

Weekend Visit

Andrew's POV

I wake up early in the morning. I am going to surprise Lina with a little weekend trip. I spoke with Lisa and she helped me plan this whole thing. I packed the night before, so all I have to do is go to the airport, I should be at the Citadel before Lina even wakes up. I get dressed and brush my teeth. I am so excited to see her. The apartment has been so quiet and empty with her gone. I grab my bag and head down to the lobby. I get into the car and drive out to the air eld. The sun hasn't risen yet, and the pack lands are quiet. The plane is waiting for me when we pull up. I board the plane and we take off. I can't wait to see the look on Linas face when she sees me.

Lina's POV

The light shines into my bedroom and I hear Lisa walking around. I squint my eyes open.

"I said don't make it too early." I groan, pulling the blanket over my head, hiding my eyes from the light.

"It is denitely not early. And I gured you might want to be a bit more presentable for the.. surprise."

I peek out from under the blankets.

"I have to be presentable for a surprise?" I ask.

"Maybe just brush your teeth, and maybe your hair. And maybe put on some clothes?" She tries to say in a sweet tone.

"What kind of surprise is this?" I sit up and look at her.

"You are just going to have to trust me."

"Fine, but I could really go for some toast with some lemonade." Lately I have been craving lemons and lemonade. Lisa giggles at the strange combination.

"Sure. I will be right back. You go and get yourself presentable." Lisa bows before leaving the room. I pull myself out of bed and into the bathroom. I brush my teeth and my hair.

Okay. I guess I look more presentable. I go to my closet and pull out a dress. I change my clothes.

"High Alpha, when you are ready, your toast and lemonade are waiting for you." I hear Lisa say from the living room. I walk out to the living room excited for the sour drink. I see the tray with a full pitcher of lemonade, an empty glass, and a plate with 3 slices of buttered white toast. Lisa is standing on the side of the room with a big grin on her face. But who is holding the tray? I glance up and there stands Andrew.

"Craving some lemonade? He says.

I gasp and run over to him. He laughs and sets down the tray. I wrap my arms around his neck as he lifts me up and kisses my cheek. I had no idea he would be the surprise. He spins me around as I bury my face into his neck. I am beyond happy to see him. I pull back as my feet touch the oor.

"When did you get here? What are you doing here?" I ask cupping his face with my hands.

"I just arrived 30 minutes ago. I told Lisa to let you sleep, but she insisted on waking you up. And I came here to surprise you of course. But don't worry it's just for the weekend." I am so happy to see Andrew in person. I wrap my arms around his mid section and bury my face in his chest. I just want to stay like this for ever. I turn my head the the left to breathe, pressing my ear against his chest so I can hear his heartbeat.

"I missed you so much Lina." Andrew tells me. I feel the deep vibrations of his voice reverberate throughout his chest. It's strange the things you miss about someone. I pull back and kiss him on the lips.

"I missed you too."

We hug for another minute or so. Then I pull back to grab a slice of toast. I only go for the toast rst to neutralize the toothpaste residue still in my mouth from when I brushed my teeth. Drew looks at me in amazement. I'm not showing yet, but this is the rst time he's seeing evidence of our baby in person. I try to make sure the toast covers and touches everyone of my teeth as I'm chewing. Gotta make sure to get rid of all the residue. When I nish the toast, I can't get to the lemonade quick enough. I pour myself a glass and chug it without taking a breath. I pour my self another one and nish half of it before realizing Andrew is chuckling at me.

"Want some lemonade babe?" I ask him.

"No, no, you enjoy that, it's all yours." He says lovingly. I smile relieved. He walks over behind me and wraps his arms around me, while still allowing me enough room to enjoy my lemonade.

"Why don't you show me around, then we can have some breakfast together." Andrew suggests.

"Good ideal! Oh yeah, I can show you where I spend all my time. The t*e chamber."

Lisa looks at me concerned.

"I'm joking, the training auditorium." I say, nishing the rest of my glass. I set it down, turning towards Drew for one more hug.

"Yeah I would love that." Andrew adds.

"I will bring breakfast up for you when it is ready." Lisa bows and steps out of the room.

As soon as Lisa closes the door Andrew lifts me up and I wrap my legs around his waist. His lips are on mine in an instant. I feel the cold rmness of the wall behind me pressing into my back. I wrap my arms around his neck as his kisses trail down to my mark. I let out a moan as he reaches the spot. I hear a small growl escape from Andrew's throat.

"I missed you so much." Andrew says in between kisses.

"I missed you too. It's so boring without you." Andrew pulls back and chuckles.

"The High Alpha is bored?"

"Yes! All I ever do is train and sleep."

"Well I can keep you awake if you like." Andrew teases and starts kissing my neck again. I push him back a bit.

"Lisa will be back shortly. Let me show you around a bit before you go all slty on me." I explain as I wink at him.

Andrew puts me back down on the oor and I take his hand. We walk out of the apartment and I take him to the training auditorium.

"Wow, this is we're you spend all day? This room is huge!" Andrew remarks looking around the room.

"These ceilings must be 40 ft high."

I glance up at the solid wood arches in the ceiling that frame the room.

"It is beautiful." I say. "If you like this, then you need to see the library!"

"Show me!" Drew says excitedly. I take his hand and lead him out of the room. We walk into the library and Andrew is looking around taking the place in.

"Holy cow Lina! This place is crazy! I know you described it to me, but Wow, to see it in person.. This place is beautiful."

"It is beautiful, but it sucks because this building is ONLY for the council, so it's usually empty. Such a waste."

"They spared no expense did they?" Drew says laughingly pointing at a gaudy, carved wolf statue. It's much buffer than any wolf I've seen in real life.

I giggle in response. Drew looks like a kid that just got a new toy for Christmas. He walks around the room looking at all the books and I follow, just watching him. I'm so happy he is here and I can share this with him.

"Man, you must be learning so much." He remarks.

"I am. But I'll just be happy once it's over."

Suddenly Andrew's stomach lets out a loud growl.

"You want to go back and get some breakfast? I can show you more after." I say.

"Yes please, I woke up pretty early today."

We laugh together and head back towards my apartment. We get there to see that Lisa has already set up breakfast at the small table by the window. I walk over and see a note.

'High Alpha, I set up breakfast for you. I will be back around 1 o'clock for lunch. If you need anything please call for me.

- Lisa.'

"I guess we have the place to ourselves for awhile." I say. I look over and Andrew is already eating some toast.

"Sorry, I was so hungry."

I laugh and join him. We have a wonderful breakfast together. He lls me in on all the pack drama and how Rachel and Murphy are holding up during her pregnancy.

"You know, you haven't shown me around your apartment yet." Andrew says after we nish breakfast.

"Well, it's not much but, sure. I'll show you around."

We get up and I take him down the hallway to my bedroom.

"This is the bedroom.." I say. Without another word Andrew scoops me up and lays me on the bed with him in between my legs. He kisses my collarbone and slides his hand under my dress onto my thigh. His thumb hooks around my underwear and he slides them off. I unbutton his pants as our lips collide. I feel him pull my dress up as I sit up to make it easier. Andrew lets his pants fall to the oor, our lips not breaking. I feel the heat in the room grow, my body producing most of it. I pull off Andrew's shirt and he climbs on top of me. I look up at him and notice he's sweating.

"Are you ok?" I ask.

He doesn't answer me, instead he starts kissing me again. The air is hot and thin and I am panting trying to catch my breath. Andrew rubs himself up and down as my entrance. I moan at the movement. His mouth trails to my marked spot and as soon as he reaches his destination he thrusts inside me. The build up and anticipation, releases a moan from me that I can't control. Andrew thrusts in and out of me quickly. I wrap my arms around him and my nails dig into his back. I hear him moan. He pulls back and ips me over onto my stomach, as if I weigh nothing. He raises my hips and my hands grip the headboard. I feel him enter me from behind. His hands are on my hips bringing him deeper into me. I let out another moan as he thrusts in and out of me harder with each thrust. I feel him grab a hand full of my hair and pull it back towards him. His other hand cups my brst as he continues to thrust harder and deeper inside me. I feel heat rolling off my body as I am just about to c*x.

"Oh Andrew." I moan.

"C*m for me Lina." He responds. At this moment I release myself all over him. I moan so loud I'm sure the whole building can hear me. Suddenly an alarm goes off and water shoots from the sprinkler heads in the ceiling.

"What is going on?" I say shocked.

"I think you set the bed on re." Andrew runs to the bathroom and hands me a robe. I hear the front door open to the apartment as Andrew wraps a towel around himself.

"High Alpha, are you alright?" It's Fayne, this is going to be embarrassing. He opens the bedroom door to nd me in a bath robe, Andrew in a towel, and the sheets burned. Two more people walk into the apartment.

"Turn off the dang water." Fayne yells at them. "Sorry for the intrusion High Alpha. I will get this taken care of." Fayne bows and leaves. A few seconds later the water is turned off.

Andrew is just laughing.
