

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1152

Chapter 1152

When sending this text message, Avery hesitated for a while, and finally deleted the text. How could she give up Shea's life?

Is it really desperate?

She took a deep breath, intending to calm herself down first, and then think about countermeasures.

An hour later, Layla came back from school. After she came back, she walked directly towards Elliot and asked, "Dad, did you quarrel with Cohen's mother in class today?"

Avery immediately came over to her daughter's question and explained, "Layla, your father did quarrel with Cohen's mother, but your father did not Wrong."

"Hey, the teacher told me all about it! I knew that Dad hurt me the most." Layla said, climbed onto Elliot, cupped his face with both hands, and kissed him hard on the cheek.

Seeing the father and daughter being so close, Avery was very relieved: "Did Cohen transfer to another school?"

"No, he moved to another class."

"Well, Layla, don't be affected by this. Friends are bullied, you should stand up and help bravely. It is a good character to be brave."

After Avery finished speaking, Elliot raised a different opinion.

“Your mother is right, but Dad has something to add. If you can beat others, you can do justice. If you can’t beat others, don’t be impulsive. The premise of doing good deeds is that it won’t affect your safety.”

Avery took her daughter off Elliot with a smile and said, “Listen to your father. Now, You go to wash your hands and eat some. I’m going to make a videocall with your brother tonight.”

Layla shrugged, “Oh...if my brother sees that we live in In Dad’s big house, he will definitely be angry. So I’ll tell my brother later!”

“Don’t tell your brother, he won’t be angry?” Avery brought her daughter and went to the bathroom.

“Because I’m a kid. I just said I wanted to move in with my dad, so my brother wouldn’t blame you and dad.” Layla said thoughtfully.

When Elliot heard his daughter’s words, he was very moved.

There are women like this, what can a husband ask for?

After dinner, Avery dialed the videocall to Hayden.

After Hayden received the videocall, he saw his mother at first sight, and at second glance found that his mother was not at home.

He had been to Elliot’s house before and had a little impression of Elliot’s house.

Avery saw her son frown, and her heart tensed: “Hayden, have you eaten breakfast? Because you said you were busy these two days, so your mother can tell you now that I moved to Elliot’s house with your younger brother and sister.”

At this time, Layla took the phone and explained softly: "Brother, I want to move here because our family is too small. Now I have to practice the piano and dance every day, and we have nothing to spare at all. Let me practice."

Hayden was in a complicated mood after listening to his sister's explanation. He knew that his younger sister had to learn a lot of talents. Now that he has a younger brother, the house is indeed a bit crowded.

However, in addition to moving to Elliot's house, She can also buy a big villa!

Avery saw that his son was still frowning, so she took the phone back from her daughter's hand.

"Hayden, your mother decided to move here. In addition to what your sister said, it's also because Elliot has the habit of exercising, and we don't have any spare room for him to use as a gym. When you return to Aryadelle, your mother will bring your younger siblings back to home."

"No, you can live in his big house and I can always study abroad." Hayden felt that he was redundant.

Avery said without hesitation, "If this is the case, then your mother will take your younger siblings to move abroad to settle down. In your mother's heart, you and Elliot are the most important people. I can't give up anything for you."

Hayden's eyes melted a little.

In fact, these days after Hayden went abroad, he had thought about his hatred for Elliot. He hates Elliot's meddling with his life, and he can't accept it either in the past or in the future.

But Mike also told him that children have their own thoughts, and parents have their parents' thoughts.

Although Elliot intervened in his studies, Elliot's original intention was good. And after he protested, Elliot immediately stopped interfering.

Elliot is definitely not a bad father.

At 9 p.m.

Chad accompanied Ben Schaffer to a dinner party. Because Ben Schaffer was good at drinking and liked to drink and everyone kept toasting Ben Schaffer.

Chad persuaded several times and tried to keep Ben Schaffer from drinking, but Ben Schaffer rejected the kindness.

"I've been very unhappy recently...Why should I take in that woman? Because my brain is flooded." Ben Schaffer complained to Chad in a low voice, "So I need to drink more!"

"Mr. Schaffer, Don't do this. If you are really in such pain, you can just tell the boss directly." Chad comforted.

"What did I tell him? I send him information about his sister now, and he doesn't reply. I didn't think it would be so difficult when I took her in at that time." Ben Schaffer didn't blame Elliot.

"Mr. Schaffer, What are you whispering to Assistant Rayner." The middle-aged man sitting on the other side of Ben Schaffer raised his glass and wanted to toast, "Let's come to the bar. I've already set up a room for you, go to sleep after drinking. I feel that there are no unpleasant things."

Chad interjected: "I'll take Mr. Schaffer back later. Don't bother you to arrange it."

“Assistant Rayner, you’ve been drinking and you can’t drive after drinking. I’ll book a room for you too to Guarantee your satisfaction!”

Chad understood the meaning of the boss’s words.

“I don’t drink and drive, I’m a driver. So you really don’t need to book a room.” Chad clearly refused.

Ben Schaffer was dominated by alcohol: “I’m not going back tonight! I’m going to spend the night outside!”

“Good. I’ve already arranged it for you. I promise you a good night’s sleep.”

Chad Get up in the chair and leave the private room. He was afraid that he would not be able to take Ben Schaffer away tonight, but he was worried about leaving Ben Schaffer out for the night.

He dialed Elliot.

Elliot answered the phone, and after listening to him explain the situation, he said, “It’s not like he hasn’t slept outside. Go home when you’ve had enough. Don’t worry about him.”

Ben Schaffer was almost forty years old, and he was not What an innocent boy, what scenes had never been seen.

“Boss, the builder has arranged a woman for Mr. Schaffer. If I don’t take Mr. Schaffer away, Mr. Schaffer will definitely...”

Elliot said calmly, “You don’t like women, it doesn’t mean he doesn’t like women. You don’t know how much he drinks. Since he decides to stay outside, why should you worry about him.”

Chad told the truth, “Mr. Schaffer didn’t want to go home because of your sister. Your sister didn’t seem to be listening his words.”

Elliot: "He could totally drive her away. Since he didn't drive her away, he could only suffer."

Chad didn't expect the boss to be so heartless.

That being the case, he took a step forward.

In the hotel at VIP suite entrance.

The fat head man persuaded Gwen kindly, "Gwen, if Mr. Schaffer didn't want you last time, I wouldn't call you tonight. I gave you $2,000 last time, and I'll give you $20,000 tonight. Mr. Schaffer drank a bit too much tonight. He shouldn't do anything to you. This money is nothing if you don't earn it. I won't let you accompany other men but you just need to serve Mr. Schaffer very well."

Chapter 1154

Gwen calculated in her heart that if she earns $20,000 for nothing. She won't earn nothing if she doesn't make money.

Even if Ben Schaffer didn't drink too much, she would still earn $20,000.

She's not with other men, so Ben Schaffer shouldn't be too fierce, right?

After receiving the $20,000 transfer, Gwen entered the room.

The fat-headed man said, "Gwen, You go to bed and don't turn on the light. We'll bring Ben Schaffer over later. You and Mr. Schaffer should be very familiar, right?"

"I'm not familiar with him." She dodged her eyes and spoke nervously.

The fat-headed man said, looking her at the time, "Ben took you into his car last time. You're still stubborn. If you hug Mr. Schaffer's golden thigh, you won't have to worry about it for the rest of your life. I will go and see the situation of Mr. Schaffer and you are not allowed to run. Ok."

"I have received the money, so I definitely won't run." Gwen said this, and her heart started to panic.

Ben Schaffer will definitely scold Gwen. Because he has always looked down on her job. She doesn't want to be scolded. So in a hurry, she went to the bathroom with her bag.

After a while, she was wearing a smoky makeup. She looked at her bold makeup in the mirror and was very satisfied. Ben Schaffer drank the wine, so he definitely couldn't recognize her anymore.

Just when she was proud of her cleverness, the door was swiped open.

Ben Schaffer was helped in. Tonight was the most he drank in years. He usually claimed to be not drunk after so many cups, but now he can't even see the road.

After being helped to lie down on the big bed, the person who helped him in quickly left.

After the room was quiet, Ben Schaffer faintly smelled a strong scent of perfume. He frowned irritably and looked aside. He saw that in the dim vision. He could vaguely see a person lying beside him.

From her thick hair he could tell that this was a woman. The woman the builder gave him? It's just, why is this woman like a dead fish, lying motionless on the bed?

"Hey, turn on the light for me, I want to drink water." Ben Schaffer was restless, his heart was burning, and he was very thirsty.

Gwen immediately slipped out of bed and went to pour water for him in the dark. When she came to Ben Schaffer with a water glass, Ben Schaffer looked at her dark figure and was stunned!

“Turn on the lights!” Ben roared loudly.

Is this woman out of her mind?

If Ben told her to turn on the light and she didn't hear it but how did she hear that ben wanted to drink water?

Gwen smelled the alcohol smell coming from Ben and didn't want to pay attention to him.

Ben was very drunk, and he will wake up tomorrow, and he must not remember anything.

Gwen stood still beside the bed and Ben was burning with anger.

Ben forced his body to sit up and dragged Gwen onto the bed.

The water glass in her hand fell to the ground with a 'bang'.

The crisp sound aroused the primitive brute force in Ben Schaffer's body.

Foster family.

After Elliot finished talking on the phone, he began to think about whether he should come forward and take Gwen away from Ben Schaffer.

“Why frown? What are you thinking?” Avery put Robert to sleep and returned to the master bedroom.

“Avery, do you want me to arrange a place for Gwen? She lives in Ben Schaffer, which affects Ben Schaffer’s life.” Ell told her his thoughts, “I didn’t care about her for a while. She doesn’t seem as hopeless as I thought.”

Avery said, “If she seriously affects Ben Schaffer’s life, she must be moved out. If it is not convenient for you to come forward, I will find her tomorrow.”

Chapter 1155

Elliot: “Okay. I’ll find a house for Gwen first.”

“Yeah.” Avery thought for a while and said, “Gwen lives alone with a boy. Elliot, you can find a better neighborhood for her.”

“It’s great to find her. Will she be reluctant to make progress?”

Avery suggested, “If you are worried about this, you can rent her a house first and pay the rent. If she shows that you are satisfied, you can buy it for her.”

Elliot looked Avery: “I don’t want to raise anyone other than you and the child.”

“I know, but she’s your sister. And Nathan is not as heinous as we think. If it wasn’t for him to turn himself in... ” Avery said and then did not say any more.

“Go take a shower. I’ll choose a house for Gwen.” Elliot didn’t want to talk about it.

Avery: “Okay.”

The next day, Avery drove to Ben Schaffer's house early in the morning. The door of Ben Schaffer's house was closed, and they didn't seem to get up yet.

Avery took out her mobile phone and planned to call Ben Schaffer, when she heard footsteps behind her. She turned around and saw Gwen.

Gwen had dirty makeup on her face and messy hair. Avery don't know what happened to Gwen.

Avery asked tentatively, "You are Gwen, right? We met in Bridgedale before, and it was your second brother who asked me to come to you. Does your job require night shifts?"

Gwen pursed her red lips, feeling gloomy, Opened the yard lock and entered the yard.

Avery followed in stride.

"Your second brother, Elliot found you a place to live. I'll take you there now. It's not convenient for you to live in Ben Schaffer's house all the time."

Gwen sneered, "Elliot is so kind? He doesn't recognize me?"

Avery followed her into the living room and said, "Elliot promised your dad that he would still guarantee your basic life. Now You Go and pack your luggage and let's go first. I'll tell Ben Schaffer later."

"Oh ." Gwen entered the guest room and started packing.

"Gwen, I heard that you work in a modeling company. How do you feel?" Avery looked at her dress and wanted to persuade her to resign.

Gwen resisted her question, "It's not so good. Don't worry about me. I don't love going to school, I won't go to school."

"Then save my number. If you have any difficulties in the future, you can follow me. Your second brother, Elliot has a bad temper. If you look for him, he may be impatient."

Gwen picked up her phone, saved her number, and asked casually, "Do you still have contact with that fool Adrian?"

"No...he's not an idiot."

"Don't consider it as an idiot, it's just a nickname. Why are you being so serious? I lived with him for more than ten years. Before you operated on him, I served him every day. He ate and drunk with me but my dad and my brother didn't care about him at all."

Avery was shocked when she heard her words.

"I haven't seen him for a long time, I don't know if he's dead." Gwen packed up the luggage in two swipes, and dragged the suitcase to get up, "What are you doing? Let's go."

Avery came back to her senses, her heart tightening and tugging. She don't know how Adrian is doing now. After she sent Gwen to the rented house, she called Ben Schaffer and explained the situation.

Ben Schaffer rubbed his aching temples and took a breath: "Avery, thank you. You solved a big problem for me!"

Avery: "It was Elliot who asked me to pick up Gwen. You've worked so hard during this time."

Ben Schaffer: "It's all right! As long as she's left."

Avery was about to say a few more polite words when a phone call came in. She held the screen in front of her, saw aCole's call, and immediately said to Ben Schaffer, "I have a call to receive. Let's talk next time."

She received Cole's call after Hanging up Ben Schaffer's call.

"Avery, where are you now? I have something good for you." Over the phone, Cole's laughter came.

Cole's laughter was evil and frivolous, causing Avery to break into a cold sweat.

"What good stuff?" Avery's vocal cords tightened and her fingers clenched!
