

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1106

Chapter 1106

“Are you really not going to the hospital?” Avery looked at him worriedly.

“I’m fine.” Elliot knew about his physical condition, but it was just some flesh wounds.

The reason why Avery cried out in pain last night was because when she grabbed him, it wasn’t a light touch.

“You’d better be fine. Otherwise, when you arrive in Rishawaka, you find that you have a physical problem. It’s you who suffers and your conditions still very poor.” Avery said that, she couldn’t help but continue to pack medicines in the suitcase.

“No matter how poor a small country is, there are definitely rich people there. As long as there are rich people, there must be corresponding medical conditions. Even if it is a private hospital, ordinary minor injuries can definitely be cured.” Avery took out the emergency medicine kit.

Elliot said, “With so many medicines, are you expecting me to get sick?”

She was speechless by his words.

“Bring some more beautiful dresses. The sea over there is very beautiful.” Elliot walked to the closet and asked her to choose clothes. “I’ll be your personal photographer then.”

Avery couldn’t help laughing: “You really took me there for honeymoon?”

“If it’s to find Wesley, wouldn’t I send someone? Although I want to find him and I’m a little afraid to find him. If I don’t find him, I can deceive myself and Shea is still alive. I can’t deceive myself any more.” Elliot changed his words, “Just think I’m going out to recover. I look like this, even if I’m not a murderer, I don’t want to be photographed.”

Elliot is a well-known Wealthy man. During this period of time, because of a series of events such as weddings, scandals and murders, he almost came on the front page news.

Although Nathan surrendered himself and got him out of the ‘murderer’ crime, he is still a hot topic of discussion today.

The civet cat for the prince, the fight for property, and the fact that he was beaten up outside the resort, any one of them can be talked about by everyone.

Avery nodded, “Yes, before Nathan was sentenced, there were probably many people who believed that Jaxson Foster was killed by you. You can still watch the live broadcast of the press conference held by Henry in the hotel!”

“I saw him at the police station yesterday, and he didn’t dare to look directly at me.”

This chapter is provided . Visit .com for daily update.

“I haven’t seen him delete the live broadcast. Even if you didn’t kill his father, he must still want to ask you for money.” Avery took a few long skirts from the closet, “He doesn’t have a job now, and Cole doesn’t have the ability to make money. They still have Adrian to support. The last time they sold the old house, I don’t know how much they have left.”

If you give 100 million to ordinary people, you will definitely be able to guarantee a lifetime of food and clothing.

But Henry his son are used to living extravagant lives, and it is difficult to switch from extravagance to frugality.

“Did Adrian contact you?” Elliot asked casually.

Avery: “He called me yesterday afternoon, and you just fell asleep. He apologized to me and said he didn’t listen to me, so I don’t get angry. Actually, I’m not angry, I’m just worried that Henry won’t treat me well.”

Elliot: “How is Adrian now?”

Avery: “Adrian said that Henry is better than Nathan. But they don’t take him out very often. He is locked at home now and has no freedom.”

Avery lowered her eyes and put her clothes on the Suitcase, “After all, Henry and Cole have been busy dealing with you these days and it is impossible for them to hire a nanny for Adrian.”

Elliot said coldly: “He should be grateful to Dade now that he can live with thought. It is impossible for him to fulfill his wishes. Does he think the world revolves around him?”

“He didn’t mean to complain. He called me, just apologised to me.”

Avery packed her luggage and checked the time, “Husband, It’s time for us to go out.”

“Well.”

When going out, Avery looked at the two Child, She was very saddened.

Because the place they are going was not a tourist resort and it was too remote, there was no way to take the children.

“Layla, I will definitely take you with me when my parents go on a trip next time.”

Layla: “I don’t want to be the light bulb for both of you. When my brother comes back and our family travels, I will go.

“Your brother won’t be back until a year later.”

“I know. If I want to go somewhere to play now, Uncle Eric will take me there. You two go quickly. Uncle Eric will come and pick me up later.”
Layla waved to both of them.

Avery didn’t expect her daughter to be so heartless.

Chapter 1107

Elliot’s brows are furrowed, and it is estimated that he is also very uncomfortable.

On the way to the airport, the two of them discussed this issue.

“We can’t let Eric have such frequent contact with his daughter in the future. What if he has a thief towards our daughter?” Elliot frowned, with a serious look.

Avery: “Elliot, do you know how much the difference between the two of them is? It’s almost twenty years apart!”

Elliot said, “The difference is only fifteen years old. I saw a news last time that a man and a woman registered for marriage. They were 51 years apart in age. Do you think a 15-year-old difference can prevent Eric from having unreasonable thoughts about our daughter?”

Avery was speechless.

“I know you trust Eric, but He is a man after all. And our daughter is so beautiful...”

“Elliot, if Eric really wants to be my son-in-law, I have no problem. I just have to wait until Layla is an adult. If they are related by then. They are still so good, and they decide to stay together for the rest of their lives, I will bless them.” Avery said these words while holding back a smile.

Elliot clenched his fists, and his body was also tensed.

“I’m kidding you! Didn’t we send bodyguards to protect Layla? If Eric really did something to Layla, the bodyguards would tell us. And Layla won’t let others bully her.” Avery comforted.

“It’s still necessary to reduce the meeting between the two of them.”

“Okay, when the honeymoon comes back, you can tell Layla.” Avery threw this problem to him.

Elliot immediately pursed his thin lips.

Two days later, they arrived in Rishawaka.

Rishawaka is one of the smallest coastal countries in the world, with a land area only half the size of Avonsville.

When they arrived in Rishawaka, it was exactly noon.

After arriving at the predetermined hotel, they had a lunch first, and then began to rest to avoid jet lag.

Lying on the soft big bed, Elliot couldn't fall asleep no matter what.

After Avery fell asleep, he got out of bed gently and took out the postcard sent by Wesley from her bag.

On the postcard, there is the postmark of Rishawaka.

Elliot took the postcard and left the room.

About an hour later, Avery woke up.

Seeing Elliot sitting on the balcony blowing air, she immediately got out of bed and walked towards him.

“Elliot, can't you sleep?” Avery walked over to him and glanced at the sunlight outside, “The weather is really nice today, why don't we go out for a walk?”

Wander around at will.

Avery stopped when she passed a large pharmacy. She seemed to see a familiar figure.

“Elliot, wait for me here, I’ll go to the pharmacy to buy some medicine.”
Avery let go of his arm, “I seem to have forgotten to bring iodophor.”

After that, she strode towards the pharmacy.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1108

Chapter 1108

She entered the pharmacy and saw that familiar figure dodged into the pharmacy’s bathroom. She looked back nervously, wondering if Elliot found out.

Elliot was standing at the door of the pharmacy waiting for Avery. After Avery turned around, Elliot stepped forward and entered the pharmacy.

Avery’s heart was suddenly up and down, and she was uneasy, but she had to maintain her superficial calm. For some reason, she was afraid to let Elliot see Wesley.

In addition to what Elliot said, he said he wanted to see Wesley, but in fact he was afraid of seeing Wesley. Avery always felt that after the two of them met, a fierce battle was inevitable.

“Get me some medicines for promoting blood circulation and removing blood stasis and relieving pain. I also need a bottle of iodophor.” After Elliot stood beside her, she said to the clerk.

Elliot raised his eyebrows: “I bought so many medicines again?”

“I’ll try the medicine here. How does the medicine work?” Avery smiled, “What if the medicine here works well?”

Elliot: “You? It’s taking me as a guinea pig.”

“I didn’t let you eat, what are you afraid of?” Out of the corner of her eyes, she kept paying attention to the situation on the other side of the bathroom, and said to Elliot, “You go and pay.”

He took out the Money clip, walk towards the cashier.

After Elliot walked away, the phone in Avery’s bag vibrated. Her text messages have no sound reminders, only vibrations. She immediately took out her mobile phone, turned it on, and saw a message from an unfamiliar number.

[Avery, I don’t know how to face you yet, please give me a little more time.]

Looking at the text message, the peace on her face disappeared. Although the text message was not signed, she knew it was Wesley!

The familiar figure just now was Wesley. He is now in the bathroom of the pharmacy.

They are now only separated by a wall.

This chapter is provided . Visit .com for daily update.

If Avery didn't care about Wesley's feelings, she would rush into the bathroom with Elliot, pull him out, and confront him!

However, she couldn't be so heartless.

Wesley once almost sacrificed his life for her. She has never forgotten Wesley's friendship for her!

And the reason why Wesley pumped Shea's blood was to save Robert. If Robert wasn't her son, how could Wesley take such a risk ?

Every time Avery thought of Wesley and what he had done for her, she couldn't stop her nose from getting sore.

Avery quickly replied: [Hide well, if Elliot sees you, I'm afraid I won't be able to stop him.]

After she sent the message, Elliot just finished the bill and came over with a bag of medicine.

"Why don't we take the medicine back to the hotel first!" Elliot suggested.

Avery quickly adjusted her mood and smiled at Elliot, "Okay. Didn't you say you want to be my personal photographer? We'll buy a camera later."

“Well. Why are your eyes a little red?” Elliot looked at her red eyes were puzzled, “What’s the matter?”

The two came out of the pharmacy. Avery looked at the flowers on both sides of the street and casually gave a reason: “My eyes are a little itchy, maybe I’m allergic.”

“Would you like to buy some medicine?” Elliot stopped, “Buy some anti-allergy medicine! What if the allergy becomes serious?”

“It shouldn’t be so serious. Wait for me here, I’ll go in and buy a bottle of eye drops.” Avery turned and entered the pharmacy, Bought a bottle of eye drops.

After that, the two returned to the hotel, and the nanny brought afternoon tea.

They booked a honeymoon room with a dedicated nanny, and the current check-in experience is not bad.

Consumption here is much cheaper than Aryadelle, but the comfort is not bad.

During afternoon tea, they took out their mobile phones in a very tacit understanding.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1109

Chapter 1109

Avery sees whether Wesley has replied to her message. She couldn't help sending a message to Wesley just now, asking if Shea was still alive.

How she wished Wesley could answer her question. And Elliot frowned because of the news from Ben Schaffer.

Ben Schaffer asked if they had successfully arrived in Rishawaka.

Of course he didn't frown because of this question, but Ben Schaffer's words below – [I have a showdown! Your sister Gwen lives in my house now. Zion has returned to Bridgedale and she refuses to go with Zion, and I can't let her bother you. But I'm so bored now and Gwen doesn't listen to me.]

Elliot looked at this long paragraph of text, and suddenly lost his appetite. He only promised to give the White family brothers and sisters living expenses, but he never promised to take care of their private lives.

Ben Schaffer: [Elliot, your sister doesn't like to study. I told her to find a school for her to go to, but she disagreed. She is only twenty years old, what can she do if she doesn't go to school? When you come back, educate her well]

Elliot couldn't bear it any longer and replied: [She is twenty years old, not two years old! You put away your fatherly love.]

Ben Schaffer collapsed: [Hey! I'm not that old, am I? My concern for her is the concern of my brother for my sister. What does it have to do with the love of a father?]

Elliot: [Since you are not her father, you care what she does.]

Ben Schaffer: [Are you sure you don't care about her?]

Elliot: [OK.]

Ben Schaffer: [Then I don't care about her. She said she wanted to go to work to make money, let her go?]

Seeing that he was so indecisive, Elliot sarcastically said: [Just accept her as your goddaughter.]

Ben Schaffer gritted his teeth: [OK! Then let her go to work. Let her go out to rent an apartment when she is more courageous at work. It's okay to stay here all the time]

Elliot put down the phone.

This chapter is provided . Visit .com for daily update.

Seeing the chill on his face, Avery put down the phone: "What happened? Who was messaging to you?"

"It's Ben Schaffer." Elliot picked up the coffee cup, took a sip, and said coldly, "He took Nathan's daughter."

Avery: "That's your sister?"

Elliot: "I can't take her as my sister. You can just call her by her name."

Avery: "Oh, what's her name?"

Elliot: "I don't know."

Avery took it and Gave him a piece of dim sum: "Don't be angry. Ben Schaffer took her in, not for you to take her in."

Elliot: "She was taken in because of my face."

Avery: "Then tell Ben Schaffer clearly, if your sister is affecting his life, so let him leave it alone. Your sister is an adult, so you don't need to treat her as a child."

"It's been made clear." After eating a snack, Elliot drank his coffee and looked at her, "Are your eyes better?"

"Eye drops are much better."

"Eye allergy eye drops help!" Elliot was surprised.

"Maybe it's not allergies. I rubbed my eyes at that time, and I may have rubbed the bacteria on my hands." Avery changed the subject with a smile, "Can you take pictures? I saw a topic on the Internet before, called selfies and boyfriends The difference between taking pictures."

"Are you afraid that I will make you ugly?" Elliot looked at her with time, "Give me your phone, and I'll show my skills first."

Avery panicked and moved the phone in front of her. She was waiting for Wesley's reply, so it was impossible to give the phone to Elliot now.

"I took a picture with my phone." Avery cheeks flushed, and a clear guilty conscience flashed in her eyes.

Because she is not good at lying, her body is hot and her mouth is dry. She picked up the coffee cup and took a sip.

“What? You have a secret in your phone, can’t you show it to me?” Elliot asked deliberately with a smile in his eyes.

The more guilty she is, the more Elliot wants to look at her phone.

After all, Elliot’s mobile phone had never been set up against Avery. Anytime Avery wanted to look at Elliot phone, Elliot could show her.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1110

Chapter 1110

Avery saw that although Elliot had a smile on his face and he could hear sadness and dissatisfaction in his tone. If she hadn’t sent a message to Wesley, she would have given him the phone.

“I’m chatting with Tammy!” Avery found a plausible reason, “Tammy asked us if we were there, and then we talked about some sensitive topics.”

“What sensitive topics?” Elliot believed her explanation. Still, he was curious about what they’re talking about.

“It’s a topic between women.” Avery said, biting her head. “It’s about trying to conceive. She thinks I’ve had three children and I’m very experienced in this, so... so I don’t want to show you my phone. What if she asks some private question again, how embarrassing!”

Elliot nodded, understanding and respecting her. He picked up his mobile phone and turned on the camera, wanting to show Avery his photography skills.

Avery immediately raised a hand and compared it.

Elliot pressed the shutter, took a photo, and handed her the phone.

Avery took his mobile phone, and when she saw the photo he took of herself, she pursed her red lips and wrote speechless all over her face.

“What? Not satisfied?” Elliot was a little puzzled, “Isn’t it a good shot?”

After taking the photo, Elliot admired it for himself, and only showed it to her when he felt there was no problem.

“Why did you take my face so big? Is my face so big?” Avery pointed the photo at him and showed him, “Did you look at it and see that the whole photo was my face?”

He clicked Nodding: “Is there any problem? Your face is so beautiful, I’m going to set this photo as the wallpaper.”

Avery felt like a thunderbolt.

The generation gap caused by age difference cannot be ignored.

“Don’t!” Avery quickly deleted the photo and handed him the phone again, “Get up, stay away from me, and try to take another photo! Don’t shoot with my face! No matter how beautiful a face is, take it so close. , there is no aesthetic sense! Are you not an architect? Can you show your professional aesthetics?”

This chapter is provided . Visit .com for daily update.

He reluctantly got up, moved away from her, pointed the phone camera in her direction, and after pressing the shutter, he took the photo Show her.

“Elliot, are you on purpose?” She was still dissatisfied after seeing the photo. “Although this photo makes my face look small, what about my eyes? Are my eyes so small?”

Elliot was stumped. , “When people smile, don’t their eyes get smaller? Although this photo does make your eyes look smaller, I don’t think it’s a problem with my photography skills...it’s my phone “

Then let’s go out and buy a camera.” She didn’t like taking pictures that much, but she thought it was fun to have Elliot as her exclusive photographer.

Although his photography skills are a bit lousy, listening to him touting her beauty made her heart as sweet as honey.

“I need to change into a nice dress. Be photogenic.” After returning his phone to him, Avery went to the bathroom to change.

Elliot turned on his phone and searched the Internet for shooting tips. He thought that his skills were okay to take pictures of people, but obviously her requirements were a bit high.

Probably her expectations of him were a little high.

Elliot played DSLRs when he was a student, but it's been a long time, and now he's a little rusty.

Suddenly, the phone she placed on the bed vibrated and the screen lit up.

A new message entered her phone.

His eyes were drawn to the past –

if it was normal, he might just walk over to look, but today she didn't want to show him her phone, so he curbed his curiosity.

After about twenty minutes, she came out of the bathroom.

Not only did she get a new dress, but she also put on a light make-up and let down her tied hair.

“So grand?” He walked up to her and held her hand, “If I can't satisfy you with my skills later, I'll hire a professional photographer for you.”

“No. We're here for our honeymoon, Just have fun.” Avery walked over to the bed and put her phone in her bag.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1111

Chapter 1111

Elliot reminded: “You have a new message on your phone.” After a pause, Elliot said again, “But it may be a harassing message.”

Avery’s body suddenly tensed, and she looked at him nervously: “Did you see?”

Elliot shook his head: “I didn’t. Don’t you want me to look at your phone?”

Avery smiled and nodded: “You are so good. I’m not forbidding you to look at my phone. If you want, of course you can. I.. I won’t be angry again.”

Avery said so, but her little hand zipped the bag, obviously not planning to show him her phone.

“Aren’t you going to take a look?” Elliot asked.

“Didn’t you say it was harassing information? I also think it might be harassing information.” Avery carried her bag in one hand and held his arm with the other, “After I bought a house, the information was leaked and people often called me to ask me if I would sell the house and The bank called me to ask if I wanted a loan.”

“I also get harassing calls occasionally.”

“I’m more balanced after hearing that.” She breathed a sigh of relief.

“The harassing calls I receive are usually from the bank manager calling me to wish me a happy holiday.”

Avery: "..."

Can you still chat happily?

From the hotel, they headed straight to the digital store to pick up cameras.

Elliot chose only one reason, that is, the expensive one must be the best. When he entered the store, he asked the boss to take out the most expensive camera and try it out.

When Avery was looking at the camera, she quietly took out her mobile phone from her bag, opened the message, and saw Wesley's reply!

This chapter is provided . Visit .com for daily update.

Avery asked Wesley if Shea was still alive.

Wesley reply was: Are you here to find me?

He didn't answer the question!

Avery frowned, resisting her excitement, and replied: We are here for our honeymoon. Elliot wanted to find you but was worried that he would find you and learned the exact news of Shea's death from your mouth. He felt that Shea was not dead. Even though he now knows that Shea is not his sister, his feelings for her remain unchanged.

After the message was sent, she asked again: Wesley, tell me, is Shea still alive? I didn't tell Elliot what happened to you, please believe me too?

"Avery, look here." Elliot held the camera and pointed it at her.

Avery immediately put down the phone, faced him, and pulled out a bright smile.

After Elliot pressed the shutter, Avery strode over to him to check out the photo. Elliot called up the photo and showed it to Avery.

“So-so, it’s alright! It’s better than what you took for me with your mobile phone.” Avery reluctantly exclaimed.

Elliot told the truth: “Is it possible that it was because you changed your dress and put on makeup?”

“Are you admitting that your photography skills are not good?”

“I am not a professional at all. Since you don’t think it is a big problem, Then buy this one.” Elliot took out his wallet, ready to pay the bill.

At this moment, her phone vibrated. Because they were so close, Elliot heard her phone vibrate.

Elliot looked at her: “Your phone rang. Shouldn’t such frequent messages be harassing messages?”

She blushed in embarrassment. Decided to turn off the vibration function immediately.

“You pay the bill, I’ll see if it’s a harassing message.” Avery turned her back and turned on her phone.

——It was not a harassing message, it was Wesley’s reply.
