

She wanted to say that she was not in a good place, but she was worried that Fu Hanzheng would get distracted and it would affect the rescue of the child.

So she had to say something that wasn’t the truth.

“Okay,” Fu Hanzheng answered, rang off and continued with the rescue plan.

Yuan Meng put away her phone and approached Weiwei.

“One car has been stopped, and the child is not in the car. The other car is still being pursued by Lei Ning and Lei Meng who are chasing them.”

Hearing her words, Gu Weiwei looked up and said, “Where are they now? Let’s go there now.”

Her son was not here with Keiko, nor was he in the car, so he must be in the car that was still at large.

Yuan Meng knew that she should bring her back to Fu Hanzheng safely.

But they had known each other for years, and she knew that she would not go home obediently.

Therefore, without saying a word of objection, she got back into the car and became her driver. She also contacted Lei Ning so that she could arrive where they are as soon as possible.

Kuroda Keiko followed them into the car.

“I will go with you.”

She had been in a hurry to get home for her daughter, but if she had just been used to stir their suspicions, then her daughter’s illness would not be real.

If it had been her brother Kuroda Shio who had called her about her daughter’s illness, she might not have believed it.

But when she received the call from the main family, she naturally believed that her daughter was really sick and decided to go home.

Then her brother called and asked her to bring the Hua Land gifts back.

So she went to receive the gifts from the Qin Family and was about to board the private jet arranged by the Gu Family to return home overnight.

If one did not know the inside story, one would suspect that she was the one who took away the child.

Yuan Meng was driving as she answered Lei Ning’s call. Before she said anything, Gu Weiwei had already taken over the phone.

“Where are you now?”

Startled, Lei Ning reported her position and direction.

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei asked, “Where is the car now?”

“They have noticed that we are chasing them, so they have dodged some surveillance cameras. We have lost track of them, but we do know that she disappeared in this neighborhood.” Lei Ning was surprised that she was not with Fu Hanzheng, but she still told her the truth.

Gu Weiwei looked calmer than ever. “We are on our way.”

Within half an hour, they arrived at the block where Lei Ning and her men were.

“Did you find him?”

Lei Ning shook her head. “After the camera at the intersection, she did not show up on the next camera. We checked the camera at the convenience store and found that it did enter this block, but the car has not been found anywhere else...”

“We are not looking for that car, we are looking for that person,” Gu Weiwei said anxiously, “If that car is not here, then they must have changed cars.”

“Boss says so too. We are checking every CCTV camera in the city,” Lei Ning said.

After they lost the exact location of the car, the boss said that the other party might want to change their vehicle, so the person in charge of the CCTV search had already focused upon the person instead of the car.

They were just talking when one of them called Lei Ning.

Lei Ning answered the call and afterwards she said to them, “The car has been found, but no one is in it.”

“Take me there,” Gu Weiwei said.

Lei Ning went into the car and guided her, Yuan Meng and Keiko to the community where the car was located. The door was already opened by their men.

Gu Weiwei got out of the car and rushed to the car door, only to find that the car was empty.

But there was a baby hat on the passenger’s seat, and it was the exact same hat worn by her Youyou.

“This is Youyou’s hat, this is Youyou’s hat...”

Fu Hanzheng was informed of the situation as soon as possible.

They had found the car and found the boy’s hat, but the culprit and the boy were nowhere to be found.

Chapter 1704: Step by Step

Yuan Meng approached her and patted her shoulders.

“It seems that Youyou is indeed in the hands of this driver. We just need to find him.”

Holding the hat tightly, Gu Weiwei brushed away her messy hair and mumbled, “No, it can’t be that simple, it can’t be that simple...”

What he did to her last time was just a trick to make them aware that he was going to do something to her.

Actually, his real purpose was the child.

Also, he had been arranging everything in secret the moment they decided to visit the Qin Family.

The three suspicious drivers led them to Keiko, and when they caught up with her, they found that she was innocent.

That was a well-thought-out plan.

“Let’s go home first and think of a way with Fu Hanzheng. We can’t go on like this,” Yuan Meng said.

Gu Weiwei looked around, covered her mouth and nose to conceal her emotions and tears and nodded in disappointment.

“There must be something we missed at the Qin Family.”

Kuroda Keiko followed up and said, “Yes, the child can’t be brought out in such a blatant way, he must...”

Gu Weiwei looked at her in astonishment and suddenly realized something.

“Yuan Meng, phone, give me the phone...”

Yuan Meng was making a call to Yuan Shuo in Italy so that his men in A Land could keep an eye out for Gu Siting.

“What is it?”

Instead of explaining anything more, Gu Weiwei leaned forward and grabbed her phone, rang off and called Fu Hanzheng with shaking hands.

After a few rings, Fu Hanzheng picked it up.

“You...”

She gripped the phone tightly and said with a shivering voice, "Fu Hanzheng, Youyou is still at the Qin Family, and these people are trying to distract us. Gu Siting would not have allowed the child to be brought out so openly."

"Among these three drivers, we may be able to stop him. Youyou is not in the driver's car, but one of the guests' cars."

....

Hearing the words, Fu Hanzheng turned to Qin Man.

"Are the guests still here?"

Startled, Qin Man confessed.

"It finished one hour ago. Except for father's old friends, most of them are gone."

Gu Weiwei heard Qin Man's voice through the phone and covered her mouth as she sobbed.

Too late, everything was too late.

Yuan Meng turned around and saw Gu Weiwei who was sobbing. "Are you saying that Youyou was not taken out by the three cars?"

Gu Weiwei felt very regretful that she had not thought of this earlier.

Kuroda Keiko patted her back and explained to Yuan Meng.

"The three suspicious drivers, including me, are just trying to distract you so that when you suspect that the child is in our hands, you will all come out to find him."

"But no matter how many of us you find, you will never find the child, because the child is not with me or with those three people."

....

"But that hat..." Yuan Meng threw a look at the baby hat in Gu Weiwei's hands.

"That driver might only have this hat with him, because he wanted us to think that Youyou is in his car. He is not running anywhere else, he must be hiding in one of the residential buildings in this neighborhood.

"When you spent a great deal of time looking for him, the birthday banquet of the Qin Family had already come to an end. All the guests left the Qin Family, and Youyou... was taken away in one of the cars."

....

That was what had made them confused.

Yuan Meng sat in the car and smashed her fist against the steering wheel. There were dozens of cars going in and out of the Qin Family's mansion tonight, and if all of them left the Qin Family's mansion, how were they going to find out which car took away Youyou?

Chapter 1705: Gifts From the Gu Family

When Gu Weiwei returned to the Qin Family, it was already one in the morning.

Before she returned, Fu Hanzheng had already figured out who brought a driver and who drove here by themselves with Qin Man's help.

Then she listed the drivers as the targets of investigation.

After all, none of the guests dared to tie up the children of the Fu Family.

Then the person who took away the child must have been the driver of someone's family, or more accurately, a disguised driver.

Standing in the living room of the Qin Family, Fu Hanzheng saw the headlights from afar and guessed that they were here.

And Gu Weiwei's suppressed sobbing on the phone had made him worried, so he went out to pick her up.

The moment Yuan Meng's car pulled over, he pulled open the door.

The moment the door was opened, he saw Gu Weiwei sitting in the backseat with her head buried in her hands, looking helpless.

"...Weiwei."

Gu Weiwei looked up slowly and saw the man standing outside with tears still streaming down her face.

"Fu Hanzheng, Youyou will be found, right?"

“Yes, I promise,” Fu Hanzheng said firmly and took her hands as they got out of the car.

He removed his suit jacket and put it over her as he entered with her in his arms.

“All the cars used by the guests are being checked. We will know soon.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and did not ask anything more.

She believed that he was also feeling terrible facing such a situation.

Now he not only had to track down the child, but also could not be distracted by her emotions.

As they came to the living room of the Qin Family, Old Master Qin said to Gu Weiwei apologetically, “I am sorry, I had intended to meet you and your children, but I did not expect that something like this would happen in our home.”

Gu Weiwei threw a sharp look at everyone from the Qin Family and snapped.

“Old Master Qin, it is your birthday today, we don’t want to ruin your mood.

“But who leaked the news about us bringing the children to the birthday banquet, and who is working with them to come up with such an interconnecting plan? What... did you receive from the Gu Family?”

....

Without the help of the Qin Family, the flawless plan would not have been so successful.

Qin Man and Qin Lang knew that they were responsible for what happened to the Qin Family, so they did not counter them directly.

“Weiwei, we are also worried about your son’s disappearance, but the Qin Family and the Fu Family have been friends for decades, how would our family help outsiders to harm your child?”

“When Aunt carried the child upstairs, very few people knew about it. Who told the kidnapers that the child was in your bedroom and who broke the camera at the staircase? These people are not from the Qin Family, how could they have done that within such a short time?” Gu Weiwei snapped anxiously.

It seemed that this matter had nothing to do with the Qin Family, but when she thought about it carefully, she realized that it had everything to do with the Qin Family.

She even suspected that they had wanted them to bring the children here because they were up to something.

“Mu Weiwei, you are helping your family to find the child, and the birthday banquet has now even finished. What more do you want?” Meng Ruya stepped forward and accused Weiwei.

But seeing her losing her son, she felt much better.

1

“It was because the birthday banquet finished ahead of time that Youyou was driven out of the Qin Family!” Gu Weiwei sounded fierce.

Chapter 1706: Out of Home within Three Minutes

Qin Man sighed helplessly and explained patiently.

“There must be some misunderstanding. My father announced that the birthday banquet would end ahead of time so you could find the child. He had no idea that the child was still in the Qin Family.”

So it was out of kindness that the birthday banquet ended ahead of time, but because the guests left ahead of time the child was brought out of the Qin Family without a sound.

They were the ones who invited them to the birthday banquet and now the child was lost at the Qin Family, so they missed the best opportunity to save the child.

Seeing Gu Weiwei blaming the Qin Family for losing the child, Meng Ruya stepped forward to defend Qin Man.

“The Qin Family did not kidnap your child, don’t try to sow discord between the two families.”

Qin Man was already very annoyed, so she got angry when she saw her interrupting.

“The Qin Family and the Fu Family are talking, not you! Get out of here!”

Startled, Meng Ruya bit her lips and turned to Qin Lang.

“Xiaoxun...”

Qin Lang was just about to defend Meng Ruya when Qin Man lectured him.

“If she doesn’t get out of the house within three minutes, I will see her out myself.”

What was she doing here when such a serious matter was not yet solved?

Qin Lang sighed helplessly and said to Meng Ruya, “Ruya, you can go home now.”

It was not a good time for her to say such words.

Although she was defending the Qin Family, she was adding fuel to the fire.

Meng Ruya pursed her lips and left obediently.

Although she still wanted to stay and watch the show, if Qin Lang did not speak up for her, it would not be a good thing for her to stay.

Seeing her leaving, Qin Man said to Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei, “I will check everyone in the Qin Family thoroughly, and I will check everything that went wrong with the surveillance cameras. As for inviting you to the birthday banquet and ending it ahead of time, we really didn’t have a purpose.”

But the thief had made use of this opportunity so that they were also suspected.

With Gu Weiwei in his arms, Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Qin Man and said, “I don’t have time to find out what happened on your family’s end, but whether the Qin Family is innocent or not will be revealed one day.”

It was impossible for them to believe that this matter had nothing to do with the Qin Family based on such a far-fetched explanation.

Qin Man wanted to argue, but she did not want to irritate them at this hour. Their child was missing and she could understand why they were in a bad mood.

The most important thing now was to find their son and everything else would be solved.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of Gu Weiwei and whispered, “Let’s go home.”

They still needed to find the child, but staying in the Qin Family was not as convenient as being at one’s own home.

Also, she looked way too tired, so he had to drive her home.

Gu Weiwei nodded, left the Qin Family and went into the car with him. She had been holding onto the small hat the entire time and her heart seemed to be gripped by an invisible hand.

They had just come out of the gate when Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin arrived.

Since they already knew about the situation from Lei Ning, they did not ask anything more in case they made them sadder.

“Shiqin, stay here and see if there is anything suspicious about the Qin Family, especially... Qin Lv.” Fu Hanzheng warned.

Kuroda Shio had visited the Qin Family twice before.

Although he did not seem to have agreed to anything, yet after what happened today, he had to suspect something.

Chapter 1707: Not necessarily going to A Land

“I understand.” Fu Shiqin nodded and said, “Don’t go to the company tomorrow, I will be there.”

His brother was not in the mood to deal with work when his son was missing and sister-in-law was not in a good state.

Fu Hanzheng answered briefly and went into the car with Gu Weiwei.

On the way home, everyone was silent.

Sitting in the passenger’s seat, Yuan Meng turned around and threw a look at the two people behind her.

“We’ll guard all the airports, ports and exits of the capital, and won’t let them take the child out of Hua Land.”

But even if the capital was defended, there were still numerous routes leading to other places of Hua Land. It was not that easy to defend the entire capital.

“Yes, but they may not necessarily bring the child to A Land.” Fu Hanzheng sighed.

They were looking for Youyou, and it was too risky to bring the child to A Land.

Also, Cayman Dorrans' men were watching Gu Siting too.

Hearing his words, Yuan Meng turned to the two of them and said, "Are you saying that they might hide the child here in Hua Land?"

"It's very possible," Fu Hanzheng said.

They had taken away Youyou to hurt him and Weiwei, so as long as they could not find the child, they would not have the upper hand or negotiating power.

Yuan Meng threw a worried look at Gu Weiwei. The child had been taken away by Gu Siting's men and his ultimate purpose was nothing more than for her sake.

So soon he would contact her and threaten her to return to the Gu Family by using the boy.

It was much easier for him to do that than to let the boy be found.

When they returned to villa No.7, it was already two in the morning.

Fu Hanzheng took Gu Weiwei to the dining room and asked the servant to deliver the dinner.

"Weiwei, you have not eaten anything since the afternoon, finish the porridge."

With the hat against her lips, Gu Weiwei shook her head.

"I can't."

At this hour, she had no idea where her son was, whether he had eaten or drunk anything, and whether the person with him would mistreat him.

Her heart almost broke when she thought of this.

"Eat something and go to bed, alright?" Fu Hanzheng's heart ached seeing her like this.

As the father, he did care about his two children.

But he was not as invested in them as she was.

She gave birth to the children after nine months of pregnancy and she loved them deeply. In order to keep them company as they grew up, she had put down the career she loved.

But her son was taken away at this hour, and he was taken away because of her. She must be feeling terrible.

No matter how much he wanted to share the burden with her, she would always feel sad.

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath with her eyes closed and looked up at this man who looked worried.

Finally, she compromised and picked up the porridge, but put it down after eating half a bowl.

“I am a bit tired, I want to take a rest in my room.”

She was not tired and she did not want to eat anything. But she did not want him to worry about her and take care of her at the same time.

So she ate and agreed to take a rest.

“Okay.”

Fu Hanzheng accompanied her back to the room and did not leave the master bedroom to continue the rescue plan with Yuan Meng and the others until she laid down in bed with her eyes closed.

However, the moment the door was closed, the girl in bed opened her eyes.

Chapter 1708: Two Lives for One Child

In the living room, Fu Hanzheng heard the progress of the investigation from Lei Ning. More than a dozen guests came with drivers.

And the new drivers had become the focus of the investigation.

Most of them had been found, and some were still missing.

“But it is like finding a needle in a haystack, how long will it take?” Fu Shiyi said anxiously.

“How else can we find him?” Yuan Meng threw a look at him.

If there was any other way to find Youyou, Fu Hanzheng would definitely do it.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Yuan Meng and said, "Still no reply from Cayman Dorrans?"

"He has got his men there, but we need to wait until dawn," Yuan Meng said helplessly.

When Gu Siting sent his men to take away Youyou, they would send their men to take away his mother and grandfather. They would exchange two lives for one child and see if he was so crazy as to sacrifice his own family.

Fu Shiyi scratched his hair impatiently and asked his brother, "Where is Sister-in-law, is she sleeping?"

"No," Fu Hanzheng said.

Although she was lying in bed with her eyes closed, he knew that she was not sleeping.

She did not want him to worry, so she ate the porridge and went back to the room.

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth. "We should not have gone to the Qin Family."

If only it had been at this place, they would not have been able to do anything.

"Anyway, no more useless words," Yuan Meng said.

It was too late to regret now.

The most important thing now was to find Youyou as soon as possible.

They were just talking when Lei Meng called, saying that he had caught the driver with the boy's hat.

And they had already been brought back.

"It doesn't help to catch the driver." Yuan Meng threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and said, "I am afraid that he only received the order to get rid of us and put the hat in the car. He doesn't even know which person took the child."

Gu Siting waited for so long before making the real move, so he had planned out every single detail.

He knew that if all the participants knew about his plan and one of them was caught, the location of the child would be exposed.

Therefore, those involved might only be responsible for a portion of the plan.

Even if someone was caught, they would only know a small part of it and would not reveal who had the child.

“There must be some useful clues, let’s go and take a look,” Fu Hanzheng said, got up and was about to leave.

But after a few steps, he threw a look at the door of the master bedroom and got a bit worried.

“Shiyi, you stay.”

“Got it, go now.” Fu Shiyi nodded.

Fu Hanzheng and Yuan Meng left for the place where the prisoner was kept. Fu Shiyi and Kuroda Keiko stayed behind and took a look at the closed master bedroom.

However, Gu Weiwei was not in the master bedroom. Instead, she went to the nursery where the two children slept through another door.

Sitting by the empty crib, she made one call after another.

She was calling the Gu Family because she did not have the patience to keep searching.

Gu Siting was the one who kidnapped the child, and asking him was the best way to get news about Youyou.

However, no matter how many times she called, no one answered the call.

At the Gu Family’s mansion in A Land.

The phone kept ringing, but Gu Siting did not pick it up.

Also, no one was allowed to answer the call.

“President Gu, maybe it is from Miss Weiwei.” Kuroda Shio reminded him.

By this time, Fu Hanzheng and his men were already looking for the child all over the world. It was not a surprise that Miss Weiwei called when she knew that the child was taken away by their men.

With one hand against his forehead, Gu Siting gazed at the ringing phone.

“When the child is settled, we will have the bargaining chip to talk with her.”

The child had not yet been delivered to the designated place, and it would just be a meaningless argument if he answered the call.

Like the call from the Gu Family, Kuroda Shio’s phone kept ringing.

He glanced at it and did not answer it.

Gu Siting squinted and said understandingly, “A call from Keiko?”

By this time, Keiko must have known that she had been used by them, so she called them in a hurry.

She was calling to blame them and asking about the whereabouts of the child.

But they had been planning for this day for so long and before Weiwei returned, no one was allowed to know anything about the child.

“Yes,” Kuroda Shio replied.

Keiko must have known that the child was taken away by their men and that they were using her to arouse the Fu Family’s suspicion.

This time, she was probably going to hate him for real.

She had not been part of the plan, but because of what she had overheard about Miss Weiwei, she went to Hua Land and stayed by her side.

So they considered using her as one of the targets so that she would attract the attention of the Fu Family.

“Let’s wait and see,” Gu Siting said.

There were many things that could not be explained clearly, let alone over the phone.

Both Keiko and Weiwei were very angry at them, so there was no point in answering the call.

Kuroda Shio nodded and switched off his phone.

It had been a long night for everyone in the Fu Family as well as Gu Siting.

It was not until dawn when his phone received a video.

He clicked it open and saw an eight-month-old child who looked very much like Fu Hanzheng who he hated deeply.

“This boy looks so much like him,” Gu Siting said with his teeth clenched.

In the video, the child did not know that he was in danger. Instead of crying or making a fuss, he looked around curiously.

“But is it really safe for the child to stay in Hua Land?” Kuroda Shio hesitated.

Gu Siting sneered at the sight of the baby in the video.

“The most dangerous place is the safest place.”

It was more risky to bring the child back.

As long as this child was well hidden, Fu Hanzheng would not be able to find him no matter how powerful he was in Hua Land.

His own child was in his own country and he could not find him. He must be feeling terrible.

He stared at the video for a long time and then sent it to Gu Weiwei’s phone.

After the video, there was only one sentence attached.

[Weiwei, come home within three days.]

He understood that it was very difficult to bring her back by force.

She would not return with him, and Fu Hanzheng would not release her either.

But with the child in his hands, she had to come home and Fu Hanzheng had to release her too.

Chapter 1710: Three Days 2

In the capital of the Hua Land at villa number seven.

Gu Weiwei was sitting on the mat with her back against the cot and was about to call the Gu Family numerous times when a text arrived.

And she recognized that it was from A Land.

She clicked open the message with trembling fingers and saw the video inside. She covered her mouth, fearing that she would burst into tears.

In the video, it was none other than Youyou who had been missing for the entire night. He did not know that he was in danger, and he did not cry much as he looked around.

With the phone in her hands, she watched the video that lasted only dozens of seconds numerous times before noticing the message beneath the video.

She gritted her teeth and dialed the number.

After a few rings, the phone was finally picked up.

“It seems that you have seen the video.” It was Gu Siting’s voice on the other side of the phone.

Gu Weiwei’s breath was shaking. “Gu Siting, you attacked an eight-month-old child because of our grudge. You are even more despicable than I thought.”

“As long as I can get the result I want, I don’t care about the methods,” Gu Siting said indifferently.

What he cared about was her return.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth. If it had been any other time, she would have turned him down without hesitation.

But at this moment, she did not dare to turn him down.

“Come back within three days.” Gu Siting repeated the text.

“Gu Siting, if anything happens to Youyou, I will kill you even if it means losing my life.” Gu Weiwei warned him furiously.

However, her warning did not deter him at all.

“I won’t let anyone hurt him, but only if you are here,” Gu Siting said coldly.

Gu Weiwei let out a shaking sigh. “Will you release him when I return?”

“At least, I won’t touch him.” Gu Siting snorted and warned. “He looks so much like him, you know... I have never liked this face.”

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and said, “Okay, three days, I’ll be there within three days.”

She did not want to go, but she knew that if she did not go back, Gu Siting would do anything.

He was not that forgiving or kind-hearted towards Youyou.

“Okay, I will wait for you,” Gu Siting said.

Gu Weiwei was about to say something when she heard footsteps outside. She rang off instantly.

She had just rang off when Fu Hanzheng came in.

Seeing her sitting on the mat, he approached her and brushed her hair.

“We have found the driver who took Youyou away, we will soon hear from him.”

Gu Weiwei nodded with pursed lips, but did not tell Fu Hanzheng anything about the video or the news.

If he knew about it, he would definitely object to her going to A Land.

Also, there were three days left. If she found Youyou within three days, she would not go to A Land.

But if she failed to find Youyou within three days, she would have to go back anyway.

Gu Siting was a maniac, and if she did not obey his order, then he would definitely do something to hurt her son.

“Go and wash your face and eat something, I have made your favorite seafood porridge,” Fu Hanzheng said with a mild voice.

Gu Weiwei nodded and got up with his help. Then she returned to the bathroom to wash her face.

Standing outside the door, Fu Hanzheng frowned. For some reason, he felt that something was wrong with her.

It seemed that she suddenly had a secret.

Chapter 1711: Gu Siting Was Helped

After a long while, Gu Weiwei came out of the bathroom and followed him to the dining room.

Fu Shiyi and the others were sitting in the dining room with black rings under their eyes.

Yuan Meng and Kuroda Keiko sized up the calm Gu Weiwei and exchanged a look, looking very worried.

She was way too calm right now, and that made them worried.

Although they knew that she might not want Fu Hanzheng to worry about her at this hour, yet it was still so heart-wrenching to see her suppressing her emotions when facing such a serious matter.

Her real parents were not by her side when she was little, so when she became a mother, she had devoted so much love to her two children. Now when her son was missing because of her, she found it very difficult to accept.

Gu Weiwei was stirring the porridge in the bowl as she kept thinking about her boy in the video.

In the video, only the boy was in the cot and nothing about the surroundings or the photographer was captured. Even the voice she heard was the child's.

Therefore, it was impossible to tell where he was.

Fu Hanzheng sat down next to her and suggested after staring at her for a long while.

“After you eat, Shiyi will drive you to the old mansion to visit Tiantian. I heard that she was very naughty last night.”

If she continued to stay here, he would still have to deal with all kinds of information and he would not be able to keep her company all the time.

Also, unless the boy was found, nothing else could comfort her.

But if she was asked to keep her daughter company at the old mansion, she might feel a bit more relaxed and less sad about what happened to her son.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Okay.”

Kuroda Keiko said, “I will go with you.”

Yuan Meng and Fu Hanzheng exchanged a look and did not object.

They were busy investigating the whereabouts of Youyou, and she needed someone to keep her company.

Although Kuroda Keiko was also a member of the Kuroda Family, she did not take the initiative to get involved this time, so she was not being used by Gu Siting.

The happy breakfast had turned silent and depressing because Youyou was missing.

Gu Weiwei finished the porridge in silence. "I am done. I'm going to get changed."

Having said these words, she got up and got changed in the room.

Fu Shiyi sighed helplessly. "Forget it, I will go home with Sister-in-law too."

He had always been focused on the entertainment industry and had never been involved in any of these matters, so he was of little help.

Also, Youyou was kidnapped by Gu Siting because of sister-in-law. If she returned to the old mansion now, the old man might make a fuss to sister-in-law.

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Don't let her leave your sight."

Although what happened to Youyou was a top priority, yet he truly did not want anything to happen to her.

Gu Weiwei got changed and came out of the bedroom, accompanied by Fu Shiyi and Kuroda Keiko, she went to the Fu Family's mansion to visit her daughter.

They had just left when Yuan Shuo called Yuan Meng.

"Mrs. Gu and Mr. Gu are missing, and our men are gone too."

"Missing?"

Yuan Meng almost exploded. If they failed to get Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu, they would lose the bargaining chip with Gu Siting.

Yuan Shuo sighed deeply and said, "It must be Gu Yun Che."

"Gu... Yun Che?" Yuan Meng was shocked and asked further, "He has always been in Hua Land, why would he go to the Gu Family?"

"Not sure yet, but I heard that he is a very skilled man from Hua Land. Judging from his description and strength, it must be him," Yuan Shuo said.

Chapter 1712: Gu Siting Was Helped 2

Yuan Meng was so annoyed that she felt her hair standing up on the back of her neck.

“If Mrs. Gu and Mr. Gu are not caught, we will have no bargaining chip to exchange for the child with Gu Siting. Then we will be led by the nose by Gu Siting.”

They had not expected that Gu Siting would do something like this.

She had thought that it would be very difficult for the Fu Family to enter A Land and get in contact with the Gu Family, so she informed Yuan Shuo and asked his men to control Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu first.

In this way, even if Gu Siting had Youyou, they still had his mother and grandfather, so there was still room for negotiation.

But what she had not expected was that when Gu Siting had laid hands upon the child, Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu were already ticked away safe and sound.

He was connected with Weiwei, so they could not do anything to him. And now, without his family as the bargaining chip, they would be in a very passive position.

“Me and Cayman are on the way to A Land,” Yuan Shuo said and then asked, “What about Weiwei?”

“She is not doing very well but she is visiting Tian now,” Yuan Meng said.

Yuan Shuo sighed deeply. “Let’s hurry to A Land and we will see what we can do next.”

“We can’t do anything to him, and we have lost the bargaining chip to threaten him. What can you do to him?” Yuan Meng felt her head aching.

With Youyou in Gu Siting’s hands, they could do nothing to him.

“But we can’t just do nothing,” Yuan Shuo said.

Yuan Meng gritted her teeth. “Alright, I am hanging up now. I need to find that Gu person.”

He had promised that he would not do anything to Weiwei.

But now, he was helping Gu Siting to go against them. They had even arranged a place for him to stay and helped him and Luo Qianqian.

She rang off and called Luo Qianqian directly.

Luo Qianqian had no idea what happened at the Fu Family, so she did not put down her work until the phone rang several times.

“Sister Yuan Meng, what is it?”

The moment the call went through, Yuan Meng asked directly, “Where is Gu Yun Che? Is he not with you? Is he not in Hua Land?”

“He went out for something three days ago.” Luo Qianqian confessed.

“He... he left three days ago, why didn't you tell me?” Yuan Meng was so furious.

They had thought that after spending so much effort, Gu Yun Che would not help Gu Siting even if he did not help them.

But now, he was living in the place they had arranged for him and flirting with the girl they had arranged for him, and now he was helping their worst enemy. How ungrateful was he?!

“Should I have told you about it?” Luo Qianqian was confused and asked, “What happened?”

Yuan Meng bit her lips and said, “Last night, Youyou was kidnapped by the Gu Family, and Gu Yun Che was one of the accomplices.”

Although he was not directly involved, yet he helped Gu Siting to protect his family, so they lost the bargaining chip to exchange the child with Gu Siting, so they were put into a passive position.

Also, since he left three days ago, then he must have known that Gu Siting was going to do something, but he did not remind them at all.

“Youyou was kidnapped?!” Luo Qianqian just could not believe it.

“Gu Yun Che promised that he would not do anything to hurt Weiwei, but now he is helping Gu Siting! He...” Yuan Meng got so annoyed that she had no idea how to scold him.

If he had not been involved, Gu Siting would not have dared to do anything.

Because the moment he made a move, Cayman would take control of his two remaining family members.

But now Gu Yun Che was protecting Mrs. Gu and Mr. Gu, so Gu Siting could do whatever he wanted without any worries.

Chapter 1713: Gu Siting Was Helped 3

“He... he wouldn’t, he... he promised me!” Luo Qianqian got so shocked that she started to speak incoherently.

“He did promise you, but it is also a fact that he has helped Gu Siting,” Yuan Meng said resolutely.

He had not helped Gu Siting to deal with Weiwei and the child, but what he had done had made them lose the opportunity of saving her son.

Luo Qianqian got so frightened by the news. “How is Weiwei? Is Youyou still missing? Is there anything I can do?”

Yuan Meng sighed deeply and said seriously, “Help us find Gu Yun Che so we can save the child.”

Since Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu were taken away by Gu Yun Che, then they could not be found.

But Gu Yun Che only talked with Luo Qianqian and they could not reach him at all.

“Got it, I will call him now.” Luo Qianqian rang off in a hurry and called Gu Yun Che instead.

But the other side did not answer the call.

Then she texted him several times in a row.

[Where have you been?]

[Why are you not answering my call? Call me now!]

[Are you helping the Gu Family? You helped the Gu Family when Youyou was kidnapped!]

....

She had thought that when he said that he was going out, it was because he had something else to do.

After all, he did say that he had his own affairs to attend to in Bangalore.

But when she ran into trouble, he drove her home and then she was hospitalized, which was why he stayed for so long.

So she did not suspect a thing when he said that he was going out.

But she had never expected that he would go there to help Gu Siting and to kidnap Youyou.

However, neither her phone nor her WeChat received any reply from Gu Yun Che.

But when she thought of how Youyou was kidnapped, she just could not help but feel uneasy. So she left her work and was about to ask what had happened by visiting the Fu Family mansion.

However, she was on her way there when Gu Yun Che replied on Wechat.

[I did not do anything to her, I did what I promised]

Instead of texting, Luo Qianqian made a call directly.

This time, Gu Yun Che finally answered her call.

“Gu Yun Che, are you helping the Gu Family, you...”

“Qianqian, I have done what I promised,” Gu Yun said.

“But you caused Youyou to be kidnapped! You are hurting her!” Luo Qianqian pulled over the car by the roadside and said anxiously.

Gu Yun Che was silent for a few seconds. “I have kept my promise not to kill her. As for my feelings, they are not within my consideration.”

“Gu Yun Che, you can’t...”

“Qianqian, I don’t want to think that you approached me and got together with me because of her.” Gu Yun Che interrupted her coldly.

Sitting in the car by the roadside, Luo Qianqian almost burst into tears.

“We are not in a relationship because of her, but you are helping others to hurt my best friend!”

“Some things are better off being finished as soon as possible rather than being tangled with each other for the rest of her life. As for the final result, it depends on herself,” Gu Yun Che said one last thing and rang off directly.

Luo Qianqian called again but the phone was turned off.

She sat in the car by the roadside, not knowing if she should continue to the Fu Family or go home.

If she went to the Fu Family, she had no idea how she should explain to them about Gu Yun Che’s involvement, but she would be worried about Gu Weiwei if she returned home.

Chapter 1714: Not Telling Fu Hanzheng?

At the Fu Family’s mansion.

When Gu Weiwei arrived, Tiantian had just woken up because of the noise. She was still in her pajamas.

Seeing her face, Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady were worried about the news of Youyou, but they did not want to upset her by asking her about it now.

“This girl kept crying last night and she just woke up.”

Gu Weiwei picked up Tiantian and kissed her daughter’s hair. She suddenly burst into tears when she thought of her missing son.

Tiantian looked up at her and realized that her mother was not in a good mood, so she wrapped her arms around her neck.

Fu Shengying threw a look at Fu Shiyi. “Follow me to the study.”

Fu Shiyi understood that he was asking about Youyou, so he followed him upstairs obediently.

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and said, “I will get her changed.”

“Okay, I will make the milk for her,” Mrs. Fu said and went to boil water in the kitchen.

Gu Weiwei carried the child to the nursery and Kuroda Keiko followed up behind her. Seeing her getting Tiantian changed, she asked, “Weiwei, did Gu Siting... contact you?”

Now that Youyou was in his hands, he would definitely contact her.

After all, kidnapping the child was not his ultimate goal, but to use the child to threaten her so that she could return to the Gu Family.

This man had either contacted her or was about to.

Gu Weiwei helped her daughter to change out of her pajamas and diaper, and nodded.

“He sent me a video of Youyou and asked me to return within three days.”

Kuroda Keiko did not object but asked with a serious expression, “You did not tell Fu Hanzheng?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head. “If I tell him now, he will only be distracted by me and he needs to focus on finding Youyou. What if he finds him within three days?”

If Fu Hanzheng knew that she was being threatened, he would be worried about both her and the boy.

“Are there any useful clues in the video?” Kuroda Keiko asked.

“The video only shows Youyou, not even any sounds from the outside world, so no useful clues can be found,” Gu Weiwei said.

She had watched the video numerous times, trying to find some useful clue from it, but to no avail.

Since Gu Siting dared to send the message to her, he was definitely not going to reveal anything to her so that she could find Youyou.

Kuroda Keiko felt very guilty. “I am sorry, my brother...”

“He is just following orders. It is Gu Siting who makes the decision, not your brother,” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Also, she was not in the mood to think about anyone else.

Kuroda Keiko was speechless. She did not want to help Gu Siting, so her brother never told her the truth.

And this time, she unintentionally helped Gu Siting to trick her too.

Weiwei might even think that she was helping them kidnap the child.

A long while later, she asked, "What if the child is still not found after three days, are you really going to the Gu Family?"

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a long while. "I can't bet my son on Gu Siting's mercy, and he has never been merciful."

His ultimate goal was none other than her. If she went back, she would not die, but if she did not, Youyou would definitely be hurt.

She could not take the risk, so she had to go to the Gu Family, even if it was the tiger's den.

Chapter 1715: The Qin Family

Kuroda Keiko stayed silent for a moment and said resolutely, "If that really happens, I will go with you."

Maybe she could not help her, but she could at least help her to deliver the message to Fu Hanzheng.

Gu Weiwei smiled bitterly and nodded.

But hopefully, it would not come to that.

She was not afraid of the Gu Family, but she was worried that Fu Hanzheng would be saddened by this move.

He had been trying his best to keep her and the children safe, but in the end, Gu Siting took advantage of the situation. Not only was Youyou in danger, but she also had to return to the Gu Family.

Kuroda Keiko was about to say something when she heard Mrs. Fu's footsteps, so she stopped herself.

Mrs. Fu came in with the milk bottle. "The temperature is just right."

Gu Weiwei took the milk bottle, sat down on the sofa and fed her daughter.

Mrs. Fu sat down next to her. She could tell that she had not slept a wink, seeing her pale face and dark rings under the eyes.

“Did you eat breakfast? I asked someone to make some.”

“I did,” Gu Weiwei said.

“Hanzheng will get Youyou back, don’t worry.” Mrs. Fu consoled her.

Actually, she herself had no idea what to say.

It seemed that the Gu Family had been planning for a long time.

He was just an eight-month-old child. As long as they hid him away, no one would be able to find him.

If they had known that something like this would happen, they would not have asked her and Fu Hanzheng to attend the birthday banquet. That way, they would not have been taken advantage of.

Gu Weiwei replied briefly and said nothing more.

In the meanwhile, Fu Shengying was asking Fu Shiyi about the investigation in the study upstairs.

“Are you sure it was the Gu Family?”

“Who else would do that to a child apart from Gu Siting?” Fu Shiyi snorted.

Fu Shengying sighed deeply. “I told your brother not to let that woman stay in the Fu Family...”

“Dad, what are you talking about?” Fu Shiyi looked at Fu Shengying in disbelief.

“If it had not been for her, nothing would have happened to Youyou. Gu Siting took the children away because of her.” Fu Shengying only thought about his two grandsons and Gu Weiwei was not his concern.

Fu Shiyi just could not stand it any more. He glared at Fu Shengying furiously.

“Dad, you can say those words in front of me, but if you dare to say those words in front of our brother and sister-in-law, not only will our brother not want to acknowledge you as his father, but I will not either.

“Also, if you had not promised the Qin Family that you would bring our brother and children there for the birthday celebration, this would not have happened.

“Also, you put Youyou upstairs so that the kidnapper then had the chance to take him. Sister-in-law never lets the two children out of her sight.”

....

Fu Shengying had no words to counter him, so he gave up.

“What about Shiqin? Did you find anything from the Qin Family?”

“Not at the moment, but the Qin Family will be punished,” Fu Shiyi said coldly.

The three drivers went out in the Qin Family’s cars, and the CCTV was broken before the birthday banquet started. And it was not until Old Master Qin announced that the birthday banquet ended ahead of time that the real car that was hiding Youyou left the Qin Family.

He just could not believe that the Qin Family did not have any tricks up their sleeves.

Hearing the words, Fu Shengying looked lethal too.

“If I do find evidence that they did something, the Qin Family will be doomed.”

He could tolerate anything else, but when it came to his grandchildren, he just could not stand it.

At the Qin Family in the capital.

Due to the important meeting at the company and Fu Hanzheng’s absence, Fu Shiqin went to Jinxiu Compound, got changed and went straight to the company.

But because Youyou went missing at the Qin Family, not everyone in the family had a good night’s sleep.

The Old Master of the Qin Family stayed up the entire night and got sick.

“Xiaoxun, let’s put aside the work at hand and help the Fu Family find the child first. This happened at the Qin Family home, and if we don’t do anything about it, it would be very difficult for us to explain ourselves.”

“Got it, I will go and ask for leave later, hand over the work and focus on this matter,” Qin Man said.

Grandpa Qin nodded and said to Qin Lv, "Help your aunt too."

Dazed, Qin Lv just could not come back to himself.

Qin Lv's mother frowned and called out, "Lv?"

Qin Lv came back to himself. "What is it?"

"Your grandfather is asking you to help your aunt." Qin Lv's mother reminded him.

Qin Lv nodded quickly. "Got it."

"Lv, lend me your car, my car needs to have some repairs done today," Qin Man said casually.

Without hesitation, Qin Lv gave her the car key.

"What about me driving you there?"

"No thanks, you were very busy at the birthday banquet last night, just take a good rest. I will go to the office and finish the handover. Let's go to the Fu Family in the afternoon to see what is going on," Qin Man said.

Qin Lv yawned and asked, "Should we help with the search too?"

"The Qin Family lost the child. If we don't help them, the Fu Family will think that we are on the same side as the Gu Family," Old Master Qin said with a low voice.

Fu Shengying had called them angrily the night before about how his precious grandson had gone missing in the Qin Family. He was truly pissed.

"You must investigate the CCTV properly too. Didn't I ask you to check the CCTV before the banquet started? There was nothing wrong with it before," Qin Man mumbled.

Although it was just some minor details, yet it had aroused the suspicion of the Fu Family.

"The two families have been in a relationship for so many years, surely they won't suspect us just because of this matter," Qin Lv said.

"They have lost their precious grandson, of course they will take it up with us," Qin Man said.

From the three elders of the Fu Family to the two uncles, Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, every one of them had spoiled the two little twins rotten.

For the sake of Youyou, they would start a fight with them.

Therefore, they had to help them with finding Youyou.

Qin Man ate some breakfast to fill her stomach, grabbed the car keys and a pile of documents ready for the handover.

As the car arrived outside the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, she went out of the car and grabbed the pile of stuff from the back seat, only to find that several pages from the files had fallen into the footrest due to her braking.

She had to bend down to pick them up one after another. When she reached the last page of the file, she accidentally pressed upon a small pacifier.

She picked it up and looked at it, her eyes were full of emotion. She had seen this pacifier the night before.

Both Youyou and Tiantian had a pair of pacifiers, one blue and one pink.

The pacifier she picked up was blue, but what was it doing in Lv's car?

She suddenly thought of something and broke out in a cold sweat. She carried the files to the office as fast as she could and drove all the way home.

"Where is Lv?"

"In his room," Qin Lv's mother said.

Qin Man went upstairs to Qin Lv's room and pulled the young man up from the bed.

"Tell me, why was this thing in your car?"

Chapter 1717: Suspicion 2

The moment Qin Lv opened his eyes, he saw the pacifier in Qin Man's hands, and he failed to react because of shock.

But soon he came back to himself and said confusedly, "What is this thing?"

"This is Youyou's pacifier, I found it in your car, you better tell me the truth." Qin Man tried to press down her anger.

God knew that when she found this thing in his car, she was scared out of her wits.

“I have no idea why it is in my car.” Qin Lv played dumb.

Qin Man locked the door and sat down opposite him on the chair.

“You don’t know?”

“I really don’t know, Aunt.” Qin Lv looked calm.

But Qin Man was a cunning diplomat who dealt with foreign countries all the time. She was sharp-eyed and sharp-minded.

“Don’t you know how this thing ended up being in your car? You went to check the CCTV before the banquet started last night and it broke down right after. And it broke down right at the key moment!”

She had suspected something the night before, but she had thought that her own nephew would not have done such a thing.

But when she found this in his car, she just could not convince herself any more.

“Aunt, are you suspecting me?” Qin Lv countered.

“I don’t want to suspect you of anything, but with so many pieces of evidence in front of me, how can I not suspect you?” Qin Man looked at her nephew who she had watched growing up and interrogated him. “Tell me honestly, when Kuroda Shio talked to you before, did you start a secret partnership with him?”

“Aunt, I really did not.” Qin Lv denied it to the end.

But Qin Man did not believe that he was innocent and she was very disappointed by his denial.

“You didn’t? You were the one who organized the birthday banquet, and it would have been very easy for you to do something to the CCTV. Now you even let me pick this thing up from your car. If it falls into the hands of the Fu Family, they will not believe a thing you say.”

“I saw off two families last night and only one of them has a child. Maybe it is their child’s.” Qin Lv argued guiltily.

“Did you see off the guests last night, or did you see off the man who took Youyou away?” Qin Jiao’s eyes were as sharp as knives as she stared at this nephew who was suddenly like a stranger to her.

The Gu Family were indeed ruthless this time. They released three drivers to draw away people's attention, and when Fu Hanzheng and his men realized that the child was still at the Gu Family, the birthday banquet had already finished and the child had left the Fu Family.

But what she had not expected was that the child was not in someone else's car but his.

What a well-thought-out plan!

But she just could not believe that the obedient Qin Lv would have taken away Fu Hanzheng's son from the Qin Family.

"Aunt..."

Furious, Qin Man slapped him right across the face.

"Are you crazy? You are colluding with the Gu Family?"

Qin Lv knew that he had been seen through, so he did not conceal anything anymore.

"The Fu Family has been suppressing the Qin Family for so many years. As long as the Fu Family falls, the Qin Family will become the most powerful family in Hua Land and Weiwei will also leave the Fu Family..."

Before he finished his words, Qin Man had slapped him again.

"The Gu Family and the Fu Family hate each other so much that the child would not be able to survive in the hands of the Gu Family.

"What do you think Fu Shiqin was doing here last night? They suspected you ages ago, but they failed to get the evidence."

Chapter 1718: Where Is the Child?

Fu Hanzheng left the night before, but Fu Shiqin stayed at the Qin Family home.

They swept over the entire apartment throughout the entire night. If it had not been because of the meeting in the morning, they would have finished searching the car and found the pacifier.

If this thing was in Fu Shiqin's hands, no explanation from Qin Lv would work.

Qin Lv felt dizzy after being slapped twice by Qin Man. He looked at his aunt who had loved him since he was little in disbelief.

"...Aunt."

Seeing the swelling on his face, Qin Man calmed herself down.

"Lv, what on earth do you want?"

Qin Lv was silent. He knew that she would not approve of any of this, but this step was already taken and there was no turning back for him.

Qin Man stared at him. "You haven't... given up on Weiwei, have you?"

He had been focusing on his career all this while and he had not asked about Mu Weiwei at all.

She had thought that he had truly moved on.

But apart from this, she just could not think of any other reason why he would do such a thing.

She had thought that Mu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng had broken up, and she had encouraged him to court her. But now when she thought about it, she realized that she should not have supported him in that way. That was why he had such a horrible idea.

Qin Lv did not say anything more.

"The disappearance of the child is just the beginning. Soon, Fu's Enterprise will face a huge change. As long as the Fu Family collapses and Fu Hanzheng is gone, she will leave the Fu Family.

"Aunt, haven't you always supported me in getting her back?"

"You will support me this time too, right?"

....

Seeing this crazy-looking nephew, Qin Man just could not believe that this was the man she had watched growing up.

"I supported you because I thought that she and Fu Hanzheng had broken up.

“But she and Fu Hanzheng are together! They are married and have children, and you have done such a crazy thing to ruin their relationship! I am so...”

....

“They will soon be separated and Fu Hanzheng will no longer be an obstacle,” Qin Lv said confidently.

He reached an agreement with the Gu Family so that he could help them deal with Fu Hanzheng whilst they supported the Qin Family to replace the Fu Family.

By that time, they could be together properly.

“That maniac from the Gu Family, even you dare to work with him, are you mental too?!” Qin Man bellowed.

The Qin Family had never been involved with the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family, but they knew pretty well how lethal Gu Siting was.

Fu Hanzheng had been alerted when the Gu Family sent people to contact the families of Hua Land.

She did not suspect a thing when Lv denied having any contact with the Gu Family.

But she had been too careless so that he made such a big mistake.

“If it had not been for him, Weiwei would not have left me,” Qin Lv said coldly.

Qin Man sneered and asked, “I am afraid that if she knows what you have done, she will kill you.”

“Aunt, you are the only one who knows about this matter. If you want me to die and the Qin Family to be doomed, then tell the Fu Family.” Qin Lv looked at Qin Man stubbornly, gambling on their kinship.

No matter how close she was to the Fu Family, she should not be closer to them than she was with him.

Qin Man took a deep breath and asked with a low voice, “I just want to ask you one thing, where is that child?”

Chapter 1719: Where is the Child 2

Of course she could not tell the Fu Family about this matter.

In this way, Lv and the entire Qin Family would become the enemies of the Fu Family.

But she could not just leave this matter alone. Even if she did not say a thing, the Fu Family would find out that it was Lil' Lv if they continued with the investigation.

Therefore, the most important thing now was to help them find the child. As long as the child was found in time, everything would be fine.

Qin Lv shook his head. "I don't know."

"Lv, you have the freedom to pursue love, but at least be a man and don't play dirty tricks." Qin Man looked at this young man in front of her with disappointment and said, "Weiwei may end up hating you, but even I look down upon you now."

"Aunt, there is no turning back," Qin Lv said coldly.

"You better tell me where the child is now." Qin Man looked stern and cold.

This child should still be in Hua Land, or even somewhere in the capital. As long as he told her where the child was, she could help find the child so that Fu Hanzheng and his family could rescue Youyou.

As long as Youyou was safe, Fu Hanzheng might complain about the Qin Family, but they would not turn against each other.

"I really don't know. That man did not tell me where he was taking the child," Qin Lv said calmly.

Furious and anxious, Qin Man had to calm herself down to deal with the biggest crisis the Qin Family had faced in decades.

"If you don't know where that person took the child, just tell me how you contacted him and what he looks like, any valuable clues will do."

Everyone in the Fu Family was worried sick about this child. When they came back to themselves and found out that it was Lil' Lv who was helping the Gu Family, the decades-old relationship between the two families would be ruined.

"Aunt, this is just the beginning. I don't know anything about it, and I won't tell anyone even if I know."

Qin Lv had made up his mind to compete with the Fu Family.

“You... you are crazy!” Qin Man shook in anger.

She had not expected that the child she had watched growing up would be so stubborn.

“Aunt, father knows about it too, just pretend that you don’t know,” Qin Lv said.

“Your father?” Qin Man just could not believe that apart from Qin Lv, even her own brother knew about it. “You... you...”

“The Fu Family has been dominating the business field for so many years and they have got hold of way too many resources. It would be very difficult for any other family or the Qin Family to make a breakthrough without the Fu Family’s help,” Qin Lv explained the reason simply.

The market share of the Qin Family was shrinking year after year as companies from all walks of life grew stronger.

Many families and companies had their eyes upon the Fu Family’s resources, but they never had the chance to do anything about it. This was the best opportunity.

Qin Man sneered and looked at Qin Lv in disbelief.

“When your father took over the company at the beginning, the company almost went bankrupt due to the mistakes in decision-making. It was only because of the investment from Fu’s Enterprise that the company was able to get through the difficult times. Do you think that your father has forgotten about it?”

The business world was indeed full of deception, but she had never thought that something like this would happen between the Qin Family and the Fu Family.

The two families had supported each other all these years so that the Qin Family and Fu’s Enterprise were established.

But now, her brother and Lv were helping the Gu Family against Fu’s Enterprise.

Chapter 1720: The Fu Family’s Taboo

Qin Lv stayed silent for a moment and countered.

“So many people from the Fu Family died, and back then the Qin Family helped Fu’s Enterprise too, so we are even now.”

Qin Man got so furious that she got up and said, “Alright, I will ask your father, if you won’t tell me.”

So even the young ones were confused?

Did he have no idea what he should and should not do?

Even if the Gu Family were involved, they would not be able to bring down Fu’s Enterprise. The Fu Family were not just for show!

She and Fu Hanzheng had been classmates since they were in school and she knew pretty well what this man was thinking.

She knew pretty well that Lv and her brother were not that smart.

Also, Fu Shiqin was not an easy man to deal with.

“Aunt!” Qin Lv followed her out of the room and went to his father’s study.

Qin Lv’s father Qin Feng looked at his sister who came inside in a hurry and then at Qin Lv who followed behind her.

“What are you doing at home? Don’t you know how to knock?”

Qin Man stood in front of the desk and looked down at her eldest brother who was smoking on the sofa.

“Lv, you are too young to understand anything. Do you want to die with the Gu Family or with your family?”

It was taboo for the Qin Family to take part in the kidnapping of the grandson and to keep in touch with the Gu Family.

“The Fu Family has been oppressing the Qin Family for so many years, it is time to move them out of the way,” Qin Feng said calmly.

“It is just businesses competing, please tell me the truth, how could you do such a dirty thing?” Qin Man said with her teeth clenched, “How could you do that to an eight-month-old child?”

Qin Feng looked at Qin Man coldly. “You either help us or pretend as if you don’t know anything about it.”

Qin Man got so annoyed that her face turned pale.

“What is the Gu Family’s purpose? They want to fight the Fu Family to the death! That child will not be able to survive in Gu Siting’s hands!

“If something happens to this child, both Fu Hanzheng and his brothers as well as the Old Lady will take revenge on the Gu Family. Without the Dorrans Family’s help, the Gu Family will never be able to beat the Fu Family.

“Or do you think that they can win with your help?”

....

Qin Feng brushed off the ashes and said, “The Fu Family do not dare to do anything when the child is in the hands of the Gu Family. Fu Hanzheng would not have time to care about what happens in business.”

“When Kuroda Shio appeared in Hua Land, Fu Hanzheng was already aware of what was going on, but you are still dreaming.” Qin Man truly did not know if she should call him naïve or stupid.

The Fu Family did not do anything to the Qin Family because they had no evidence.

Once they cooperated with the Gu Family and fell out with the Fu Family, the decades-old friendship between the two families would be ruined.

“You don’t know anything about business, don’t get involved,” Qin Feng said.

“But if you want to bring the Qin Family to go against the Fu Family, you must at least ask me and Second Brother, and our father if he agrees!” Qin Man said with a low voice.

They would be dragged down if they went against the Fu Family.

The Old Master had always attached great importance to the relationship between the two families. If he had known about what they had done, he would have already been hospitalized.

That was why she wanted to discuss with them privately so as not to reveal the matter to Grandpa.

Chapter 1721: To the Qin Family

The Qin Family were arguing with each other, but the Fu Family were all worried about the missing boy.

Gu Weiwei went to visit her daughter at the Fu Family's mansion early in the morning and left soon afterwards.

She kissed her daughter's face and gave the child to Mrs. Fu.

"We may not have time to visit her these next few days, so please take care of her."

With the child in her arms, Mrs. Fu could not help but feel sorry for her.

"I know you are looking for him, but... also take care of yourself."

Gu Weiwei nodded, turned around and left with Fu Shiyi and Kuroda Keiko.

It was not until they went into the car that Fu Shiyi then said, "Sister-in-law, it is still early, you can spend more time with Tiantian."

Gu Weiwei shook her head and said, "Let's go to the Qin Family."

"The Qin Family?" Fu Shiyi was startled and said, "Second Brother is paying attention to that place already, why are you going too?"

"I don't believe that the Qin Family had nothing to do with what happened last night," Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Fu Shiyi did not object but said as he was driving, "I called Second Brother early in the morning and he said that he did not find anything suspicious at the Qin Family."

"If the Qin Family had not been involved, an outsider would not have broken the CCTV and brought Youyou out of the Qin Family's villa within such a short time." Gu Weiwei looked thoughtful. If someone from the Qin Family was involved, then that person must have been the one who took Youyou away.

If she could find the person who took away her son, then she could find him too.

"That is what we suspect, but... we have no proof," Fu Shiyi said.

Gu Weiwei said indifferently, "I don't need proof, I just need an answer."

Her instinct told her that the Qin Family were not only involved, but also helped with the kidnapping.

Fu Shiyi ignored her and drove her directly to the Qin Family.

Grandpa Qin was tending to the flowers in the glass room when he saw them coming. So he came out of the room.

“Shiyi, what are you doing here again?”

“Where are Lv and Qin Man? My sister-in-law wants to meet them,” Fu Shiyi said.

Grandpa Qin looked at the butler. “Where are they?”

“They seem to be in the study upstairs,” the butler said.

Grandpa Qin asked someone to make tea and said to the butler, “Go and bring them down.”

“No need, just bring us to them,” Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly.

Grandpa Qin was startled, but he understood that they were here for the sake of her son, so he did not stop them but asked the butler to bring them to the study.

The butler led them upstairs and knocked at the door of the study.

“Master Lv, Third Miss, someone is looking for you.”

A moment later, the door of the study was opened and Qin Man stuck her head out.

“What...”

Before she finished her words, she saw Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi.

She suddenly felt a bit guilty, probably because of what they had been discussing.

“What are you doing here?”

“I have something to ask you,” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Qin Man turned around and looked at the two people inside before opening the door.

“Then come in.”

Qin Man was not the only one who looked away guiltily.

Qin Lv had just been arguing with his aunt about Youyou and now the boy's family were here.

He suddenly felt a bit helpless.

"What do you want to ask?" Qin Jiao restrained her emotions and asked calmly.

However, Gu Weiwei had her eyes upon Qin Lv, looking lethal.

"I would like to ask, is the Qin Family involved in the disappearance of Youyou last night?"
