

My Hidden Wife is Sweet

C 1801

Accompanied by Yuan Meng and Matthew, Gu Weiwei left the room and went into Fu Hanzheng's helicopter.

Yuan Meng kept looking towards the house and mumbled, "Are you really not staying?"

"What is there to see?" Gu Weiwei said as she made a video call to Mrs. Fu.

For her, saving the child did not mean that she had to do the revenge that Gu Siting expected.

As for everything else, she would leave it to Fu Hanzheng.

Instead of getting into the helicopter, Yuan Meng smoked a cigarette and asked her when she finished the video call with Mrs. Fu, "Oh yes, did you really not get affected by Gu Siting's experiment?"

"No, just an occasional headache," Gu Weiwei said.

Yuan Meng exhaled and mumbled in confusion, "If the experiment had not been successful, Gu Siting would not have forced you to take part in the experiment. That would have also worked."

"Why do I feel that you actually wanted me to forget everything?" Gu Weiwei snorted.

Yuan Meng flicked the cigarette. "No, I don't mean it like that. But Fu Hanzheng was worried that you would not recognize him when he arrived here."

Luckily, she had not forgotten anything.

"I think that it has something to do with my body constitution and willpower," Gu Weiwei said.

After all, the experiment had not affected her that badly.

As she left the villa, the air became full of anger.

Gu Siting hated Fu Hanzheng for taking away the love of his life, and Fu Hanzheng hated Gu Siting for kidnapping his son and threatening his beloved wife.

Although they were silent, yet the look in their eyes suggested that they were in a silent contest.

Fu Hanzheng sat down on the sofa, crossed his long legs and looked at Gu Siting who hated him deeply.

Gu Siting looked at him coldly. "You are here just to stare at me."

"Of course not, I am here to see you fail miserably." Fu Hanzheng smiled coldly.

The moment he finished his words, Gu Siting's phone rang.

He had not wanted to answer the call, but when he saw that it was from Prince Zhaoqi he answered.

"Gu Siting, what are you still doing? Before I could press down the matter here, Shang Xu's embezzlement of public funds and the sexual assault of the female assistant have been exposed by the media affiliated to the Gu Family. What do you want?"

"Media affiliated to the Gu Family? Impossible!" Gu Siting said as he looked at Fu Hanzheng with his teeth clenched.

He understood that it was all Fu Hanzheng's fault.

"If this matter is not solved today, we are all doomed," Prince Zhaoqi said furiously.

Gu Siting rang off and said to Fu Hanzheng, "Fu Hanzheng, what are you doing? A businessman trying to control domestic affairs?"

The old king was not feeling well these past two years, and Shang Xu was going to be appointed as heir soon.

Now when such a huge scandal was revealed, it would definitely cause an uproar domestically and the people would not accept such a person as their ruler.

"I am just a businessman, I'm not involved in politics." Fu Hanzheng sneered.

However, he had provided financial support to Shang Rong, the rival of Shang Xu and Zhaoqi, and so did Cayman Dorrans.

Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi were the strongest supporters of the Gu Family in the royal family, and if they were not removed, Gu Siting's influence in A Land would hardly be removed.

He had planned to work with Shang Rong to control Gu Siting so he could save Youyou and Weiwei, but Weiwei helped him to get the child out first.

Without any bargaining chip to coerce them, Gu Siting was totally helpless.

The call from Prince Zhaoqi made Gu Siting a bit anxious.

If Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi lost power, he and Gu's Enterprise would be affected.

But now, the child had been rescued by the Fu Family and he had lost the bargaining chip that could threaten Fu Hanzheng.

The moment he rang off, Kuroda Shio called.

"President Gu, because the major shareholders of the company have heard about Shang Xu's scandal, they all want to withdraw their shares!"

Since Shang Xu was the first heir of the royal family of A Land and he was going to be appointed soon, he was going to be the next king of A Land.

Also, he had a close relationship with the Gu Family, so no one in A Land had been able to stop the Gu Family.

Gu Siting thought for a moment and said, "Now, Blue Plan B."

"President Gu, this..." Kuroda Shio was shocked and asked further, "What happened?"

"Don't ask, just follow the plan. And... pick up mother and grandfather," Gu Siting said with a low voice.

If it was just a scandal, they just needed to press down the news.

But if Fu Hanzheng and Cayman Dorrans were behind the scenes, they would not let the matter go.

If Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi lost power, Gu's Enterprise would suffer too.

Therefore, when they were still able to get the capital back, they should get the capital back to reduce the losses instead of doing the PR for them.

As for Blue Plan B, it had always been a confidential plan of the company, a plan to recover the capital when necessary.

He knew that he would not be able to get away now, and without the child as the bargaining chip, he would not be able to resist the revenge of Fu's Enterprise and the Dorrans Family.

But he had to make proper arrangements for the Gu Family as well as the remaining years of his mother and grandfather.

He finished the conversation with Kuroda Shio and said to Fu Hanzheng coldly, "Fu Hanzheng, I did not lose to you, I lost to Weiwei."

If Weiwei had not lied to him, Fu Hanzheng might not have won.

He had known that she would have to return to him, but she had also lied to him and helped Fu Hanzheng to deal with him.

The Gu Family and the Fu Family had been enemies for decades, but those were all grudges from the previous generation. Only he truly hated Fu Hanzheng sitting in front of him.

Because he had taken away what he wanted most of all.

"I will not let Shang Xu become the new king of A Land, and I will not give you any chance to make a comeback." Fu Hanzheng stood up and said coldly, "Since you spent so much time and money on the research, you should try it yourself."

Gu Siting also stood up and removed the watch on his wrist.

"Fu Hanzheng, do you think that you have already won?"

"At least you have lost," Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

"Is that so?" Gu Siting showed a very cold smile and said, "I know that I will not have a second chance to bring her back, but... I will not let you take her away either."

"What do you think you can do now?" Fu Hanzheng said indifferently.

Holding the watch tightly, Gu Siting sneered cruelly.

"I made up my mind before she came back. If I can't keep her by my side, I will never let you have her, even if I have to die with her.

"At that time, I implanted a mini bomb in myself. As long as I press the button on the watch, she and I will die."

....

1803 Home

Hearing his words, Cayman Dorrans and Yuan Shuo both turned pale.

Yuan Shuo took a step forward and was about to grab the watch when Gu Siting pressed the button.

Gu Siting had already pressed the button and fallen onto the sofa, unable to move.

But he did not explode and die as he had expected.

“How... could that be?”

Fu Hanzheng looked down at the man who was sitting on the sofa. “What you implanted is not a mini-bomb, but a mini-narcotic. The institute of the mini-bomb happens to have a private collaboration with the Fu Family, so... what you bought is a forgery.”

If his life was not related to Weiwei's, he would not care how many times he died.

Ever since he knew that Weiwei was reborn because of him, he had been paying extra attention to his every move.

When he was about to buy the mini-bomb, he had guessed that he was either going to use it on himself or Weiwei, so he had replaced it ages ago.

Startled, Yuan Shuo wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead.

“Why didn't you tell me earlier? You startled me.”

He had thought that Gu Siting would die, in which case Weiwei would die too.

But he had been prepared.

“After all, the fewer people know about the secret, the better.” Fu Hanzheng smiled.

Gu Siting had thought that he did it discreetly, but what he had not known was that he had known about it from the beginning.

During the past few years, he had not touched the Gu Family, because he was waiting for his partner Shang Rong to stabilize so that he could get rid of the Gu Family as well as Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi.

However, according to their original plan, everything would not start until the end of the year.

But because Youyou was kidnapped by Gu Siting and Weiwei was forced to return to the Gu Family, they had to bring the plan forward.

But Weiwei helped her son out of danger first, so everything would go smoothly.

Gu Siting bellowed hysterically when he failed to kill himself.

“Fu Hanzheng, even if I don’t die this time, I will take her with me one day, one day...”

While saying the words, Gu Yun Che came in.

“Mr. Gu, from the moment we made the deal, I decide when your life ends.”

Seeing the embarrassed Gu Siting, Fu Hanzheng said to Yuan Shuo, “Lei Meng will stay and help you. From today on, he will not have any freedom, but... he must live well.”

“That is my business.” Gu Yun Che reminded him.

Fu Hanzheng bowed to Gu Yun Che and left Xixia Villa.

Gu Weiwei smiled as she saw the man coming out.

“Are you done already?”

“Yes.” Fu Hanzheng sat down in the helicopter, took her hands and said gently, “We can go home now.”

“Then I won’t go home with you guys today,” Yuan Meng said.

Fu Hanzheng nodded, closed the cabin door and asked the pilot to take off.

The helicopter took off slowly from the lawn, and as it took off, the morning sun rose and shone into the helicopter.

Fu Hanzheng gripped the hands of the woman next to him and gazed at his wife who was leaning against him, unwilling to look away.

Exhausted, Gu Weiwei fell asleep leaning against him.

When she woke up, the helicopter had already landed on the top floor of the hospital.

“Where are we?”

Fu Hanzheng helped her down. “You need a physical examination at He Chi’s hospital.”

Although the experiment did not affect her that much, yet he would still feel more assured after the examination.

Gu Weiwei was displeased. "You suspect that my brain is damaged too?"

"Better to be safe than sorry, we can go home after the examination," Fu Hanzheng said.

However, after they entered the elevator, Fu Hanzheng pressed the button for He Chi whilst Gu Weiwei pressed the button for the parking lot.

"I want to visit Youyou and Tiantian first."

"We will go home after the examination." Fu Hanzheng insisted.

"But I am so tired now, can't you just let me rest for a couple of days?" Gu Weiwei complained.

She had not had a proper sleep since the day when Youyou was kidnapped, and when Gu Siting brought her away for the experiment, she did not dare to fall asleep at all.

She got even more tired after taking a nap on the plane for a few hours.

Most importantly, she wanted to see the two children as soon as possible. She had not seen them for almost a month.

Fu Hanzheng sighed helplessly, chose to compromise and decided to bring her home for some rest.

1804 Cute Voice

When they returned to the Fu Family's mansion, it was already eight in the morning.

Mrs. Fu had just helped the two children get dressed and asked the nursery master to make the milk when she heard the butler saying that Master Fu was home.

So she came out with Youyou in her arms.

"Youyou, look, mom is home!"

Gu Weiwei took over her son and kissed his forehead, showing him obvious love.

Fu Hanzheng took over the baby girl so she could see everything.

"Youyou called me Dad before."

Gu Weiwei looked at her son in her arms in surprise. "So you can call out dad now?"

With hands gripping her clothes, the boy called out to her when he heard her mentioning his father.

“Baba, baba...”

Hearing his son calling him father with a cute voice, Fu Hanzheng felt his heart warming up.

Mrs. Fu was very pleased. “You can call out dad now, but in one or two months, you can call out grandpa and grandma.”

Gu Weiwei helped her son to sit down on the sofa and guided him gently as he sat on her legs.

“Youyou, call me mom, okay?”

The boy blinked and called out to her with a cute voice.

“Mama, mama...”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei kissed his little face excitedly.

When he called her mother, Tiantian, who was in Fu Hanzheng’s arms, followed suit.

“Mama, mama...”

Mrs. Fu chuckled. “Oh my, you little girl, you have learnt so much from your brother.”

Gu Weiwei had been feeling very tired these past few days, but soon, she was cured by the cute voices of the two little ones.

Fu Shiyi stayed up with Fu Shiqin at the company and was about to take a nap when he heard the laughter.

“What is it? You are all...” The moment he came into the living room, he saw Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei each holding a cute baby. “Brother, sister-in-law, you are back?”

He had thought that it would take them a couple of days before they returned, but it took them only a couple of hours.

“What, you have something to say about them coming home ahead of time?” Mrs. Fu squinted at him.

“I don’t have a problem with that.” Fu Shiyi looked at them and asked, “But have you finished dealing with Gu Siting?”

“He is a prisoner now, Lei Meng and Yuan Shuo are enough,” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Fu Shiyi teased Tiantian and said curiously, “Oh yes, why did that woman bring Youyou back to that apartment? That’s why we caught her red handed.”

They had not discovered where she was hiding, but she showed up and walked right into the trap. He and Fu Shiqin just could not figure it out, even after thinking about it for the entire night.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Gu Weiwei. “Weiwei made her do it, otherwise it would not have gone so smoothly.”

The Old Lady glared at Fu Shengying next to her.

He had been very displeased when Weiwei went back to the Gu Family, but now he had nothing to say.

Hearing the words, Fu Shiyi glanced at his brother.

“Why does it feel like sister-in-law is doing all the hard work by herself whilst you are taking advantage of her?”

“You’re right!” Fu Hanzheng said confidently.

That was indeed the case.

Although he had planned to find another way to save her and the child, yet she had allowed them to save the child and control Gu Siting.

That was why he picked her up from Hua Land so fast.

Because she had made him totally helpless.

1805 Double Chins

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips and looked down on his own brother for three seconds.

With Youyou in her arms, Gu Weiwei said with a gentle voice, “I tricked that woman, but it was you who saved my son.”

“Our brother and you must be telepathic, that is why you are able to work so well together,” Fu Shiyi said.

When that woman was spotted, he and Yuan Meng had no time to react before his brother realized what was going on. So he led them directly to the apartment and waited for her there.

They were just talking when Fu Hanzheng's phone rang again. He picked it up and said, "I need to go to the company now."

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei said, "Then I will bring the children home."

"Go home for what? You have just returned, stay here for a few days and go home when you are well," Old Lady said.

Due to Youyou's disappearance, they had become so skinny and it seemed that they had not had a good rest.

Now Hanzheng was busy with the company and she was going home with the two children, so she and the nursery master would have to take care of the two children alone.

"It is okay, I have the help of a nursery master," Gu Weiwei said.

Mrs. Fu also tried to persuade them. "Stay here for two or three days and take a good rest. I will make some soup to nourish your body, and then you can go home."

"True, sister-in-law, if we can look after the children here, you can have a good rest and you can see the children whenever you want. That is more convenient," Fu Shiyi said and glanced at Fu Shengying. "Don't you think so, Dad?"

Fu Shengying leafed through the newspaper and whispered, "Okay, stay here for the time being."

Their grandson had just returned and if they took him away, they would not be able to see him again.

It was not a big deal to stay here for a few days. He could see his grandchildren and they could take a rest too.

Since she helped to save his grandson this time, he was not that prejudiced against her any more.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and agreed with Mrs. Fu and Old Lady.

"You can stay here for the time being. I am busy at the company and I can't go home with you to take care of the child. It is more convenient for you here."

What they were dealing with now was the matter of Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi from A Land so that they would not be able to make a comeback. It was not wise to relax now.

They needed to take one step after another so that they would not be able to make a comeback.

Also, they had to make sure that Shang Rong became the new king so that the Gu Family could not rise again in A Land.

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Alright, go to the company now, don't delay the important matters."

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and left in a hurry after giving her a kiss on the forehead despite the presence of the elders.

Gu Weiwei felt her face flushing. Instead of looking at the faces of the Old Lady and her family, she looked down at her son in her arms.

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady looked at each other and smiled. They were very happy to see the couple in a good relationship with a pair of lovely children.

"Alright, you must be tired after coming all the way here. Weiwei, eat some breakfast and take a rest. You have lost a great deal of weight after not getting a good rest for so many days."

"Mom, I have lost weight too!" Fu Shiyi protested.

After what happened to Youyou, his brother and sister-in-law were both worried sick, and he and Second Brother were also having a hard time too.

Second Brother was working overtime and he had been living in the company for the past six months. He had lost so much weight.

1806 Reunion

She did feel a bit tired, but she did not want to leave the two children alone, so she did not take a nap with them until the afternoon.

As the two children were sleeping soundly next to her, she fell asleep when she felt the tiredness of lying down.

Mrs. Fu did not want to disturb her rest, so when the children woke up from the afternoon nap, she carried them downstairs.

When Gu Weiwei was resting and Hanzheng was not at home, Mrs. Fu mentioned to Fu Shengying about letting Fu Hanzheng remarry her.

“Fu Shengying, you used to think that Weiwei’s relationship with the Gu Family would bring trouble to the Fu Family, but now you don’t have to worry about the Gu Family any more. Just you try and object to them remarrying!”

Before Fu Shengying said anything, Old Lady also said, “The Gu Family is on the verge of collapsing, what more can they do? If you dare to object, get out of the Fu Family!”

Fu Shengying pursed his lips. “Since you have put it this way, what else can I object to?”

He had objected before, because he had been worried that she would bring trouble to the Fu Family.

But now Gu Siting, their biggest problem, has been solved.

He did not stop them from remarrying any more. Also, it would not be a good thing if he stopped them from doing that.

He did not object to it, but Hanzheng was with her now and no one cared about his opinions.

“It’s good that you know.” Old Lady snorted.

If he still objected to them at this hour, they would really hit him.

“Then let them remarry as soon as possible. The children are already so big, it would be a joke if outsiders knew about it,” Mrs. Fu mumbled.

Fu Shengying took a sip of the tea. “It is not that urgent for them to remarry, right?”

Mrs. Fu was worried that he would change his mind.

“What do you mean? You want to go back on your words?”

“Why should I go back on my words? There are so many things to deal with at the company, and we need to find a good time to bring it up,” Fu Shengying said.

Mrs. Fu sized him up suspiciously. “Are you up to something else?”

“I...” Fu Shengying got very annoyed. He used to object to them all the time, but now when he was not objecting, they started to suspect that he was up to something.

When the matter of the Gu Family was solved, he gradually realized that the two children were more dependent upon their mother than upon Hanzheng.

He did not want his grandchildren to blame him when they grew up.

The Old Lady agreed with Fu Shengying this time. "He is right, remarrying is a very important matter. We can tell them when they are done with their work."

Mrs. Fu nodded and said to Fu Shengying, "When you have time, ask them to get the certificate next month or the month after next."

"Got it, I will tell them when I have time," Fu Shengying said.

"Don't talk nonsense with me, set a date within three days." Mrs. Fu warned.

She and the Old Lady had been worried about this matter for a long time, but because of him, they had not been able to hear Weiwei calling them mom and grandma.

Although they had been in constant contact because of the child, yet after the engagement was called off, Weiwei had been calling them Aunt and Old Lady Fu all year round. Every time she heard these forms of address, she would hate Fu Shengying.

"Alright, alright, three days, three days' time." Fu Shengying compromised.

"It is such a pity that we failed to do the wedding last time. We must make it even grander this time," Mrs. Fu mumbled with grandson in arms.

Old Lady nodded in agreement. "That is true, but we can't do it at the place we did it last time. It would be very annoying to think about what happened there."

....

So without Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng knowing a thing, they were already discussing their marriage.

1807 Missed You

Gu Weiwei slept until midnight when Yuan Meng's call woke her up.

Enduring her anger, she answered the call.

"Yuan Meng, it is so late at night, can't you check the time first?"

Hearing her words, Yuan Meng lowered her voice and asked, "Sorry for interrupting your celebration."

"Spill it." Gu Weiwei yawned and held the stuffed toy on the bed. It must have been left behind by Tiantian at lunchtime.

Yuan Meng sounded serious on the phone and said seriously, "Are you alright after Gu Siting's experiment?"

"Yes, really," Gu Weiwei answered.

Yuan Meng said on the other side of the phone, "We have investigated the lab, and most of their experiments have succeeded. Some of the secret participants have forgotten their memories too, except for you. That is so strange..."

"Why do I feel that you wanted me to forget everything?" Gu Weiwei countered.

"I am worried that you will get some later side effects or something," Yuan Meng said kindly.

Gu Weiwei let out a long sigh and looked drowsy.

"Yuan Meng, you are thinking too much. I am fine, just let me sleep, alright?"

She was not sure if it was because of the bad sleep or the experiment, but she was having a headache.

"Alright, alright, I won't disturb you any more," Yuan Meng said and rang off.

Gu Weiwei tossed away the phone and massaged her temples.

Actually, she herself did not understand why the experiment did not work on her.

Honestly speaking, she had been quite scared when she accepted the experiment.

But because of Youyou, she could not turn Gu Siting down.

Although she would get a headache after a few times, she did not forget anything.

She had been very sleepy, but after being disturbed by Yuan Meng, she could not fall asleep any more.

She picked up the phone again and checked the time. It was half past midnight.

But it seemed that Fu Hanzheng was not home yet.

She thought for a while and made a call.

Normally, when she called Fu Hanzheng, he would answer the call instantly.

Sure enough, the call went through after a few rings.

“You are awake?”

He had expected that she would sleep for a long time, so he made a call to the old mansion at dinner time. Sure enough, his mother said that she was still sleeping.

“Yes.” Gu Weiwei sat up with a pillow in her arms and asked, “Are you still busy there?”

“I have many things to deal with, I may not have time to go home until tomorrow night,” Fu Hanzheng said helplessly.

Although he had beaten Gu Siting, yet Fu’s Enterprise had suffered a great deal because of Gu Siting.

He was going to take this opportunity to make up for the losses he had suffered and to help Shang Rong with his plan in A Land.

They must not allow Shang Xu and Prince Zhaoqi to rise again so that they would never be able to make a comeback this time.

Otherwise, when they gained the upper hand, Gu Siting would be able to make a comeback too.

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei realized that she should not disturb him any more.

“Then go ahead, I need to sleep.”

If she slept until dawn broke, she would be full of energy tomorrow.

“Okay,” Fu Hanzheng answered briefly and said, “Actually... I miss you.”

“I miss you too.” Gu Weiwei chuckled.

“Then I will go home early tomorrow, take a good rest,” Fu Hanzheng whispered.

At Fu’s Enterprise in the capital city.

Fu Hanzheng had just finished the conversation with her and put down the phone when Yuan Shuo called.

He had to stop working. "What is it?"

"Although the experiment does not seem to have any effect on Weiwei, yet their experiment has worked and succeeded on many people," Yuan Shuo said and asked probingly, "Is Weiwei alright?"

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. "She is at the moment."

"There's nothing strange about her either?" Yuan Shuo asked.

Fu Hanzheng sighed helplessly. "She was too tired to do the physical examination."

He was so busy dealing with the company today because he thought that the day after tomorrow would be the day when she could go for the examination.

He had been worried, but Yuan Shuo's call made him even more worried.

If he had not talked with her on the phone and confirmed that she was doing well, he would have rushed back to the hospital for a checkup.

"Just to be safe, she still needs to do a comprehensive examination. I will send her experimental data from the experiment back home," Yuan Shuo said.

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng looked a bit serious.

Yuan Shuo stayed silent for a moment and said, "Also... Cayman hopes to meet you and Weiwei formally."

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment. "I will talk with her after we finish the matter."

"Okay, I will wait for your answer," Yuan Shuo said and rang off.

Fu Hanzheng felt increasingly uneasy when he thought of the experiment Yuan Shuo mentioned.

Fu Shiqin had taken a nap and he saw his brother's serious expression the moment he woke up.

"What is it?"

He had not fallen asleep on purpose, but because of his heavy eyelids, he took a small nap.

"Nothing," Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

“Youyou is safe and sister-in-law is here safe and sound, what are you doing looking so serious?” Fu Shiqin was confused.

Then he realized that he must be wearing this expression because he was working overtime while his wife and son were at home.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at him coldly and continued with his work.

“Get someone to watch out for the Kuroda Family.”

“Are you worried that the Kuroda Family are going to make a move?” Fu Shiqin asked.

He might have been able to save Weiwei this time, but even if he could stop Gu Siting, would they be able to keep Weiwei safe?

Neither the Fu Family nor Cayman Dorrans was a match for the Kuroda Family.

“Better be safe than sorry. After all, the Kuroda Family has been loyal to the Gu Family for so many years, they will not sit by and do nothing,” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Once Gu Siting was freed, he would rather die than be with Weiwei.

Therefore, he must not allow that to happen.

“Got it, I will ask Lei Ning to get someone to keep tabs,” Fu Shiqin said and made a call to Lei Ning, telling her what his brother ordered.

It was not something he needed to worry about. Gu Siting was still under the control of their people and Cayman Dorrans.

It was impossible for the Kuroda Family to save Gu Siting.

Unless they were able to get Gu Yun Che to help them, the Kuroda Family would not be able to do it by themselves at all.

1809 Marriage

Gu Weiwei slept all the way to the morning. She had thought that the headache would go away after sleeping.

But not only did she not get better, she was in so much pain.

Mrs. Fu helped the two children to get up and she looked worriedly at Weiwei.

“What is it? Did you not sleep well last night? Is the bed not fitting?”

“No, just a headache,” Gu Weiwei massaged her temples and said helplessly.

Mrs. Fu sighed. “Maybe you have been too tired these days, you have lost so much weight.”

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, “I will go to Grandma Fu and see if there are any painkillers.”

“I know where they are, I can get them for you,” Mrs. Fu said as she gave the boy to her and went to Old Lady’s medicine cabinet for the painkillers.

Gu Weiwei took them and ate some with water, hoping that it could help with the pain.

Although the experiment did give her a headache, it was better than forgetting everything she loved deeply.

“If you are in pain, we better visit the hospital,” Mrs. Fu said worriedly.

What she wanted was for them all to be safe and healthy, so that nothing bad would happen to them.

“Okay, Aunt,” Gu Weiwei answered with a smile.

The problem was not that serious, but the pain was very uncomfortable.

“Oh yes, when all these troublesome matters are done, you and Hanzheng can go and get your marriage certificate. I don’t want to hear you calling me Aunt all the time, it makes me uncomfortable,” Mrs. Fu mumbled.

Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment. “Getting the marriage certificate?”

Mrs. Fu looked at the living room and whispered, “That stubborn old man doesn’t object any more. Since the Gu Family is no longer a threat to the Fu Family, he has no reason to object any more.”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “Really?”

“Of course,” Mrs. Fu said.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and whispered, “Then we will get it in a few days.”

Fu Hanzheng had a lot of things to deal with, and she truly did not want him to be distracted.

“Yes, we can do it on an auspicious day,” Mrs. Fu said gladly.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and did not object.

Although Old Lady and Mrs. Fu had always supported them remarrying, Fu Shengying had always been against it.

She had not expected that he would suddenly agree.

But what he had been worried about was the Gu Family. Now that the Gu Family was declining and Gu Siting was under their control, he had no more reason to object.

“But don’t mention this to Fu Hanzheng, I will tell him myself.”

“Okay, tell him yourself.” Mrs. Fu chuckled.

Young people were always full of tricks.

Gu Weiwei smiled gratefully. If she told Fu Hanzheng about it now, he would not care about anything else and would drag her to get the certificate.

But she was thinking that when Fu Hanzheng’s birthday arrived, she could bring him to the Civil Affairs Office.

In this way, he should be able to get his favorite birthday present.

Although they kept saying that their relationship did not matter if they had the marriage certificate or not, yet it still did not feel the same.

They were just talking when Fu Shiyi got so anxious that he struck the table.

“Mom, sister-in-law, can’t we talk after dinner? We have to eat even if you don’t.”

He could tell that not only his brother, but also his mother had changed. She no longer cared about her sons, but only her daughter-in-law and the two little boys.

Since they were thinking about getting the marriage certificate on Fu Hanzheng’s birthday, Gu Weiwei did not mention anything more.

Mrs. Fu and her did not mention this topic in front of Fu Shiyi, because he could never keep secrets.

Since she had slept for more than ten hours, Gu Weiwei finally regained some energy.

The moment they came to the dining room, Mrs. Fu said to the servant, "Is the pigeon soup ready? Give it to Weiwei so she can drink it."

"Okay," the servant said and soon carried the soup to Gu Weiwei.

Fu Shiyi glanced at it and asked, "Is there any more?"

"There's one more pot, you can deliver it to Hanzheng and Shiqin later," Mrs. Fu said.

"Where is mine?" Fu Shiyi protested.

His mother was indeed excellent at making soup.

But now, she was not making soup for him.

It was so rare for her to cook for them, so why was he missed out?

Second Brother was involved, but he was not.

"I didn't cook a lot, there's just one portion for your eldest brother, second brother and your sister-in-law," Mrs. Fu said.

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips, meaning that whatever was left would be his but if there wasn't anything left, he would not be able to drink.

"You don't want me to have any but yet you want me to go and give some to Second Brother? No way, it's not fair."

He himself could not drink it, but he had to give it to them. How annoying!

Gu Weiwei said with a smile, "I can bring it to them."

"No need, let Shiyi do it, or let the driver do it. You can keep the two children company. They have not seen their mother for so many days and they keep calling out for you." Mrs. Fu glanced at her grandchildren who were sitting in the dining chairs.

After they learnt to call their mother, they had started to call out for their mother regularly in a very cute way.

"Then let me do it," Fu Shiyi said bitterly.

After breakfast, Fu Shiyi carried a thermos of soup to Fu's Enterprise.

Gu Weiwei and Mrs. Fu were playing in the children's playroom built by Fu Shengying.

The boy picked up a toy and played with it for a while before giving it to Gu Weiwei.

Mrs. Fu said concernedly, "Youyou is so clingy now."

Gu Weiwei nodded. Her son had been very calm about everything, just like Fu Hanzheng, but after she came home this time, he started to stick to her.

Mrs. Fu sighed. "He is still young, but he was able to feel your absence."

It's good that she was rescued, otherwise she would not be able to imagine what kind of life he would have without his mother.

Gu Weiwei reached out for his soft hair. "I won't let anything like this happen to them again."

"You have worked hard these days." Mrs. Fu sighed.

Ever since Youyou went missing, she and Hanzheng had been trying their best to find the child.

Luckily, Youyou was home safe and sound and so was she.

"It is all in the past." Gu Weiwei smiled.

"Weiwei, since what happened to the Gu Family is in the past, if you still want to reunite with Cayman Dorrans, please take some time to meet your family." Mrs. Fu suggested with a gentle voice.

She was adopted by the Gu Family and had never found her real father.

Now she had finally found her real father, but she could not meet her father because of the Fu Family.

They had also seen through her and Hanzheng's pretend separation, so if they were to remarry, they hoped that her family members would be at the wedding too.

Gu Weiwei looked at Mrs. Fu in astonishment and said with raised eyebrows, "Are you sure I can do that?"

"Of course! Don't worry, I have talked with that stubborn old man." Mrs. Fu knew that she was worried about Fu Shengying, and so she assured her with raised eyebrows.

Gu Weiwei took hold of Mrs. Fu's hands. "Aunt, thank you so much. When this matter is over, Hanzheng and I will set a date."

It was not the right time to deal with their affairs while he was busy dealing with work in A Land.

Mrs. Fu sighed. "Are you not going to call me mom until after you get the marriage certificate?"

Gu Weiwei chuckled. "It is not that urgent."

After all, it was not proper for them to call each other so closely.

They were just talking when the servant called out to them, "Madam, Miss Qin's here, do you want to see her?"

Mrs. Fu had been smiling gently at her grandchildren, but when she heard that the Qin Family were here, her expression sank.

Hearing the words 'Qin Family', Gu Weiwei suddenly thought of when she drugged Qin Lv with the neurotoxin.

"The poison in Qin Lv has not been cured yet?"

"No, she must have heard that you are here and come to get the antidote," Mrs. Fu said angrily.

After this incident, they would never talk with the Qin Family again.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. If the antidote had not been given, Qin Lv would have been tormented for half a month already and he would have already reached his limit.

"Let's meet and end it."

Hearing her words, Mrs. Fu said to the servant, "Please ask her to come to the living room, we will be right there."

They carried the two children out, washed their hands and went to the living room where Qin Man was already waiting for them.

Seeing them coming out with the two children in arms, Qin Man let out a long sigh of relief. It's good that their son was found, otherwise their family would still be in trouble.

"Aunt, Weiwei, we are really sorry about what happened."

"Don't apologize to me, I can't make the decision. You can petition Weiwei." Mrs. Fu had her grandson in her arms and looked serious.

Qin Man said sincerely, "I am sorry, I apologize to you on behalf of my nephew. When he recovers, my father and I will bring him to your home..."

"You are here about the antidote, aren't you?" Gu Weiwei sat down on the sofa with Youyou in her arms and said after some thought, "It is not with me today, but tomorrow morning, I will have it delivered to you."

"Tomorrow..." Qin Jiao frowned. One more day would mean one more day of suffering for Lu.

"There are several kinds of antidotes available. You can go find it yourself or get someone else to try. But if you get the wrong one, you will be in big trouble. I will get someone to deliver it to you when we return to Pearl River," Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Qin Man pursed her lips. She knew that the Qin Family were in the wrong, so she did not ask for anything more.

"Alright then, I will wait for your news tomorrow."

If she had not known that they had brought the child back and that Weiwei was here safe and sound, she would not have dared to come and ask about the antidote.

Qin Man understood that she was not welcome at the Fu Family, so she left after fulfilling her purpose for coming.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Mrs. Fu. "What are we gonna do about the Qin Family?"

"The Fu Family has withdrawn all the projects with the Qin Family, and we will never contact them again," Mrs. Fu said angrily.

Gu Weiwei found it incredible.

"You have been friends for decades, you don't have to..."

"If it were just Qin Lv alone, then it would have been fine. But with Qin Feng being involved, our families will never be able to have any relationship with each other again." Mrs. Fu snorted.

Also, it was the Qin Family's fault, and no one could blame the Fu Family for being cruel.

Thankfully their grandson was found safe and sound, otherwise the consequences would not have been so simple.

1812 Relationship

Before dinner, Fu Hanzheng came home.

Together with him came Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin.

The moment they entered the room, they lifted Youyou and Tiantian into their arms, begging them to cure them of their tiredness.

Fu Hanzheng, on the other hand, had his arm over Gu Weiwei's shoulders as they sat down on the sofa and watched the four of them fool around.

"Do you want to stay for two more days or go home today?"

"Let's go home today, Qin Man was here in the afternoon, I need to find the antidote and have it delivered to the Qin Family," Gu Weiwei said.

She had thought that after she left for A Land, they would ask Yuan Meng to give the antidote to the Qin Family.

Also, she was in such a hurry that she had forgotten about Qin Lv's poisoning.

Luckily, the dose was not large enough to cause any fatal harm, except that the pain was not easy to deal with.

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Okay, we will go home after dinner."

Since she had had a good rest, they should go back to their own place. It was way too annoying to stay with the whole family.

Mrs. Fu heard them talking about going home after dinner and objected instantly.

"Didn't you say that you are staying here for a few days? Why are you in such a hurry to go home?"

"I need to deliver the antidote to the Qin Family, and I have had enough rest, so I can go home now," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

"Aren't you going to the hospital for an examination tomorrow? Why are you going home now?" Mrs. Fu tried to persuade her.

Fu Shiqin squinted at his own mother and complained.

"Mom, they think that there are too many people here, so they can't tell each other everything..."

Before he finished the words, Gu Weiwei threw a pillow at him.

Mrs. Fu chuckled and said after some thought, "Anyway, if you want to go home, you can go home alone today. Leave the children here and come and pick them up tomorrow after the examination."

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng agreed without hesitation.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look of disdain.

In order to fall in love with his wife again, he was willing to give up his son and daughter.

Gu Weiwei thought that since she was going back to fetch the antidote for the Qin Family, and going to He Chi's hospital for examination the following morning, then she should leave them here and pick them up afterwards.

Also, when Fu Hanzheng accompanied her to the hospital tomorrow, the babies would have to be taken care of at home.

Therefore, she decided to let them stay here and pick them up tomorrow after they finished everything.

The two of them ate dinner and helped the two children to fall asleep before driving back to Pearl River.

Gu Weiwei first went to Yuan Meng's room upstairs to find the antidote and then made a call to Lei Ning to have it delivered to the Qin Family.

Soon after the call, the doorbell rang.

Thinking that Lei Ning's men were here, she went to open the door.

The moment she opened the door, she found that not only Lei Ning's men but also Yuan Meng were here.

She gave the antidote to Lei Ning's men and looked at Yuan Meng in astonishment.

"What are you doing here?"

"I am here to pack so I can move back to Italy," Yuan Meng said.

Since the matter with the Gu Family was solved, she had nothing more to do in Hua Land.

Yuan Shuo must have planned to stay in Italy for a long time, and she did not want to live separately when her son was there too.

“How is it going on in A Land?” Gu Weiwei asked.

After she came home, she slept throughout the entire day and spent the next day with her children. She did not ask much about what was happening there.

“You want to ask about the matter with the Gu Family, and if it went well, right?” Yuan Meng asked with a smile.

1813 Stripped

Gu Weiwei nodded helplessly, although Gu Siting was under control, the Gu Family had been deeply rooted in A Land for years and it was not something that could be solved within one or two days.

“We shut Gu Siting down in the lab and made him accept the experiment, but nothing has happened yet.”

But they could not kill this man and they had to prevent him from killing himself.

After all, his life was related to hers too.

“Oh yes, where is Qianqian? Didn't you say that she was injured?” Gu Weiwei suddenly thought of Luo Qianqian who had been injured at the Gu Family.

Yuan Meng pursed her lips. “She is still recuperating in A Land with Gu Yun Che.”

Gu Weiwei nodded with pursed lips. With Gu Yun Che around, she felt assured.

When she heard the news, she did not show much concern in case Gu Siting got suspicious.

So she had no idea how badly injured Luo Qianqian was.

“Mrs. Gu and Mr. Gu went home. They had wanted to see you and plead on behalf of Gu Siting, but you were already gone.” Yuan Meng went to find a can of beer and took a sip. She glanced at the empty room and said, “Where is your little boy? He is already asleep.”

“No, he is still at the old mansion. Only Fu Hanzheng and I are here.” Gu Weiwei confessed.

Yuan Meng smiled sinisterly. “Did I disturb something by coming home?”

They had been separated for more than half a month and it was not easy for them to meet each other again. It must have been a very passionate meeting.

"I am talking about something serious, stop stirring trouble!" Gu Weiwei glared at her.

Yuan Meng took a sip of the beer and said with pursed lips, "Gu Siting will never let it go, but the matter with Prince Zhaoqi and Shang Xu is not going well. After all, he is the Crown Prince and it is not going to be easy to bring him down."

"But Fu Hanzheng is good at that, don't worry."

....

"Mrs. Gu and Mr. Gu, please don't do anything to them. Gu Siting did this alone and it has nothing to do with them," Gu Weiwei said.

After all, Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu had treated her well when she was with the Gu Family.

Also, she believed that they had tried their best to stop what Gu Siting had done. But Gu Siting had never been a man who listened to advice.

"Of course. Gu's Enterprise has lost a great deal, but what they have left is enough for them to live a peaceful life," Yuan Meng said.

"Good." Gu Weiwei sighed. It seemed that Yuan Shuo had made all the necessary arrangements.

Yuan Meng went upstairs with the beer and waved at her.

"Anyway, let's talk tomorrow. Let me put on a facemask and get some sleep. I feel that I have aged a lot because of you," she mumbled and went upstairs to her own room.

Gu Weiwei returned to the master bedroom and saw Fu Hanzheng coming out of the shower in a bathrobe.

"Who were you talking with?"

"Oh, Yuan Meng is here, I just talked with her," Gu Weiwei said as she went to the fitting room to get changed into her pajamas.

But before she could do that, Fu Hanzheng took hold of her from behind.

"No need to change."

"How can I sleep without pajamas?" Gu Weiwei glared at him.

Fu Hanzheng picked her up and chuckled.

“I am going to strip you of them anyways, no need to get changed.”

1814 Stripped 2

In the silent master bedroom, the atmosphere turned flirty.

Fu Hanzheng carried her up to the bed, caressed the girl’s obviously thinner face and kissed her deeply.

Gu Weiwei had her arms around his neck and responded to his kiss.

The gentle and lingering kiss gradually turned passionate and she fell into a daze.

It seemed that this separation had been full of changes, so that even Gu Weiwei, who had not been that relaxed in bed before, was very devoted today.

However, since Fu Hanzheng had not taken a rest since he came home, they did not have too much fun after the first time.

Curled up in Fu Hanzheng’s arms, Gu Weiwei whispered, “Aunt said that I can meet Cayman Dorrans openly sometime, and it seemed that Old Lady did not object either.”

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows in astonishment. “They really said that?”

“Well, your father did not object to it, and they agreed,” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng caressed her soft hair and said after a moment of consideration, “Cayman Dorrans also wanted to meet you, but we left in a hurry.”

Gu Weiwei turned around and said to him, “When you finish your work, let’s meet him first, and then we can see if he will meet the Old Lady.”

When she went to the Gu Family, Cayman Dorrans was there too. But because of what happened with Youyou, they did not have time to sit down and talk.

After the rescue, she hurried back to Hua Land with Fu Hanzheng.

Also, since the elders of the Fu Family had made the request, she decided to meet him if it was possible.

After all, he was already older and he had not been feeling well these past few years, so he might not have much time to meet her.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and pinched the tip of her nose.

“Okay, whatever you say.”

Gu Weiwei looked up and kissed him softly, then yawned and said, “Just sleep.”

Fu Hanzheng kissed her on the forehead and turned off the light.

Fu Hanzheng soon fell asleep, probably because of the lack of rest.

Gu Weiwei slept for more than one hour before the headache worsened.

She turned on the light in pain and was about to get up to find the painkillers when Fu Hanzheng woke up and asked her, “Where are you going?”

“I have a headache, I need to get some painkillers,” Gu Weiwei said.

She had taken painkillers after dinner at the Fu Family’s mansion, and now a couple of hours had passed and the pain was getting worse.

“I will get them,” Fu Hanzheng said, picking up the robe from the floor and wrapping himself in it. Then he went to the medicine cabinet to get the painkillers and also brought in a cup of warm water.

“Eat these first, if it really hurts, we can go to the hospital.”

“Let’s go tomorrow morning, you are just thinking about how to torment He Chi!” Gu Weiwei took the water and medicine.

Actually, she just wanted him to take a good rest.

She thought that when she was at the Fu Family mansion, he had not been able to have a good rest either.

After he picked her up from A Land, she slept throughout the entire day, but he went to the company to deal with company affairs and A Land affairs. He did not take a single rest.

“Really, it’s not serious?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“Yes.” Gu Weiwei nodded, took the medicine and lay down, closing her eyes to sleep.

Seeing her drowsy look, Fu Hanzheng fell asleep without hesitation.

1815 Don’t You Remember Me?

Early in the morning, Fu Hanzheng got up early and took a shower in the bathroom.

Gu Weiwei woke up with a splitting headache, feeling very dizzy. The moment she opened her eyes, she saw the room she was in and rubbed her eyes.

What had happened to her room?

She sat up and the cover slipped off her. She felt a chill on her upper body and realized that she was naked.

Also, judging from the deep and shallow kiss marks on her body, she had just experienced a very passionate night.

What was going on?

What on earth had happened?

Who did she sleep with?

She was just thinking when the door of the bathroom opened.

A very good-looking man came out with only a towel around him. He looked at her sitting in bed and smiled gently.

“You don’t need more sleep?”

Holding the blanket tightly, Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment.

Was he... talking to her?

Fu Hanzheng went into the walk-in closet, got changed and came out. He put on the tie and returned to the room, only to find her still sitting in bed.

“What is it? You still miss me?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head, closed her eyes and tried to call asleep, mumbling inwardly, “It must be a dream, a dream, an illusion.”

Fu Hanzheng got dressed, went to the bedside and saw the girl pretending to be asleep with her eyes closed.

“Weiwei?”

Gu Weiwei closed her eyes even tighter. This man... knew her name?

And he looked a bit familiar.

“Weiwei, get up, we are going to the hospital.” Fu Hanzheng pinched her cheeks.

Gu Weiwei shrank herself into the blanket.

“You... can leave now.”

Fu Hanzheng frowned curiously but did not suspect anything more.

“Here are the clothes, come out for breakfast.”

“Okay... okay,” Gu Weiwei answered anxiously as she hid herself under the blanket.

Fu Hanzheng left the bedroom, went out and made a call to He Chi, telling him about the examination.

Hearing the door close, Gu Weiwei poked her head out of the blanket and looked at the empty master bedroom, scratching her head.

What on earth was going on?

What she remembered was that when Yuan Meng brought her to Paris, they had a party and Yuan Meng had even found a bunch of extremely good-looking male models.

Could it be that... she had laid hands upon one of the male models?

She covered her face in annoyance. She had just drunk a few glasses of champagne and so she could not have been so drunk.

And she was still suffering from a splitting headache.

She hesitated for a while in the bedroom and decided to put on the clothes and ask Yuan Meng about it.

She had just got dressed and washed her face when the man came in again.

“Let’s go, breakfast is ready.”

Having said these words, he was about to take her hands.

Gu Weiwei dodged him without saying a word, dashed out of the bedroom and went to Yuan Meng who was sitting in the living room.

“What happened last night? Why didn’t you stop me?”

“Stop you from what?” Yuan Meng raised her eyebrows.

“Stop me from bringing this man home, you are killing me!” Gu Weiwei said as she pointed at herself and then at Fu Hanzheng behind her back.

“You wanted me to stop you from bringing him home?” Yuan Meng looked at her and then at Fu Hanzheng. Wasn’t it normal that they went home together?

But Fu Hanzheng had noticed something.

“Weiwei, don’t you recognize me?”

Gu Weiwei sat down on the sofa with her arms crossed. “Tell me, how much do you need before you disappear from my sight?”

Yuan Meng’s eyes widened. It seemed that the situation was getting serious.

1816 Weiwei’s Memory

Fu Hanzheng’s expression sank and he exchanged a look with Yuan Meng.

Could it be because of the experiment? —Fu Hanzheng

Could it be because of the way he looked at her in the bedroom? —Yuan Meng

Startled, Yuan Meng said to Gu Weiwei with shaking hands, “Take a closer look, you really have no impression of him?”

They had been so deeply in love before, but now after sharing the same bed they were strangers?

“A bit familiar.” Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and said to Yuan Meng, “I told you not to have any male models at my party, but you insisted. Now this man is killing me!”

“Male model party?” Fu Hanzheng looked at Yuan Meng coldly.

Yuan Meng surrendered and whispered, “I swear that although we had a party, she drank and slept with none of them. Nothing happened.”

So she was thinking back to a few years ago, when they attended a fashion show in Paris and had a party on the second day.

Also, she had thought that Fu Hanzheng, who shared the same bed with her, was a man she had slept with when she was drunk.

Gu Weiwei squinted at her. "Stop whispering. You hired him and so are you going to drive him away?"

"Why should I do that? This is his home." Yuan Meng felt her head aching.

Oh gosh, how was she going to tell her clearly that she had been sharing the same bed with him for years and they had two children already?

"His home?" Gu Weiwei looked around and realized that this was not the villa they lived in.

Yuan Meng nodded seriously. "Yes, his. And he is not a male model, he is Fu Hanzheng."

She thought back to what would happen if she said this a few years ago and Weiwei realized that she and Fu Hanzheng had slept together. She would go mental.

Sure enough, Gu Weiwei got up and moved away from Fu Hanzheng the moment she heard his name.

"Me and him... what is going on?"

Fu Hanzheng looked serious as he took a few steps away and said, "Yuan Meng, come here."

Yuan Meng stubbed out the cigarette and followed him to the dining room obediently. The two of them watched the woman who was pulling her hair and smacking her head in the living room from a distance.

"It seems that... she has forgotten what happened all these years."

She had lied to Gu Siting about her memory loss in A Land, but when she finally returned to Hua Land, she had started to lose her memory.

Fu Hanzheng's expression sank. His worst fears had come true.

"She only trusts you now, try to talk to her and let's go to the hospital for a checkup."

Yuan Shuo had already asked his men to pass the data of her experiments to He Chi, so they could take her there for an examination and see what to do next.

She was not going to trust him now anyways.

“Then... I will try.” Yuan Meng felt stressed.

She had thought that she could pack up and leave today, but now she has to deal with this big problem.

But Fu Hanzheng was probably under more pressure than she was.

It had not been easy for him to woo her, but now she had forgotten everything that had happened years ago. She had not only forgotten about their love for each other, but also about her own children.

She returned to the living room and looked at this woman who was still breaking down because she had slept with Fu Hanzheng.

“Weiwei, are you feeling alright? Let’s go to the hospital, okay?”

Gu Weiwei looked at her in astonishment and then at Fu Hanzheng as she whispered, “What is wrong with him?”

Yuan Meng felt her forehead and said, “Not sure, but let’s go to the hospital for a check-up.”

In order to get her to the hospital, she had to slander Fu Hanzheng.
