Gu Siting chuckled and took a sip of the red wine.

“Really?”

Gu Weiwei asked casually as she was eating, “You said that you are going to stay here for the time being so are you unable to go home?”

“Not right now,” Gu Siting said.

“So are you celebrating your birthday here too?” Gu Weiwei looked up at him and asked.

Gu Siting chuckled and asked, “Where do you want my birthday celebrations to be?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “Not here, it is not a place for birthday parties.”

Gu Siting nodded. “Then tell me where is suitable, it is not a good time at home either.”

Although it was their home, yet there were many uninvited guests living there.

“If it is not convenient at home, let’s go to Mother Gu’s, in case she and grandpa want to celebrate with us,” Gu Weiwei said.

Startled, Gu Siting nodded.

“Okay, let’s go there.”

That year, they did plan to celebrate his birthday with his mother, but he failed to make it because he was working in New York.

Gu Weiwei smiled, seemingly delighted by his answer.

Then she thought for a while and asked, “Are you going out later?”

"I am going to the company." Gu Siting threw a look at her and asked, "Are you coming with me?"

"Me?" Gu Weiwei asked with eyebrows raised.

"Of course," Gu Siting said.

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly and started to eat more.

They had just finished the food when Gu Siting received a call from the company. He took her away from the lab and went to Gu's Enterprise.

Gu Siting asked her to stay in his own office. "If you need anything, just tell him. I am going to have a meeting."

Gu Weiwei nodded, waved at him and said to Kuroda Shio, "Shio, make me a cup of black tea. I still want to eat chiffon cake. Do you know which store to go to?"

Startled, Kuroda Shio looked at this woman in disbelief.

Seeing him not moving, Gu Weiwei frowned and said, "What, I can't order you around, only my brother?"

Kuroda Shio came back to himself and said as he shook his head, "Miss Weiwei, please wait for a moment, I will get someone to buy it now."

Within half an hour, Kuroda Shio came in with a small piece of chiffon cake and a pot of black tea.

"Miss. Weiwei, your black tea and chiffon cake."

Gu Weiwei picked up the fork, dug out a small piece of cake and tasted it, smiling in satisfaction.

"Sure enough, this restaurant is the best. Have you saved some for my brother?"

"Yes." Kuroda Shio smiled.

If it were not for the fact that the face in front of him was not the same as before, he would have felt as if this woman had never left.

It seemed that what President Gu had been looking forward to had been achieved.

Gu Siting's meeting lasted for almost two hours and the moment he came home, he saw the well-fed girl leaning against the sofa, looking very relaxed as if she were very satisfied with the afternoon tea.

He waved at Kuroda Shio, asking him to leave.

He had wanted to work here, but as he was sitting opposite her, he got so fascinated by this sleeping girl.

After a long while, Gu Weiwei finally rubbed her eyes and blinked at the sight of him.

“When did you come in?”

“Just now,” Gu Siting replied with a smile.

Gu Weiwei pointed at the cake box and said happily, “I asked Shio to get you a slice of chiffon cake.”

Gu Siting smiled even wider. “Thanks.”

Gu Weiwei brought it out for him and gave him the fork.

“Here you are.”

Gu Siting finished the cake in satisfaction and said with a deep smile, “The cake here is still so good.”

“So do you want your birthday cake to taste like this too?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Gu Siting chuckled. “It’s good as long as you like it.”

“What do you mean by that? I am not celebrating my birthday,” Gu Weiwei said.

Gu Siting wiped off the crumbs on his lips with a napkin. “You can do whatever you want.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and said as she thought of something important, “Where is my phone?”

“I lost your phone, I will buy you a new one in a few days.”

“A few more days? What if I want to call Mother Gu and Yanyan?” Gu Weiwei said gloomily.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a moment and said patiently, “Ling Yan is at an event abroad. She will be away these coming days and mother is busy too, she might not have time to spend time with us.”

“But it can’t just be me and Shio, that would be too sad.” Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said suddenly, “What about a party? I haven’t been to one for ages.”

“Maybe next time, I don’t want too many people around.” Gu Siting countered her idea of having a party.

She must not be discovered in this way.

“Oh.” Gu Weiwei pursed her lips.

“I have some work to do, just give me a minute,” Gu Siting said.

Gu Weiwei nodded and waited in the office for him to finish the work.

They had just returned to the lab when Gu Weiwei went into the bathroom and consequently he heard a scream.

Gu Siting knocked at the door. “Weiwei?”

Gu Weiwei opened the door and pointed at herself in the mirror in disbelief.

“This is not me, this is not me, how did my face become like this?”

Gu Siting said calmly, “You had a car accident and your face was ruined, so you had plastic surgery.”

“Car accident?” Gu Weiwei felt her aching head and mumbled, “But how did it happen?”

“If you don’t like how you look now, you can do the surgery again in the future to return to how you originally looked.” Gu Siting consoled.

Gu Weiwei seemed to have received a huge blow. She came out of the bathroom and sat down by the sofa, feeling her head.

“My head hurts so much.”

Gu Siting gave her some more painkillers. “Take these, you will feel better.”

Gu Weiwei still could not accept her new face, but after Gu Siting’s explanation, she started to believe that her face had been ruined in a car accident.

Several hours later, she finally calmed down.

Gu Siting felt relieved. If she had no reaction to her face, then something was wrong.

She had such a strong reaction to her face and she was so against it, which meant that her memory had truly returned to that time.

Gu Weiwei had taken the painkillers, but she still felt a bit down because of the change to her face.

Sitting opposite her, Gu Siting stared at her for a long while and said, "Weiwei, after you return this time... don't leave again, alright?"

Gu Weiwei looked at him in astonishment. "Why?"

"I just suddenly remembered that we have not been together for years." Gu Siting sighed.

They had been separated for so many years back then.

If he had known that so many things would happen, he would not have allowed her to leave the Gu Family or alienated her.

Luckily, they were able to start afresh.

After a long while, Gu Weiwei nodded.

"Okay, I won't leave."

Although Gu Siting had received the results he had been looking forward to for years, yet in order not to arouse Gu Weiwei's suspicion, no matter if he was going to the company or coming home himself, he would always keep her by his side.

She was not allowed to go online or contact anyone apart from himself and Kuroda Shio.

Gu Weiwei had asked him to buy a new phone for her several times, but Gu Siting turned her down, so she did not mention anything about it anymore.

Within a few days, Gu Siting's birthday arrived. Of course, it was not really Gu Siting's birthday, but what Gu Weiwei remembered as being his birthday.

After Gu Siting finished work, he took her back to the hillside villa where Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu lived.

The moment she entered the apartment, Gu Weiwei could not wait to find Mrs. Gu, but failed.

“Where are Mother Gu and Grandpa?”

“I heard that Grandpa was not feeling well and so he went to the hospital.” Gu Siting lied calmly.

Although she seemed to have gone back to the year before she went to Hua Land, yet Fu Hanzheng was still around, and he could not take the risk of bringing his mother and grandfather back.

After all, Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans were still preying upon his weaknesses.

Also, it was not certain if her current condition was permanent or temporary.

It had not been easy for him to get hold of her, and it was not going to be as simple as threatening Weiwei again with her son.

“Ah, should we go and see how he is doing?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Gu Siting thought for a while. “Let’s go tomorrow.”

“Then we should call them later,” Gu Weiwei said.

Gu Siting thought for a while and said with a smile, “Okay.”

Gu Weiwei looked at the empty living room. “The servants are not here either?”

“I asked them to leave,” Gu Siting said.

“What about asking Shio to come here, your birthday can’t be so empty of people,” Gu Weiwei mumbled as she was rummaging through the ingredients for dinner.

Gu Siting thought for a while and smiled.

“No need, he has work to do.”

Although it was not his real birthday today, he had not celebrated a birthday since she had left the Gu Family.

And the birthday of this year was long gone; today was just one more time for her.

Gu Weiwei craned her head out of the kitchen and asked, “So it’s just going to be the two of us?”

“Just the two of us.” Gu Siting looked at the girl standing in the kitchen and sighed. “We haven’t celebrated any of our birthdays together for years.”

Even when it was her birthday, he asked Kuroda Shio to deliver the present, but he never went home because of work.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent and finally nodded in agreement.

“Then... what do you want to eat?”

“I’ll eat whatever you want to make.” Gu Siting chuckled.

Gu Weiwei sized up this man in astonishment and hesitated.

Gu Siting raised his eyebrows. “What are you looking at me for?”

“It’s... you seem a bit weird these days.” Gu Weiwei laughed dryly.

Gu Siting thought that it must have been because of their distant relationship that made her feel strange when he suddenly changed his attitude.

He was just thinking about how to explain so that she would not become suspicious when the phone rang.

So he said, “I am going out to answer a call, I will help you later.”

Seeing him leaving, Gu Weiwei went into the fridge to find some other ingredients and decided to choose what they were having for the birthday dinner by herself.

When Gu Siting came in, she was already making the food herself. She looked so focused that he didn’t want to disturb her.

Gu Weiwei had not noticed that Gu Siting was watching her as she was busy preparing the cake.

When the cake was ready, she looked at the shape of the cake and said to herself with a smile, “That should be enough.”

“It’s very pretty,” Gu Siting commented.

Gu Weiwei looked up at the man who had been standing next to her for a long time. “When did you come in?”

“Just now.” Gu Siting smiled elegantly.

Gu Weiwei wiped her hands and said, “The cake is ready, shall we have red wine steak for dinner?”

“Sure.” Gu Siting nodded with a smile.

Gu Weiwei asked as she was dealing with the vegetables and fruits, “How well done would you like it?”

“Medium well.”

With his arms crossed, Gu Siting leaned against the door and watched the girl in the kitchen as if she were the most beautiful scenery in the world.

Gu Weiwei busied herself with the vegetables and started to cook the steak. Soon, everything was ready.

Two plates of French red wine steaks were placed on the table, they looked very exquisite with the colorful vegetables.

Gu Weiwei carried the food to the dining room. “Can we call Mrs. Gu now?”

Gu Siting helped to carry the cake to the table and agreed to her request.

As a matter of fact, more than one hour ago, he had talked with his mother on the phone and asked her to talk with Weiwei according to her request for the time being. As for everything else, he would wait until she returned.

He set up the cake and called Mrs. Gu.

He had just said a few words when he turned around and saw Gu Weiwei rummaging through her handbag.

He covered the phone and asked, “What are you looking for?”

Gu Weiwei scratched her head and said, “Painkillers, I have a headache.”

Gu Siting thought for a while. “Maybe they’re in the car.”

“Oh, I will go and have a look,” Gu Weiwei said and asked him for the car keys.

Gu Siting gave her the phone and said, “Talk with mother, I will go and find them.”

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile, took the phone and started to search for the birthday candles as she said, “Mother Gu, I thought that I would be able to see you and grandpa, but you were both not here.

“It is my brother’s birthday today, and you are so cruel to leave us by ourselves.”

....

Hearing her whining to her mother, Gu Siting smiled, grabbed the car keys and went to find the painkillers for her.

With the phone in her hand, Gu Weiwei glanced at the living room as she was talking.

Gu Siting had remembered correctly that she took the pills in the car but it took him a long while before he found them.

When he found the medicine, Gu Weiwei and Mrs. Gu had already switched to the video-chat mode, she was proudly showing off the cakes and French food they made.

He put the medicine on the table and saw them chatting happily, so he poured her a cup of water and put it on the table so that she could take the medicine later.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at him and said to Mrs. Gu, "Mother Gu, say happy birthday to brother, we are going to eat now."

Having said these words, she pointed the phone at Gu Siting.

Mrs. Gu waved at Gu Siting through the phone and said with a complicated expression, "Happy birthday, Siting."

Gu Weiwei took back the phone and waved at the woman on the phone.

"Bye, Mother Gu, come home soon."

Mrs. Gu agreed with a smile and waved goodbye to her.

Gu Weiwei rang off, placed the phone on the table, lit the candles and sang the birthday song excitedly.

"Why don't you make a wish and blow out the candles?"

Gu Siting gazed at the smiling girl opposite him and did not come back to himself for a long while.

Gu Weiwei looked at this distracted man curiously. "Brother, have you made a wish?"

Gu Siting closed his eyes, made a wish and blew out the candles.

Gu Weiwei clapped her hands and said as she raised the wine glass, "Happy Birthday, Brother!"

Gu Siting snatched away her wine glass. "You need to take the medicine later."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, picked up the cup of water and said, "Happy birthday."

Gu Siting clinked glasses with her. "Thank you for coming home, thank you for the cake and thank you for the red wine steak."

Gu Weiwei smiled and picked up the knife and fork. "Eat up, the food is getting cold."

Having said these words, she cut a small piece for himself and squinted in satisfaction.

Gu Siting took a bite and looked at the woman opposite him.

"It's very tasty."

Gu Weiwei smiled and said as she was cutting the steak, "I am going skiing in Switzerland with Yuan Meng at the end of the month, can I go out soon?"

Gu Siting smiled. "You are still injured, stay at home and take a rest."

Her memory had just returned to this time, but the real time was four or five years later.

Also, Yuan Meng was at Fu Hanzheng's place in Hua Land, and she might not be able to meet her. But if she did, she would cause some trouble.

Before everything was settled, he must not allow anyone else to do anything.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment and finally compromised.

"When is Yanyan coming home? I haven't seen her for ages and I thought that I would be able to see her."

"She is filming abroad and won't be back for a while," Gu Siting said calmly.

He thought that when the matter of the Fu Family was solved, he must find an opportunity to tell her about Ling Yan.

Of course, he could not say that Ling Yan had caused her death and she had already been killed.

But Ling Yan was never going to show up again, so he had to give her a reasonable explanation.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei sighed in disappointment.

"So I can't meet anyone or go anywhere during this period of time?"

Gu Siting thought for a while and said with a smile, "I will go out with you after you get better."

Gu Weiwei looked at him for a long while and asked, "Brother, what is wrong with you?"

"Why, am I too smooth?" Gu Siting smiled elegantly.

"We have not been in such a friendly relationship for years..." Gu Weiwei said.

Gu Siting picked up the wine and took a sip. "I am sorry, I have been too busy to see you these past few years. I won't do it again."

"...Okay." Gu Weiwei sounded dubious.

They finished the food and had one slice of cake each.

"You should take the medicine." Gu Siting reminded her.

Gu Weiwei poured out some pills and took them before tidying up the table.

Gu Siting was about to help when Weiwei accidentally scratched the back of his hand when picking up the fork, causing him to bleed a little.

"Are you okay? I will go and get the medicine," Gu Weiwei said nervously.

Gu Siting looked up. "I am fine, it's just a scratch."

"Then you can take a seat on the sofa, I will be done soon," Gu Weiwei said and carried the plate to the kitchen.

When she finished the dishes and came out of the kitchen, Gu Siting was already fast asleep on the sofa with one hand over his forehead.

"Brother Siting?"

"Gu Siting?"

....

However, Gu Siting did not respond to her at all.

1790 Frightened

In the capital of Hua Land.

Fu Shiyi noticed that his brother had gone out for a couple of hours, and he asked with a serious face when he returned, "Brother, where have you been going these days? Please tell us."

"I've been meeting some important people." Fu Hanzheng came out of the car and asked him, "Any valuable clues?"

Fu Shiyi sighed and shook his head.

"That woman seems to have disappeared with the child, and we are still turning the capital upside down, looking for her.

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and looked thoughtful.

"It is better to find another way."

"Another way? What way? Why didn't you tell me earlier?" Fu Shiyi suddenly became energetic.

Fu Hanzheng looked at him for a few seconds. "You don't have to know anything, and you are of no help either."

"I..." Fu Shiyi pointed at himself and got so annoyed that he put his hands over his waist. "How do you know that I can't help if you don't tell me anything?"

"I know you well." Fu Hanzheng glanced at him coldly.

Fu Shiyi felt wronged. "Brother, do you dislike me?"

"That is very obvious," Fu Hanzheng said and walked towards Yuan Meng's car.

Before he approached her, Yuan Meng and Lei Ning had already gotten out of the car.

"I have got news that our men have found that woman."

"Where are they?" Fu Hanzheng suddenly turned serious.

Although he felt that this piece of news might have been for nothing, they must not give up hope of saving the child.

"Get in the car, we will talk in the car," Yuan Meng said and went into the driver's seat.

Lei Ning drove another car whilst Fu Shiyi and Fu Hanzheng went into Yuan Meng's car so that they could talk with each other.

Yuan Meng started the car, made a turn and drove off.

“We’re not 100 percent sure yet, but I have someone following her in the dark.”

Fu Shiyi’s legs shook as he sat in the passenger’s seat.

“Hopefully it won’t be for nothing again. My little heart can’t help but be anxious after so many times.”

“It is always good to have news.” Yuan Meng said as she was driving.

Sitting in the back seat, Fu Hanzheng did not utter a sound. But judging from his serious expression, he was even more nervous than they were.

Ten minutes later, Lei Ning’s voice arose from the phone.

“We are sure that the woman has a child in the car, but we are not sure if she is the person we are looking for, because we don’t know what she looks like.”

Hearing the words, Fu Hanzheng said to Yuan Meng directly, “Get them to report the location.”

Yuan Meng repeated what he said and soon told him where the suspect was.

Fu Hanzheng’s phone rang. He checked the text and said joyfully, “Go to the apartment we emptied at the beginning.”

“What?” Yuan Meng could not believe her ears.

What were they doing going to the empty house when the suspect was already confirmed?

Fu Hanzheng ignored her astonishment and said calmly, “Let Lei Ning and some of his men follow the other woman in the dark, the rest will follow us there.”

“You have to tell me why you are going there, okay?” Yuan Meng threw a look at this man who looked thoughtful.

“That person is probably the one who took Youyou away, and she is heading towards that direction.” Fu Hanzheng looked at the night sky outside the window and said coldly, “We have already searched the place twice, and so it is actually a very safe place for them.”

1791 Youyou Rescued

Hearing Fu Hanzheng's words, Yuan Meng thought for one minute and took a shortcut to the apartment that had been emptied twice before.

She not only arranged her men downstairs, but also sent two groups of men to hide in the two houses.

Lei Ning, on the other hand, brought her men to join those following the woman and reported the location to them.

"That woman did indeed head towards the apartment."

Yuan Meng threw a look at Fu Hanzheng after hearing the words. "It seems that they are really coming this way."

A quarter of an hour later, Lei Ning reported again.

"We are coming near the apartment."

Yuan Meng turned off the light in the room and they found their own hiding places.

"If she comes in, don't make a sound. Wait until she puts the child down."

"I will restrain the woman, you save Youyou."

....

"Okay," Fu Hanzheng answered with a low voice.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Hanzheng were hiding in the bedroom away from the cot, and Fu Shiyi was shaking from nervousness.

Fu Hanzheng frowned and turned to him and whispered, "What are you doing?"

"I am... excited." Fu Shiyi's voice was shaking too.

He truly hoped that they were able to save Youyou this time.

But he was also scared that their hopes would be dashed again.

"One more sound and I will throw you out of the window." Fu Hanzheng warned coldly.

Fu Shiyi covered his mouth and did not dare to move a muscle.

Soon Yuan Meng received the news that the woman had driven up to the apartment and whispered to Fu Hanzheng, "She is here, we will probably see her in a few minutes."

This time, they might truly catch her.

But she just could not understand why this woman was here with Youyou.

After all, they had not found her hiding place, but she had snuck back to this place with the child.

Honestly, she truly had no idea what they were up to.

But whatever, as long as she was here, they could save the child.

Two minutes later, Lei Ning continued with the report.

“The suspect has entered the elevator with the child.”

Yuan Meng rang off and said to Fu Hanzheng, “She is here, don’t make a sound.”

Having said these words, she found a place to hide herself.

Everyone in the room was waiting for the woman with bated breath.

Three minutes later, someone opened the door.

Then the light in the living room turned on. The woman put the child into the cot and hurried to the bathroom.

The moment she entered the bathroom, Yuan Meng came out of her hiding place and waited for her outside the bathroom.

Fu Hanzheng, on the other hand, went to the baby’s cot and felt a lump in his throat when he saw the baby who resembled him so much. He swept the baby into his arms excitedly and kissed the child’s soft hair.

“Brother, it is not safe here, let’s go out first.” Fu Shiyi reminded him.

Fu Hanzheng nodded and was about to leave with the child.

But he had just taken two steps when the door of the bathroom was opened. A foreign woman with brown hair saw the two men and got startled for a moment before coming to get the child.

“You...”

However, before she finished the words, Yuan Meng kicked her back into the bathroom.

Fu Hanzheng left the apartment with his son, went into the elevator and went downstairs.

Fu Shiyi, on the other hand, made a call to the old mansion and to Fu Shiqin, informing them that Youyou had been rescued.

While Yuan Meng and Lei Ning were catching the woman, Fu Hanzheng had already taken the child downstairs.

Little Youyou seemed to have recognized the man too. With his arms around Fu Hanzheng's neck, he looked very cute.

Fu Hanzheng kissed the child's forehead and mumbled, "I am sorry, son."

With his arms around his neck, Little Youyou moved his lips and uttered a small sound, "Baba~"

Startled, Fu Hanzheng looked down at the little boy in his arms in disbelief.

The boy blinked, smiled and called out again, "Baba~"

Fu Hanzheng could not help but tear up, feeling both glad and sad.

He was glad that his son was finally found, but sad that his son had had to suffer for so many days.

Fu Shiyi followed him into the car and saw Youyou in his brother's arms. He tried to reach out for him several times but failed.

Ten minutes later, Yuan Meng swaggered out of the apartment, went into the car and said, "The woman has been caught, I'll leave her to Lei Ning."

"Let's go to He Chi's hospital first." Fu Hanzheng urged with a cold voice.

The child had been in someone else's hands for half a month, so he had to do a physical examination to make sure that he was doing well.

Yuan Meng sat down in the driver's seat, took a look at the child in his arms and drove them away.

After a long while, Fu Hanzheng made a call with one arm around the child and the other hand holding the phone.

The first call was to Fu Shiqin. "Go to He Chi's hospital now, and get a helicopter to wait for me at the airport."

"To the hospital, is Youyou injured or sick?" Fu Shiqin asked nervously.

Fu Shiqin immediately picked up when he heard that the boy was saved.

He had thought that they were going back to the old mansion and were going to join them there.

"He has no obvious wounds, it's just a physical examination," Fu Hanzheng said.

Fu Shiqin let out a long sigh of relief. "Okay, let's meet at the hospital. I will arrange the helicopter."

His brother was planning to take the child to the hospital for a physical examination and then fly directly to A Land to pick up his sister-in-law.

After all, if it had not been because of the boy, he would not have allowed sister-in-law to visit the Gu Family.

Now that Youyou was here, the first thing he was going to do was to pick up his sister-in-law from A Land.

Yuan Meng did not utter a word until he finished the call.

"Don't you find it strange? What was that woman doing here with Youyou?"

"I think that Weiwei and the others must have done something there," Fu Hanzheng said.

That woman had been well hidden with the boy, but now she was exposed and returned to the place they had been to before.

He did not think that Gu Siting would release his son out of kindness.

He had been out of touch with Weiwei for more than ten days. Although Yuan Shuo kept saying that she was fine, yet the anxiety inside him told her that something must have happened.

Also, it was something they did not want him to know.

Yuan Meng drove them all the way to the hospital and He Chi and Fu Shiqin were already waiting for them in the underground parking lot.

The group carried the child directly to the pediatrics department, where the doctor was already waiting for them. They did a detailed examination of the boy.

When the examination was finished, Fu Shengying arrived at the hospital.

“What are you doing here at the hospital? How is Youyou?”

He Chi came out with the examination result and said, “He’s okay, nothing too serious. Maybe the milk powder he has been eating is not right for him, and so he has got some mild diarrhea. Also, his diaper was not changed in time and so he has a mild rash. Also... he is a bit undernourished, but he will get better with proper care.”

Hearing these words, Fu Hanzheng kissed his son’s tender face and gave the child to Fu Shiyi.

“Take him back to the mansion, I need to go now.”

Although he did not want to leave Youyou behind, yet Weiwei was still waiting for him.

1793 Sister-in-law

Seeing him leaving the child behind, Fu Shengying said angrily, “Where are you going at this hour?”

However, Fu Hanzheng ignored him and went straight to the top floor of the elevator.

Fu Shiqin threw a look at his father. “Now that Youyou is here, of course our brother has to pick up our sister-in-law!”

“Is he trying to kill himself by running off to A Land?” Fu Shengying was both angry and worried.

He knew that none of them could stop him from going to Gu Weiwei.

But the Gu Family was very powerful in A Land, and if they went there in such a hurry, they might not only fail to save the girl but also suffer.

“Dad, don’t worry, our brother won’t do anything rash,” Fu Shiqin said.

His brother was very careful about his sister-in-law.

Although A Land had always been the Gu Family’s territory, yet they were not totally unprepared.

Also, were Yuan Shuo and the Dorrans Family just there for show?

“True, let’s bring Youyou home first. This boy has become so skinny and his clothes are so dirty. Sister-in-law brought him up chubby and cute and handsome...” Fu Shiyi took hold of Youyou and kissed him on the head.

He Chi gave the medicine to Fu Shiqin and said, “The ointment is to be applied, and the other two boxes are for him to drink. Be careful with his food these days, and he will get better soon.”

Fu Shiqin took them and checked the time.

“It is late, let’s go home.”

Fu Shengying did not approve of Fu Hanzheng leaving the child behind, but he was also concerned that his eldest grandson had been wronged these days, so he did not ask anything more about Fu Hanzheng.

The three of them left the hospital with Youyou and Fu Shiqin said to Fu Shiyi in the car, “You have been holding Youyou for a long time, let me hold him.”

“Don’t argue, let’s just bring the child home.” Fu Shiyi snapped at Fu Shiqin’s outstretched paws.

Fu Shiqin could not hold him, so he took hold of Youyou’s hands and consoled him.

“Youyou, Second Uncle and Third Uncle are taking you home.”

“Sister Tiantian is waiting for you at home too.”

....

The three of them brought the boy back to the old mansion. Mrs. Fu and Old Lady, who had received the news, were both awake and waiting anxiously in the living room.

But when she heard the butler saying that they were home, she left the house in her pajamas.

Seeing Fu Shiyi coming out of the car with Youyou, she went up to him and let out a sigh of relief when she saw her eldest grandson.

“So our boy is here.”

But Weiwei’s fair and chubby child had lost weight within a couple of days and he did not look as healthy as before.

So he must have not been taken good care of these days.

“What is the result?” Old Lady asked nervously.

Fu Shiyi gave the child to Mrs. Fu and told her, “There’s nothing serious, but probably because of the milk powder not agreeing with him he is suffering from diarrhea and he has a rash. He has medicine from the hospital.

“We need to give him a bath and apply the ointment later, and feed him some medicine.”

....

Mrs. Fu’s heart still ached when she heard the words.

After all, the children had never been sick or suffered when they were taking care of them.

The Old Lady followed them for a few steps and looked back at Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin.

“Where is Hanzheng? Why is he not with you guys?”

“Youyou has been found, of course he is going to pick her up,” Fu Shiqin said.

The Old Lady nodded in agreement.

“Yes, he should go and get her.”

Since Youyou was kidnapped by Gu Siting’s men, Weiwei had to go to the Gu Family.

Now the child was safe, of course he should be brought back.

Fu Shengying was so focused upon his grandson that he did not utter a word.

Mrs. Fu coaxed Youyou as she carried him into the house and walked towards the bathroom.

“Let’s go and take a bath.”

Fu Shengying, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi soon followed her up and watched the little bun taking a bath.

Mrs. Fu washed the boy and picked him up. Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had already wrapped the boy up with the towel and carried him to the nursery to get him a new set of pajamas.

But after drying the boy and changing his clothes, they all frowned when they saw the little boy's reddened bottom.

Mrs. Fu put on the ointment and said angrily, "Gu Siting's men must have found him troublesome, so they kept him in diapers all the time. They did not change them in time, which is why the child is covered in a rash."

Children had tender skin and if they wore diapers for too long, they might get diaper rash.

"They only wanted to kidnap the child, not take care of him," Fu Shiqin said fiercely.

He was going to tell Lei Meng and his men to deal harshly with the two kidnappers.

Mrs. Fu helped the child get dressed and kissed him repeatedly.

"I am sorry, it is my fault that I did not keep my eye on you."

If the child had not been found, she would not have been able to survive.

"Alright, it is getting late, give him some food and medicine so he can sleep." Fu Shengying urged them.

"Yes, yes." Mrs. Fu carried the child out and asked the servant to make the milk.

He must have got a bit hungry, so he was eating the milk very happily.

Fu Shengying opened the medicine and helped to feed it to the child.

Fu Shiqin checked the time and said, "Dad, mom, grandma, sleep early, I am going back to the company."

"Still going to work at this hour?" Mrs. Fu asked.

He had been working very hard in the company these days.

"I still have many things to deal with. Also, when our brother is back, I will have to follow his orders," Fu Shiqin said as he grabbed the car keys and was about to leave.

Seeing the scene, Fu Shengying glanced at Fu Shiyi.

"You go to the company too."

“Me too?” Fu Shiyi looked unwilling and complained. “I am not involved with the company, what do you want me to do?”

“Listen to your brother,” Fu Shengying said.

“Honestly, I do need someone to make me coffee.” Fu Shiqin did not want to work overtime whilst Fu Shiyi was sleeping at home, so he agreed with what Fu Shengying said.

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth. “Alright, I will go.”

He had planned to take a long nap so he could keep the children company, but now he was asked to work overtime with Second Brother.

His brother had been looking for Youyou and his sister-in-law was in A Land, so Second Brother must have been working very hard by himself at the company.

Therefore, he went with him to accompany him working overtime.

They went out and Fu Shiqin tossed the car key to him.

“Drive.”

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips and accepted the mission.

“Is it really okay for our brother to go to A Land?”

“Why not?” Sitting in the back seat, Fu Shiqin said with his eyes closed, “Ever since sister-in-law left, our brother has been looking for Youyou and making plans to pick her up.”

His brother would not have waited so long if it had not been for the boy.

While Fu Hanzheng was doing the check-up at the hospital with the child, Yuan Meng had gone straight to the rooftop of the hospital and waited for Fu Shiqin’s helicopter.

Half an hour later, the corner of her lips twitched as she watched the Boeing V-22 Osprey landing on the helipad.

Rich people did whatever they wanted. Normally, helicopters had a long range and a slow flying speed, but the Boeing V-22 Osprey was the helicopter with the highest flying speed and long range travel ability.

Normally, it would be used in the military, and he was being way too capricious to pick up his wife in this.

But it was the Fu Family who could even get a spaceship, let alone a military aircraft.

She boarded the helicopter and made a call to Yuan Shuo, telling him that the child had been rescued and she asked him what was going on.

She waited for less than an hour when Fu Hanzheng came up the stairs and boarded the helicopter.

The moment he sat down, he asked the pilot to take off.

“I still can’t reach Weiwei. What about Yuan Shuo?”

Yuan Meng thought for a while and said, “Actually, Yuan Shuo has been out of touch with Weiwei for days too, but Weiwei said that before the child is found, she can’t tell you anything unless it is a matter of life and death, so...”

But now the child was found, they did not need to conceal anything from him any more.

“How long have you all been out of touch with her?” Fu Hanzheng looked cold.

Yuan Meng shrank her neck and confessed.

“Actually, Gu Siting invested in a secret experimental project three years ago, and that project was aimed at Weiwei.”

Fu Hanzheng got increasingly startled. “A brain nerve research project?”

“It is an experiment of the cerebral cortex and the hippocampus. I heard that it is caused by the stimulation of a machine.” Yuan Meng glanced at his expression and said guiltily, “Weiwei was brought to the lab by Gu Siting, but I am not sure about the exact situation.”

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and urged the pilot.

“Faster.”

Although he was very angry that he did not know about it until now, he knew that it was not her and Yuan Shuo’s fault. Weiwei was worried that if he knew about her situation, he would give up his son to save her.

So she asked Yuan Shuo to conceal everything about her at the Gu Family.

He had guessed that Gu Siting must have another purpose, since he had tried so hard to get her back.

But he had not expected that he had been preparing for this day three years ago.

Although it sounded ridiculous that someone was interfering with someone else's memory, yet Gu Siting had succeeded in the research and he was not going to bring Weiwei back for no reason.

But if the experiment succeeded, what would happen to Weiwei?

"Yuan Shuo and Cayman tried their best to stop her, but because of the child... Weiwei had to obey Gu Siting's request," Yuan Meng said helplessly.

"Where is she now?" Fu Hanzheng asked with a low voice.

"Xixia Villa of the Gu Family, in a valley on the western outskirts. Yuan Shuo and Cayman are already heading there." Yuan Meng threw a discreet look at him and said, "I have been there once. You can stop the helicopter on the lawn outside the villa."

Unlike business planes and passenger planes, the helicopter did not need to glide to the ground. Instead, it could rise and land vertically and did not need a landing strip.

1796 Fu Hanzheng's Plan

As the helicopter flew across the dark night sky, Fu Hanzheng made some calls after he finished the conversation with Yuan Meng.

Yuan Meng could tell what the plan was, but she had no idea what it was for.

It was not until he finished the call that she asked curiously, "What is the plan?"

"The plan to make the Gu Family disappear," Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

Hearing these words, Yuan Meng touched her ears and said, "I am afraid that it is not going to be easy. The Gu Family and the royal family of A Land have a very deep relationship. Shang Xu who is the first heir and Prince Zhaoqi are both very close friends. It may become a political incident between the two countries if we interfere."

The old king of the royal family of A Land was getting old and his health was getting worse.

Once the old king was gone, Shang Xu would become the new king. He and Gu Siting had been classmates from high school to university and they had been on good terms all these years.

“If Shang Xu is no longer the first heir, he will have no right to interfere with the Gu Family,” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Hearing his words, Yuan Meng said in fright, “Are you trying to bring down the first heir?”

“He’s the first in line to the throne, but some people are not convinced.” Fu Hanzheng looked at the endless night outside and whispered, “I am just offering some help to the second heir. If he takes the proposal, I can take revenge for my family and get what I need.”

Yuan Meng felt that she was not feeling well at all. Damn, this was an underground coup and he was talking about it in such a relaxed way.

But Shang Xu was a very headstrong person and he had been involved in many scandals over the years. If he was really brought down, it might be a lucky thing for the citizens of A Land.

Although Shang Xu was the first heir, yet in terms of ability, Shang Rong the second heir was better.

So it was not difficult to figure out who Fu Hanzheng was working with.

He provided financial support to Shang Rong and he would help him to get rid of the Gu Family.

It was good that they were in modern society, otherwise Fu Hanzheng would have been a traitor who tried to usurp the throne.

“Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi will not be able to take care of themselves tomorrow, let alone Gu Siting,” Yuan Meng said.

Now that the boy was rescued, Gu Siting had lost the bargaining chip that could threaten the Fu Family and Weiwei. It would be very easy for them to take Weiwei away.

Also, he might be able to get rid of the Gu Family completely.

Silent, Fu Hanzheng checked the time and realized that the helicopter was not fast enough.

So he asked the pilot in front of him, “How much longer do you need?”

“Boss, about two more hours.”

Yuan Meng knew that he was worried about Weiwei because he knew that Weiwei had been taken away by Gu Siting for the experiment, and they had not contacted each other for so many days.

“Don’t worry, as long as she is there, everything will be fine.”

Gu Siting would threaten Weiwei to do the experiment, but what he would never do was kill her.

Now the child was safe, he could bring Weiwei back and get rid of Gu Siting.

Even if Weiwei’s memory was damaged, there was still a long way to go to recover her memory, and it was not going to be immediate.

“I am afraid that she has forgotten everything and will refuse to return with us.” Fu Hanzheng sighed.

If she had forgotten about him and everything that happened during the past few years in Hua Land, she might not want to return home with them even if he took her back.

1797 Lying Again

At Xixia Villa of A Land, it was already two in the morning.

Gu Siting was woken up by the ringing of the phone. He massaged his eyebrows and answered the call.

It was from Kuroda Shio who sounded very anxious.

“President Gu, something has happened to Prince Zhaoqi, and he has not been able to reach you.”

“I get it, I will be there soon,” Gu Siting said calmly.

He rang off and threw a look at Gu Weiwei opposite him.

“Why are you still awake?”

“What happened?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Startled, Gu Siting found her tone and expression a bit weird.

“Something has happened at the company, we can go there now.”

“I don’t want to go there any more,” Gu Weiwei said.

Gu Siting did not think too much about it. He just thought that she was too tired to travel so early in the morning.

But there was no one here, and he was worried about leaving her here alone. What if something happened to her?

“Weiwei, something really important has come up. It is not safe for you to be here alone. I need to go to work.”

“I am not going, and... haven’t you been drinking? How are you going to drive?” Gu Weiwei reminded him.

Gu Siting sighed and smiled elegantly.

“Look at me, I almost forgot about that. How about you drive? It is not that far anyway,” he said as she got up to pour herself a cup of water.

Gu Weiwei sat there with a cold expression. “I don’t want to go, and... I don’t think you need to go either.”

Gu Siting took a sip of water and said helplessly, “Weiwei, not today, I need to go to the company for something important.”

It was a critical moment and nothing must happen to Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi. If something happened to them, he and Gu’s Enterprise would be affected too.

Therefore, he had to deal with it personally.

Gu Weiwei looked indifferent.

She thought that Prince Zhaoqi was not the only thing that would be troubling him today.

Gu Siting picked up the coat and glanced at the girl who was not yet ready to leave.

“I know that it is very difficult for you to follow us out at this hour, but we must leave now.”

As he was talking, Kuroda Shio called again.

He turned around and reached out for Gu Weiwei.

“Weiwei, listen to me, now is not the time to be stubborn.”

Gu Weiwei dodged Gu Siting's hand. "I am not going, and... you don't have to go either. There is more than one problem today."

"Weiwei, what is wrong with you?" Gu Siting squinted. The girl in front of him looked way too different from the night before.

Or was she thinking of something else?

"Nothing," Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Gu Siting's expression sank. "Then why are you still sitting here? Something urgent has come up."

He had just finished his words when Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans came in from outside, followed by Matthew and Kuroda Keiko.

Gu Siting frowned as he saw the uninvited guests. "What are you doing here?"

Weren't they at the old mansion?

Also, he had been careful not to be followed when he was here, so why were they here?

It was not a good time for Weiwei to have too much contact with them.

Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans walked straight into the living room and sat down.

Gu Weiwei looked up at Gu Siting slowly. "I asked them to come."

Gu Siting's eyes sparkled. If she had forgotten what happened in Hua Land, she would not have remembered that they were at the old mansion.

And she would not even know Cayman Dorrans.

Yet she was not surprised by their arrival. Could it have been...

Seeing his shocked expression, Gu Weiwei sneered.

"Are you surprised that I know they are at the old mansion?"

If Gu Siting still could not understand what was going on, then all his years of being deceptive would have been in vain.

He spoke with a shaking voice.

“Weiwei, you were lying to me again.”

No wonder she looked so different after she woke up. She had thought of everything.

Or rather, she had never lost her memory.

She had been putting on a show for him and he truly believed her words.

Gu Weiwei smiled deeply. “After all, actors should not work for nothing.”

Of course she was not suffering from memory loss as he had expected. It was just that after she understood the consequences of the instrument, she started to behave as if she were suffering from memory loss.

That way he would believe that she had forgotten everything in Hua Land and become the Gu Weiwei he desired to see.

In this way, he would not allow her to continue with the experiment and he would also lower his guard so that she would have the chance to get hold of his phone, and find the woman who was holding Youyou in Hua Land.

Gu Siting shook his head. He just could not believe that the experiment he had spent three years on had failed with her.

“Impossible, impossible, the experiment was successful, why haven’t you forgotten about it, why haven’t you...”

She has not revealed a single flaw these days from the look of her eyes to the details of her words, but she has been putting on a show for him.

She had lied to him once before and he had been very careful, but he was still fooled once again.

Gu Weiwei looked at this man who refused to believe reality with a cold face. That experiment had given her an occasional headache, but it had not affected her memory.

However, in order to lower Gu Siting’s guard, she acted as if she had lost her memory.

At the beginning, Gu Siting did not believe her, but a few days ago, he truly believed that she had lost her memory.

Yuan Shuo threw a look at her. Even he and Cayman almost believed that she truly had lost her memory, let alone Gu Siting.

It was not until a few hours ago when they received her call that they confirmed that she was not under Gu Siting’s control.

Gu Siting gritted his teeth and warned her.

“Weiwei, don’t forget that I still have the child.”

“He’s still with you?” Gu Weiwei smiled and asked, “Are you sure?”

Gu Siting felt a bit uneasy. He threw a look at them and made a call.

However, no one answered the call.

A long while later, an unfamiliar man’s voice arose from the speaker.

Gu Siting did not get it at first, but asked, “Where is the child?”

“The child is at my home.”

Startled, Gu Siting realized that it was Fu Hanzheng’s voice.

That was the phone number of the woman with the child. Since Fu Hanzheng had the phone, the child must have returned to the Fu Family.

He rang off and looked at Gu Weiwei opposite him.

“They would expose themselves without my orders, and Fu Hanzheng would have never found them on his own.”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “It is very simple. I just needed to imitate your voice and make a call to tell her that she has been exposed. Then we can specify a place for her to hide and she will deliver the child straight to us.”

It was very difficult to find her in Hua Land.

But as long as Gu Siting made a call, everything would be solved.

Apart from acting, she was also very talented in dubbing.

After a long while, Gu Siting sighed.

“I have underestimated you after knowing you for more than twenty years.”

She was able to lie to him through acting, so of course she could lie to the woman over the phone too.

“You flatter me.” Gu Weiwei smiled calmly.

Gu Siting glanced at Gu Weiwei and Cayman Dorrans and showed a cold smile.

“But even if you can save the child, it doesn’t necessarily mean that you have won.”

“Gu Siting, if the child were not in your hands, I would not have tolerated you for so long.” Cayman Dorrans looked lethal.

He had wanted him dead the moment he knew that he had kidnapped Weiwei’s child.

But Weiwei’s child was in his hands and her life was at stake too, so he had been tolerating him.

“Even if the child is no longer with me, what do you plan to do with me?” Gu Siting sneered.

He had always feared Cayman Dorrans, but Cayman Dorrans did not dare to kill him. After all, his life was related to Weiwei’s too.

“I don’t care if I win or not, I have done everything I can,” Gu Weiwei said.

She had saved Youyou and she did not lose her memory as Gu Siting had wished.

Yuan Shuo looked at Gu Siting who was not convinced. “I think that there will be more than one piece of bad news for you today.”

What he had discovered was that Weiwei had lied to him and the child had been rescued by Fu Hanzheng. Gradually, more and more things were going to happen.

Gu Siting checked the time and said, “It has just been a couple of hours, what else can you do?”

But he had also started to suspect that they were behind what happened to Prince Zhaoqi.

Also, was she trying to stall for time by stopping him from leaving?

Yuan Shuo smiled. “It would be boring if I reveal some things now.”

Seeing the ringing phone, Gu Siting grabbed the car keys and was about to leave.

Although he did want to bring Weiwei away too, she had not forgotten a thing about Hua Land, so she was never going to leave with him.

And without the child as his bargaining chip, she would never leave with him.

But he had no time to argue with them right now. He had to deal with Prince Zhaoqi so that Fu Hanzheng would not counter-attack.

After all, Fu Hanzheng had not dared to do anything before because the child and Weiwei were at the Gu Family.

Now the child was saved and Weiwei was no longer under his control, what was going to happen next was Fu Hanzheng's revenge against the Gu Family.

At this moment, he must not let anything happen to Prince Zhaoqi and his men, or he would lose one more helper.

But the moment he stepped out of the door, he saw a flash of light above the villa, followed by the sound of a helicopter.

Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo were already here, who would come to Xixia Villa at this hour?

In the dark night, the helicopter slowly landed on the lawn outside the villa. After the cabin door was opened, a man dressed in a custom-made black suit came out of the helicopter, looking cold.

"Fu Hanzheng, what are you doing here?" Gu Siting said with his teeth clenched.

He knew that after the child was taken away, Fu Hanzheng would come and get her out of A Land.

But what he had not expected was that he would arrive so fast.

C 1800

In the dark night, Fu Hanzheng looked at Gu Siting who was surprised by his arrival coldly.

"You kidnapped my son and coerced my wife, why can't I be here?"

Of course, he was not here for Gu Siting, but for Weiwei.

"Are you going to take revenge on me?" Gu Siting sneered and snorted. "She was raised by the Gu Family and I risked my life for her. What rights do you have to take her away from me?"

He had paid such a heavy price to get Weiwei back, but what made Fu Hanzheng be able to be so happy?

“If you were courting her in a normal and reasonable way, maybe I would have competed with you fairly.” Fu Hanzheng approached him and said with a cold voice, “But you did not. You only wanted to keep her as your own and you never cared about her feelings.”

Having said these words, he brushed past Gu Siting and walked towards the girl who was smiling at him, looking gentle.

Cayman Dorrans reminded Gu Siting after hearing what he said, “Gu Siting, Weiwei was raised by the Gu Family, but I have promised many benefits to the Gu Family over the years. She doesn’t owe you anything.”

If Weiwei had not been reborn, he would have killed him to take revenge for Weiwei.

Gu Siting, who had been about to leave, decided to stay when Fu Hanzheng arrived.

However, he made a call outside the room and asked the security guards to come to him.

Gu Weiwei was also a bit surprised at the sight of this man.

“How did you get here so fast?”

It had been just a couple of hours since she tricked that woman into bringing Youyou to the apartment.

And less than an hour ago, he picked up Gu Siting’s call.

She had thought that he was still at home, but now he was here.

He must have been on the way when Gu Siting called the female kidnapper.

“I wanted to see you as soon as possible,” Fu Hanzheng said gently.

Yuan Meng, who came in with him, pursed her lips — could they not be so clingy at this hour?

Gu Weiwei was concerned about her son and asked worriedly, “Where is Youyou? Is he at home?”

“Already at the old mansion,” Fu Hanzheng said and swept her into his arms.

“He is not sick, right?” Gu Weiwei asked.

“He just has a rash and a little bit of diarrhea, but he’s already been checked at the hospital.” Fu Hanzheng knew that she was worried about her son, so he told her everything she cared about.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei finally felt relieved.

Luckily, Youyou was home safe and sound.

Gu Siting had been about to leave when Fu Hanzheng returned to the room.

But the moment he saw the two of them hugging each other, he looked very jealous.

Fu Hanzheng certainly noticed Gu Siting’s hostility, so he patted Gu Weiwei’s back and whispered, “You and Yuan Meng wait for me in the helicopter, leave everything here to me.”

“But...”

Fu Hanzheng gave her his phone and said with a gentle voice, “My family is very worried. Go and make a video call to the old mansion and check up on Youyou and Tiantian. They miss you dearly.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and threw a look at Yuan Shuo and Cayman Dorrans. They were all men on her side and Gu Siting would not be a threat any more.

So she and Yuan Meng left the living room and were about to wait in the helicopter outside.

Unconvinced, Cayman Dorrans glanced at Matthew sideways.

“Go out with them.”
