Chapter 1722: To the Qin Family 2

Qin Lv's father, Qin Feng, had been in the business field for years and he countered furiously when he heard her question.

"We are sorry that your child is missing. The Qin Family has not taken the care that we should have, but you are making it sound as if we are the ones who kidnapped your child."

They had come here at this hour, and he wondered if they were here just to vent their anger or because they had noticed something.

But everything had been done in such a secretive way that they could not possibly have discovered anything.

It was an accident that Qin Man found the pacifier left in the car, which was why she came to confront him and Lv.

But what had they discovered? Mrs. Fu had been keeping her eyes on Lv the whole time. Could he have been discovered?

But if she had found something and had the evidence, she would not just come and ask him some questions.

Gu Weiwei approached Qin Lv and said to him, "You arranged the birthday banquet, and you are responsible for both the staff and the CCTV.

"Or are you trying to get rid of us by saying that you don't know all the staff and one of them accidentally broke the camera?"

...

Qin Lv calmed himself down and looked at the young girl who was staring at him. Suddenly, he could no longer see the girl he used to adore in her eyes.

She was Mu Weiwei, but somehow, she was no longer the Mu Weiwei he knew.

“What do you suspect?”

“Kuroda Shio met you twice in Hua Land, what did you talk about?” Gu Weiwei pressed.

Qin Lv forced out a smile. “Kuroda Shio has met me before, but he has met many people too, and you suspect that...”

“But my son was kidnapped at the Qin Family, not at someone else’s house. You want me to believe that you have had no contact with the Gu Family?” Gu Weiwei sneered and said to Kuroda Keiko, “Kuroda Shio is his sister, and she heard him talking with you about the plan...”

Startled, Fu Shiyi turned to Kuroda Keiko and realized that his sister-in-law was lying.

She was pretending that she knew something and was trying to trick Qin Lv.

Even if he did not say anything, his emotions and expression would reveal something.

Qin Lv looked in the direction of Kuroda Keiko and a touch of fear flashed across his eyes, but it soon disappeared.

Her words not only frightened Qin Lv, but also made Qin Lv’s father, Qin Feng and Qin Man break out in cold sweat.

The two of them glanced at Kuroda Keiko and started to panic. They had not expected that she would bring someone from the Kuroda Family here.

“Really? I don’t remember discussing anything with Mr. Kuroda, we just met twice in a hurry.” Qin Lv denied it.

“Only met twice?” Gu Weiwei snorted and continued speaking, “You were the one who arranged the birthday banquet, and you checked the CCTV before the problem arose. You were not at the birthday banquet last night, and you were the one who persuaded Grandpa Qin to end the banquet ahead of time.”

When they were all distracted and focused upon Keiko and the three drivers, the birthday banquet finished ahead of time, so that’s when they brought Youyou out.

Qin Lv was startled by her lethal gaze. “What are you trying to say?”

Gu Weiwei grabbed a small syringe from her bag and stuck it into his arm.

“I just want to know where my son is, and maybe... you can tell me the truth.”

“Mu Weiwei, what on earth are you doing?” Qin Feng got so frightened that his face turned pale when he saw his son getting injected with the syringe.

He only had one son, and nothing must happen to him.

Not only Qin Feng, but also Qin Man and Qin Lv got startled.

“Weiwei...”

“Sister-in-law!” Fu Shiyi was also startled.

Qin Lv felt as if numerous thorns were injected into his blood vessels, and as his blood flowed, the pain started to spread from his arm to his whole body.

He staggered onto the sofa next to him, convulsing in pain. His face turned dreadfully pale.

“Weiwei, what are you doing?” Seeing Qin Lv in pain, Qin Man turned to Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei approached him and looked at the tormented Qin Lv coldly.

“I don’t have time for your quibbles. If you don’t want to die, tell me who took away Youyou and how.”

Hearing that this thing could kill his son, Qin Feng turned pale.

“We are investigating what happened last night, but what are you doing now? Are you trying to kill someone?”

Ignoring Qin Feng and Qin Man, Gu Weiwei looked at the tormented Qin Lv and interrogated him.

“Without the Qin Family’s protection, no one would have been able to bring the child out of the Qin Family, and you would have been the best cover.”

At that time, Qin Man and the other members of the Qin Family were receiving the guests at the banquet, and only Qin Lv had to coordinate with the staff and security, so he was the one who provided the best cover.

And the guilty conscience they had tried so hard to conceal the moment they entered the room, made her even more certain.

“I... really did not.” Qin Lv gritted his teeth and denied her guess.

She was right, but he must not admit it.

Also, this cold and fierce girl in front of him did not seem to be the youthful girl he remembered.

He had not expected that she would use such a method to interrogate him in order to find the child.

Gu Weiwei just could not believe such a counter-argument. Her pair of clear eyes looked cold and sharp.

“Qin Lv, they may care about the relationship between the Qin Family and the Fu Family, but I don’t.” She fiddled with the small syringe in her hand and said, “This is a new kind of neurotoxin. If the antidote is not taken in time, all the organs in the body will fail one after another...”

She knew that ordinary questions would not get her any answers, so she took something from Yuan Meng.

Qin Lv looked at her with shaking eyes and denied it.

“You have got the wrong person.”

Apart from pain, his eyes were full of disappointment as if something was collapsing inside him.

He had thought that when Fu Hanzheng was removed, he would become the man by her side.

But before that day came, she gave him such a fierce blow.

“If I am not wrong, then the next step will be you and Gu Siting working together against Fu’s Enterprise, right?”

“If it had not been for what happened last night, your denial would have been convincing, but now... you are just making excuses.”

...

Gu Siting was indeed well-prepared this time. He was waiting for her step by step.

He kidnapped Youyou and forced her to return to the Gu Family.

Once she returned to the Gu Family, the Gu Family and the Qin Family would join forces against the Fu Family, so that Fu Hanzheng would not be able to take care of both sides.

If Fu Hanzheng wanted to save her and the child, then he would not be able to deal with the crisis of the company.

But if Fu Hanzheng was busy with the company, he would not be able to rescue Youyou.

The Gu Family would control the Fu Family's properties overseas, and the Qin Family would shake the foundation of the Fu Family in Hua Land. That would have a huge impact on the Fu Family.

But that was only if their plan was concealed.

Fu Hanzheng had been prepared after he noticed that Kuroda Shio had been to Hua Land. So even if the Qin Family got involved, they would not be able to shake Fu's Enterprise.

Frightened, Qin Man watched this gentle and lovely girl suddenly become so lethal.

She gripped the baby's pacifier in her pocket. Morally speaking, she should take it out, but... she did not know what trouble it would bring to the Qin Family.

She had intended to get some clues about the child from Lv, so that she could help them find the child.

By that time, even if Lil' Lv was at fault, at least they would not fall out with each other when the child was found.

But it was one thing if she gave them the clue, and another if they forced it out of her.

"Weiwei, let's talk nicely, this is way too over the top."

Gu Weiwei glanced at Qin Man and said coldly, "My son went missing from the Qin Family banquet, do you think I have time to talk with you politely?"

"We really don't know anything. If you keep doing this, we will call the police." Qin Feng looked furious, but he was just trying to conceal his guilt.

According to the plan, they would not know anything until two days later when the Qin Family and the Gu Family took action against Fu's Enterprise.

Fu Hanzheng's wife looked young and innocent, but at this moment, she started the fight without any evidence.

Now Lv's life was in her hands, and he had no idea what to do next.

All the plans had been ruined by her.

If they did not tell her the truth, Lv would suffer and he might even lose his life.

But if they did tell her, everything would have been for nothing.

"Uncle Qin, if calling the police would work, we would not have come in person," Fu Shiyi said coldly.

But what his sister-in-law did had totally frightened him.

His brother and Fu Shiqin suspected Qin Lv too, but they had no evidence, so they did not do anything to him.

Before his sister-in-law came to poison someone, he had only thought that she was here to ask some questions or look for some clues.

Seeing the cold-looking Gu Weiwei and the tormented Qin Lv, Qin Feng turned pale.

The matter between the Qin Family and the Fu Family would not be solved even if the police were called. Instead, the situation would get worse.

"Weiwei, we know that you are anxious about losing the child, but... don't kill anyone." Qin Man tried to persuade her.

However, Gu Weiwei ignored her and looked at Qin Lv who was curled up on the sofa.

"If it were just one or two things, then it would have been a coincidence. But the Gu Family came to you and it happened at the Qin Family residence. You were not at the birthday banquet when the child was missing, so all of these coincidences are not just a coincidence but are things that were arranged deliberately.

"Also, I know better than you what Gu Siting is like. Do you think that you are working with him?"

"Actually, you are just a step for him to achieve his purpose. Now your plan has been exposed, do you think that you still have a chance to work with him?"

....

Fu Shiyi came to Kuroda Keiko's side and whispered, "Watch out for my sister-in-law, I need to make a call."

Kuroda Keiko nodded. "You can go now."

Fu Shiyi instantly walked out of the study and called his brother as he stood outside the door.

The phone rang twice before his brother answered.

"What is it?"

"Brother, my sister-in-law said that she wanted to go to the Qin Family, so I brought her here, but..."

"But what?" Fu Hanzheng's voice lowered.

"But sister-in-law has poisoned Qin Lv and she is trying to force a confession out of him. I am worried that someone might die..." Fu Shiyi said with a trembling heart.

However, the man stayed silent for only two seconds and said ruthlessly, "Let her be, keep your sister-in-law safe."

"..."

Fu Shiyi sighed. That was not a surprising answer.

He had thought that since Qin Lv was the eldest grandson of the Qin Family, it would not be proper for sister-in-law to do what she did without any evidence.

But his brother did not care, so what else could he say?

"When you are done, bring her back." Fu Hanzheng stressed.

He truly had not expected that she would visit the Qin Family.

Although it was not very appropriate for her to do that to Qin Lv without any evidence.

After all, the two families had been friends for so many years, and it would not work without any evidence.

That was why he asked Shiqin to keep an eye on the Qin Family, but he had not expected that Weiwei would think that it was better to have a more direct and violent method.

She could do whatever she wanted now; it was better than waiting for her to panic.

“Okay.” Fu Shiyi agreed after hearing what his brother said.

His brother allowed his sister-in-law to do whatever she wanted, so of course he supported her.

Although there was no evidence, yet Qin Lv was indeed suspicious.

But if what sister-in-law said was true and the Qin Family were colluding with Gu Siting to bring down Fu’s Enterprise, then he had been wrong about them.

The two families had been friends for decades and they had helped each other through many difficulties, but now, they were turning against each other.

The Fu Family would not tolerate anyone who was involved in kidnapping Youyou or colluding with the Gu Family.

He returned to the study and Gu Weiwei looked down at Qin Lv.

“Gu Siting can’t give you what you want, but even if he can give you what the Qin Family wants, I can make whatever you have got disappear.”

Hearing these words, Qin Feng snorted.

“You are too arrogant for Fu Hanzheng to do that.”

She was just Fu Hanzheng’s wife, and she was using the Fu Family’s power to do whatever she wanted in the Qin Family.

Fu Hanzheng would not dare to utter such arrogant words even if the Qin Family was ruined, but she did.

If she had not married into the Fu Family, she would have been nothing more than an actress.

Gu Weiwei ignored Qin Feng’s sneering and said to Qin Lv, “You want to do something in two days, right? But that is no longer a secret. Your life is in my hands, what else do you think you can do?”

“I just need to know who took my son away and where he is now. As long as you tell me what you know, I will forgive you for what happened last night.”

....

Qin Feng felt a bit guilty. How did she know about the plan in two days?

He tried his best to calm himself down, but cold sweat had already broken out on his forehead.

Just as she had said, now that she had seen through everything and Qin Lv was in her hands, they were really stuck.

She was not going to let go of this rare opportunity.

Also, they helped the Gu Family and kidnapped her and Fu Hanzheng's son, now the Fu Family would not forgive them easily.

Qin Lv looked at this strange girl in pain. "You are not Weiwei, not someone like you..."

"Of course I am not her, I just look like her." Seeing the young man's eyes full of pain and disappointment, Gu Weiwei said, "Or, you can call me Vivian Dorrans."

"Vivian Dorrans?!" Qin Feng turned even paler and he asked with a quivering voice, "You and Cayman Dorrans..."

"He is my father," Gu Weiwei said with a cold voice, "You may not be able to bring down the Fu Family in this round, but even if you manage to do that, I can turn everything you have into dust."

Chapter 1726: Simple and Violent 4

Qin Feng was also startled at first, but soon he realized what was going on and snorted.

"No, Cayman Dorrans has no daughter, you are pretending to be..."

She was just worried that the Fu Family would not be able to scare them, so she brought out another mafia family from Europe.

"She is not pretending. Cayman Dorrans met sister-in-law at the wedding in Slovakia after Gu Siting showed up," Fu Shiyi said as he showed Qin Feng the video he had taken on the sly.

One video showed Gu Weiwei and Cayman Dorrans talking in the church where the wedding was held.

One was when Cayman Dorrans left with a large group of helpers.

Qin Man moved her head and took a look. It was indeed the Chenis Castle in Slovakia, and they had returned home ahead of time after the wedding was canceled.

They had no idea why Gu Siting was there, and they did not ask anything more when Fu Hanzheng did not mention a thing.

But unexpectedly, Cayman Dorrans was there too.

And he went to meet Mu Weiwei.

Qin Feng and Qin Man exchanged a look, although they had never heard that Cayman Dorrans had a daughter.

But this video seemed to be real, and it seemed that after she got together with Fu Hanzheng, the Dorrans Family broke off the relationship with the Gu Family and stopped cooperating with them.

Now when he thought about it, he wondered if all of this was because of her.

If that was the case, even if they helped the Gu Family to bring down the Fu Family, there was still a mafia family occupying Europe behind the scenes.

It was a piece of cake for the Dorrans Family to keep the Fu Family safe.

They must have made a mistake.

Gu Weiwei sized up the three people of the Qin Family and said coldly, "This is a grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family. As long as my son is safe, I will not pursue your matter."

As for whether the Fu Family would pursue the matter or not, that was none of her business.

Qin Feng and Qin Lv were both silent.

"But can you give me the antidote first?" Qin Man asked.

Mu Weiwei's sudden move had not only ruined their plan, but also hers.

She had tried to get some information out of her nephew so that she could help to find the child and solve the crisis, but it seemed that she was not able to do that any more. They were already in a passive position.

Gu Weiwei pulled out another syringe from the bag and put it into Qin Lv's pocket.

“This antidote can help you for three hours, think about it carefully.”

Having said these words, she got up and left.

The moment she left, Fu Shiyi and Kuroda Keiko left too.

Qin Man quickly took out the syringe and injected the drug into Qin Lv’s vein. The drug soon eased the pain of Qin Lv’s poisoning.

Qin Feng asked in astonishment, “She is really from the Dorrans Family?”

Although he did not know much about the Dorrans Family, yet when the Gu Family was suppressed by the Fu Family, the Dorrans Family brought them back to life and made them stronger.

Therefore, the Dorrans Family must be very wealthy.

If Mu Weiwei was really Cayman Dorrans’ daughter, then they had not only pissed off the Fu Family but also the Dorrans Family.

Qin Man gave the drug to Qin Lv and sighed.

“I think that it is true. Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo, who have been in contact with her often, have been in Italy these days, and the headquarters of the Dorrans Family is in Italy.”

When Luo Qianqian was attacked in Nice, the Fu Family also asked her for help through the embassy.

When the report came in, it showed that the Dorrans Family also sent their men there.

She had not paid much attention to it, but now she realized that it must have been Mu Weiwei who asked them to do the job.

Outside the Qin Family, Fu Shiyi got into the car and was about to drive back to the magnificent villa district of Pearl River.

“Hang on, don’t leave now.” Gu Weiwei stopped him.

Fu Shiyi turned off the engine and asked as he turned around, "Sister-in-law, do you really think that they will tell us the truth just because you threatened them?"

Gu Weiwei took out the voice transmitter from the bag and connected the signal carefully. Soon, she heard Qin Feng and Qin Jiao talking.

"Sister-in-law, you bugged them?" Fu Shiyi asked in astonishment.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the Qin Family's villa and said calmly, "Maybe they won't tell us the truth, but they will always talk about the truth with each other."

She had drugged Qin Lv and threatened them with the Dorrans Family, so they would definitely come up with a countermeasure.

No matter if they decided to tell them or not, they had to wait and see.

Therefore, when she was giving Qin Lv the medicine, she took the opportunity to stuff a tiny bug the size of a button into Qin Lv's coat pocket.

As long as she was within 1,500 meters of the Qin Family, she could hear what they were talking about.

It did not matter what they were going to tell them, but what they were going to talk about was of utmost importance.

However, it was only Qin Feng and Qin Man who spoke at the beginning and they did not get to the point.

Fu Shiyi turned around and asked discreetly, "Will the neurotoxin sister-in-law injected into him really kill you?"

"It won't kill anyone, but it won't be pleasant either," Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Fu Shiyi turned around and looked at his sister-in-law in the rearview mirror. She looked lovely in front of his brother, but when she got angry, she looked terrifying.

"But is it really necessary to tell them about your relationship with Dorrans?"

That had always been a secret.

Hearing Qin Man and Qin Feng talking about something unimportant, Gu Weiwei said, "Although the Fu Family are on their guard now, they still think that with Youyou kidnapped, the Fu Family is in a passive position and will be at the mercy of anyone.

"By revealing to them that there is one more enemy, the Dorrans Family, they will know that they, the Qin Family, have lost no matter what."

....

Fu Shiyi nodded thoughtfully. "True, they would not dare to do anything if we scare them."

Otherwise while Youyou was missing, Gu Siting would keep causing trouble for his brother, and the Qin Family, whom they had always trusted, would turn against Fu's Enterprise. That would be very troublesome.

As long as the Qin Family were suppressed, no matter how much trouble the Gu Family caused, at least the headquarters of Hua Land would not be disturbed.

In this way, Fu Shiqin would be able to stand it.

Then his brother could focus upon dealing with the Fu Family.

They were just talking when Qin Man's voice arose from the speaker.

"Lv, are you really not going to tell us anything?"

Fu Shiyi glanced at Gu Weiwei— his sister-in-law was right, Qin Lv was involved.

Gu Weiwei looked calm as she listened to the following conversation.

Qin Lv sounded feeble as he mumbled, "Isn't she... Weiwei?"

"But if she is not Weiwei, where is Weiwei?"

....

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth; this man was not giving up on his sister-in-law!

Translator: Henyee

Hearing his words, Qin Feng got very annoyed.

"Why do you still care if she is Mu Weiwei or not?"

He had been poisoned by that woman and he was still concerned about this matter.

"I don't know if she is Mu Weiwei or not, but it is very likely that she is Cayman Dorrans' daughter," Qin Man said and tried to persuade him.

“Lv, tell them what you know, help them get the child back, and everything will be solved.”

However, Qin Lv still did not relent.

“At this stage, even if I tell them the truth, they will never forgive me and the Qin Family!”

“Qin Lv!” Qin Man bellowed furiously, and each one of her words was sharp. “There is still room for negotiation before the big mistake is made. They won’t kill you for the sake of our decades-old friendship.”

If he continued to be stubborn, he was definitely going to die.

But Qin Feng was not giving up either.

He looked at Qin Lv and said discreetly, “What about... making a decision after talking with the Gu Family?”

Qin Man smashed the things around her and said angrily, “You are still dreaming! The Gu Family has no intention of cooperating with you, otherwise they would not even tell you about the Dorrans Family.”

They might not know about the relationship between Mu Weiwei and the Dorrans Family, but Gu Siting did.

But he never told them a thing.

Just as what Mu Weiwei had said, he was just using them as chess pieces for his purpose.

As for what his goal would be, the Gu Family would not care if the chess piece lived or died.

“Maybe he doesn’t know either,” Qin Feng mumbled.

“He doesn’t know about it, but he has been in contact with the Dorrans Family for more than twenty years. When Fu Hanzheng and his family were getting married at Chenis Castle, he was already there with Cayman Dorrans, of course he knew about it.” Qin Man looked at her brother and nephew who were so stubborn, feeling both angry and annoyed. “The Old Master is so old, are you trying to drive him to his death or kill him?”

Startled by Qin Man’s words, Qin Feng turned to Qin Lv and said, “Now you have been drugged, and you need to get the antidote from them before you can think about what to do next.”

Qin Lv said nothing, as if thinking about what his father had said.

Qin Feng thought for a while and said, "Give them some information and get the antidote first."

"You are stupid, but do you think that everyone else is as stupid as you?" Seeing that her brother Qin Feng was not convinced, Qin Man said coldly, "Do you think that they will give you the antidote so easily when they have not found the child?"

"But I really don't know where the child is," Qin Lv said to Qin Jianjia.

"Then tell us how she snuck into the Qin Family, what she looks like, what characteristics she has and what she said. Tell us everything you know," Qin Man said with a gentle voice and continued speaking, "As long as you tell us everything, Aunt will deal with the rest, alright?"

After a long moment of silence, Qin Lv confessed to Qin Man.

How he got in touch with the Gu Family, how he brought Youyou to the Gu Family person, how he delivered Youyou and where he ended up.

Gu Weiwei could not wait any more after hearing the address.

"Let's go to the place he mentioned."

The place where the boy was brought out of the car, must be where the boy was being hidden.

Chapter 1729: The Qin Family's Confession

Translator: Henyee

Hearing the words, Fu Shiyi started the car and drove them away from the Qin Family.

However, he went straight to the address he had just heard.

"Sister-in-law, let's call our brothers and ask them to send someone there."

After all, he and his sister-in-law were public figures, and if they asked about a missing child from one person to another, they would definitely make the headlines.

The headlines were nothing, but within two hours, she would be surrounded by fans and journalists.

“Okay,” Gu Weiwei said as she made the call to Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng picked it up quickly. “Still not home?”

“Qin Lv revealed the person who took away Youyou. We have just found out where he handed Youyou over,” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment and said, “The intersection of Huainan?”

Gu Weiwei was startled. “How did you know?”

They had just heard the news and it had only been five minutes, the Qin Family would not have told him the truth so fast.

“I found out where Qin Lv was last night and I just came here.” Fu Hanzheng confessed.

“I will be there soon,” Gu Weiwei said.

“Okay, be careful,” Fu Hanzheng said, rang off and continued with the search plan.

Gu Weiwei rang off and prayed that she could find Youyou in that residential area.

The child had been away from her for more than ten hours since the night before, and every minute felt like an eternity.

Within an hour, Fu Shiyi drove her and Kuroda Keiko to the place Qin Lv mentioned.

Seeing their car from afar, Fu Hanzheng walked over to them, pulled open the door and said, “I have got people searching the residential area as well as the surveillance cameras.”

Gu Weiwei looked at the high-rise residential area and said anxiously, “I will help too.”

“It is not a good time for you to be outside, wait for us in the car,” Fu Hanzheng said gently.

If she went out to find him, she would be surrounded within ten minutes, and she might not even be able to get away, let alone find Youyou.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while, “Where is the surveillance team?”

“In the RV over there,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei put on the mask and said, “Take me there.”

She had only got the neurotoxin and the micro-surveillance equipment from Yuan Meng, not any form of disguise.

If she went out to help with the search, she would only gain more and more attention and need even more people to keep her safe.

But she just could not stand by and do nothing.

She was always able to help with the screening of the surveillance cameras.

Fu Hanzheng understood that she just could not stand it any more, so he did not turn down her request. Instead, he took her hands and led her to the RV not far away.

There were already several staff members in the RV who were checking the useful information from the surveillance cameras the night before. She got into the RV and started to work too.

Standing in the RV, Fu Shiyi and Fu Hanzheng started having a conversation.

“The Qin Family will probably come to us soon, what should we do?”

“Leave it to Shiqin.” Having said these words, Fu Hanzheng left with his men.

Fu Shiyi called Fu Shiqin obediently and briefly explained the situation.

After a moment of anger, Fu Shiqin said straightforwardly, “Go to our father, I am busy at the company.”

Fu Shiyi rolled his eyes. “Okay.”

Second Brother was busy dealing with the company, so he did not have time or energy to deal with the Qin Family.

But his father was very free at the moment.

Instead of making a call, he sent the recorded conversation to Fu Shengying.

Chapter 1730: His Baby Grandson

Translator: Henyee

At the Fu Family’s mansion.

Mrs. Fu had just taken care of her granddaughter and put her in the cot for her afternoon nap, when she returned to the living room to face the distressed Old Lady and Fu Shengying. She could not help but sigh when she thought of her grandson whom she had no news of.

Fu Shengying could not sit still. He wanted to call and ask about the news, but he did not want to disturb their search.

Mrs. Fu got increasingly sad and said guiltily, "Why is my heart so big? Why did I put Youyou in the bedroom of the Qin Family?"

If she had been more cautious and kept the child with her, nothing like this would have happened.

Also, before the birthday banquet started, Hanzheng had intended to bring Weiwei and the two children home. But they said that it would be impolite to leave too early, so she asked them to leave when the birthday banquet started.

But what she had not expected was that something like this would happen.

"Alright, now is not the time to blame yourself. Take good care of Tiantian and let them go and find the child," Old Lady said with a low voice.

Mrs. Fu wiped away the tears from the corner of her eyes. "Before we went there, we told the Qin Family repeatedly to strengthen the security and we even sent our own men there. But someone sneaked in and took the child away right under our nose."

"Lv is too young to be as considerate as his aunt and uncle," Old Lady said.

If Qin Man or Qin Lang had arranged the birthday banquet this year, such a mistake would not have happened.

"In my opinion, something is wrong with the Qin Family," Fu Shengying said angrily.

Having just said these words, his phone rang.

"Look, is it about Youyou?" Mrs. Fu urged him.

Fu Shengying took a look at the phone and said, "It is from Fu Shiyi."

He had just said these words when Qin Feng and Qin Man's voices arose from the phone.

Then came Qin Lv's voice.

"What... are they saying?" Mrs. Fu got so angry that her voice trembled.

The Qin Family and the Fu Family had been supporting each other all these years and they had been treating each other as family.

She had never expected that it had been the Qin Family who had been colluding with the Gu Family and Qin Lv who had helped to bring Youyou away.

No matter what the grudge was, it was an adult's grudge. How could he do anything to an eight-month-old baby?

"No wonder they insisted on them attending the birthday banquet when Hanzheng said that he was not going. They had been waiting for this moment," Old Lady said angrily.

Fu Shengying's face turned pale. "Oh, so they were planning something like this?"

If they had not heard the recording, they would never have believed that the Qin Family were involved.

Also, they not only wanted to kidnap Youyou but also wanted to join forces with the Gu Family to bring down the Fu Family.

"Now they have kidnapped Youyou, what do they plan to do next?" Mrs. Fu was very worried. She just could not believe that the Qin Family would do such a thing.

"Now the plan is exposed and Qin Lv has been poisoned by Weiwei, they would not dare to do anything," Old Lady said with a low voice.

The Qin Family had threatened them, but they could not tolerate what they had done.

Fu Shengying asked the butler to get the car ready, got up and was about to leave.

"Where are you going?" Mrs. Fu asked.

"To the Qin Family," Fu Shengying said and stormed out.

How dare the Qin Family collude with the Gu Family and do something to his precious grandson! He just could not stand it.

Chapter 1731: Embarrassment

Translator: Henyee

On the Qin Family's side, Qin Man and Qin Feng had just finished their conversation, and were about to contact Gu Weiwei, when Fu Shengying arrived.

Seeing Fu Shengying rushing into the living room, they were startled.

“Uncle Fu, what are you doing here?”

“You teamed up with the Gu Family to destroy the Fu Family, why can’t I come here?” Fu Shengying snorted.

Speechless, Qin Feng suddenly felt his heart tighten again.

Qin Man glanced at him and said to Fu Shengying calmly, “Uncle Fu, you must have misunderstood something. We weren’t careful, which is why Youyou was kidnapped.

“But I have found some useful clues and I was just about to contact Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng...”

....

“What clues?” Fu Shengying asked.

Qin Feng said with a smiling face, “We have not had a good sleep the entire night and we have been investigating. But our efforts paid off and we finally found the place where the man who took away the child appeared.”

They were going to tell the Fu Family where the child was delivered to, but they were not going to admit that they were related to the Gu Family or that they helped to bring the child out.

“Really? Thank you for your efforts.”

Fu Shengying snorted. What investigation? He was just trying to tell him where Qin Lv took Youyou to.

Also, if their plan had not been seen through and Qin Lv had not been drugged, they would not have said anything.

Luckily Shiyi and Weiwei were smart enough to bug the room and hear what they said, otherwise they would still be arguing here.

Even when he was providing them with the information, he sounded as if he were helping them tremendously.

If he had not known about the contents of the recording, he might have been moved by what they had said and done.

But when he heard what Qin Feng said, he became even more furious.

“Well... of course. After all, the child was lost in the Qin Family and we are responsible too,” Qin Feng said with a dry smile.

Qin Man did not speak, feeling that Fu Shengying’s expression and attitude were a bit weird.

But when she called Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi, none of the calls went through.

They only had three hours and they were supposed to answer the call.

Fu Shengying glanced at Qin Feng and Qin Man and asked coldly, “Where is Qin Lv?”

“Lv is not feeling well, he is resting in the room,” Qin Feng said with a smile.

Fu Shengying sneered. “He is so relaxed that he even has time to sleep.”

Because he helped the Gu Family to bring away Youyou, the Fu Family had not slept for the entire night and he still had the cheek to do that?

“He has been so busy with the birthday banquet that he has not had a good rest for days. And last night, he was helping with the investigation of the child, so I asked him to take a rest today,” Qin Feng said.

Fu Shengying got increasingly annoyed when he saw the siblings talking glibly in front of him as if they were trying their best to help them find the child.

“Uncle Fu, why can’t we get in touch with Fu Shiyi and Weiwei? We just found out that someone showed up with Youyou at the intersection of Huainan last night. We must ask them to get someone to go over there as soon as possible...” Qin Jiao said anxiously.

“No need, they are already there,” Fu Shengying said as he clicked open the recorded message Fu Shiyi sent to him. “I would like to hear what is going on.”

For one moment, the living room was so quiet that only Fu Shengying’s recording could be heard.

Qin Feng threw a look at Qin Lv. Wasn’t that what they talked about in the study?

Could it have been because Mu Weiwei had not only drugged Lv, but also left a listening device in the room so as to hear their conversation?

Qin Man did not speak but sized up Fu Shengying anxiously.

No wonder he came here with such a furious expression.

She had thought that the place mentioned by them would then be found by the Fu Family.

If they were able to find the child through this method, they would have made up for their mistakes.

But before the words were out, they already knew about it.

Therefore, they sounded as if they had done them a great favor but slapped right across the face at the same time.

“Uncle Fu, regarding this matter... it is my fault for not educating them. They were influenced by the Gu Family.”

“Qin Lv is young, but your eldest brother Qin Feng is old too!” Fu Shengying snorted and said, “If it had not been discovered that Qin Lv was poisoned, would you have given up?”

He could tell from the recording that Qin Feng was not convinced.

They had planned to tell Hanzheng that the man who took away the boy showed up at the intersection of Huainan because they had to.

Firstly, it was because Qin Lv had been poisoned and now his life was under Gu Weiwei’s control. Secondly, he knew about the relationship between Gu Weiwei and the Dorrans Family. Thirdly, his plan had been seen through, so he knew that he had no chance of winning.

That was why they wanted to tell them the truth and cut off the relationship between them and the Gu Family.

“Uncle Fu, we did do something wrong, but it is not such a big mistake, please forgive us.”

“Is it not a big mistake?” Fu Shengying sneered out of anger and asked loudly, “I’m not sure if my grandson is dead or alive because of you, and it is not a big mistake?”

“Uncle Fu...”

“Let me tell you, if anything happens to my grandson, I will not only kill Qin Lv but also the entire Qin Family!” Fu Shengying said furiously.

They were not guarded against the Qin Family because they had been friends for so many years, so they came to celebrate with them.

But unexpectedly, they had already set them up.

“Uncle Fu, it is my eldest brother and my youngest brother who have been possessed this time, but...” Qin Man sighed helplessly and begged. “Please don’t bring this matter to our father. You know that he is not feeling well these days, and if he knows about this, he will fall seriously ill again.”

Fu Shengying stayed silent for a few seconds and softened his tone.

“As long as Youyou can return safe and sound, I will not go to your father about this matter, but... we will not let this matter go either.”

He was indeed disappointed by what Qin Feng and Qin Lv had done, but he could tell from the recording that Qin Man had been opposing them and persuading them to confess.

Therefore, Qin Man could tell right from wrong.

“Thank you, Uncle Fu.” Seeing that she had also been seen through, Qin Man did not try to argue back.

She was just worried that if Grandpa knew about it, he would not be able to accept it.

After all, he valued the decades-old friendship between the Qin Family and the Fu Family.

If he knew what her brother and her nephew had done, he would get very angry.

“I don’t care what Hanzheng is going to do, but from today onwards, the Fu Family will cease all collaboration with the Qin Family and never collaborate with you again.” Fu Shengying sounded resolute.

Chapter 1733: What for?

Translator: Henyee

“Uncle Fu, that is not very proper, is it?” Qin Feng panicked when he heard that Fu’s Enterprise was withdrawing all the projects with the Qin Family. “In this way, both the Qin Family and the Fu Family would suffer huge losses...”

Also, there were hundreds of projects between the Qin Family and the Fu Family, and if all of them were stopped at once, where would they find such a large amount of funding from?

“I don’t care about the loss,” Fu Shengying said with a low voice.

They had dared to do something to his grandson, and if their plan had not been exposed, they would have done something to Fu’s Enterprise. If he had not been so stupid as to think that the Fu Family were too rich, how different would the situation be?

Qin Feng got anxious. “But Qin’s Enterprise will...”

“I missed the part where that’s my problem if the Qin Family lives or dies? You two did not care about our relationship,” Fu Shengying said coldly.

They should have known that this would happen when they colluded with the Gu Family and tried to hurt Youyou.

The canceling of their collaboration was just a minor issue. When Hanzheng found Youyou and made some noise, he would think about how to deal with the Gu Family and what his plan was.

Seeing that Fu Shengying was not convinced, Qin Feng turned to Qin Jiao for help.

“Xiao Man, say something...”

“Uncle Fu, since they have started to look for the place, can we give the antidote to Lv?” Qin Jianjia asked.

The medicine they had given to him could only keep him pain free for three hours, but two hours had passed and the effects of the poison were coming again.

“He has made my grandson suffer, and our whole family is suffering too. Why should we let him escape from suffering?” Fu Shengying said and left angrily.

If Qin Lv had not been involved, no one would have been able to bring Youyou out of the Qin Family.

And now they still wanted them to let him go, did they really think that they were that easy to deal with?

Seeing Fu Shengying leaving, Qin Feng stomped angrily in the living room.

“If Fu’s Enterprise suspends all the projects, we will suffer a great loss.”

After all, they were not as rich as the Fu Family.

He had planned to use the Gu Family to bring down the Fu Family and steal the resources of the Fu Family so that the Qin Family could replace the Fu Family as the richest family in Hua Land.

But unexpectedly, before the plan even started, he was already spied upon by the Fu Family.

They failed to bring down the Fu Family, but they themselves had started to fall.

When hundreds of projects were stopped, they would not be able to get so much money to support them. If they could not find the money, the Qin Family would have to increase the investment themselves. But they did not have so many savings to do that!

“Why did you do it if you knew about the risk?” Qin Man said.

If she had noticed their intention, she would have tried her best to stop them.

But by the time she realized it, it was already too late.

It had been the Fu Family who had spoiled their grandson, and no matter how good-tempered Fu Shengying was, he would still turn hostile.

If it had not been because of being in the older generation, the Old Master would have known about it already.

“What should we do now? If we can’t get the antidote, Fu’s Enterprise will stop the collaboration...” Qin Feng got so anxious that he almost exploded. He truly regretted his decision, but it was too late.

Qin Man sat down on the sofa tiredly and said, “I have asked an expert of neurotoxins to come here, but I am afraid that the antidote will not be available any time soon.”

So all they could do now was to find someone to alleviate Qin Lv’s pain and wait until Fu Hanzheng found the child.

Hopefully, they would be able to find the child through this clue.

Otherwise, apart from Fu Shengying, Fu Hanzheng and his brothers would do harm beyond their imagination to the Qin Family.

At the Gu Family’s mansion in A Land.

As the Fu Family were busy searching for the child, the news of the Qin Family being exposed reached Gu Siting.

Gu Siting was wiping the white piano in the living room, not at all surprised by Kuroda Shio's report.

"Anyway, we have achieved our purpose of approaching the Qin Family."

They approached the Qin Family because they wanted to use Qin Lv to bring the child away.

Now the child was in their hands, so it would not affect his plan if the Qin Family was exposed.

If the Qin Family had not been exposed, then they would have been of some help when dealing with Fu's Enterprise, but even if they were exposed, it would not have been a big deal.

"But the Qin Family have already revealed the men they sent to take away the child, and they are doing the investigation one door after another," Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting showed a cold smile. "Even if they have been found out, the child is not there."

He had planned for so long just to get her back, and he was not going to let Fu Hanzheng find the child so fast.

Kuroda Shio was startled. "The child is not there?"

"Once the Qin Family are exposed, they will definitely follow Qin Lv to the last place where the child was taken away, and then they will start to search the surrounding area." Gu Siting wiped the gap between the keys and said calmly, "So someone replaced the child ages ago, and even if they find the person, the child with them is not theirs."

Also, they did not have much time left.

That child was an important bargaining chip for her return, and he was not going to let them find him so easily.

Kuroda Shio looked at this man who had lost his elegance and gentleness and turned paranoid.

He did not even know that he had replaced the child.

He had tried his best to get Miss Weiwei back.

But Weiwei, who had been forced to return to the Gu Family, must hate him to the bone.

He knew that he was being paranoid, but he also knew that it was useless to try to persuade him.

As long as Miss Weiwei was not home, his paranoid mindset would continue.

Gu Siting wiped the piano clean and asked nonchalantly as he tried the sound, "Cayman Dorrans... should be here soon, right?"

Cayman Dorrans would not sit still when something happened to the Fu Family.

Kuroda Shio was about to speak when he received a text.

"They are off the plane, what should we do?"

Although Cayman Dorrans had little contact with Miss Weiwei, he had been paying attention to her movements in Hua Land and the child they had taken away was his grandson, so he would definitely come here.

Cayman Dorrans was not an easy man to deal with.

"We don't need to do anything, everything is in my hands now," Gu Siting said coldly.

Before, he had threatened him with the lives of his mother and grandfather.

Now they had been taken away by Gu Yun Che, so he had no way to threaten him.

But that child was in his hands, and even if Cayman Dorrans was here, nothing would change.

They could not use his mother and grandfather as the bargaining chip, and his life and death would decide Weiwei's. So no matter what Fu Hanzheng did, Cayman would not be able to do anything to him either.

As long as the child was in his hands, neither Cayman Dorrans nor Fu Hanzheng would be able to stop his plan.

Within two hours, Cayman Dorrans arrived at the Gu Family accompanied by Yuan Shuo and Matthew.

Gu Siting had expected that they would come, so he had been waiting for them in the living room, playing the piano that had been cleaned and tuned.

Cayman Dorrans heard the sound of piano coming out of the classical-style villa.

Although he had never met his daughter before, he knew that she used to like playing the piano pieces by Franz Liszt.

But it seemed that after so many years in Hua Land, Weiwei barely played any of Liszt's songs.

"Let's go." Yuan Shuo urged.

Cayman Dorrans looked serious as he walked to the front door of the Gu Family's mansion and looked at the young man who was playing the piano without emotion.

"Gu Siting!"

Gu Siting stopped playing and looked up at the uninvited guests.

"Come in."

"Where is the child?" Cayman Dorrans cut to the chase.

Gu Siting got up from the piano, walked to the sofa and said calmly, "Anyways it doesn't matter, he is not here."

Of course the child would not be brought to the Gu Family of A Land, because he knew that Cayman Dorrans would definitely be here.

So as long as he was out there in Hua Land, they would not be able to find him.

"Gu Siting, no matter if it is your grudge with the Fu Family or Weiwei, it is a matter between adults. You should not be a man who lays hands on an eight-month-old child!" Yuan Shuo said furiously.

Gu Siting was not moved. "As long as she is here, I don't care about anything."

"You want her to be here, but have you asked her if she wants to be here or not?" Yuan Shuo asked coldly.

Gu Siting looked calm as he took a sip of the black tea.

"No need to say anything more, I will not give up the child before Weiwei returns to the Gu Family."

If he would surrender after a few words, he would not have kidnapped the child and forced her to come home.

“Gu Siting, you have killed her once, and my daughter does not belong to you,” Cayman Dorrans said coldly.

Gu Siting looked saddened and said, “Yes, she died because of me, but she lives because of me too. I paid such a huge price to get her back, not because I wanted Fu Hanzheng to have her.”

“Get?” Yuan Shuo sneered and looked at Gu Siting pitifully. “What do you think she is? Fu Hanzheng did not get her, he fell in love with her and Weiwei fell in love with him too, and that is something you will never be able to achieve.”

Fu Hanzheng loved Weiwei deeply, so he took great care of her.

Gu Siting might have loved her deeply, but his feelings were full of unwillingness and selfishness.

It was such a twisted and selfish love to coerce someone to return to his side.

Even if he could threaten Weiwei with that child, yet her heart would never be returned to him.

Instead of arguing more, Gu Siting smiled meaningfully.

He had not been able to make it happen before, but this time, as long as she was here, he could do it.

“Gu Siting, hand over the child, or you will suffer,” Cayman Dorrans said as Matthew loaded the gun and pointed it at Gu Siting.

Gu Siting took a sip of tea leisurely. “If I am not doing well, then Fu Hanzheng’s son will not be doing well either. He is too young to be injured.”

“You...” Cayman Dorrans tried to press down his anger.

He truly did not dare to take the risk when Weiwei’s child was in his hands.

Gu Siting was indeed thoughtful this time.

He had arranged for his mother and grandfather to leave ahead of time, and he was alone. They could not do anything to him, either for Weiwei or for her child.

They had no idea where the child was. If they did something to him, the child would suffer.

“Put away the gun, Matthew,” Yuan Shuo said.

Matthew glanced at Cayman Dorrans and saw him nodding, so he put away the gun helplessly.

Yuan Shuo did not want to stay here any more, so he said to Cayman Dorrans, “Let’s leave now.”

Now Weiwei’s child was in Gu Siting’s hands and they could do nothing to him.

“If you don’t mind, you can stay at the Gu Family. She will be back soon anyway,” Gu Siting said generously.

Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo exchanged a look and moved in.

However, in order to prevent himself from shooting Gu Siting, Cayman Dorrans chose a room far away after listening to Yuan Shuo’s advice.

Matthew checked the room for surveillance cameras and dangerous items and then left with his men.

Cayman Dorrans sat down worriedly. “Now, both the Fu Family and us are in a passive position.”

With the child in Gu Siting’s hands, they would not dare to touch Gu Siting, and even Weiwei would be threatened by him.

“I am afraid that Weiwei will have to come here too,” Yuan Shuo said.

Gu Siting was trying to force her to come back, so the Fu Family would not be able to find the child easily.

“Still no news from Hua Land?” Cayman Dorrans asked.

Yuan Shuo sighed helplessly. “They have found the man who took the child away from the Qin Family, but they have not found Youyou yet.”

Judging from Gu Siting’s confident gaze, they might not be able to find Youyou.

“He knows clearly that Weiwei would never fall in love with him, even if he forces her to come home. What is he trying to do by being so stubborn?” Cayman Dorrans was furious. If it had not been because his daughter’s life was at stake, he would have killed Gu Siting.

Yuan Shuo thought for a long while with a serious expression on his face. “I am afraid that she will be affected by drugs and hypnosis just like before.”

Also, it seems that he has been well-prepared for this move of his.

“It is all my fault. I should not have sent Weiwei to the Gu Family.” Cayman Dorrans regretted it deeply.

If he had not sent Weiwei to the Gu Family, he would not have provoked this maniac Gu Siting.

“Now is not the time for that.” Yuan Shuo looked serious and said, “If the child is not found, everyone will be led by the nose by Gu Siting.”

“Let’s stay here for the time being. Even if Weiwei has to return, she will be here with us,” Cayman Dorrans said.

Finding that child was like finding a needle in a haystack.

Although Weiwei did not say anything, it seemed that Gu Siting had already contacted Weiwei.

That was why he said that she was coming home soon.

“Yes, but we must find the child first, otherwise the problem will not be solved,” Yuan Shuo said.

As long as the child was with Gu Siting, the Dorrans Family and the Fu Family would be controlled and Weiwei would have to stay with the Gu Family.

Chapter 1737: This Is the Guy

Translator: Henyee

In the capital of Hua Land.

For two days and two nights, Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng kept checking the neighborhood but found no trace of the child.

Gu Weiwei forced herself to sit in front of the computer and watch numerous videos. She got so tired that her eyes turned bloodshot.

Hearing Fu Shiyi saying that she had not eaten anything, Fu Hanzheng arranged everything and came to the RV.

“I asked someone to heat up the porridge and chicken soup, have some.”

“I will eat later.” Gu Weiwei stared at the two computer screens in front of her and watched the CCTV footage.

“Weiwei, I know you are anxious, but you must take care of yourself.” Fu Hanzheng scooped up the porridge and gave it to her.

Fu Shiyi said instantly, “Sister-in-law, eat first, I will keep watch for you.”

Gu Weiwei glanced at Fu Hanzheng and compromised helplessly.

“Watch out for this man. He may change his clothes or wear a hat, but don’t miss him.”

“I get it.” Fu Shiyi took her place. Sitting in front of the computer, he focused on the scene displayed on the screen, looking for the man who had the boy with him.

With porridge in hands, Gu Weiwei said to Fu Hanzheng, “Have you eaten?”

Fu Hanzheng poured himself another bowl. “Let’s eat together.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and ate the porridge in silence.

Three days had passed and the boy was still missing.

If he was not found tomorrow, she would have to return to the Gu Family temporarily.

Seeing her distracted expression, Fu Hanzheng thought that she was just trying to block out the pain in her heart.

“He still wants to threaten us with Youyou, so he probably won’t do anything to him.”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself. Her heart ached whenever her son was mentioned.

“What if they don’t feed him well, what if he gets sick...”

Soon, she started to sob.

The boy was an obedient boy who did not usually make a fuss, but when he was in a strange place and facing a stranger, he must be scared.

Before this, she had been busy searching for useful information from the CCTV, so she had no time to feel sad.

But the moment she relaxed, she started to obsessively think about her child.

Fu Hanzheng had one hand around his bowl and the other over her shoulders.

“Don’t think too much, the most important thing now is to find him.”

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath, pressed down the sadness and started to eat the porridge in silence.

After finishing the porridge and drinking the chicken soup, it took her less than ten minutes before she put down the bowl and returned to the computer.

Fu Shiyi retreated and whispered, “Brother, please ask sister-in-law to take a rest. If she keeps staring at the computer, her eyes won’t be able to take it, let alone her body.”

Fu Hanzheng looked concerned as he watched Gu Weiwei leaving to sit at the computer.

But he did not stop her.

He knew pretty well how she was feeling right now. If she kept being busy like this, she would not feel so sad... but she would feel even worse when she was resting.

But if this went on, her body would not be able to take it.

He was just thinking when Gu Weiwei suddenly said, “It is him! It is him!”

Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiyi came to her side when they heard her voice. The man in the black cap showed a glimpse of his face as he passed by the shelf, and he did look very much like the man in the video.

“He is at a mother-and-child store and he has bought baby milk powder,” Gu Weiwei said as she saw what the man was shopping for.

“That’s him!” Fu Shiyi was overjoyed.

Gu Weiwei said to the others instantly, “This shop is located at the intersection of Gold Street and Huitong Road. The CCTV shows that he was here at 6:30 p.m. yesterday, so we can check the CCTV around 6:30 p.m. and see which direction he went in.”

They had searched the entire residential area but still failed to find this man and Youyou.

If she could find out where he was from the CCTV, she would be able to find where he and Youyou were hiding.

Chapter 1738: One Step At a Time

Translator: Henyee

The technicians arranged by Fu Hanzheng were very efficient. Within a few minutes, they had found all the CCTV images of the road that the man passed by.

Soon they had found out where he was going and where he was hiding.

This search was much smaller than the previous one.

As Fu Hanzheng got out of the RV, he made a call to Yuan Meng and Lei Ning's men and asked them to search around the area.

Gu Weiwei followed up. "I will go with you."

Fu Hanzheng nodded and took her into the car, heading towards the last confirmed area.

When they arrived, Lei Ning and Yuan Meng were already there.

"We have checked this area and found nothing. Only these two buildings are left." Yuan Meng pointed at the two buildings not far away and said, "The CCTV of that building has been broken these past few days, so I don't think he lives in the building that is always monitored."

Then he must be in this broken building.

"Have you arranged for someone to go there?"

"I have asked the property agent to check the apartments one after the other. They will inform us when the location is confirmed," Yuan Meng said.

Because they were looking for him in this way, they would not have searched every apartment by force yet. They asked the cleaning staff to do the search or the property management team so as to find out what was going on inside before breaking in.

Luckily, Fu Hanzheng arranged many people here and they were very efficient.

Sitting in the car, Gu Weiwei looked at the building through the window and got so nervous that her hands were shaking.

She kept praying that Youyou was in this building, but when she thought of Gu Siting's threat, she feared that Youyou was not here.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands. "Hang on, we will get the news soon."

Gu Weiwei nodded. One hour later, someone called Yuan Meng.

Yuan Meng answered the call and said to Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei in the car, "Yes, a girl is in room 1104 on the 11th floor, and there is the sound of a child in the room."

Before she finished the words, Gu Weiwei had already opened the door and got out of the car.

Fu Hanzheng followed her outside, entered the building and took the elevator up to the 11th floor.

However, after they went upstairs, Yuan Meng stopped Gu Weiwei from knocking at the door and said, "Stay behind me, and don't enter until we have the girl restrained."

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Go ahead."

The enemy might be armed, and if they rushed in, Weiwei might get injured and the child might get injured too.

Yuan Meng and Lei Ning called the property agent and asked him to call the door again. Then they stood against the wall.

When the property agent asked the door to be opened, the two women took the lead and rushed in, restraining the girl instantly.

Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei followed up and started to look for the child anxiously.

Finally, she discovered the child lying in the small bed in one of the bedrooms.

But as she approached the sleeping child, she burst into tears.

"This is not our Youyou, not our Youyou..."

Fu Hanzheng had her in his arms and looked at this child that wasn't theirs in the bed, looking furious.

They had come all the way here only to find another child here.

Gu Siting was setting up a series of traps, intending to disappoint them repeatedly.

Chapter 1739: One Step At a Time 2

Fu Shiyi and Yuan Meng also came in and got very annoyed when they saw the strange baby in bed.

"I..." Yuan Meng wanted to curse but stopped when she saw Gu Weiwei.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at Fu Shiyi. "Get the water from the car for your sister-in-law."

Startled, Fu Shiyi came back to himself and went downstairs. A few minutes later, he brought up the thermos.

Fu Hanzheng took it over and helped Gu Weiwei to sit down in the chair.

"Drink some water."

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down.

"That is the man who carried Youyou away. He must have hidden him somewhere else. I need to ask him..."

"Drink some water and we will go." Fu Hanzheng insisted.

Gu Weiwei took the cup, took a sip and was about to give it back to Fu Shiyi.

But after a few steps, she started to feel dizzy.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and said to Yuan Meng, "Are you sure that this is the person we are looking for?"

"Yes, that's the bastard," Yuan Meng said with certainty.

Fu Hanzheng looked serious. "Do whatever you can to get him to talk."

Yuan Meng nodded and threw a look at Gu Weiwei in his arms.

"She..."

Fu Hanzheng looked down at his tired wife in his arms and said concernedly, "She is too tired, I will take her back to rest."

She had not slept for two days and two nights. He was mentally prepared that the child would not be found so easily, but she just could not accept that.

That was why he put something into the cup so she could have a good sleep. Maybe when she woke up, he would know what to do next.

“Okay, take her home first, I will interrogate that bastard,” Yuan Meng said.

Fu Hanzheng picked up the sleeping girl, went downstairs and carried her back to the car; he drove her back to villa number seven.

Yuan Meng and Lei Ning took everyone back to the house and left the baby to Kuroda Keiko and Fu Shiyi.

When they returned to the magnificent villas of Pearl River, Fu Hanzheng had already settled Gu Weiwei down and driven back to the place where they locked the man up.

Seeing him here, Yuan Meng told him what she had learnt before he asked anything.

“We searched the entire apartment, but we did not find Youyou.

“There was a woman and an old lady in the room and the child was theirs. The man gave them some money and he is living with them for the time being. It seems that he is trying to confuse us.”

....

Gu Siting was a very cunning man. They had thought that they had found the child, but it turned out to be a lie.

“What about Gu Siting’s men? They are not talking?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Yuan Meng shook her head. “We have tried several methods, but we still have no idea where the child is.”

“He is a tough man, let’s give him something more powerful,” Fu Shiyi said furiously.

“I am afraid that he truly has no idea.” Yuan Meng threw a worried look at Fu Hanzheng and said, “Judging from the men Gu Siting has arranged, every one of them only knows a part of the plan. I am afraid that he has given the child to someone else.”

“Even if he doesn’t know where the child is, he should at least know something about the other person who took the child away. Keep asking,” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Yuan Meng nodded and said with her teeth clenched.

“That maniac Gu Siting is trying to ruin your lives!”

Chapter 1740: Gu Siting’s Purpose

Translator: Henyee

Lei Ning and Yuan Meng kept interrogating the man, but he still did not know where Youyou was.

Fu Shiyi got so annoyed that he almost wanted to kill someone, but he had to tolerate it for the sake of finding clues about Youyou.

In the end, the man could not stand Yuan Meng and Lei Ning's interrogation and told the truth.

He was only responsible for taking the child from the Qin Family and placing him somewhere before letting someone else take him away.

They did not meet or contact each other.

Therefore, he had no idea who had the child and where he was.

"Then we are back to square one without any clues!" Fu Shiyi snapped.

They had no idea who had taken away the boy and where to start the search.

"He only said that he drove the child to the designated place and returned one hour later. When he was sure that the child was not there, he told the Gu Family that he had been picked up." Yuan Meng looked at the two of them and continued speaking, "We have checked the place where he placed the child. There is no CCTV and it was at midnight, so no one saw it."

With such a clue, they would have nothing to find Youyou with.

Fu Hanzheng thought over what Yuan Meng had told him and said, "Gu Siting must have trusted someone close to him to be able to trust that man so deeply with taking Youyou. Find out if any of Gu Siting's trusted men are not in A Land."

Lei Ning replied instantly, "I will go now."

"Also, during the one hour that the man was talking about, check all the cars and pedestrians passing by the area. The man who took Youyou away is definitely among them," Fu Hanzheng said.

No one saw them in the middle of the night, and there were no CCTV cameras at the place where the children were delivered.

But when he left from there, he would always end up being caught by other cameras.

Therefore, everyone who passed by that place at that hour was the target of their investigation.

Hearing his words, Lei Meng also went to arrange the investigation.

Yuan Meng sighed deeply and said to Fu Hanzheng, "Gu Siting is not trying to toy with us."

"The Gu Family is ready to do something to Fu's Enterprise," Fu Hanzheng said.

With her hands on her waist, Yuan Meng paced back and forth. "He took Youyou away because he wants to threaten you and Weiwei. I am afraid that..."

Since Gu Siting had not contacted Fu Hanzheng yet, he must have found Weiwei.

"I know." Fu Hanzheng's expression sank.

Gu Siting's purpose was so obvious yet he had heard nothing about it from Weiwei.

"What if he really threatens Weiwei to go back?" Yuan Meng asked.

Fu Hanzheng sighed deeply. "I don't know."

Of course he did not want her to go back, but if they failed to find Youyou, Gu Siting would threaten her with Youyou's safety. She was not someone who would ignore her son.

Yuan Meng sighed helplessly. It was indeed a difficult question.

Fu Hanzheng definitely did not want her to return to the Gu Family, but now their son had been caught by Gu Siting and if Weiwei did not return, no one could predict what would happen to Youyou.

No mother in the world would ignore her own child.

If Gu Siting could keep Youyou safe, Weiwei would definitely return to the Gu Family to keep the child safe, no matter how much she loved Fu Hanzheng.

But no one knew what would happen when she returned and what Gu Siting would do.

At villa number seven of Pearl River.

Gu Weiwei slept for almost ten hours and when she woke up, it was already the third night after Youyou disappeared.

The moment she woke up, another text came in.

Another video of Youyou and Gu Siting's reminder: [The three days are almost up, have you thought it through?]

Sitting in bed, she kept watching the child in the video.

Then she wiped away the tears, got out of the bed and took out the ring she got from Yuan Meng.

She went out of the master bedroom and saw only Kuroda Keiko and the servants in the living room.

"Madam, you are awake. Dinner is ready, would you like to eat now?"

"I am going out now, let's wait for Fu Hanzheng," Gu Weiwei said as she got changed and was about to leave.

Sensing that something was wrong, Kuroda Keiko followed her out.

"Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng is with Lei Ning..."

However, Gu Weiwei went directly into the car.

Kuroda Keiko followed her into the car. "You want to visit the Gu Family?"

Gu Weiwei started the car, drove out of the parking lot and was about to leave the villa.

"Time is running out, I must go now."

She had thought that if she found that person, she would be able to find Youyou, but it turned out to be nothing.

There was no more time to find him, and only by staying with Gu Siting would she be able to get more information about him.

"But aren't you going to tell Fu Hanzheng about it?" Kuroda Keiko said worriedly.

Gu Weiwei shook her head. She would only make herself sadder if she told him the truth. So she decided to just leave.

"They are interrogating that man, maybe they have got some new clues," Kuroda Keiko said.

“Even if there is a new clue, it is too late. That maniac Gu Siting, if I am not punctual, I can’t imagine what he will do to Youyou.” Gu Weiwei suddenly burst into tears when she talked about her son.

Kuroda Keiko pursed her lips, kept silent and left Hua Land with her.

Half an hour after they left, Fu Hanzheng hurried home, thinking that Gu Weiwei would wake up soon.

The moment he entered the house, he went straight to the master bedroom, but she was nowhere to be seen.

“Where is Weiwei?”

The servant was surprised. “Madam went out, isn’t she looking for you?”

“Out?” Fu Hanzheng suddenly felt uneasy. “How long has it been since she left?”

“She left half an hour ago. Ms. Kuroda went out with her,” the servant said.

Fu Hanzheng called Gu Weiwei as he went out with the car key.

Hearing the servant’s words, Fu Shiyi and Yuan Meng followed him.

“What happened? Where is sister-in-law at this hour?”

Yuan Meng volunteered to be the driver whilst Fu Hanzheng kept calling Weiwei from the backseat, but no one answered.

“Yuan Meng, do you have Kuroda Keiko’s phone number?”

“Well... we are not that close, so no,” Yuan Meng said helplessly.

So when the car drove out of the villa, she had no idea where to go.

They were just thinking when Fu Hanzheng received an unfamiliar text.

[Mr. Fu, Weiwei is going to the Gu Family.]

Fu Hanzheng knew that it was from Kuroda Keiko, so he asked her where they were.

Kuroda Keiko whispered the location and the place where they were leaving from.

Gu Weiwei drove to the dock. Normally, there were stowaway boats here, and as long as they were paid enough, they could be taken away from Hua Land.

But when they came to the dock and found the boat, Kuroda Keiko said that she was not feeling well, so she spent half an hour in the bathroom.

Before Kuroda Keiko came out, Fu Hanzheng came instead.

Translator: Henyee

The night was dark and the wind was biting.

The fast-approaching car suddenly braked not far away from her.

The moment the car pulled over, Fu Hanzheng, who was dressed in a black coat, came out of the car and came over to her side.

“Why were you not answering my calls?”

Gu Weiwei looked at this man in astonishment. It took her a long while before she realized that it was Kuroda Keiko who had revealed the secret and she was stalling for time by pretending to be sick.

Otherwise they would not have come so fast and knew that she was leaving from here.

She felt a bit guilty under Fu Hanzheng’s stare. She looked down at her feet and said nothing.

Fu Hanzheng removed his coat and put it over her as he repeated.

“Why were you not answering my calls?”

“I was driving and didn’t hear the phone.” Gu Weiwei found an excuse.

She did not dare to pick up or tell him that she was going back to the Gu Family.

She was afraid that if she told him the truth, she would make him sadder.

Of course she did not want to leave him, she did not want him to feel sad for her. But... although their separation would make her sad, losing her son would make her sadder.

They would meet again when they were separated, but if she lost Youyou, she would regret it for the rest of her life.

“We have got some new information from that man, we...” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei shook her head with pursed lips. "There's no time left, I must be at the Gu Family's before dawn tomorrow."

The following morning was the three days Gu Siting had talked about. Even if she hated him to the bone, she had to return because Youyou was in his hands.

Fu Hanzheng's heart ached. "When did this happen?"

He had been so busy searching for his son these days that he had not noticed when Gu Siting contacted her.

Silent for a moment, Gu Weiwei then confessed.

"He sent me a video of Youyou two days ago."

Since he had come all the way here, he must have figured out why she was leaving.

Fu Hanzheng looked down at her and brushed away her unkempt hair.

"You should have told me."

No wonder she had been helping to find Youyou these past two days. No wonder she had collapsed emotionally when she found out that the child was not him.

Instead of explaining anything more, Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and said calmly, "He wants me to return to the Gu Family before dawn. For the sake of Youyou, I must return."

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent with a heavy heart. He did not want her to leave or to return to the Gu Family.

But if the child was not found, he would not be able to stop her no matter what.

"He is aiming at me, and if I don't go home, he will do something to you." Gu Weiwei did not dare to look at Fu Hanzheng's expression, but lowered her head and said calmly, "If I go there, I will get more information about Youyou. I will ask Keiko to tell you the information, and as long as you find Youyou, I will come back..."

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and said with a trembling voice, "I am sorry, Weiwei..."

He had tried his best to protect her and the children, but he had failed to do that, so she had to face such a painful choice.

Gu Weiwei shook her head in his arms. "It is not your fault."

They could not defend themselves against Gu Siting.

Even if this incident did not happen, as long as he did not give up, he would definitely find other opportunities to take action. They might be able to defend themselves for the time being, but they would not be able to defend themselves forever.

Chapter 1743: To the Gu Family

Translator: Henyee

Kuroda Keiko knew that they were here, so she came out of the bathroom and said to Yuan Meng, "You are finally here."

After she informed them, she had to come up with all kinds of excuses to delay the time.

"Keiko, please go home with her," Yuan Meng said.

"Are you really asking sister-in-law to return to the Gu Family?" Fu Shiyi just could not believe it.

Weren't they here to stop sister-in-law?

Yuan Meng squinted at him. "Youyou is in Gu Siting's hands, and if she doesn't go to the Gu Family, do you think that Gu Siting would be so kind as to spare your brother's son?"

"But Gu Siting is up to no good! If sister-in-law goes home..." Fu Shiyi kicked the car's tyre angrily.

None of them wanted to see Weiwei going to Gu Siting, and they believed that she was not willing to go back either.

But Youyou was too small for him to resist against Gu Siting.

"Both Cayman and Yuan Shuo are at the Gu Family, and she can be taken care of when she is there, that way she can try her best to get Youyou back. But if she is not there, have you thought about the consequences?" Yuan Meng said coldly.

When Gu Siting took away the boy, they found their weakness.

Furious, Fu Shiyi had to stay silent.

Youyou was the flesh and blood of his brother and sister-in-law, and no parents would want their children to suffer. So his sister-in-law was definitely going to go, and his brother would not stop her either.

Gu Weiwei let Fu Hanzheng hold her for a long while, trying her best to sound calm and relaxed.

“Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans are already at the Gu Family’s mansion. Gu Siting won’t do anything to me even if I am there.”

Fu Hanzheng got so worried that he just could not utter a word.

Gu Weiwei looked up at him. “We all know that as long as we find Youyou, I will be back.”

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and nodded.

“I will do my best to find Youyou as soon as possible.”

He did not want her to leave, but as parents, they did not want their child to be hurt either.

Gu Weiwei reached out for him and whispered, “I should go now.”

“You really want to sneak into A Land?” Fu Hanzheng smiled helplessly, took hold of her and said, “Get in the car, I will drive you to the airport and arrange transport for you. Yuan Shuo will pick you up at the airport.”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and realized that if she sneaked out of the country, the paparazzi might find out about her.

So she acquiesced to his arrangement and followed him into the car.

Fu Shiyi became the driver whilst Yuan Meng drove Kuroda Keiko to a small airport nearby.

On the way, Fu Hanzheng did not speak but held her hands tightly.

When they arrived at the airport, the plane was already waiting for them.

Also, Luo Qianqian was waiting for her too.

Gu Weiwei got startled at the sight of her. “Qianqian, you...”

“I will go with you,” Luo Qianqian said.

“It is not a fun place, don’t get involved...” Gu Weiwei said.

“I know what happened and I know what Gu Yun Che did, so I want to go with you,” Luo Qianqian said resolutely.

After the call the other day, Gu Yun Che had dropped contact with her.

If he was helping the Gu Family, then she would go to the Gu Family with Weiwei.

“Qianqian...” Gu Weiwei called out to her.

However, Luo Qianqian had already boarded the plane and was waiting for her.

Translator: Henyee

Seeing her boarding the plane, Gu Weiwei turned to Fu Hanzheng and Yuan Meng.

“You asked her to come here?”

“I did.” Yuan Meng admitted and said, “Take her with you. If she goes to the Gu Family, Gu Yun Che will have to go there sooner or later.”

Luo Qianqian would never leave the Gu Family unless Weiwei did.

Luo Qianqian was going with her, and Gu Yun Che was going to have to show up sooner or later, so she was safe.

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly and looked at Fu Hanzheng next to her.

“I should board the plane now.”

Fu Hanzheng released her and swept her into his arms.

“When you are there, talk with Yuan Shuo and he will inform me.”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei nodded and said, “Although it is very strenuous to find Youyou, you must take good care of yourself.”

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead and did not release her until a long while later.

Gu Weiwei walked towards the plane, trying hard not to turn around to look at the man behind her back. But as she came to the stairs, she stopped.

“Weiwei?” Kuroda Keiko called out to her.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a few seconds, turned around and ran downstairs, went over to Fu Hanzheng and took hold of his waist.

“I love you and I will be back, definitely.”

“Take good care of yourself, I will be waiting for you,” Fu Hanzheng said seriously.

Gu Weiwei looked up and kissed the man’s lips. After a long while, she retreated and boarded the plane.

Standing on the tarmac, Fu Hanzheng watched as the stairs were removed and the cabin door was closed.

However, even though he stood there watching, the plane still took off and disappeared into the endless night sky.

Standing in the night wind for a long while, he turned around and walked towards the car at the edge of the parking lot.

“Let’s go.”

She had already returned to the Gu Family for the sake of Youyou, and he had to find his son as soon as possible so that she could return as soon as possible.

As the plane took off, Gu Weiwei saw the neon lights disappearing into the distance through the porthole, looking cold.

Sitting next to her, Luo Qianqian said anxiously.

“Weiwei, I am sorry, I did not know Gu Yun Che...”

He had promised her that he would not do anything to Weiwei.

He did not do anything to her, but he did help the Gu Family to do something to her.

“It is not your fault or Gu Yun Che’s,” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Everything was Gu Siting’s plan, and no matter if it was Gu Siting or the Qin Family, they were just part of Gu Siting’s plan.

“Weiwei, why must you return to the Gu Family?” Luo Qianqian asked.

Although she did tell her that she was Gu Weiwei, she did not tell her everything about the Gu Family.

Gu Siting had ruined her wedding and now he had kidnapped her son to bring her home. That was not what an elder brother would do to a younger sister.

Gu Weiwei leaned herself against the back of the seat. “You know about the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family. He won’t allow me to be with Fu Hanzheng.”

“But...” Luo Qianqian still could not figure it out. But before she finished asking the question, Kuroda Keiko stopped her. “Let her take a rest. She will need more energy after she gets off the plane.”

What was more, she had not slept for two days because of Youyou’s disappearance.

But when she faced Gu Siting after the flight, it would be a very difficult process to learn information about the child.

So she had to conserve her energy so as to face whatever that was going to happen in the Gu Family.

Chapter 1745: Home Again 2

At three in the morning, the plane landed in A Land.

The moment Gu Weiwei got off the plane, she saw Yuan Shuo waiting for her at the airport as well as Kuroda Shio who was sent by Gu Siting.

“Miss Weiwei, President Gu is waiting for you at home,” Kuroda Shio opened the door and said.

Without looking at him, Gu Weiwei went into Yuan Shuo’s car with Luo Qianqian.

Instead of getting into the car with them, Kuroda Keiko stood in front of Kuroda Shio.

“Brother, I had thought that you were better than him, but it seems that you two are of the same kind.”

Kuroda Shio had no intention of explaining anything more. Seeing Gu Weiwei getting into Yuan Shuo’s car, he made a call to Gu Siting.

“President Gu, Miss Weiwei is here, we are leaving now.”

“Okay,” Gu Siting answered briefly and rang off.

Kuroda Shio glanced at Kuroda Keiko and did not explain much to her.

“Get in the car.”

Kuroda Keiko got into the car and said as she looked at Yuan Shuo's car, "Weiwei loves Fu Hanzheng, and Gu Siting would never be able to make her fall for him the same way she fell for Fu Hanzheng. No, Gu Siting has no idea how to love someone."

....

If he truly loved someone, he would have given all his gentleness and happiness to that person, just like how Fu Hanzheng did, rather than being selfish; a man who only wanted to get whatever he desired.

"That is not for us to decide," Kuroda Shio said and started the car.

Gu Weiwei and Luo Qianqian sat next to each other in Yuan Shuo's car.

"We tried our best, but Gu Siting refused to tell us anything about Youyou," Yuan Shuo said helplessly.

With eyes closed, Gu Weiwei said coldly, "If he was willing to reveal everything about Youyou, he would not have done such a thing," Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Yuan Shuo threw a look at her through the rear-mirror. She had turned tired and haggard.

She must have been having trouble sleeping these days because of her missing son.

"Cayman and I are staying at the Gu Family for the time being, and your room is between ours."

Even if he and Cayman were both living at the Gu Family, yet if Gu Siting really wanted to do something, as long as the child was with him, none of them would be able to fight back.

"Okay," Gu Weiwei answered briefly.

Outside the car window, many streets and sceneries were still familiar to her, but for her, they seemed so distant.

Seeing her in a bad mood, Yuan Shuo made a suggestion.

"Do you want to call Fu Hanzheng and tell him that you are safe?"

"You can just tell him," Gu Weiwei said.

In this situation, she and Fu Hanzheng were not worried about these unimportant matters.

“Okay.” Yuan Shuo did not force her but continued to drive in silence.

It was a two-hour drive from the airport to the Gu Family’s mansion, but due to the lack of traffic, they arrived at the mansion within one hour.

The Gu Family’s mansion was brightly lit in the dark and everyone was waiting for her return.

Yuan Shuo parked the car and as they came out of the car, they saw Gu Siting coming out.

Dressed in a navy-blue British suit, he looked elegant and noble.

He smiled elegantly when facing Gu Weiwei as if she had just returned from a long trip abroad.

“Welcome back, Weiwei.”

He had been waiting and planning for this moment for years.

Tonight, his Weiwei was finally back.

Chapter 1746: Home Again 3

Under the moonlight, Gu Weiwei looked at the man who came out to greet her with a cold face, wearing Fu Hanzheng’s coat.

She did not want to waste time being polite, so she asked straightforwardly, “I am already home, where is Youyou?”

“Weiwei, I promise that I will release him, but not now,” Gu Siting said with a smile.

If he had released the child just because he wanted her back, he would not have made such a big fuss.

If he released the child now, Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo would take her away and all his efforts would be in vain.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and mentioned the condition.

“You don’t have to release him, but you have to let me see him.”

She had only seen the boy in the two short videos he had sent her.

As for how the child was doing, she had no idea if anyone was feeding him on time or causing him any harm.

Gu Siting smiled and said calmly, "You need rest too, since you are home so late. I will let you see him after breakfast. But of course, it is just a video call."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and walked into the Gu Family house without answering him.

She and Fu Hanzheng had known that the child was not in A Land, so she would not be able to meet him here.

But even if the video was connected, it would still be good if she could see the child.

She entered the house, followed by Yuan Shuo and Luo Qianqian. The moment she entered the living room, she saw Cayman Dorrans and Matthew sitting there.

When Cayman Dorrans saw her, he stood up excitedly and gestured for her to sit down next to him.

It was the first and the only time they had met since the wedding three years ago.

Although Yuan Shuo kept telling him about her life in Hua Land, the father and the daughter had never met or talked with each other.

When Gu Siting came in after them, he was probably the only person who could smile.

He poured the tea and said, "This is your favorite Ceylon black tea."

But Gu Weiwei did not taste or even take a look at it.

"I don't like it now, but I like the Keemun black tea of Hua Land."

A touch of anger flashed across Gu Siting's eyes, but he did not show it.

"Then what do you want to drink?"

Without saying a word, Gu Weiwei took the cup of water poured by Yuan Shuo and said after drinking half of it, "Let's talk in the morning. I am going to bed now."

Having said these words, she got up and went upstairs with Luo Qianqian.

She truly did not want to sit here facing Gu Siting, fearing that she would go to the kitchen to get a knife.

She wanted to take a rest and Gu Siting did not stop her. Instead, he asked Kuroda Shio to lead the way upstairs.

“Miss Weiwei, your room is ready,” Kuroda Shio said.

However, Gu Weiwei did not go to the room she used to live in, but went to the room Yuan Shuo mentioned.

But before she opened the door, Kuroda Shio reminded her.

“Miss Weiwei, for the video call tomorrow morning, please stay in this room.”

Gu Weiwei gripped the door handle tightly and then released it slowly.

“Kuroda Shio, you are becoming more and more like a dog after so many years.”

Kuroda Shio did not counter her but opened the door for her.

“Miss Weiwei, this is your room, please tell me if you need anything.”

Chapter 1747: Home Again 4

Gu Weiwei led Luo Qianqian into the room and slammed the door.

Luo Qianqian sized up the room and found that it was decorated in a classical European style. Apart from the master bedroom, there were two large walk-in closets that were filled with the latest clothes and jewelry.

She had thought that Ji Cheng was exaggerating when she gossiped about this girl from the Gu Family.

Only now did she realize that the description in the reports was not even one-tenth of the reality.

But when it came to luxurious stuff, Fu Hanzheng was not that bad either. The famous brands on the first floor of Jinxiu Compound were just like a fashion mall, dazzling her and Ji Cheng.

“Weiwei...”

She turned around and was about to say something when she saw her falling asleep in bed.

Luo Qianqian stopped talking, approached her and put the blanket over her, dimming the light in the room.

She sat down on the sofa and sighed as she looked at the silent WeChat dialogue box.

Finally, she typed a message.

[I am at the Gu Family]

....

In the living room downstairs, only Gu Siting, Kuroda Shio and Kuroda Keiko were still in the living room. Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo had left with Weiwei.

Gu Siting took a sip of the cold tea. "Who is that woman from Hua Land?"

He had thought that she would bring Yuan Meng home, but it turned out to be a strange woman from Hua Land.

"She is... the girl from Hua Land, Luo Qianqian," Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting had never seen her picture, so he only knew that Gu Yun Che knew a girl from Hua Land. He had no idea that Luo Qianqian was the girl who came home with Weiwei.

"Her?" Gu Siting was surprised.

"That is her, she has been trying to contact Mr. Gu these days too." Kuroda Shio confessed.

With one hand against the sofa, Gu Siting said after thinking for a long while, "Tell them not to touch her."

He had not expected that this girl was from Hua Land, but he did not want to irritate Gu Yun Che.

Now she was here, he could not possibly drive her away.

As long as she was not in his way, she could stay here.

Gu Yun Che was going to take her away anyway.

"Yes." Kuroda Shio nodded.

"Where is Weiwei?" Gu Siting asked.

“She is resting in her room, Luo Qianqian is with her,” Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting thought for a while and asked, “In the room we arranged for her?”

“Yes,” Kuroda Shio answered.

Kuroda Keiko looked at the two of them disdainfully.

“Gu Siting, what you have done is so disgusting.”

Having said these words, she went upstairs to Gu Weiwei’s room.

With so many of them staying at the Gu Family, what more could Gu Siting do?

Luo Qianqian became alert when she heard the door open, but she let out a sigh of relief when she saw Kuroda Keiko coming in.

Kuroda Keiko threw a look at Gu Weiwei who seemed to be resting in bed and asked Luo Qianqian, “Are you hungry? What do you want to eat? I can get it for you.”

“No thanks.” Luo Qianqian shook her head.

Kuroda Keiko sat down next to the sofa and said, “You take a rest too, I will watch over her.”

Luo Qianqian nodded, removed her coat and went to the other side of the bed with her phone in her hand.

However, there was still no reply.

In the capital of Hua Land.

After Fu Hanzheng left the airport, he made some investigation arrangements at Pearl River and drove back to the Fu Family’s mansion with Fu Shiyi.

On the way home, he received a call from Yuan Shuo.

“I picked up Weiwei and she is in the Gu Family home.”

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a few seconds and then asked, “How is she?”

“Luo Qianqian and Keiko are resting with her in the room. Gu Siting says that he will video call Youyou tomorrow so that she can see her son.” Yuan Shuo revealed the information to him directly.

“Okay,” Fu Hanzheng answered briefly and said, “Please take good care of her.”

“Don’t worry, Cayman and I will always be here with her. We will inform you as soon as we have any clues about the child,” Yuan Shuo said sincerely.

If Cayman and him were not here, Fu Hanzheng would not have let her go so easily.

“Okay,” Fu Hanzheng answered.

Yuan Shuo thought for a while and reminded him.

“I think that the Gu Family will do something to Fu’s Enterprise next.”

Now Weiwei was back, what he was going to do next was to target Fu’s Enterprise so that Fu Hanzheng would be distracted by the rescue mission and the company.

“That is expected.” Fu Hanzheng sounded calm, not at all worried.

Yuan Shuo could not think of anything else to say to him, so he said, “If there is nothing else, I am hanging up.”

He rang off and Fu Hanzheng put away the phone.

Soon, Fu Shiyi pulled over at the Fu Family’s mansion.

The Old Lady was old and had already taken a rest, but Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu were still sitting in the living room in their home clothes. They looked much older because of their worries about Youyou.

“Did Weiwei really go back to the Gu Family?” Mrs. Fu just could not believe what she had heard from Fu Shiyi.

“Yes, Yuan Shuo has also arrived at the Gu Family.”

Having said these words, Fu Hanzheng went into the nursery, ready to check up on his daughter, who he had not seen for days.

“She went home...” Before Fu Shengying finished saying his words, he was glared at by Mrs. Fu and Fu Shiyi.

“Dad, don’t talk so much, or my brother will break off his father-son relationship with you. Sister-in-law went home because she was threatened by Gu Siting.”

“You promised the Qin Family that they would attend the birthday banquet, and it was I who let the child into the bedroom of the Qin Family so that something like this happened.” Mrs. Fu glared at Fu Shengying and said with a low voice, “Aren’t you embarrassed to say anything in front of Hanzheng?”

Fu Shengying shut up. He regretted bringing them to the birthday banquet of the Qin Family.

Fu Shiyi went to answer a call, hung up and snapped angrily.

“The Qin Family wants us to give the antidote to Qin Lv.”

“No, he must pay for what he has done,” Fu Shengying said coldly.

Now when the entire family was not feeling well, they would not allow the Qin Family to feel well either.

“No, you must only give him the antidote when Youyou comes home,” Mrs. Fu, who had always been a charitable person, said ruthlessly.

As long as their precious grandson was not found, they would not care about the Qin Family anymore.

Qin Lv was suffering from the toxin and the Qin Family was in danger because of Fu’s Enterprise.

So during the past two days, the Qin Family had been begging for mercy over the phone and even came to apologize to them in person, but they turned them down.

They did not want any apology. What they wanted was for their grandson to return safe and sound.

Chapter 1749: The Qin Family Should Pay the Price 2

Translator: Henyee

In the living room, Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu were annoyed by the Qin Family, while Fu Hanzheng went to the nursery alone. Standing by the bedside, he reached out for his youngest daughter’s tender face.

He had not liked the arrival of the two children, but after they were born, he truly understood what it was like to be a father.

As a father, he had been deeply saddened by his son's disappearance, let alone Weiwei who had given birth to them and loved the two children more than he did.

Therefore, he could not stop her from taking the risk at the Gu Family.

He knew that compared to tonight's separation, losing her son for good would be even more painful.

Seeing him not coming out, Fu Shiyi came to the doorway.

"Brother, are you alright?"

Now his son was not yet found and his sister-in-law was at the Gu Family, he was worried that his brother would not be able to take it.

Fu Hanzheng withdrew his thoughts and said with a low voice, "I am fine."

Having said these words, he leaned forward and kissed Tiantian's forehead.

Then he left quietly, closed the door and returned to the living room.

"The Gu Family has called us several times to apologize. Grandpa Qin even came to visit us this afternoon," Fu Shiyi said.

"They started it, so they shouldn't blame us now," Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Without Qin Feng and Qin Lv's interference, Gu Siting's plan would not have gone so smoothly.

Now his son was missing and his wife was far away, and yet they still wanted him to help the Qin Family. He did not have the heart to save everyone.

"We have no objections, neither does the Old Lady." Fu Shengying sounded resolute.

If it were something else, they might be able to tolerate it, but they would not tolerate anyone who colluded with the Gu Family to do something to their precious grandson.

But now, they were begging them for the antidote. The children of the Qin Family were so precious, yet they disregarded their grandson who was only eight months old!

"Then after Weiwei is at the Gu Family..." Mrs. Fu looked at her son worriedly.

She was worried that something would happen to her daughter-in-law at the Gu Family and that her son would not be able to take it.

“Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans are at the Gu Family too, they will take care of her.” Fu Hanzheng knew that Mrs. Fu had been blaming herself for putting Youyou into the bedroom of the Qin Family, which was where he was taken away from. So he said, “Gu Siting has agreed to let Weiwei see Youyou through a video call tomorrow morning.”

Mrs. Fu let out a sigh of relief. Finally, she had some information about her grandson.

She had not dared to close her eyes these past few days. The moment she did, she wondered if her grandson had been mistreated or starved.

But they just could not find him, so they had no idea how he was doing.

If Weiwei could see Youyou through a video call, she would at least be able to know how he was doing and if he was injured.

Fu Shengying sighed. He had minded Gu Weiwei going back to the Gu Family, but now when he heard that she could get news about Youyou from Gu Siting, he felt a bit guilty.

“Leave Tiantian here with us and we can take care of her; you can go and find your son,” Mrs. Fu said.

“Leave the company to Shiqin for the time being. If anything happens, I will take over. You don’t have to worry about it.” Fu Shengying added.

Nothing was more important than finding her grandson.

Even if the company lost profits, they could always make it back in the future. But if something happened to Youyou, they would be very distressed.

“Okay,” Fu Hanzheng answered and said as he checked the time, “It is getting late, you can take a rest too. We should go home now.”

Hearing his words, Mrs. Fu said, “It is important to find Youyou... but don’t tire yourself out.”

As she spoke, she threw a look at Fu Shiyi, suggesting that he should take good care of his eldest brother.

Fu Hanzheng visited his daughter and when they left the Fu Family’s mansion, it was already dawn.

Fu Shiyi drove the car and glanced at his brother sitting behind him.

“I have arranged everything, what about taking a nap?”

His brother had not had a good night's sleep ever since Youyou disappeared, and even a man made of iron could not stand it.

However, the moment he finished the words, Fu Shiqin called.

“Brother, do you have time to come to the company now?”

“What happened?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a low voice.

“Just as you have expected, Gu Siting's company has indeed made some moves. Several major overseas investment projects of Fu's Enterprise have run into problems, and some of the major brands of Fu's Enterprise have been exposed as forgeries. The stock market has been affected too,” Fu Shiqin said.

If the situation had not gotten out of control, he would not have come to him for help at this hour.

“I understand,” Fu Hanzheng rang off and said to Fu Shiyi who was driving, “To the company.”

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips. “What is Second Brother doing? He said that he can deal with the company and yet he called you just now.”

Without saying a word, Fu Hanzheng looked at the night sky outside the window.

Gu Siting not only wanted to threaten her with Youyou, but also wanted to bring down Fu's Enterprise.

They rushed to the company and found that the top managers of Fu's Enterprise were working overnight.

The large meeting room was full of people, and they all let out a sigh of relief when they saw the man who pushed the door open, it was as if they had found their backbone.

Fu Shiqin explained the situation the moment he sat down.

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and said, “Gu's Enterprise is so wealthy and powerful?”

“The royal family of A Land is supporting him,” Fu Shiqin said.

Fu's Enterprise had too many excellent resources, and the Qin Family took part because they thought that they gave too little. So they wanted to get a share of the profits after the Gu Family got what they wanted, and so did the royal family of A Land.

They had made preparations in advance for the Qin's Enterprise, so they had withdrawn the investment from hundreds of projects.

So the Qin Family were too busy to get involved.

But even so, the Gu Family still had them cornered.

"Send out the lawyer's letters to stop those false reports from spreading."

"Already done," Fu Shiqin said.

"All the products they report should be checked by the authorities, and the results should be announced as soon as possible," Fu Hanzheng said.

Hearing his words, Fu Shiqin threw a look at Xu Qian who said instantly, "I will make the call now."

"As for the overseas projects, let's put them aside and focus upon the domestic foundation," Fu Hanzheng said seriously.

"But that would be a huge loss," Fu Shiqin said unwillingly.

Fu Hanzheng looked calm. "You must know what is important and what is not. As long as the domestic situation is stable, everything will be solved after one round."

Fu Shiqin and the top managers nodded in agreement.

"But are we going to be passive all the time?" Fu Shiqin asked.

They had not slept for days because they were looking for Youyou, and he had not been home for days because of company affairs.

"Just wait, you can strike back when the time is right." Fu Hanzheng checked the time and was about to leave.

Fu Shiqin nodded. "Okay."

He understood that he should not have asked his brother to come.

But when his brother was not at the company at this hour, everyone was panicking.

He knew pretty well that he had said what his brother had just said, but it sounded totally different when it came out of his brother's mouth.

The top managers of the company had always trusted his brother's abilities, so as long as his brother showed up and said something, they would be assured.

After the high-level meeting in the meeting room, Fu Hanzheng told Fu Shiqin everything in detail in the office before leaving the company.

It was already eight o'clock in the morning when he left Fu's Enterprise.

When he was talking with Fu Shiqin, Fu Shiyi bought breakfast for both Fu Shiqin and Xu Qian.

After they went into the car, he gave Fu Hanzheng a sandwich and a bottle of milk.

"Eat it, sister-in-law told me to take good care of you."

Fu Hanzheng took it over helplessly and said, "Let's go and see if Yuan Meng and Lei Ning have made any progress."

Although he had no appetite, yet in order to keep himself healthy, he still finished the breakfast Fu Shiyi bought for him.

But when he joined Lei Ning and Yuan Meng, nothing had happened.

Since she had no idea if the person who took away the boy was a man or a woman and what they looked like, she was trying to find a needle in a haystack.

They had found all the CCTV cameras around the place where the child was in that position, but they still could not find the suspect.

Seeing him coming to her, Yuan Meng said helplessly, "We have no idea what that person looks like, and it is hard to tell if it is a man or a woman.

"Also, there are some small roads without any CCTV nearby."

....

Fu Hanzheng sighed. "Look carefully, there will always be clues."

Even if it was a needle in a haystack, they had to get it out.

As long as Youyou was not out of danger, she would not be able to return from the Gu Family.

“Oh yes, here is something for you.” Yuan Meng thought of something, brought out a file from the car and gave it to Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng opened the file and asked in astonishment, “Where did you get it?”

“Weiwei thought that it might work, so she asked Yuan Shuo to get it for her. Yuan Shuo just sent it to me this morning,” Yuan Meng said.

Hearing the words, Fu Shiyi leaned forward curiously.

But what he saw were several pictures of corpses, so rotten that they looked like skeletons. He got so frightened that he almost puked out his breakfast.

“Damn... what are you doing with this thing?”

“Do you know whose corpse it is?” Yuan Meng smiled mysteriously.

“Whose?” Fu Shiyi patted his chest, trying to alleviate the nausea in his stomach.

Yuan Meng sneered and said, “Ling Yan’s.”

“Damn, Ling Yan! Sister-in-law is her enemy! Why did she dig her up when she is already dead?”

Yuan Meng glanced at him speechlessly and sighed.

“You are the dumbest one in your family, no wonder Second Brother always sets you up.”

“Speak properly, don’t attack people!” Fu Shiyi protested.

Fu Hanzheng ignored their argument and looked at the files one after another.

He had also got someone to investigate this information in secret, but it was very difficult for the Fu Family to get involved with A Land, especially when it came to the Gu Family.

Therefore, the investigation was not as detailed as this one.

Seeing that Fu Shiyi was confused, Yuan Meng explained to him out of kindness, “Ling Yan’s death caused quite a stir in the media and Gu Siting was even listed as the suspect. In the end, the case was dropped because her corpse was not found.”

“Now, her skeleton has been found and there is evidence to prove that Gu Siting is the murderer.

“What is even more amazing is that there is a recording given by Cayman Dorrans about Ling Yan’s death. How popular do you think it will be?”

Dumbfounded, Fu Shiyi sighed after a long while.

“Excellent! Really excellent!”

Although Ling Yan had been spurned by everyone before she died, yet she was once a public figure and her disappearance had always been a mystery.

If the truth was revealed, she would get a great deal of attention.

Especially when she died in the hands of her fiancé, she received even more attention.

Due to the lack of evidence and the interference of the royal family of A Land, the matter was left unsettled.

Now the body was found and Gu Siting’s involvement in her death was proved.

The royal family of A Land was supporting Gu Siting against Fu’s Enterprise, and if this piece of news was spread, the public would see the royal family of A Land colluding with Gu Siting.

In the face of such a scandal, the royal family of A Land would have to consider the dignity of the royal family and stop supporting Gu Siting.

“But you must release it at the right time,” Yuan Meng said.

Fu Hanzheng put the files back into the file and gave it to Fu Shiyi.

“Get someone to deliver it to Shiqin so he can reveal it at the right time.”

“Okay.” Fu Shiyi put away the file and said, “Then why not reveal that Youyou has been taken away by Gu Siting and threaten him with the fact that he blackmailed sister-in-law?”

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him. “No.”

“Are you stupid? Do you think that a cornered dog would jump over the wall? Do you not want your nephew or your sister-in-law to come back?” Yuan Meng said.

They were trying to create trouble for Gu Siting, but they could not force him into a corner, otherwise both Youyou and Weiwei would be in danger.

Also, if they revealed such a serious matter to the public, they would never be able to live a peaceful life.

“Oh.” Fu Shiyi shrank his neck.

Yuan Meng lit a cigarette and said after checking the time, “Let’s see if Weiwei has any clues about Youyou so that we can find the target as soon as possible.”

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent. It was almost time for her to video call Youyou.

....

At the Gu Family’s mansion in A Land.

Actually, it was still breakfast time at the Gu Family.

Gu Weiwei got up very early. The moment she went downstairs, Luo Qianqian and Kuroda Keiko followed.

Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans also got up early and went downstairs.

“When can I see my son?” Gu Weiwei asked straightforwardly.

Gu Siting was just enjoying breakfast in the dining room when he threw a look at them and said, “Breakfast is ready, both Chinese and Western. Help yourselves.”

Gu Weiwei looked cold. “When can I see my son?”

“Weiwei, you should eat breakfast first.” Gu Siting reminded her with a smile.

It went without saying that she had not eaten well in Hua Land these last few days.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth, sat down in the seat furthest away from him and chose the Chinese-style shredded chicken porridge and steamed dumplings.

Kuroda Keiko and Luo Qianqian sat down on either side of her. Although it was very disgusting to sit next to him at the same table, she still had to stay healthy.

No one was willing to talk throughout the entire breakfast. The atmosphere was cold and lethal.

Gu Weiwei finished the food quickly and waited in silence.

But Gu Siting ate very slowly and elegantly.

Early in the morning, he was drinking tea leisurely as he was reading the files delivered by Kuroda Shio.

It was not until nine in the morning that he got up and said, "Let's go somewhere where you can see him."

Hearing that they were leaving, Yuan Shuo and his men started to leave too.

But Gu Siting stressed.

"Only you can go with me Weiwei, otherwise... you don't have to go."

Translator: Henyee

"Where do you want to take her?" Cayman Dorrans asked with a low voice.

Gu Siting adjusted his suit and said, "The place where the child can be seen, but of course... she can choose not to go."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo and said resolutely, "I will go with him, you guys wait here."

"Weiwei..." Luo Qianqian called out to her anxiously.

"Don't worry, just wait here," Gu Weiwei said.

It was Gu Siting who was deciding if she could see Youyou or not. They had no bargaining chip to bargain with him.

If they insisted on following him, he would not have brought her along. She was the one who was worried.

Cayman Dorrans reached towards Matthew who pulled out the gun and placed it in his hand.

“Take it, shoot him if you need to, just don’t kill him.”

Gu Weiwei accepted the gun without hesitation.

Then she followed Gu Siting out and went into the car.

Kuroda Shio drove them away from the Gu Family’s mansion.

The moment they went out, Cayman Dorrans said to Yuan Shuo, “Get the men outside to follow them. Don’t follow them too closely. Find out where they are going.”

Yuan Shuo made the call and drove out himself.

Gu Siting’s car left the Gu Family’s mansion and went in the opposite direction.

On the way, Gu Weiwei looked out of the window without saying a word.

Gu Siting looked at her sideways. “Weiwei, I know that you hate me so much that you want me dead.”

Gu Weiwei did not utter a sound or even look at him.

Only Gu Siting looked at her and mumbled to himself, “But I gave you my life, so you can live or die at my decision.

“If you would rather be with Fu Hanzheng, then I will not allow it even if we have to die together.”

....

Gu Weiwei clenched her shaking fingers into fists. She had been reborn happily and met the love of her life, but what made her unhappy was that Gu Siting gave her this life.

“You have killed me once, one more time won’t come as a surprise.”

“Weiwei...” Gu Siting looked at her cold face with a pair of sorrowful eyes and said slowly, “It was my fault back then, but I did love you, otherwise I would not have made such a deal with Gu Yun Che in exchange for your return...”

When she did not show up, he had thought that whatever Gu Yun Che had done was false.

But he had never expected that she was already back.

But she had fallen in love with Fu Hanzheng right under his nose.

“Love me?” Gu Weiwei laughed ironically. “Don’t say that, I am disgusted.”

Gu Siting laughed self-mockingly. So this woman whom he had been longing for, for so long, hated him so much.

“My mother told me that if I love someone, I have to be understanding.

“But if I can’t have you, Fu Hanzheng can’t either.”

....

Gu Weiwei ignored him and continued to watch the scenery outside the window.

More than an hour later, the car pulled over outside a tightly-guarded building. The security came to verify their identity before letting them in.

The car drove on for another ten minutes before stopping.

Gu Siting got out of the car, took her into the elevator and came to a huge lab through a long corridor.

“Where is my son?” Gu Weiwei looked around and realized that this was not the place for the video call.

Also, if it was just a video, it could have been done at the Gu Family’s mansion instead of here.
