

My Hidden Wife is Sweet

- Chapter 1753 - Disgusting -

“Where do you want to take her?” Cayman Dorrans asked with a low voice.

Gu Siting adjusted his suit and said, “The place where the child can be seen, but of course... she can choose not to go.”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo and said resolutely, “I will go with him, you guys wait here.”

“Weiwei...” Luo Qianqian called out to her anxiously.

“Don’t worry, just wait here,” Gu Weiwei said.

It was Gu Siting who was deciding if she could see Youyou or not. They had no bargaining chip to bargain with him.

If they insisted on following him, he would not have brought her along. She was the one who was worried.

Cayman Dorrans reached towards Matthew who pulled out the gun and placed it in his hand.

“Take it, shoot him if you need to, just don’t kill him.”

Gu Weiwei accepted the gun without hesitation.

Then she followed Gu Siting out and went into the car.

Kuroda Shio drove them away from the Gu Family’s mansion.

The moment they went out, Cayman Dorrans said to Yuan Shuo, “Get the men outside to follow them. Don’t follow them too closely. Find out where they are going.”

Yuan Shuo made the call and drove out himself.

Gu Siting’s car left the Gu Family’s mansion and went in the opposite direction.

On the way, Gu Weiwei looked out of the window without saying a word.

Gu Siting looked at her sideways. “Weiwei, I know that you hate me so much that you want me dead.”

Gu Weiwei did not utter a sound or even look at him.

Only Gu Siting looked at her and mumbled to himself, “But I gave you my life, so you can live or die at my decision.

“If you would rather be with Fu Hanzheng, then I will not allow it even if we have to die together.”

....

Gu Weiwei clenched her shaking fingers into fists. She had been reborn happily and met the love of her life, but what made her unhappy was that Gu Siting gave her this life.

“You have killed me once, one more time won’t come as a surprise.”

“Weiwei...” Gu Siting looked at her cold face with a pair of sorrowful eyes and said slowly, “It was my fault back then, but I did love you, otherwise I would not have made such a deal with Gu Yun Che in exchange for your return...”

When she did not show up, he had thought that whatever Gu Yun Che had done was false.

But he had never expected that she was already back.

But she had fallen in love with Fu Hanzheng right under his nose.

“Love me?” Gu Weiwei laughed ironically. “Don’t say that, I am disgusted.”

Gu Siting laughed self-mockingly. So this woman whom he had been longing for, for so long, hated him so much.

“My mother told me that if I love someone, I have to be understanding.

“But if I can’t have you, Fu Hanzheng can’t either.”

....

Gu Weiwei ignored him and continued to watch the scenery outside the window.

More than an hour later, the car pulled over outside a tightly-guarded building. The security came to verify their identity before letting them in.

The car drove on for another ten minutes before stopping.

Gu Siting got out of the car, took her into the elevator and came to a huge lab through a long corridor.

“Where is my son?” Gu Weiwei looked around and realized that this was not the place for the video call.

Also, if it was just a video, it could have been done at the Gu Family’s mansion instead of here.

Chapter 1754: Meeting with Youyou

Gu Siting walked into the lab and pointed at an instrument.

“Go over there and work with them for half an hour and then I will let you see the child.”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the instrument and felt a bit uneasy. But when she thought of her son, she still sat down.

Then some men in white coats came to her and stuck many things on her head.

Then she was pushed into an instrument that looked like an MRI machine.

“What on earth is this thing?”

“You don’t need to know,” Gu Siting said.

Gu Weiwei sneered. “You tried to get me to have plastic surgery last time, what are you up to this time?”

Gu Siting threw a look at her and said, “This lab was built three years ago for you.”

Gu Weiwei gradually felt that her head was aching, but it was still tolerable.

But half an hour later, when she came out of the lab, the headache disappeared.

Instead of asking what had happened, she asked, “Can I see my son now?”

Gu Siting brought her into the room next door and turned on the camera, showing the scene of Youyou sitting on a small bed.

Gu Weiwei's cold face suddenly turned red.

The little boy was holding a brown stuffed bear. She and Fu Hanzheng had bought such a stuffed bear for their two children before, but it had always been Tiantian who liked it more than him.

But at this moment, he was totally indifferent to other toys except for that bear.

She remembered that the nursery teacher once told her that when their parents were not around, a child would sometimes seek a sense of security from someone or something other than their parents.

She wondered if that was what Youyou was thinking, so that he had fallen for this teddy bear that he had once ignored.

But the little boy did not cry or make a fuss.

She could not help but approach the screen and touch the image of her son.

After losing control of her emotions, she gradually expanded her attention from Youyou to the environment and sounds around him, trying to get some useful clues so as to help Fu Hanzheng find the child as soon as possible.

Gu Siting gave her the headphones. "You can talk with him."

Gu Weiwei took it and put it over her head as she called out to him softly, "Youyou?"

The boy in the video heard the familiar voice and looked up for it, but found nothing. He pursed his lips as if he were about to cry.

Gu Weiwei covered her mouth and did not dare to call out to him any more, fearing that he would cry when he could not find her.

After all, the people who took care of him were not as patient as she and her family.

She was just staring at the child in the video when a woman's voice arose.

"The power is off, so we may have to go out for lunch..."

The woman stopped mid-sentence when she realized that it was a video call.

However, Gu Weiwei saw a woman's hand giving a bottle of milk to Youyou.

She was about to take a closer look when Gu Siting cut off the connection and removed the earphones.

“Time is up, time to go home.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and left with him in silence.

But she kept thinking about every detail she saw in the video.

There were two people there, and the woman had a tattoo of Medusa on her arm.

Also, there was no water or electricity where they were.

Translator: Henyee

But she heard the content and so did Gu Siting.

When she was leaving the lab, Gu Siting made a call after seeing her getting into the car.

“Your position has been exposed, move now.”

The water and power outage were enough to reveal where they were in the capital.

She was definitely going to inform Fu Hanzheng when she got home, and it would take him less than two hours to find the child.

Luckily, he did not allow Weiwei to have her phone with her.

So she could not tell Fu Hanzheng anything yet, so he had time to make other arrangements.

Sitting in the car, Gu Weiwei watched Gu Siting making the call and wondered if Gu Siting had noticed this detail too.

But she was unable to inform Fu Hanzheng and his men, and by the time she returned, it would be too late.

More than an hour passed after they returned to the Gu Family from the lab.

She returned to the Gu Family’s mansion, went upstairs to her own room, grabbed the phone and called Fu Hanzheng.

“Fu Hanzheng, there are two people with Youyou, one of them is a woman and she has a tattoo of Medusa on her right hand. Also, the place they were at had a power outage at around ten.”

After hearing her words, Fu Hanzheng had no time to ask about her situation, but said, "I will arrange the investigation, you..."

"I am fine, go and find him, now..." Gu Weiwei said and rang off.

After hearing the clue, Fu Hanzheng said to Lei Ning, "Which part of the capital lost the power two hours ago?"

Lei Ning asked the technical team to check it out and within five minutes, the result was out.

"Xingping District, only one area in the capital has no water or electricity."

Fu Hanzheng's face sunk.

"Get in the car and go to the neighborhood where we caught the man last time."

"But that place..." Before Yuan Meng finished her words, she suddenly realized something. "Is Youyou around there?"

When they found the man who took the child away from Qin Lv and confirmed his location, they did not check out the residents in the neighborhood.

But when she thought about it now, she realized that the man who had brought the boy to this place must have been living in the neighborhood too. He might have even been very close to this place and watched them coming to nothing.

They failed to catch her there, so they did not bring anyone there a second time.

That man had been a smokescreen from the very beginning, just to cover up for the real man with the boy.

They soon realized what was going on. As they drove towards the place, they informed the people closest to the place.

Yuan Meng kept cursing on the way. They were so close to the child when they were trying to catch the girl, but they failed to find her.

They came to the residential area and did a thorough check on the remaining residents.

Then they found several households with children and divided themselves into several groups for investigation.

Finally, one of them made a call to Lei Ning.

"On the 15th floor of that building."

Having heard these words, Fu Hanzheng and Yuan Meng hurried over, both of them feeling terrible.

The man they caught on the 11th floor had not expected that the boy was brought to the 15th floor.

When they came to the 15th floor, someone had already forced open the door.

But the room was empty, and there were scattered baby clothes, milk powder and bottles. They must have been in a hurry.

“It doesn’t seem like a coincidence,” Yuan Meng said.

“I asked the neighbors and they said that more than one hour ago, a young couple who lived here rushed out with their child.”

Without much time to think, Fu Hanzheng turned to Lei Ning and said, “Check the cars that left within these two hours. It is working hours now, so there won’t be many cars out.”

After everything was done, he thought for a long while and called Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei asked anxiously the moment the call went through, “Did you find him? Did you find Youyou?”

“We found the place, but they have already left.” Fu Hanzheng sighed deeply.

Gu Weiwei thought of the call Gu Siting made when she was in the lab and sighed deeply.

“Gu Siting must have told them to leave.”

That was an obvious clue that she and Gu Siting must have noticed.

“The car they drove away has been traced, and we are in the middle of the chase,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei said worriedly, “Don’t save Youyou on the way when they’re still driving, it is too dangerous.”

If they were driving with Youyou and they were going to rescue Youyou, he would not be able to handle the car accident.

"I get it." Fu Hanzheng agreed and asked after a moment, "Did he give you any trouble?"

"No." Gu Weiwei concealed the strange experiment, not wanting him to be distracted by her any more.

Fu Hanzheng let out a sigh of relief. "I am going there now, bye."

Gu Weiwei finished the conversation with him and sat in the room, thinking about how to get more clues so as to find the child faster.

Someone was knocking at the door. Luo Qianqian went to open the door and stepped aside when she saw Yuan Shuo.

Yuan Shuo entered the room and said to Luo Qianqian, "Can you please keep watch outside?"

Luo Qianqian nodded, closed the door and stood by the door.

Yuan Shuo passed her a cup of water. "How was it?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "We found the place, but Gu Siting asked his people to leave first, so we missed it again."

"But the evacuation must have been unexpected. If his plan is ruined, they will have a better chance of finding the child." Yuan Shuo consoled her.

Every step since the child went missing had been planned by Gu Siting, and according to his plan, they were all in a passive position.

But now, because of the leaked information, the two people had to leave with the child in a hurry.

"Yes." Gu Weiwei forced a smile.

"What about you? What did he take you there for?" Yuan Shuo asked.

He and his men only managed to reach the outside of the lab building but failed to break in.

Gu Weiwei suddenly thought of the strange experiment she went through today and told him about it.

"I went to a lab and did an experiment on the same instrument before I video-chatted with you, but nothing happened."

“Experiment? What experiment?” Yuan Shuo asked.

“You don’t need to think to know that if it is going to be like last time, she will either do the plastic surgery or try to hypnotize me...” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Yuan Shuo thought for a while and looked serious.

“That lab is weird, try not to accept this condition of his.”

“But if I don’t accept it, I won’t be able to see Youyou,” Gu Weiwei said.

Now the child was in Gu Siting’s hands, and she just could not turn him down.

“Gu Siting is going to do something big this time, and he is not going to force you to return back to the way things were unless he is 100 percent sure.” Yuan Shuo looked at her seriously and warned her with a small voice. “I am afraid that this time, he is going to do more than just hypnotize you. Gu Siting is very strict about this secret study and neither we nor Fu Hanzheng have found out what it is.”

Gu Siting brought her there on purpose, and he feared that the project was related to her.

Chapter 1757: After My Reborn Memory

Translator: Henyee

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and sneered.

“They are either studying me, a person who has come back to life, or they are trying to erase my memory after I was reborn.”

Yuan Shuo stayed silent for a while and came to a conclusion.

“I think that he wants to erase your memory after you became Mu Weiwei, and he has hired an expert in the neurological field.”

Gu Siting had tried so hard to force her back, and he could not have done that just because he wanted to study her and how she could come back to life.

What he wanted more was to erase her memories after she was reborn so that she could become Weiwei who used to live in the Gu Family.

“Although there are people who have lost their memory because of brain damage, it is impossible that someone would purposely do that to someone, right?” Gu Weiwei just could not believe it.

But when she thought of how Gu Siting said that the lab was built three years ago just for her, she could not help but feel a bit scared.

“Gu Siting invested a great deal of money and manpower into this project. If it had not succeeded, he would not have forced you to come home at this hour.” Yuan Shuo reminded her seriously.

If he could really erase her memory after she was reborn...

By that time, she would not only not leave the Gu Family, but also be taken away by them. She did not want to return to Hua Land where she had no memory of anything.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment. “But if I refuse to cooperate, I will never be able to see Youyou again...”

They did find some clues today, but Gu Siting told his men to leave before they did, so Fu Hanzheng and his men failed again.

“But we must be careful.” Yuan Shuo was worried.

The most important thing was Youyou. If he was not found, she would be controlled by Gu Siting.

“I understand.” Gu Weiwei nodded. She already had a plan.

Yuan Shuo thought for a while and said, “What about me getting a mini listening device for you to wear?” Yuan Shuo asked.

Gu Weiwei shook her head. “It won’t work. We have to go through three rounds of inspection before we enter the place. Also, that place uses the special satellite signal of Gu’s Enterprise, so it is useless to bring it in.”

Since Gu Siting was taking her there, he must be guarding against her so that she would not have the chance to inform Fu Hanzheng.

“Still going there tomorrow?” Yuan Shuo asked.

“Yes.” Gu Weiwei nodded and said, “We can only confirm that a man and a woman are taking care of Youyou, and that woman has a tattoo of Medusa on her arm, nothing more.”

“Fu Hanzheng asked me to keep an eye out for any of Gu Siting’s trusted men who are missing. Only five of them have been confirmed, but it is hard to tell if they are from the royal family,” Yuan Shuo said.

This time, Gu Siting was guarding against both him and Cayman Dorrans.

“If I had known that, things would not have gone so smoothly...” Gu Weiwei had learnt to stay calm after the failed attempt last time.

The more anxious they were, the easier it would be for Gu Siting to lead them by the nose.

“We can only take one step at a time.” Yuan Shuo sighed.

Gu Weiwei turned the skull ring she got from Yuan Meng and said calmly, “Master, before we find Youyou, no matter what happens to me here, do not tell Fu Hanzheng, Qianqian or Keiko.”

“But if I say nothing, Fu Hanzheng will get even more anxious,” Yuan Shuo said.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. “Then tell him that I am doing well.”

Chapter 1758: Gu Siting’s Deal

Yuan Shuo looked at her in silence for a long while and finally nodded in compromise.

“But that is only if you are safe. If it comes to a critical time, I must tell him everything.”

Fu Hanzheng trusted him and Cayman Dorrans, so he did not stop her from visiting the Gu Family.

If they were not here to take care of her, they would feel very guilty.

“Got it,” Gu Weiwei answered.

Before she found Youyou, she did not want him to worry about her at home.

“Also, Cayman asked me to ask you what you are going to do with Gu Siting?” Yuan Shuo sat down in the armchair opposite her and conveyed Cayman Dorrans’s intention.

“What I want now is to get Youyou back, nothing more,” Gu Weiwei said.

Yuan Shuo understood. The child was not yet found and she truly had no intention of thinking about the future.

But if Gu Siting failed this time, as long as he did not give up, he would be able to ruin her life again and again.

“Then, if you don’t want to deal with it yourself, you can leave it to me and Cayman.”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei did not ask anything more but agreed without hesitation.

Having said these words, Yuan Shuo opened the door and bowed to Luo Qianqian as a way of expressing his gratitude.

Luo Qianqian returned to the room and sat down on the sofa with Gu Weiwei.

“Weiwei, you know something I don’t, right?”

Recently, she had a vague feeling that Gu Yun Che was not like what she knew.

After Weiwei’s son went missing and she talked with him on the phone, she had been out of touch with him for days.

She had no idea where he was or what he was up to.

Gu Weiwei looked at her. “He still hasn’t contacted you?”

Luo Qianqian nodded. “I suddenly realize that I don’t really know him well.”

“Qianqian, I appreciate your consideration, but don’t get me involved in your own relationship,” Gu Weiwei said with a gentle voice.

The conflict between Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che was mainly because of her.

“But he should not...” Luo Qianqian stopped mid-sentence.

“He likes you, and he treats you well. As for me and the Gu Family, he has his own considerations,” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Gu Siting was the initiator of everything, and she did not need to offend Gu Yun Che.

After all, he owed her nothing.

Luo Qianqian wiped her face. “I am sorry, I should not have told you about this at this hour.”

Her son was not yet found and she herself was in danger, yet she was still bothering her with her own affairs.

Gu Weiwei patted her shoulders. "Don't think too much, just know what you really want. You don't have to worry about me or the people around you."

Gu Yun Che cared about Luo Qianqian, just like how Fu Hanzheng cared about her rather than the people around her.

They were just talking when Kuroda Keiko came in, closed the door and said, "Weiwei, my cousin has left Japan for Hua Land. I suspect that Gu Siting arranged it.

"Ask Fu Hanzheng to keep an eye out for him, maybe he can find the child."

Her cousin must have sneaked into Hua Land because of the child.

Hearing her words, Gu Weiwei texted Fu Hanzheng whatever she knew.

It must have been because of what happened in the video today that he was in Hua Land, when the two people brought Youyou away from the scene it ruined Gu Siting's original plan. That was why Keiko's cousin was arranged to pick them up.

It was time for dinner at the Gu Family's mansion.

Kuroda Shio came upstairs and knocked at the door. "Miss Weiwei, President Gu has asked me to invite you downstairs for dinner."

"I don't want to eat." Gu Weiwei turned down the invitation without opening the door.

Kuroda Shio stayed silent for a few seconds and reminded her.

"If Miss Weiwei still wants to see that child tomorrow, you better go."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. Not this again.

Apart from threatening her with Youyou's safety, he could do nothing else.

Kuroda Keiko opened the door and looked at Kuroda Shio coldly.

"I have been wrong about you all these years."

When Gu Siting went crazy, he still supported him to do whatever he wanted.

Kuroda Shio looked calm. "You should go home now, your child misses her mother too, and... you staying here won't change anything."

"To leave or not, that is my business," Kuroda Keiko said and was about to go downstairs with Gu Weiwei.

However, she had just taken two steps when Kuroda Shio stopped her.

"Your food is in the west hall, President Gu doesn't want to be disturbed."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Kuroda Keiko and Luo Qianqian who were going with her. "It is okay, you can eat at the west hall."

Since Youyou was still in his hands, no one was able to disobey whatever he said.

Having said these words, she followed Kuroda Shio downstairs and sat down at the other end of the long table.

But she was just eating with her eyes lowered, unwilling to take a look at the man opposite her.

Gu Siting ate elegantly with a silver knife and fork. "I know that you are here for the child so that Fu Hanzheng can find him as soon as possible."

He knew that she had informed Fu Hanzheng today.

However, Gu Weiwei did not respond to him but ate the food in silence, treating the man opposite her as air.

"Unless I release the child, Fu Hanzheng will never find him," Gu Siting said confidently.

Gu Weiwei wiped off the sauce on her lips with a napkin. "What does that lab do anyway?"

"I thought that apart from the child, you would not care about anything else." Gu Siting smiled.

"Since I am the experimental subject, I must be curious," Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Gu Siting threw a look at her and said straightforwardly, "That is an instrument for performing surgery on the brain, body and skin."

Gu Weiwei sneered; she had got it right.

The hippocampus and epidermis of the brain were places where memories were stored, and he was trying to erase her memories from after she was reborn.

“You tried drugs and hypnosis last time but failed, now you want to control my memory with that stupid instrument?”

“I know you dislike it, but you can’t turn it down either,” Gu Siting said.

Because the child was in his hands, and even if she did not want to accept the experiment, she could not turn it down.

“I can’t, but you may not get your way either,” Gu Weiwei said, putting down the knife and fork and standing up. “I am done.”

“You drank nothing.” Gu Siting reminded her.

Gu Weiwei drank the wine and said to the noble-looking young man across the long table, “Gu Siting, I think you have misunderstood something. I never loved you before I met Fu Hanzheng.

“Even if I had not met him, I would not have fallen for you, because you are the person I hate the most.”

Gu Siting looked calm, but his hands that held the knife and fork shook.

“No, that is not true.”

“Maybe not at the time, but when I have met someone I truly like, I know that what that was, was not love,” Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Gu Siting put down the knife and fork, took a sip of the red wine and found it very bitter.

Heh, someone she truly liked?

Was Fu Hanzheng the only person she truly liked and loved?

“I did not understand love when I was young, but if I truly like someone, I will do whatever it takes to get that person. But I have never thought about getting anything from this place.

“The relationship we had when I was living with the Gu Family was long gone when I knew about the deal with Dorrans.”

....

She had not met any man other than Gu Siting and Yuan Shuo, so she did not find it disgusting when Gu Siting said that he liked her.

But when she truly fell for Fu Hanzheng, she realized that she was not in love with Gu Siting.

Because if Fu Hanzheng did what he did to her, she would be so heart-broken that she would beg for an answer no matter what.

But after Gu Siting stayed away from her for some reason, she ended up staying at Yuan Shuo's place when she failed to get any results with him.

Also, she had a very comfortable time when she was with the Yuan Family.

“Enough.” Gu Siting interrupted her with a low voice.

He did not want to hear anything more about Fu Hanzheng from her.

Every word pierced his heart like a blade.

The girl he loved the most had fallen for the enemy he hated the most.

Without saying anything more, Gu Weiwei left the dining room and returned to the room, refusing to take one more look at him.

Sitting alone in the silent dining room, Gu Siting found the food in front of him getting cold.

He just could not believe that she had never loved him before.

Without Ling Yan and Fu Hanzheng, they would not have ended up in this way.

She could call him despicable, but he could not let her and Fu Hanzheng stay together.

He had watched her grow up and he had paid a heavy price to get her back. His Weiwei must be his.

Seeing Gu Weiwei leaving, Kuroda Shio entered the dining room and asked after a long while, "President Gu, should I get you another set of food?"

"No need," Gu Siting said coldly.

"You may need to go to the company." Kuroda Shio reminded him.

Startled for a long while, Gu Siting got up, got changed and left for the company.

It was time for Gu's Enterprise to deal with Fu's Enterprise, and he should be there in person.

This time, he not only wanted Fu Hanzheng to lose her and the child, but also the business map of Fu's Enterprise.

Kuroda Shio drove as he told him what he needed to report and said, "Mr. Gu called and said that he knows Miss Luo Qianqian is in the Gu Family and she must not be harmed."

"Okay," Gu Siting answered nonchalantly.

His target was Weiwei, and Luo Qianqian was just an outsider.

When everything was done, he could just send her back to Hua Land. He had no intention of doing anything to her.

"Fu Hanzheng's men have been chasing after the child. It's good that they left separately and hid themselves well." Kuroda Shio glanced in the rearview mirror and said, "But I am afraid that it will be difficult for Miss Weiwei to see the state of the child tomorrow."

Since they were evacuated in a hurry, they barely brought anything with them and they had not yet found a safe place to settle down.

Chapter 1761: The Fu Family and the Qin Family

Translator: Henyee

In the capital of Hua Land.

Although Fu Hanzheng had found out where Youyou was through Gu Weiwei, he was still one step too late.

When their car was found, the two kidnapers had already abandoned the car with the boy.

However, Fu Hanzheng followed the leftover clues and found one of them.

Unfortunately, the man had separated from the woman, who was with Youyou, so he had caught one of the kidnapers but failed to save his son.

Yuan Meng and Lei Ning tried to force the truth out of the kidnapper but failed.

When Yuan Meng finished the round of interrogation, she gave the task to Lei Ning and came out to smoke.

“His lips are sealed, and he doesn’t want to tell us where that woman and Youyou are.”

Fu Hanzheng looked cold. “Weiwei said that someone from the Kuroda Family is here in Hua Land. Keep an eye out for him. He may need to pick up the woman and Youyou.”

Yuan Meng nodded, turned to Fu Hanzheng and said as she saw the serious black rings under his eyes, “Now we have made the necessary arrangements, what about you going back home to sleep. I am worried that you will die from overwork.”

Fu Hanzheng shook his head, showing his refusal.

“If you really can’t sleep, Fu Shiyi will get you some sleeping pills from He Chi,” Yuan Meng said.

“Do you think I am in the mood to sleep right now?” Fu Hanzheng asked coldly.

His son had not yet been found and his wife was still in someone else’s hands. Every minute and every second was like hell to him. How could he fall asleep?

“But if this continues, I am afraid that you will be meeting the King of Hell yourself before your wife and son return,” Yuan Meng said.

He had dark circles all under his eyes and his eyes were bloodshot. He had not had a good night’s sleep for so many days and he was barely holding on with his willpower.

But he was still a human being who needed rest.

Fu Hanzheng said nothing, but he had no intention of taking a rest either.

“You are not going to actually sleep, right? I’m gonna tell Weiwei now...” Yuan Meng said as she pulled out the phone, trying to tell Gu Weiwei what happened.

Fu Hanzheng glared at her for a few seconds and then finally compromised.

“Let me know when you get any clues.”

Having said these words, he went into the car and drove to visit his daughter at the old mansion.

The moment he arrived at the old mansion, he was stopped by several cars of the Qin Family.

Old Master Qin, Qin Man and Qin Lang were all waiting outside the entrance. They stopped his car in the middle of the road.

Fu Hanzheng stopped the car, opened the door and glanced at all of them.

“I think that our Fu Family has made our stance very clear.”

Grandpa Qin approached and said with a broken heart, “Hanzheng, the Qin Family has wronged you regarding the child, but please, for the sake of our family...”

“If it had not been because of the relationship between the two families, I would not have spared Qin Lv’s life.” Fu Hanzheng interrupted Old Master Qin with a cold voice, no longer showing any respect.

“Fu Hanzheng, Lv is too young to understand what is going on. He and my brother have learnt their lesson,” Qin Man said to Fu Hanzheng who looked cold. “We don’t ask for anything more, just give us the antidote, he can’t stand it any more.”

“He is too young to understand anything, and so what about my son? Is Qin Lv just as innocent as he is?!” Fu Hanzheng sneered.

All these years, the Fu Family had treated the Qin Family well.

But they had touched his son, so now his son was missing and his wife was far away.

If he had the time, he would not have let the Qin Family have such an easy time.

“Fu Hanzheng...”

Qin Man was about to intercede when Fu Hanzheng interrupted her coldly.

“If you’re still going to try to persuade me, I will make him suffer even more.”

As they were talking, guards of the mansion came and pulled away the men of the Qin Family.

Fu Hanzheng went into the car and drove into the villa where the old mansion was located.

Unable to stand the blow, Old Master Qin staggered and almost lost his balance.

“Dad, you know what Fu Hanzheng is like, it is useless to beg him now.” Qin Lang took hold of Old Master Qin and looked in the direction of the Fu Family’s mansion.

“Now, you can finally give up,” Qin Man said.

Grandpa Fu loved his grandson dearly, and he could not bear to see his son suffering, so he insisted on visiting the Fu Family.

But Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu turned them down, so they had been waiting here for almost ten hours before Fu Hanzheng returned.

If it had been anyone else from the Fu Family, they might have softened their hearts. But Fu Hanzheng was a cold-blooded man who would never show mercy at this moment.

Her eldest brother and her nephew had touched his bottom line.

Also, she received the news yesterday that not only was Youyou not found, but that the Gu Family had even threatened them with Youyou and so Weiwei had gone to A Land.

Fu Hanzheng was obviously not going to be in the mood to deal with them.

“No, I need to wait here...” Old Master Qin insisted.

“They won’t be soft-hearted even if you kneel here, let alone waiting for them,” Qin Man said with a low voice.

The elders of the Fu Family spoiled the two babies. As long as the child was not found, they would hate the Qin Family.

“But Lv is suffering...”

“Didn’t the doctor say that the dosage would not kill him though? And the drugs have already reduced his pain,” Qin Man said as she and Qin Lang helped Old Master Qin into the car.

Fu Hanzheng was busy dealing with the child, Weiwei was in A Land, and the Gu Family was going against Fu's Enterprise, so they had no time to deal with the Qin Family.

Old Master Qin was helped into the car and he looked in the direction of the Fu Family's mansion, still unwilling to leave empty-handed.

"The Fu Family is in the middle of a crisis, and they are not in the mood nor do they have the time to care about us." Qin Man sighed and was about to drive off. "You know how to care about your grandson, right? But do you know how to care about his son? Youyou is so young, and if it were not for the fact that Lv was already suffering, I would have flayed him alive..."

"Alright, alright, let's go home." Old Master Qin did not like what she said.

Mrs. Fu had just helped Tiantian take a shower and get changed, when she saw Fu Hanzheng's tired face. She started to tear up.

"I told you to take care of yourself first, look at you..."

Fu Hanzheng took over his daughter and said, "Didn't you say that she had a fever yesterday?"

"The doctor came, and so the fever is gone," Mrs. Fu said, fearing that he would be worried.

Fu Hanzheng kissed his daughter's soft hair. "Good."

Old Lady got up and approached him. "Any news from Weiwei? How is she? Did Gu Siting give her any trouble?"

His son's matter had not yet been solved and Weiwei was forced to go to the Gu Family and it was very difficult for him.

"She's doing well and Yuan Shuo is taking care of her," Fu Hanzheng said.

Although Yuan Shuo said that she was doing well at the Gu Family, as far as he knew, it wasn't just a simple matter of Weiwei going to the Gu Family.

Chapter 1763: Internal Conflict

"Didn't Shiyi say that he has caught one of the kidnappers, but is there still no news of Youyou?" Old Lady asked anxiously.

The boy had been missing for days now.

If they did not take good care of him or feed him well, they could not dare to imagine how much suffering Youyou would have to go through.

Fu Hanzheng sat down with his daughter and briefly explained the situation.

“Weiwei found a clue through the video chat, but we were too late. Gu Siting asked them to evacuate, but we only caught one of them. We have not got any useful clues from him yet though.”

Mrs. Fu sighed pitifully. “I wonder how Youyou is doing.”

“I heard from Weiwei that Youyou is doing well. He is not sick or injured,” Fu Hanzheng said.

“Gu Siting kidnapped Youyou because he wanted Weiwei to come back. Now that she is there, he still won’t release the child!” Fu Shengying said with a low voice.

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady squinted at him. “He spent so much effort just to get Youyou, why would he be so quick to release him?”

This stubborn man still thought that it was Weiwei’s fault that Youyou was kidnapped.

But what he had forgotten was that it was Weiwei who gave birth to Youyou. Would she try to harm her own son?

Fu Hanzheng looked cold. “If you can’t accept their mother, you don’t have to be their grandfather.”

Weiwei was forced to go to the Gu Family for the sake of Youyou, and he had done nothing to help her from the beginning to the end. What was he blaming Weiwei for?

Even his own son could not accept that he was slandering his wife at this hour.

Fu Shengying shut his mouth and left the living room with his hands behind his back, in case any conflicts arose from him staying.

Mrs. Fu asked the servant to get dinner ready for Fu Hanzheng and urged him.

“Let me carry the child, you go and eat something. Shiyi says that you have not been eating well these days.”

“Weiwei has been with you for the past two years and your stomach problem has almost been cured, don’t let yourself relapse again.”

...

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and did not turn down Mrs. Fu’s offer.

Although he did not have the mood or appetite to eat, it would still take some time before he found his son and brought Weiwei back from the Gu Family. He must not exhaust himself.

He had just finished eating a simple meal when Yuan Meng called and said that the woman had been caught.

After answering the call, he put down the chopsticks and drove over.

“This bastard said that if their hiding place is exposed, they will then go to the next backup place; each of them knows one of the places.

“Lei Ning has already brought her men to the place he knows, but that woman did not bring Youyou there.”

....

“He doesn’t know about the other place?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“I don’t think so. Gu Siting must have left a separate place for each of them, so if they get separated and the other one is caught, they will definitely go to the safe place that only they know,” Yuan Meng said.

Although she had been away from A Land for years, she still knew a thing or two about Gu Siting.

“Did he tell you how they contacted each other?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“Yes, but she must have known that he had been caught and so her phone is off,” Yuan Meng said helplessly.

She had thought that because she had caught him, she would be able to dig something useful out of his mouth.

But all the clues he had revealed were useless.

Chapter 1764: Gu Siting

Fu Hanzheng, who had always been calm and steady, turned around and smashed his hand against the hood of the car.

Every time they got some clues, they would end up getting nothing when they were so close to Youyou.

The child was in the capital of Hua Land and he could not find him, which made him very annoyed.

Fu Shiyi came out and saw his brother losing control, so he approached him and consoled him.

“Brother, sister-in-law will see Youyou tomorrow, right? Maybe there will be new clues that can help us find him.”

“Gu Siting would not be careless after what happened today.” Fu Hanzheng countered.

But today, the two who were watching over Youyou had slipped up, so that’s why they had found out where they were hiding. That would not happen again.

Also, the longer Weiwei stayed with the Gu Family, the more uneasy he felt.

But as long as Youyou was not out of danger, she would not be able to leave the Gu Family either.

“Gu Siting knows pretty well that Youyou is his biggest bargaining chip, so he has made numerous arrangements just in case you find the child,” Yuan Meng said helplessly, feeling furious.

Now Gu Siting was able to restrain Weiwei because the child was in his hand, so now Fu Hanzheng had no time to care about the loss of Fu’s Enterprise.

Once he lost Youyou as a bargaining chip, everything would be ruined.

Therefore, he had tried his best to protect this bargaining chip.

“But what can we do? Sister-in-law will not come home unless we find Youyou.” Fu Shiyi got annoyed.

But they had always been one step behind Gu Siting and they were always on the passive side.

Yuan Meng put out the cigarette and said to Fu Hanzheng, "Actually, you and I both know that the key is to find Youyou through Gu Siting."

After all, these people were following Gu Siting's plan and it was Gu Siting who controlled everything.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent. Of course he knew that.

But because of the missing child, Weiwei had already suffered a great deal and now she was being threatened by the Gu Family.

He needed her help to save the child.

Yuan Meng threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and said, "But I think Weiwei had realized that too, which is why she decided to visit the Gu Family."

She believed that she would not willingly return until she had given them a plan.

"But Gu Siting spent so much effort to force her to go back, he must have done it for a reason we are not aware of," Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

Although Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans were there, yet if Youyou was in Gu Siting's hands, she would not be able to turn him down no matter what his request was.

Yuan Meng sighed deeply. But even if they knew this, there was nothing they could do.

When the child was not found, Weiwei would definitely go back with Gu Siting even if she knew that he was up to something.

Fu Hanzheng soon calmed himself down and said with a low voice, "Ask that person to reveal more information about that woman. We must keep searching even if it is going to be like finding a needle in a haystack."

"That man is seriously injured right now, we can ask him when he wakes up," Yuan Meng said.

She had been very cruel when she was 'asking' him to tell the truth.

After saying these words, someone came out and said, "She is already awake."

Yuan Meng rolled up her sleeves. "Okay, I am off to work now."

But this man was indeed from the Gu Family. She had tried so many harsh methods just to get him to tell the truth.

Chapter 1765: Gu Siting 2

Translator: Henyee

At the Gu Family's mansion in A Land.

The following day, Gu Weiwei went downstairs and was prepared to go to the lab with Gu Siting.

But she did not see him anywhere.

"Miss Weiwei, President Gu is dealing with something at the company and won't be back until the afternoon."

Kuroda Shio told her where Gu Siting was when he saw her.

"When can I see my son?" Gu Weiwei asked.

"Well... I am not authorized to make such a decision," Kuroda Shio said.

Honestly, apart from the researchers who were isolated from the outside world and President Gu himself, no one else had access to the lab.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. "When is he coming home?"

"He will be back before dinner," Kuroda Shio said and pointed at the dining room. "Breakfast is waiting for you."

Gu Weiwei did not turn him down. She was not going to cause trouble for herself.

"Ask Keiko and the others to join me."

Kuroda Shio went upstairs and informed Kuroda Keiko and the others.

After breakfast, Cayman Dorrans made a suggestion.

"Weiwei, can you go out for a walk with me?"

Gu Weiwei looked outside and found that the sunshine was just right.

"Okay."

Cayman Dorrans went out and strolled with her on the grass outside the Gu Family's mansion. He said when they were a distance away, "Yuan Shuo told me everything. You can't go to Gu Siting's lab anymore."

"I have no choice; Youyou is not yet found," Gu Weiwei said.

"But if this continues..."

"My son is more important than a memory." Gu Weiwei sounded optimistic as she said, "Also, it is not certain if the experiment will work or not."

"If he really succeeds, you will forget everything in Hua Land, forget Fu Hanzheng and Youyou. By that time..." Cayman Dorrans looked around and saw that Kuroda Shio and Yuan Shuo were still far away, so he said with a low voice, "By that time, your son will no longer be useful to Gu Siting. Do you think that he will release the child out of kindness?"

No, Gu Siting would not. He would not release the child and he would even use the child to torment Fu Hanzheng and the entire Fu Family.

"I am not here to let myself be manipulated by him," Gu Weiwei said just this one sentence.

After feeling hope and disappointment again and again, she knew pretty well that it was almost impossible to find Youyou in Hua Land.

Only with Gu Siting could she get more clues about the child.

That was why she chose to come home.

Cayman Dorrans looked at her for a while. "What do you want to do?"

Gu Weiwei forced a smile but said nothing.

"Is there anything you need me to do?" Cayman Dorrans asked again.

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "Not at the moment."

Cayman Dorrans felt a bit disappointed. He had not been a father to her all these years and he had even sent her to the Gu Family, causing her so much trouble.

But now, she did not need any of his help.

"I am not turning you down, but I just don't want you to get involved with this matter." Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "If there is, then please do not tell Fu Hanzheng what is happening to me here before Youyou is rescued, especially not about the experiment."

Cayman Dorrans stayed silent for a moment and nodded seriously, agreeing to her request.

Finally, she said, "After this matter is over, we can't kill Gu Siting, but we can't let this happen again."

Chapter 1766: Gu Siting 3

Gu Siting returned before dinner and Gu Weiwei had been waiting for him in the living room.

But she was not waiting for him, but waiting to see her son today.

"When can I see my son?"

Gu Siting gave his coat to the servant and walked straight to the dining room.

"Let's talk after dinner."

Without wasting any more time, Gu Weiwei followed him into the dining room and finished her food quickly.

However, Gu Siting, who was sitting in front of her, did not put down his knife and fork until almost an hour later.

They left the Gu Family's mansion and drove to the lab, facing each other in silence.

As they came to the lab, Gu Weiwei accepted the experiment without hesitation.

But this time, the time was extended from half an hour to one hour, and the headache was getting worse too.

Also, the headache did not stop even when the experiment finished.

Seeing her rubbing her temples, Gu Siting asked a British researcher, "What is going on?"

"It is a normal phenomenon from the experiment. Those who have done the experiment before have had the same symptoms, but the pain will be alleviated with special painkillers."

"Where is the medicine?" Gu Siting asked.

Someone came with the medicine and water and he gave them to Gu Weiwei.

“These are drugs for headaches.”

Gu Weiwei took a look at them, swallowed a pill down and put the remaining bottle of medication into her pocket.

“Can I see my son now?”

Gu Siting brought her into the room where the video call was to be made and got in touch with the person who had Youyou with him. The video call went through.

Lying in bed, Youyou looked at the camera curiously with a small toy in his hands.

That gaze made Gu Weiwei feel like he was looking right at her.

This time, it was so quiet on the other side of the phone and only the small bed where Youyou was in was shown.

She thought that since what had happened the day before had made them aware of what was going on, she might not be able to see anything more in the future.

In this way, she would never be able to figure out where her son was or what the woman who had kidnapped him was like.

Sitting next to her, Gu Siting looked at this previously cold and distant girl who was looking at the child in the video with a gentle look. Then he glanced at the baby who looked like Fu Hanzheng on the screen. His gaze was lethal.

Seeing her son in the video, Gu Weiwei did not care if the woman on the other side of the phone was listening to her or not, but told her many things to take note of.

Having said these words, she warned Gu Siting.

“You better ask your people to take good care of my son.”

Gu Siting stayed silent for a moment and then asked the person on the other side to follow the order.

“I hate him, but he is very important to me right now, so I will not let anyone hurt him.”

After all, a baby was way too fragile, and it would be very troublesome if he got sick or injured. Also, they might not be able to get him to the hospital if the situation turned serious.

A touch of coldness flashed across Gu Weiwei’s eyes. What he meant was that when his purpose was achieved, the boy would no longer be important.

Of course, she was not so naïve as to think that as long as she did whatever he asked of her, he would spare Youyou.

The half an hour's video call time soon came to an end, and the person on the other side stopped the call on time.

Gu Siting looked at her and said, "Can we go home now?"

Gu Weiwei left the lab indifferently, returned to the Gu Family and gave the bottle of medicine to Yuan Shuo.

"Check what is in this bottle."

Chapter 1767: The Child?

Translator: Henyee

Yuan Shuo brought the medicine out for examination and did not return to the Gu Family until midnight.

"They're just painkillers... Did Gu Siting give them to you?"

Gu Weiwei took the bottle and drank the water again, trying to get rid of the headache.

"Why did he give you this? Is it because of the experiment..." Yuan Shuo thought for a while and realized that it was because of the experiment that she started to feel unwell.

"It's just a headache, it's not that serious." Gu Weiwei smiled, trying to reassure him.

However, Yuan Shuo did not feel assured at all.

"Weiwei, I know you are worried about Youyou, but..."

"I know what to do." Gu Weiwei interrupted him with a smile, yawned and said, "I am sleepy, you can go and take a rest too."

Yuan Shuo sighed helplessly and left her room.

However, Gu Weiwei did not fall asleep after he left.

After the video call on the first day, Gu Siting was prepared.

After that, when the video was connected, all she could see was the small bed where the boy was lying. There was no other image or sound apart from the boy's.

Gu Weiwei went to the lab as usual, accepted the experiment and video-called with Youyou for half an hour.

But as the number of experiments increased, her headache became more and more intense, and even the painkillers could not help.

Six days later, she almost passed out on the lab table.

Gu Siting turned to the researcher as he watched the data of her body changing.

“Why is it like this?”

“This... was all reported to you in the previous report,” the researcher answered nervously.

Gu Siting felt a bit distressed and guilty when he saw the girl in a cold sweat.

“Think of a way to make her feel better.”

Hearing these words, the researcher said to the assistant, “Inject her with painkillers.”

After Gu Weiwei was injected with the drugs, she slept for more than an hour. When she woke up, she looked around the lab in confusion.

“What are you doing?” Weiwei asked.

Surprised, Gu Siting whispered to the researcher, “What is going on?”

“According to the experiment data from before, she should be showing some reactions now. Maybe she has started to lose her memory.”

Hearing these words, Gu Siting approached her and asked, “Weiwei, today’s video call is going to happen soon.”

“A video call?” Gu Weiwei looked confused. But when she saw the man who asked her the question, she looked very annoyed. “Gu Siting, what are you doing here?”

Gu Siting sized her up and realized that she seemed to have forgotten about seeing her son through video.

Normally, she would make this request after the experiment, but today, she seemed to have forgotten about the video call.

He thought for a while and pulled up the picture of her son on his phone.

“Do you know this child?”

Gu Weiwei stared at the picture for a long while and looked up at him in disbelief.

“What is Fu Hanzheng’s relationship with this child? Why does this child resemble him so much?”

“Yes, he is Fu Hanzheng’s child,” Gu Siting said.

“Fu Hanzheng’s... child?” Gu Weiwei’s eyes were full of pain and astonishment. She shook her head and denied it. “No, that is impossible, he can’t have a child...”

Gu Siting looked at this woman who was both shocked and in pain.

She really did not remember that this child is her son?

Also, she did not remember that it was her and Fu Hanzheng’s child.

They even thought that it was someone else’s child.

Chapter 1768: What On Earth Did You Do to Her?

Translator: Henyee

Although it was exactly what he had hoped and expected for, he still could not believe it.

After all, she had lied to him when he had taken her back to A Land the first time.

Gu Weiwei came down from the instrument table and massaged her head as she looked at Gu Siting with a pair of furious eyes.

“What on earth have you done to me?”

“Why am I here? Why am I here?!”

....

Gu Siting observed her and did not answer her question.

Gu Weiwei mumbled, as she did not get an answer, “Impossible, that can’t be Fu Hanzheng’s child.

“He can’t have betrayed me, that is impossible...”

....

Gu Siting approached her and was about to help her up when Gu Weiwei pushed him away.

“Stop pretending to be kind! You ruined my wedding and the happiness I want most!

“I hate you, I hate you!”

....

When she came to the end of her words, she looked totally helpless.

Finally, they had to use some sedatives from the lab to calm her down.

Gu Siting looked at the girl who had fallen asleep on the sofa. If what the lab researcher had said was true, then she must have lost her memory from the point after her wedding with Fu Hanzheng was canceled.

But what he had been looking forward to was something he just could not believe.

Then he asked everyone in the lab to analyze the data and the researcher came to report to him.

“President Gu, her emotions and reactions are very different from a few days ago. We all think that the experiment is working.”

“Don’t forget that she is an actress,” Gu Siting said coldly.

If it had not been for what had happened last time, he might have believed everything.

But after what happened last time, he just could not trust her completely.

“But we really can’t see anything strange with the data,” the responsible contact said helplessly.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a moment.

“Get me a wheelchair.”

Soon, a wheelchair was pushed in.

Gu Siting carried the sleeping girl and placed her into the wheelchair, pushed her out of the lab and back to the Gu Family’s mansion.

No matter whether she was really losing her memory or trying to lie to him, he would know when he saw the reaction between her and Yuan Shuo.

When they returned to the Gu Family's mansion, Gu Weiwei woke up.

Yuan Shuo and the others were just waiting in the living room, when they saw them coming in.

"Weiwei!"

"What are you doing here?" Gu Weiwei sized up Yuan Shuo and Luo Qianqian in confusion.

"We came here with you, Weiwei, what is wrong with you?" Luo Qianqian felt that something was wrong.

"Together?" Gu Weiwei frowned and asked, "Why did you come here together with me?"

"You came here because Youyou was kidnapped. We came back with you, why don't you remember anything?" Luo Qianqian asked.

Gu Weiwei got even more confused. "Youyou? Who is Youyou?"

Startled, Luo Qianqian realized that she had seemed to have forgotten about her son.

Yuan Shuo glared at Gu Siting. "What have you done to her?"

She was fine when she left this afternoon, but why did she now appear as if she had amnesia?

How could she have forgotten why she was here, and even... the fact that she had a child with Fu Hanzheng?

Chapter 1769: What Did You Do to Her 2

Translator: Henyee

Facing the furious and shocked Yuan Shuo, Gu Weiwei looked confused.

Instead of answering Yuan Shuo's question, Gu Siting said, "She needs rest."

Hearing these words, Kuroda Keiko and Luo Qianqian were about to push away Gu Weiwei's wheelchair, but Gu Siting pushed her away.

"I am sorry, but she is not allowed to talk with you any more."

Although he still suspected that her memory loss was just a show... What if it was true? And if she kept in touch with them and learned everything from them, would she remember everything again?

Therefore, he must put an end to their contact.

Gu Weiwei struggled to get up. "Master, I don't want to stay here. I want to go to Hua Land and meet Fu Hanzheng..."

However, Gu Siting pushed her back down into the wheelchair and pushed her into the room at the end of the corridor.

Yuan Shuo and his men came after him, but the door was locked from the inside.

"Gu Siting, hand her over!"

"Gu Siting, what on earth are you doing to her?"

....

Gu Weiwei struggled to get up from the wheelchair, but she was still dizzy and unsteady, apparently because of the experiment in the afternoon and the sedative.

"Gu Siting, do you think that if you ruin my wedding and bring me back, everything will go back to how it was before?"

"Impossible, it's impossible already."

Gu Siting observed her expression and gaze. "Do you think that the Fu Family would accept your surname?"

Gu Weiwei glared at him with eyes full of hatred, and tears gushed out of her eyes as if he had touched the biggest wound of her heart.

Gu Siting looked at her for a long while, turned around, opened the door and locked it again behind him.

Seeing him coming out, Yuan Shuo rushed up to him and grabbed hold of his collar.

"Gu Siting, what have you done to Weiwei?"

"Nothing." Gu Siting smiled calmly and said, "Anyway, I won't kill her. After all, her life is more precious than any of yours."

"Let her out, or..." Yuan Shuo pulled out the gun and said with a threatening tone.

“I think that you have forgotten where we are and who is in charge of everything.” Gu Siting looked down at the gun in his hand, showing no signs of being threatened.

He would not kill him, because if he died, she would die too.

Therefore, Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans did not dare to do anything to him, no matter how much they hated him.

“Yuan Shuo!” Cayman Dorrans stopped Yuan Shuo.

Yuan Shuo released Gu Siting’s collar unwillingly. “Let her out, you have no right to restrict her freedom.”

“I am not restricting her freedom, I am just restricting her contact with you,” Gu Siting said straightforwardly.

If he had only 50% believed that she had lost her memory, now he believed it at least 70%.

But when he thought of what happened before, he just could not believe it fully.

“What is that lab anyway? Why did you bring Weiwei there?” Cayman Dorrans interrogated him.

Gu Siting threw a look at him and confessed.

“They are brain neurologists hired by the Gu Family from various countries. It took three years to develop the instrument that erases memory by stimulating the cerebral cortex and hippocampus.”

“You...” Cayman Dorrans shook with anger.

“I saved her life, but I can’t help Fu Hanzheng in his.” Gu Siting glanced at them and said, “As long as you don’t interfere, I will give you the child within half a month.”

What he meant was that if they stopped him, he would kill the child.

Chapter 1770: Act or Real?

Translator: Henyee

Even Kuroda Keiko was furious, let alone Yuan Shuo.

“Gu Siting, you...”

Kuroda Shio stopped her and said with a low voice, "Keiko, this is a matter between President Gu and Weiwei, don't interfere."

Seeing Gu Siting leaving and going upstairs to the study, Kuroda Keiko flung off Kuroda Shio's hands

"It is such a shame that I am your sister."

Indifferent, Kuroda Shio left for the study upstairs.

However, Gu Siting, who went to the study first, was not busy with work, but observing Gu Weiwei through the monitor.

On the monitor, Gu Weiwei was smashing things in the room and trying to open the window so as to escape.

He looked at her for a long while and asked Kuroda Shio, "Do you think that she is really losing her memory?"

"Didn't we succeed several times before? What has happened to Miss Weiwei must be real." Kuroda Shio looked at him in confusion. Wasn't this the result he had been looking forward to?

He spent so much money and manpower on this project just for this one day.

But when it finally worked, he still could not believe it.

"Have you forgotten how she lied to me last time?" Gu Siting said coldly.

She was famous for her excellent acting skills, so he always had some doubts about everything.

Kuroda Shio observed the girl in the video and thought of what he had just said, "But Miss Weiwei doesn't seem to have forgotten about Fu Hanzheng or what happened in Hua Land."

"She seems to only remember that the wedding was canceled, she does not remember what happened after that, nor does she remember how she was brought home. She did not remember her child either, and she did not even request to video call him today," Gu Siting said.

She cooperated with the experiment because she wanted to see the child, but she did not mention a thing today. She did not even react when they mentioned the child's name.

“If that is the case, it seems that she will be able to forget everything in Hua Land after a few more experiments.” Kuroda Shio thought for a while and said worriedly, “But if she can’t remember anything in Hua Land, how can we explain her current appearance?”

After all, she looked very different from before.

“We will see when the time comes,” Gu Siting said calmly.

He just could not believe that she was really losing her memory.

But he could not find any flaws in her behavior.

“But what if Yuan Shuo informs Fu Hanzheng?” Kuroda Shio asked.

Gu Siting smiled sinisterly. “I hope that he will know about it.”

He truly wanted to see how much Fu Hanzheng would suffer if he knew what she had become.

But so what if he knew about it? The child was still with him and so was Weiwei.

Also, if Fu Hanzheng knew about it, he would definitely contact her.

In this way, he could be even more certain whether she was pretending or not that she had lost her memory.

Kuroda Shio glanced at him and said nothing.

“In order to prevent her from meeting Yuan Shuo and the others, I will stay with her in the lab from tomorrow on,” Gu Siting said.

No matter if she was pretending or not, the experiment had to go on.

Chapter 1771: Not Yet

Translator: Henyee

After Gu Siting and Kuroda Shio left, Yuan Shuo and Kuroda Keiko were lingering outside Gu Weiwei’s room.

After knocking at the door for a long while and hearing no reply, Luo Qianqian turned to Yuan Shuo and the others.

“What should we do now? Should we inform Fu Hanzheng?”

“Not yet.” Yuan Shuo stopped Luo Qianqian from calling Fu Hanzheng.

Luo Qianqian looked up at him. “You all saw what happened to Weiwei. What if her condition gets worse, should we still hide it from Fu Hanzheng then?”

Also, Gu Siting did not allow them to see her, which was no different from imprisoning her.

“But what can he do if you tell him now?” Yuan Shuo said with a low voice.

Telling Fu Hanzheng about it at this time would only make him more frustrated.

Also, he thought of how Weiwei had begged him repeatedly not to tell Fu Hanzheng about what was happening here before the boy was rescued.

“Now she doesn’t even remember who Youyou is, and Gu Siting has locked her up. Who knows what will happen tomorrow.” Luo Qianqian grabbed back the phone and insisted on informing Fu Hanzheng.

Although she had no idea what entanglement Weiwei had with the Gu Family and Gu Siting, yet she had witnessed her relationship with Fu Hanzheng.

She was in a very dangerous situation and they could not keep it from Fu Hanzheng.

Yuan Shuo grabbed Luo Qianqian’s phone and said, “Are you going to tell Fu Hanzheng now that he should give up on the child to save Weiwei? She did not come here for this result.”

Although he was also startled by Weiwei’s situation, yet when he thought of what she had asked of him before, he started to wonder if she had performed just to save Youyou.

But no matter whether it was true or false, they must not tell Fu Hanzheng about it yet.

Hearing his words, Luo Qianqian and Kuroda Keiko both hesitated.

Weiwei took the risk to come here, because she wanted to save the child, not because she wanted to give him up.

Also, she did not want Fu Hanzheng to give up on their child for her sake.

But when she thought of the girl locked in the room, Luo Qianqian got a bit anxious.

“But she is in such a bad situation now, are we just going to watch her suffer and do nothing?”

There were so many of them here and all they could do was watch Gu Siting threatening her again and again.

“As long as that child is not out of danger, we must not do anything rash,” Yuan Shuo said with suppressed anger.

It had been so many days since Fu Hanzheng set his eyes upon the Kuroda Family member in Hua Land, but the Kuroda Family did that on purpose to draw their attention away from the boy.

Also, that woman seemed to have disappeared with Youyou from the capital and never showed up again.

The Fu Family had been searching high and low, but they still had not found the child.

Actually, Weiwei knew that Gu Siting was the key to saving her son, so she chose to come back.

It was also because of this point that he could not reveal the situation to Fu Hanzheng, although he himself had no idea whether her mental state was caused by Gu Siting or a product of Weiwei herself.

Of course, he hoped that it was the latter.

“Before Youyou is safe, we must keep this place a secret from the Fu Family.” Cayman Dorrans stressed seriously.

In Weiwei’s eyes, her son’s safety was more important than her own.

Both he and Fu Hanzheng could take her away from the Gu Family at this hour.

But they could only take her away, not the boy who was hidden by Gu Siting.

Even if they could save Weiwei now, she was destined to lose Youyou if they did. Even if she did get out of danger, she would regret it for the rest of her life because of her son.

In the capital of Hua Land.

Fu Hanzheng had not contacted Gu Weiwei for days, although Yuan Shuo told him that Weiwei was safe there.

But he felt increasingly uneasy.

He had lost a great deal of weight after days of work. Sometimes, he did not even bother to shave because he was too busy. What he saw most of the time was his exhausted appearance.

Although he had a strong will that kept him awake for days, yet his body still had its limits.

When he was waiting for the news in the car, he fell asleep.

But soon he woke up from a nightmare.

Fu Shiyi had been dozing off when he heard his brother calling for Weiwei, which startled him awake.

He turned around and saw that his brother had woken up, looking pale and sweating.

“Brother, did you have a nightmare?”

Having said these words, he gave him a tissue.

Fu Hanzheng took it, wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead and took a sip of water. He still felt lingering fear when he thought of what happened in the dream.

Seeing his brother’s serious expression, Fu Shiyi asked, “You dreamt about sister-in-law?”

He had woken up because he called out her name.

Fu Hanzheng nodded. “I dreamt that she was in the Gu Family.”

“She is at the Gu Family anyways,” Fu Shiyi said weakly.

Fu Hanzheng frowned and looked very serious, as if he were dreaming about something incredible.

“Could it be... that you had a dream about sister-in-law and Gu Siting?” Fu Shiyi sounded him out, not daring to be too straightforward.

Fu Hanzheng’s hand that held the cup was still shaking. “I dreamt that she was with the Gu Family the entire time, and never came to Hua Land or met me...”

He dreamt that everything between them was just a dream.

He found her, but she did not recognize him and she was with Gu Siting.

“...” Fu Shiyi blinked in astonishment and mumbled, “Although what happened to sister-in-law was quite unreal, yet she did come to Hua Land and is with you for real. She even gave birth to two children! That is more wonderful and completely opposite to the dream!”

“Yes, the dream is the opposite.” Fu Hanzheng repeated his words, trying to console himself for being too nervous.

Maybe it was because he had not talked with her these past few days, that made him so anxious that he had such a dream.

He raised his wrist, checked the time and was about to call Yuan Shuo to ask about the situation.

But before he made the call, he hesitated and called Luo Qianqian instead.

During the past few days, Yuan Shuo kept saying that she was doing well and was safe there. He just could not believe that.

So he decided to turn to Luo Qianqian instead.

Luo Qianqian and Yuan Shuo had just reached an agreement that they would not inform Fu Hanzheng for the time being.

Within a few minutes, Fu Hanzheng’s call arrived.

She checked the caller and said to Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans, “It is from Mr. Fu.”

Yuan Shuo frowned. “He must be suspicious. Talk well, and don’t let him notice anything.”

Maybe it was because he had been telling him the same thing these last few days, that he started to suspect that he wasn’t telling the truth.

So instead of calling him, he called Luo Qianqian instead.

He must have sensed that something was wrong when Weiwei did not contact him for days.

Luckily, they had reached a consensus, otherwise the call would have put them in a very difficult position.

Chapter 1773: Not That Easy

Holding the phone, Luo Qianqian took a deep breath and answered the call.

“Mr. Fu.”

Fu Hanzheng asked, “Where is Weiwei?”

“She is not feeling well, so she is taking a rest,” Luo Qianqian said.

“Not feeling well?” Fu Hanzheng sounded nervous.

“She must have not had a good rest these past few days and is now suffering from a cold, so she took some medicine and is taking a rest.” Luo Qianqian did not dare to tell him too much.

It would be a lie to say that she was doing well here.

A person who was coerced to come here could not be doing any better.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and asked, “Is it serious?”

“Not really.” Luo Qianqian tried her best to sound calm.

“Did Gu Siting give her any trouble?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Siting spent so much effort to coerce her to stay at the Gu Family, and he was not going to keep her here just because he wanted her to live a luxurious life.

As far as he knew, Gu Siting was definitely going to do something to Weiwei.

After all, when he brought her to the Gu Family last time, he drugged her, hypnotized her, and tried to make her look like how she was before.

It would not be any easier this time.

But he was told nothing had happened when Yuan Shuo was reporting to him, and Luo Qianqian said that it was just a cold.

She sounded so calm as if she were hiding something.

“Gu Siting has restricted her movement and she is not allowed to contact you any more,” Luo Qianqian said according to what Yuan Shuo had typed.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a long while. "But did he do anything to her?"

"Not at the moment, because Mr. Dorrans is always here," Luo Qianqian said.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and realized that maybe it was because of Cayman Dorrans' threat as well as the release of Ling Yan's case, that Gu Siting and the Gu Family were both too busy to care about anything else.

"Alright, take good care of her. Let me know if anything happens."

"Okay." Luo Qianqian agreed.

When Fu Hanzheng rang off, she let out a long sigh of relief.

It was good that they were just talking over the phone, otherwise she would not have had the courage to tell Fu Hanzheng a lie face to face.

She was relieved, and so was Yuan Shuo.

"He must be suspicious but he has not discovered anything."

Luo Qianqian looked at the door of Gu Weiwei's room and said worriedly, "But if this goes on, we won't be able to lie to him for much longer."

Also, Fu Hanzheng was a smart man and he was not that easily fooled.

"We can only wait and see," Yuan Shuo said helplessly.

They also wanted to save Youyou through Gu Siting.

But it had always been Gu Siting who kept in touch with the man holding Youyou, and even Kuroda Shio could not do it.

And they were using a special satellite phone, so the phones from outside could not reach them. Only Gu Siting could contact them.

That was not something they could do easily.

Kuroda Keiko, who had been silent, reminded Yuan Shuo.

"That lab is used to stimulate the cerebral cortex and hippocampus, so that it can affect people's memory. He wants to erase all of Weiwei's memories from Hua Land, but that is just the beginning. Gradually, she will forget more and more people and things..."

Kuroda Shio did not conceal anything from her. When she confronted him the day before, he told her everything.

Gu Siting was trying to erase everything about Weiwei after she was reborn so that she could only remember the time when she was living in the Gu Family.

He wanted to start everything over in this way.

Chapter 1774: Luo Qianqian and Gu Siting

Translator: Henyee

Luo Qianqian turned to Kuroda Keiko in astonishment.

No wonder Weiwei could not remember who Youyou was. Gu Siting had brought her to the lab just to erase her memory.

“If this goes on, she will forget everything.”

She could no longer remember her child, and gradually, she would not remember her or Ji Cheng, and eventually, she might not even remember who Fu Hanzheng was either.

“Not necessarily.” Kuroda Keiko looked cold and said word by word, “This experiment has succeeded many times, but failed many times too.”

“So everything will be fine if it fails?” Luo Qianqian asked anxiously.

“No, if it fails, your memory may be confused, or you may remember and forget, or worse, you may lose the ability to remember. You may forget everything that happened one minute ago...” Kuroda Keiko gritted her teeth and said, “Gu Siting is crazy.”

“He doesn’t care about anything. As long as Weiwei forgets everything about Hua Land and the Fu Family, that would be enough,” Yuan Shuo said coldly.

He did not care if she could remember anything.

They were already furious when they heard the words, let alone Cayman Dorrans who looked lethal as he listened to them with a cold expression.

“Then what should we do? If we don’t stop him, Weiwei will forget everything she cherishes,” Luo Qianqian said.

She and Fu Hanzheng loved each other deeply, and it would be such a cruel thing if she forgot about him.

“To save her, Youyou must be safe, that is what Weiwei needs.” Yuan Shuo stressed.

Luo Qianqian got very annoyed. "What on earth are we doing just to save Youyou?"

The Fu Family were searching for Youyou all over the place in the capital whilst Weiwei was under the threat of Gu Siting for the sake of her son's safety. But they could do nothing but watch everything happening here.

"Luo Qianqian, no matter what we do, we are just causing trouble," Yuan Shuo said.

Of course they had done something, but they just could not tell this girl anything.

He and Cayman had been making preparations in the dark ever since they came to the Gu Family. They had done something!

Otherwise there would not have been so much evidence in Ling Yan's case. They had even thought about how to deal with Gu Siting after Weiwei solved the problem.

Luo Qianqian gritted her teeth, approached Yuan Shuo, grabbed the gun from him and went straight to the second floor.

"Luo Qianqian!"

Yuan Shuo and the others followed and saw Luo Qianqian rushing into Gu Siting's study with the gun.

"Gu Siting, release Weiwei's child, or I will shoot."

Gu Siting turned off the camera and looked at the girl from Hua Land who was pointing the gun at him.

"Didn't anyone teach you to remove the safety before shooting?"

Obviously, this was a woman who knew nothing about guns.

Luo Qianqian looked at the gun in her hands and tried to figure out how to remove the safety.

"Also, if you had fired the gun, the child would not be returned," Gu Siting said coldly.

Luo Qianqian did not know how to use a gun, so she tossed it away, grabbed an ornament on the table and threw it at Gu Siting's head.

"I don't know how to use a gun, but I can do that."

Gu Siting could not dodge in time, so his forehead was bleeding.

Kuroda Shio stopped her instantly, but Luo Qianqian did not want to give up. She was ready to punch Gu Siting right in the head.

Chapter 1775: Luo Qianqian and Gu Siting 2

Due to Kuroda Shio's interference, Luo Qianqian failed to hit Gu Siting, but Kuroda Shio himself became the target.

But they did not dare to do anything to Luo Qianqian because of Gu Yun Che's request.

Yuan Shuo and the others had followed her upstairs but did not stop Luo Qianqian at all.

Kuroda Keiko glanced at Yuan Shuo and whispered, "Is there no need to stop her?"

"No need." Yuan Shuo smiled calmly.

Gu Siting knew about the relationship between Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che, so he would not do anything to her.

Therefore, they had to tolerate whatever Luo Qianqian did.

When Kuroda Shio stopped her, Gu Siting got up and left the study for the company.

But Luo Qianqian did not give up. She went around Kuroda Shio and gave chase.

Kuroda Shio instantly informed the bodyguards at home to stop her from approaching Gu Siting.

When Luo Qianqian came to the stairs, she was stopped by the bodyguards of the Gu Family.

She was about to chase after Gu Siting when the bodyguards stopped her. As they were arguing and pushing each other, Luo Qianqian missed a step and rolled down the stairs.

It was a scene that Yuan Shuo and the others had not expected. They rushed downstairs to check the situation.

"Keiko, call the ambulance."

He had thought that Luo Qianqian might just have been annoyed by Weiwei's situation, so she would only threaten Gu Siting.

Unexpectedly, she missed a step and fell down the stairs.

Yuan Shuo and Kuroda Keiko were startled, but Kuroda Shio got so frightened that he arranged for the family doctor of the Gu Family as well as the ambulance of St. Paul Hospital.

He caught up with Gu Siting who was driving away.

"President Gu, Luo Qianqian... is injured."

Gu Siting's face changed. "Is it serious?"

"I don't know, I have contacted the doctor and the hospital." Kuroda Shio glanced at him discreetly.

Gu Yun Che had warned them that Luo Qianqian must not be harmed.

Now the Lady and the Old Master were both in his hands, and this man, who had never been restrained, warned them not to let Luo Qianqian get injured in the Gu Family when she stayed with them.

But Luo Qianqian was injured at the Gu Family.

He was worried that if the situation was serious, Gu Yun Che would stop protecting Mrs. Gu and Old Master Gu because of Luo Qianqian.

Soon the ambulance arrived and Yuan Shuo and Kuroda Keiko went to the hospital, whilst Cayman Dorrans stayed at the Gu Family's mansion.

Luo Qianqian was pushed into the emergency room, whilst Yuan Shuo and Kuroda Keiko were pacing back and forth outside the door.

With Luo Qianqian's phone in his hand, Yuan Shuo found Gu Yun Che's phone and texted him.

[Luo Qianqian is injured, at the hospital]

Sure enough, within five minutes, the call arrived.

"Which hospital are you at?"

"St. Paul Hospital," Yuan Shuo said.

“How did she get injured? What did the doctor say?” Gu Yun Che asked.

“She just entered the emergency room, not sure about the situation. As for how she got injured, you better ask the Gu Family...” Yuan Shuo said and rang off.

Although they did not want to see Luo Qianqian being hospitalized.

But when he was running after her, he saw Luo Qianqian missing her step on purpose.

She had been trying to contact Gu Yun Che these past few days, but Gu Yun Che did not reply to her calls or texts.

She was trying to force Gu Yun Che out so that he and Gu Siting would stop cooperating when she was injured.

But if she was going to do something like this, she should at least discuss it with them so that she would not fall.

Luckily, she was not seriously injured after the fall, but she was definitely injured.

Chapter 1776: Luo Qianqian and Gu Siting 3

Translator: Henyee

Luo Qianqian’s fall startled Yuan Shuo and his men, as well as Kuroda Shio and Gu Siting.

But they were not worried about Luo Qianqian, but about Gu Yun Che turning against them after she got injured at the Gu Family.

After all, if he stopped protecting Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu, they would soon fall into Cayman Dorrans’ hands and become the bargaining chip that threatened Gu Siting to release Weiwei and her son.

Gu Siting waited for the doctor at the hospital and asked about the situation.

“She has a mild concussion. And she needs to be hospitalized for 24 hours. Also, her leg is badly injured and she has got a cast on it. She won’t be able to walk for the time being.” The doctor confessed.

Gu Siting nodded with pursed lips. “Watch out for her.”

“Okay, Mr. Gu,” the doctor answered.

St. Paul Hospital used to belong to the Ling Family, but after Ling Yan and her mother passed away, the Gu Family bought out St. Paul Hospital and turned it into the private hospital of the Gu Family.

Therefore, the moment Luo Qianqian was here, he arranged the best doctor for the emergency treatment.

Gu Siting checked the time, took a few steps away and said to Kuroda Shio, "Inform Gu Yun Che and get the CCTV footage ready."

If Gu Yun Che wanted to pursue the matter, he would have to see for himself how the girl got injured.

Luo Qianqian was sent back to the ward and Yuan Shuo followed up. He sighed helplessly when he saw her waking up.

"You are way too impulsive! Why must you do this to yourself?"

"I wouldn't have had to do this if I had any other way," Luo Qianqian said.

Because of Gu Siting, none of them dared to do anything.

But she knew that Gu Yun Che was someone he feared.

And he had recently cut off all contact with her.

So he had to get injured on purpose, so that he could stop ignoring her and turn against the Gu Family.

"Do you think that because of your fall, Gu Yun Che will turn against the Gu Family?" Yuan Shuo asked helplessly.

"That is better than nothing."

Seeing her right foot in a plaster, Luo Qianqian did not regret a thing.

"But you did well in hitting him," Yuan Shuo said with a smile.

He realized that no one had dared to touch Gu Siting all these years.

But she not only hit him, but also made Gu Siting helpless.

"If someone had not stopped me, I would have hit him even harder." Luo Qianqian gritted her teeth, regretting that she had not hit him hard enough.

"I have informed Gu Yun Che for you, but I don't know if he is coming or not," Yuan Shuo said.

Lying in bed, Luo Qianqian snorted.

"He can come if he wants."

She had never seen a boyfriend who did not contact his girlfriend for ten days, nor reply to her messages or answer her calls.

"Gu Siting and Kuroda Shio look very nervous. They must still be worried about Gu Yun Che," Yuan Shuo said.

However, none of them were unafraid of Gu Yun Che either, apart from her.

After all, he truly could not harm her.

Luo Qianqian stayed silent. She was not so naïve as to think this would make Gu Yun Che give up on helping the Gu Family.

She just wanted him to appear so that they could have a good talk.

Although she herself did not know if he would come to see her.

After a long while, she came back to herself and said, "I am fine here, you can go home first, I am worried about Weiwei."

"I had better..." Yuan Shuo was about to say that he should stay when the door was opened.

Gu Yun Che pushed the door open and came in. He seemed to be in a hurry.

Chapter 1777: You Are Nothing

Translator: Henyee

Yuan Shuo took a look at the man who came in and then at Luo Qianqian who was lying in the sickbed and said, "I had better go back now, call me if you need anything."

Having said these words, he left the ward and closed the door.

Gu Yun Che frowned as he looked at the girl who had a cast on her right leg and a bandage around her head.

“I told you not to get involved with the Gu Family.”

“Who are you telling what to do? I am also not involved.” Luo Qianqian looked out of the window.

Gu Yun Che knew that she was angry because he had shut off contact with her on purpose, but he did not want to explain much to her, so he said, “Gu Weiwei and the Gu Family are not as simple as you think. You are just causing more trouble.”

“You better tell me the truth,” Luo Qianqian said coldly.

Gu Yun Che sat down in the chair next to the bed in silence. He did not explain a thing but sized up the wound on her head.

Luo Qianqian turned around and asked, seeing him remaining silent, “Why are you helping Gu Siting?”

She just could not understand why he would help such a crazy man like Gu Siting.

Also, she had told him that Gu Siting had kidnapped Weiwei’s child and he did nothing about it.

That made her feel that the man she liked was a total stranger.

“There is a reason why I must help him,” Gu Yun Che said calmly.

“Really?” Luo Qianqian asked.

Gu Yun Che could tell that she was displeased, but he still nodded.

“Yes.”

Luo Qianqian laughed self-mockingly. “Recently, I have been wondering if I have never known the real you.”

At the beginning, she did know that he was a mysterious man with extraordinary abilities.

But after what happened this time, she realized that he was a man who only knew how to behave according to his own principles. He was a man who wasn’t necessarily kind, or righteous, and had no regard for right or wrong.

“Qianqian, it is better if you don’t know about some things.” Gu Yun tried to sound gentle.

His secrets were not something that could be understood by anyone.

“Better not to know?” Luo Qianqian laughed self-mockingly and mumbled, “It is not the first time you’ve said this. It is best if I don’t know about this, and it is best if I don’t know about that either. I don’t even know what I am to you.”

“You are not a thing.” Gu Yun Che blurted out, but then realized that it was not right. “That is not what I meant.”

Luo Qianqian did not know whether to laugh or cry. “So I am nothing!”

Gu Yun Che sighed slightly and sized up her leg in the cast.

“Did you fall so hard just to bring me out?”

“What do you mean? You make it sound as if it wasn’t the Gu Family who pushed me, otherwise why would I have fallen?” Luo Qianqian said confidently.

Gu Yun Che looked calm. “They wouldn’t have.”

He had talked with Gu Siting, so the Gu Family would not treat her in this way on purpose.

She had not been able to reach him and had done this because she wanted him to come out.

Also, he had received the surveillance video sent by the Gu Family on the way here, and she fell on purpose.

“So the Gu Family are more trustworthy than me.” Luo Qianqian snorted.

Instead of arguing with her about this matter, Gu Yun Che asked her, “Are you staying at the hospital or getting yourself home?”

“If Weiwei isn’t released, I won’t go home.” Luo Qianqian insisted.

Gu Yun Che sized her up from head to toe. “Alright, you better stay at the hospital.”

If she returned to the country in this way, the elders of the Luo Family would think that he had hurt her. After all, she had been injured constantly ever since they met.

Translator: Henyee

After one night, Luo Qianqian finally understood what he meant.

What he wanted her to do was to stay at the hospital and not return to the Gu Family.

However, Gu Yun Che himself stayed at the hospital to take care of her.

“I am not getting an infusion or changing the medicine, what do you want me to stay in the hospital for?”

Gu Yun Che was walking on the lawn with Luo Qianqian after breakfast. “You will break your other leg if you go to the Gu Family.”

Also, he was not assured to let her stay at the Gu Family any more.

Otherwise, with her temper, she might do something for Gu Weiwei.

“Aren’t you helping Gu Siting? Aren’t you busy right now?” Luo Qianqian asked.

“I’m not,” Gu Yun Che pushed her to a sunny place and said to her as he sat down on the bench.

Luo Qianqian looked at him calmly. “Weiwei’s child has been kidnapped by Gu Siting and she herself has been dragged into a lab by Gu Siting. She is not doing well, can’t you show some compassion?”

If he had not helped Gu Siting, Weiwei would not have been in such a terrible situation.

“Sympathy?” Gu Yun Che thought for a while and confessed. “No.”

“You...” Luo Qianqian got annoyed.

“I know you want to help her, but that is their own business. Even if she is your friend, you are still an outsider, don’t get involved,” Gu Yun Che said.

Gu Weiwei and Gu Siting had to face the problem themselves.

If the problem was not solved this time, she would still be pestered by him in the future.

He did not care what the result would be, because it had nothing to do with him.

“You...” Luo Qianqian got annoyed.

She had thought that if he met her, she could persuade him to give up helping Gu Siting and save Youyou.

But even after what she had said the night before, he was still being stubborn.

“Now, you just need to take care of your injury, and the Gu Family will have nothing to do with you,” Gu Yun Che said.

Hearing these words, Luo Qianqian stood up with her hands on the wheelchair's arms.

"I don't want to sit here and take care of this injury, but you can stay here."

But with one leg in plaster, she just could not walk.

Gu Yun Che stood up and helped the girl up.

"Qianqian, can we stop talking about Gu Weiwei all the time?"

Since they met, they had had many conflicts because of Gu Weiwei.

Sometimes, he truly wondered if what she said about liking him was true or just because of Gu Weiwei.

Luo Qianqian turned to the man who was speaking. "She is... my best friend."

"But I really don't want to think that you like me because of her," Gu Yun Che said.

"..." Luo Qianqian stayed silent.

She had no idea that what she had done had given him such an idea.

"You fell on purpose, because you wanted me to come out and help her, right?" Gu Yun Che asked.

That was why he stopped contacting her these days.

He understood that if they talked about anything, it would always be about Gu Weiwei.

Luo Qianqian pursed her lips, speechless.

That was indeed what she was thinking, but it seemed that it was impossible.

"I will turn you down on this matter." Gu Yun Che confessed what he was thinking as he looked at her calmly. "No matter how many times you mention it, I will turn it down. And I don't want to turn it down too much, because it will affect our relationship."

Gu Weiwei had someone to worry about her, and she did not need this friend to do anything for her.

Chapter 1779: The Way

Translator: Henyee

On the second day when Luo Qianqian was hospitalized, Gu Siting took Gu Weiwei to the lab.

Compared to before when she had to check up on the child, Gu Weiwei was forced to do the experiment on the instrument table.

After the experiment, she fell asleep.

And she slept for almost one day and one night.

Instead of driving her back to the Gu Family's mansion, Gu Siting moved her into the lab.

Since he needed to deal with company matters, he did not stay at the lab but went to the company for a meeting.

He only reminded the lab to inform him when she woke up.

Since Ling Yan's case was brought out with so much evidence, Gu's Enterprise and the royal family of A Land became the topic of discussion.

After the shareholders' meeting, Prince Zhaoqi of A Land called his office.

"Gu Siting, because of you, the royal family has become the object of disdain. You have disappointed me."

"The Fu Family released the news, I will try my best to press it down," Gu Siting said.

Fu Hanzheng gave him a taste of his own medicine like when he ordered his men to release the false news against Fu's Enterprise.

Also, there was so much evidence collected and the recording was obviously made by Cayman Dorrans.

After all, he and his men were the only ones present when dealing with Ling Yan and her mother.

His men would not give such a document to the Fu Family without his permission.

"Now the matter has been blown up and the evidence is clear, how are we going to press it down?" Prince Zhaoqi was very angry.

Compared to the public opinion against Fu's Enterprise, what the Fu Family was doing to them now was more lethal.

The public opinion against Fu's Enterprise might have been affected at the beginning, but it was false news after all.

But what the Fu Family released was the real deal.

However, the royal family had suppressed it back then, but a few years later, they were used as the weapon by the Fu Family.

Although Ling Yan's reputation was ruined before she died, yet the mystery of her death was easily noticed by the public, especially when the suspect was her ex-fiancé who was involved with the royal family.

The citizens had already guessed that the royal family was protecting the Gu Family and they were all paying attention to the news. How could they press down the news?

Gu Siting massaged his eyebrows. "Give me three more days and I promise that everything will go away."

"I think that we should quit our collaboration against the Fu Family," Prince Zhaoqi said.

"Why should we stop when everything has already started?" Gu Siting asked, "Are you willing to let go of the Fu Family's resources and wealth?"

"Gu Siting, interests are important, but reputation is the most important thing for the royal family, followed by interests," Prince Zhaoqi said.

Under such a favorable situation, he was still messed with by Fu's Enterprise, so he did not trust his plan as much as before.

"We still have the Fu Family's child, Fu Hanzheng would not dare to do anything more," Gu Siting said.

Hearing these words, Prince Zhaoqi hesitated and said, "Three days, but only three days. If you can't solve the problem now, then this plan will not work any more."

He had Fu Hanzheng's son, but Fu Hanzheng had still made them suffer so much.

Honestly, he started to doubt his ability.

Chapter 1780: The Real and the Fake

Translator: Henyee

After the conversation with Prince Zhaoqi, Gu Siting sighed as he leaned against the chair.

Kuroda Shio stood in front of his desk and asked after a long while, "President Gu, how should we deal with this matter?"

If it was just any other evidence, they could find a scapegoat to take the blame.

But the point was that Cayman Dorrans had asked his men to record the conversation.

His voice was not only recorded, but also Ling Yan's mother's voice.

"What did the PR team say?" Gu Siting asked coldly.

"These are the proposals they have given us." Kuroda Shio placed the files on his desk.

Gu Siting leafed through them and said, "Go with Plan No.3, but pay attention to the details, don't let this matter affect the Gu Family."

"Yes." Kuroda Shio took the files and left to assemble his men.

Gu Siting continued to work and one hour later, the lab called and told him that Gu Weiwei had woken up.

He put down the work, left the company ahead of time and drove to the lab alone.

Gu Weiwei got startled at the sight of the man and asked calmly, "Mr. Gu, what is this place?"

"What am I doing here, and what are you doing here?"

....

Gu Siting sized up the woman who was speaking and calling him Mr. Gu.

Could her memory have returned to when she had just gone to Hua Land and thought that he had no idea that she was Weiwei?

"...Weiwei, this is a place where everything can start afresh."

"What... starting over?" Gu Weiwei threw a look at him, feeling a bit confused.

Gu Siting approached her and watched her retreat, as if he had seen through something.

Although he still could not believe that the instrument worked and that her memory had started to disappear during the experiment, her every move was flawless.

He clicked open the boy's picture on the monitor and said to her, "Do you remember this child?"

Weiwei glanced at the baby picture on the monitor. "Whose son is this?"

Gu Siting did not stop talking but said, "This child is sick."

She had been very worried about her son, and so when she heard the news that he was sick, she would have reacted accordingly.

However, Gu Weiwei only frowned slightly and her expression did not change much.

"Sick? Did you take him to see a doctor?"

"Yes, I did." Gu Siting's profound eyes showed a touch of joy.

Maybe he had been too suspicious.

This instrument had been through numerous experiments and she had done so many rounds of it too. It was impossible that it was totally useless.

She had truly started to forget what happened in Hua Land, and she would soon forget about her and Fu Hanzheng's son too.

"Mr. Gu, can I leave now?" Gu Weiwei asked discreetly, fearing that someone would discover some secret.

"No, you must stay here now," Gu Siting said coldly.

"Why... are we living here?" Gu Weiwei looked around and smiled calmly as she threw a look at him. "Mr. Gu, we are just acquaintances, you don't need me here."

Without saying a word, Gu Siting watched her reaction in satisfaction.

At this stage, after two or three more experiments it should be completed.

She would forget everything related to Fu Hanzheng and end up being with him.

After she lost the memory of him, Gu Weiwei never asked to see her child again.

Even when Gu Siting mentioned the child and told her that the child was sick, she showed no reaction.

That made Gu Siting totally convinced that the experiment was successful. After all, she was willing to come home because of her child.

If she had not really forgotten about him, she would not have looked so calm when she heard that her son was sick.

Also, she seemed to think that he did not know who she really was.

So she had been concealing her emotions discreetly, pretending as if she had never known him before.

She looked exactly the same as when he had met her several times before.

Gu Weiwei did not ask him to leave, fearing that he would get suspicious if she objected too strongly.

But she just could not sit still, as if thinking of a countermeasure that could allow her to leave.

Coming out of Gu Weiwei's room, he asked the researcher of the experiment, "How many more times do you need to do the experiment?"

"Two times at most." The responsible contact took a look at the monitoring data and suggested. "But it would be best if the interval in-between is a few days. There have been some abnormal reactions in the previous experiments because of the frequent experiments."

Gu Siting frowned. "How long do you need?"

"About three to five days, if the cerebral cortex and the hippocampus are stimulated too often, it may cause serious damage and even loss of all her memory," the researcher said.

Gu Siting thought for a while. "Okay, we can do it again after a few days."

He had waited for three years, and so he did not mind waiting a few more days.

He left the lab and went straight to the company instead of returning to the Gu Family's mansion

Kuroda Shio followed him into the office with a pile of files.

"How is Ling Yan's case?"

"The popularity has dropped, and the audio file explains the origin. Also, the drug scandal of a superstar has been revealed, and the whole family has been warned not to make any more counter posts," Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting nodded in satisfaction. "When the matter is over, get rid of all the evidence. I don't want anyone to find out Ling Yan's name in the future."

"Yes, President Gu," Kuroda Shio replied.

Although it was a bit difficult, it had to be done well.

Otherwise the Fu Family would use this matter to attack the Gu Family.

"What is Fu Hanzheng doing these days?" Gu Siting asked indifferently as he was signing the documents.

"He and Yuan Meng are still looking for the child, and Fu Shiqin has full control of the company, but..." Kuroda Shio looked at him and said, "He doesn't seem to know about Weiwei's memory loss."

Surprised, Gu Siting sneered.

"Yuan Shuo must have hidden it from him."

"Then... should we leak it to the Fu Family?" Kuroda Shio asked.

Gu Siting sneered. "No hurry. When Weiwei forgets everything in Hua Land, I will tell him the good news."

The experiment had not yet succeeded and he did not want Fu Hanzheng to know about it. So if Yuan Shuo did not want to tell him, he did not have to either.

He was going to know about it eventually.

If he knew about it later on, he would suffer even more.

In the capital of Hua Land.

Although they had caught someone before, they had still failed to find the woman who was hiding the boy.

Apart from the Fu Family's men and the police, no one knew that the boy was missing.

Since it was not convenient for Fu Hanzheng to show up in public, he spent most of his time going through the CCTV files with the technical team. He felt that he had become very short-sighted after staring at the computer screen for days.

When his eyes could not stand it any more, he got up and gave it to someone else to do so that he could get some fresh air.

The moment he came out of the RV, he saw Fu Shiyi making a call outside and said to him after the conversation ended, "I am going out now, let me know if there is any news."

Having said these words, he went into the car and left.

Seeing the car leaving, Fu Shiyi threw a look at Yuan Meng who was smoking.

"Where is my brother going? He must have gone out several times these days."

During the past few days, his brother had not been focusing on finding the children either. He kept making calls or going out without saying a word. He would not be home for hours.

"I don't know, but it must have something to do with your nephew and sister-in-law," Yuan Meng said.

It would be a waste of time and manpower to search for him in this way. If they failed to find the child, Weiwei would not be able to escape from the Gu Family either.

Fu Hanzheng was more anxious than anyone else about this matter.

Therefore, he was definitely trying his best to save Weiwei and the child.

Fu Shiyi sighed as he saw the darkening sky.

"It seems that our brother has not talked with sister-in-law for days, he must be very worried."

They had never lost touch with each other for such a long time before, even from when Gu Siting kidnapped his sister-in-law.

This time, it was because of Gu Siting again.

“If she goes to the Gu Family, Gu Siting won’t let them talk on the phone every day.” Yuan Meng snorted.

But judging from Yuan Shuo’s tone, the situation did not seem that optimistic.

“My brother and my mother have been blaming themselves for Youyou’s disappearance. If they are not found, they will not be able to live on,” Fu Shiyi mumbled.

Mrs. Fu always thought that it was her fault because it was her who put Youyou in the room, so she had been blaming herself these days.

Then his brother blamed himself for not protecting sister-in-law and Youyou so that Gu Siting could take advantage of the situation.

Yuan Meng leaned herself against the car and said as she brushed off the ashes, “Gu Siting is not giving up. If it is not this time, it will be the next time. They should not have trusted the Qin Family, so that Gu Siting was then able to take advantage of the situation.”

Fu Hanzheng had tried his best to keep Weiwei and the two children safe, but he was just a man, and he did not have the ability to see or hear everything. Also, the Qin Family, whom the Fu Family had always trusted, was involved too, so he was not able to defend himself at all.

Hearing these words, Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth.

“We truly did not know him at all! How dare Qin Lv do such a thing?!”

The Qin Family and the Fu Family had always been on good terms with each other, and Qin Lv was the only junior of the two families, so both the elders of the two families and the uncles loved him dearly.

But he had never expected that he would help Gu Siting to deal with the Fu Family.

“He is driven by interest and he really thinks that your brother has stolen the girl he likes, of course he will turn evil.” Yuan Meng snorted.

But this boy was too naive. He heard from Qin Man that he should still try and he thought that if he succeeded, he could get rid of Fu Hanzheng so he could be with Weiwei.

But Weiwei was no longer the Mu Weiwei he was looking for, and Gu Siting would never give her up to him.

He had been used as cannon fodder by Gu Siting the entire time.

Chapter 1783: Back to the Beginning

In A Land, the rumor about Ling Yan's murder gradually faded away with the help of the crisis PR team of the Gu Family.

Gu Weiwei was trapped in the lab for a few days before being taken away for another experiment.

After the experiment, she slept for one day and one night. When she woke up again, Gu Siting was the only one by her bedside.

She looked at the man sitting by the bedside for a long while before calling out to him in confusion, "Brother Siting, what are you doing here?"

Hearing the long-lost title, Gu Siting looked at the girl in bed in astonishment.

Was she... forgetting everything that happened in Hua Land except for the time when she was living at the Gu Family?

Otherwise she would not have called him that and looked at him in this way.

"Are you feeling... unwell?"

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead. "I am having a headache."

Gu Siting picked up the painkillers and water on the table and said, "Have some painkillers, you'll feel better."

Startled for a moment, Gu Weiwei took them, looking at him curiously.

"Aren't you going to New York for business?"

Gu Siting thought for a while and suddenly remembered that the year before she died, they ran into each other at home when she returned from Shengxi Town.

He said that he was going to New York for business and left in a hurry.

That was on the eve of his birthday, when she came home to celebrate with him. But he did not return on his birthday.

When he returned, she had already left with Yuan Shuo, leaving only a handmade cake in the fridge.

A few months later, the news of her being stabbed arrived. Then she was seriously injured and hospitalized. Finally, she passed away because of Ling Yan.

After that year, he never celebrated his birthday again.

“Brother Siting?” Gu Weiwei called out to him seeing his expression.

Gu Siting came back to himself. “The meeting has been postponed.”

“Oh.” Gu Weiwei nodded and asked as she looked around, “Where is Mother Gu? She asked me to attend Mass with her at church today.”

“She... already went there. She said that if you are not feeling well, you can take a rest at home.” Gu Siting looked at the girl who was speaking and burst into joy.

She was finally home. His Weiwei was finally home.

“Oh.” Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said as she looked at him, “You can do whatever you need to do, I will wait for Mother Gu.”

Gu Siting knew that they had been distant from each other because of his father’s death.

That was why she was so surprised to see him and kept a distance from him.

“It is okay, I am not that busy.”

Sitting in bed with the cup in her hands, Gu Weiwei stayed silent.

Seeing the silent girl staring at the cup, Gu Siting felt a lump in his throat. They had been so distant back then.

Even if they ran into each other at home on festivals, they would just greet each other politely, and then he would get busy with work and she would follow Yuan Meng around the world. Other times, he would not be home for months.

At that time, he did not know how to get everything back. He had to wait for so many years and pay so much.

Luckily, he had waited until she returned and everything could start afresh.

“Take a rest, then let’s eat together.”

Startled, Gu Weiwei just could not believe that he would make such a request.

“...Oh, okay.”

Gu Siting walked out of her room and could not help but shed tears.

After a long while, he calmed himself down and went to meet the researcher.

“President Gu, what is Miss Weiwei’s reaction?”

“She seems to have forgotten everything about the past few years. Isn’t there supposed to be one more experiment?” Gu Siting asked in surprise.

The researcher checked the data on the tablet and said, “This experiment mainly depends on the individual’s physique and willpower. In the previous experiment, someone did reach the goal ahead of schedule...”

Gu Siting nodded thoughtfully. “Should we do another experiment?”

“If you want her memory to return to an earlier time, you can do it again,” the researcher said.

Gu Siting thought for a long while. “Let’s leave it for the time being.”

Actually, he was already very satisfied with her current state.

If they did it again, he wondered what time her memory would referees back to.

“Okay.” The researcher said no more.

“She will still be living here these coming days, and so when she runs into the researchers, make sure they don’t reveal too much.” Gu Siting stressed seriously.

“I will tell my men now.”

The researchers nodded and told the others to keep their mouths sealed.

Gu Siting went to his room and dealt with some company affairs before knocking on Gu Weiwei’s door.

Gu Weiwei had already changed and asked as she opened the door, "Time to eat?"

"Yes." Gu Siting nodded.

Gu Weiwei came out of the room and left with him. After a short while, she found that she was not at the Gu Family's house, but at a research center.

"What... is this place?"

"An important research base for the company. I will be staying here these days," Gu Siting said and brought her to the restaurant on the top floor.

The huge floor-to-ceiling window allowed the sunlight to shine in. The flowers and plants had been carefully pruned and the entire dining room was filled with the scent of flowers.

Gu Siting pulled out the chair for her in a very gentlemanly way and did not sit down opposite her until she took the seat.

The exquisite French food was the western-style food the Gu Family had always preferred.

The waiter served the food and asked, "Mr. Gu, do you need wine?"

Gu Siting thought for a while and said, "Give me a glass of red wine and a glass of warm water for Weiwei."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, blinked and said, "I want to drink too."

"You just took the medicine." Gu Siting turned down her request.

Gu Weiwei let out a sigh of pity and took a sip of the water delivered by the waiter.

Then she started to eat in silence.

"Are you still going to be going out these coming days?" Gu Siting asked.

Normally, she would leave after only staying a few days at home.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment and smiled.

"Mom asked me to come home. Your birthday is soon; I'll leave after the celebration," Gu Weiwei said.

"Thank you for coming back," Gu Siting said to both the Gu Weiwei of the past and the Gu Weiwei of the present.

He failed to say thank you to her years ago, but after so many years, he finally said thank you to her.

Gu Weiwei sized him up curiously. "Brother Siting, has something happened?"

"Why do you ask?" Gu Siting smiled elegantly.

"I feel that you are acting a bit weird today." Gu Weiwei voiced her question.
