

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1724

Chapter 1724

Chad didn't say anything. He was suddenly a little scared.

If he asks Elliot why Avery is blind and cruel to her, will Elliot fire him too?

He had been by Elliot's side for a long time, and he didn't want to leave here voluntarily. Even if he doesn't understand what Elliot is doing now, he still wants to stay by Elliot's side to see if he can find the reason for the change in the boss.

An hour later, Elliot came to the company.

Chad followed him into the office.

"How is your body?" Elliot glanced at him.

Chad: "It's already recovered."

"Why are you so careless?" Elliot sat down in the office chair and looked up at him, "you've lost a lot of weight."

Chad explained, "I didn't know there was a respiratory disease over there, and I went to eat in a crowded place. After dinner, I was recruited the next day. I heard that the Tate Industries has hired a new vice president. I don't know what the vice president is."

Elliot took out a file bag, hand it over.

Chad took it, opened it, and took out a resume.

"This person's resume is really beautiful." Chad put the resume back in the bag and returned it to Elliot.

Elliot: "Recommended by a friend."

"Well, if she passes your interview, let her try." Chad said here, paused, "Boss, do you really want to destroy AN Technology?"

Elliot Because of his remarks, his brows furrowed: "I want to develop the Tate Industries well, but that doesn't mean I want to bring down AN Technology. No matter what I do, I want to be the best. Do you have any questions?"

Chad shook his head: "If that's the case, then I understood. I thought you hated Avery, so..."

“When did I say I hate her? What did you hear when you went to Bridgedale this time?” Elliot’s voice became a little colder, and his face became gloomy.

Chad lowered his head, not daring to look at his face.

If it was before, what Chad was thinking, he would have said it directly.

But at this juncture, he didn’t dare to talk nonsense.

In case Elliot angered him, it would be a trivial matter to fail his job, and it would be miserable if he was banned.

“I got sick the next day over there, and I basically stayed in the hospital.” Chad hurriedly explained, “Originally, the doctor over there asked me to stay in the hospital, but I thought it was too many days over the holiday, so I came back first with a random reason. It turns out that Aryadelle is more suitable for me. I came back and rested for a day, and I feel much better.”

“Mike didn’t say anything to you?” Elliot asked.

Chad shook his head: “I had a fever of 41 degrees, and everyone fainted.”

“He didn’t say anything to you before you had a fever?” Elliot didn’t believe what he said.

“We chatted casually. The main reason is that he asked me to resign and settle in Bridgedale. I don’t want to. This topic has been discussed and can’t be concluded. Then I drank a little wine that night and said something later, I don’t want to. I remember it too much.” Chad really didn’t have the courage to bring up topics related to Avery.

Just mentioned AN technology casually, and Elliot changed his face.

If he doesn’t know the current affairs and mentions Avery, the consequences will be disastrous.

Elliot was not interested in his affairs with Mike, so he withdrew wisely.

Chapter 1725

Returning to the office, Chad sighed heavily.

But in just half a month, Elliot seemed to be completely transformed into a new person.

Before he went to Bridgedale, Elliot was not like this.

Just when Chad was thinking about his next situation, his office door was pushed open, and Ben Schaffer walked in with a bag.

“Look what good things I brought you!” Ben Schaffer took the bag to Chad’s table. “My mother gave it to me before, saying it was for my body. Take it back and make it up!”

After thanking Ben Schaffer for his kindness, Chad accepted this supplement.

“Brother Ben, have you noticed that the boss has changed?” Chad closed the office door.

“Divorced man, don’t you allow him to feel low?” Ben Schaffer understood Elliot’s mood better.

Chad walked in front of Ben Schaffer and pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose: “Brother Ben, the boss wants Tate Industries to surpass AN Technology, don’t you think he doesn’t need to do this? Although he can make more money by doing so, but it will also make Avery angry.”

“Chad, you went to Bridgedale this time, did you see Avery? Did she tell you something? I think your heart is completely on her side now.” Ben Schaffer restrained his words, “If you don’t plan to resign, don’t show such an attitude in front of Elliot.”

Chad walked to the desk, picked up the water glass, and took a sip of water to calm his emotions.

“Brother Ben, you should have known about Avery’s blindness a long time ago, right?”

Ben Schaffer’s body seemed to be acupuncture points in an instant, and his whole body became petrified.

Seeing that his reaction was wrong, Chad immediately walked up to him and asked again, “Avery is blind, do you know that? The boss knows, but the boss never told me. Has he told you?”

Ben Schaffer’s face was shocked, as if he was stuck in his throat: “No... He didn’t tell me! Did Mike tell you, or did you see Avery with your own eyes?”

“Mike told me. I said I wanted to Go to see Avery, he said Avery is blind and can’t see me.” Chad was relieved when Ben Schaffer said he didn’t know about it.

The boss didn’t tell anyone.

Confused or what.

“Is it possible that Mike lied to you?” Ben Schaffer couldn’t believe it. He hadn’t heard anyone say it.

Even Gwen in Bridgedale didn’t tell him about it.

“Impossible. Mike will never lie to me. I often scold him for being too straight and not lying. Not only does he not lie to me, he also doesn’t like to lie to others. Because his brain circuit is different from our normal people.” Chad assured.

“You just said that Elliot knew about this?” Ben Schaffer was a little confused.

“That’s what happened the day you and the boss went to Yonroeville. Mike said that Avery called the boss at the time...”

“Yes! When we were about to board the plane, Avery called Elliot.” Ben Schaffer remembered, “I avoided it at the time. When he finished talking on the phone, I saw that his face was very bad. The two of them quarreled at the time, so I was ashamed to ask more.”

Ben Schaffer said here, This thing made sense.

“How can the boss treat Avery like this?” Chad was indignant, “Although Haze is his blood and blood, isn’t Avery important? He is still planning to become a big Tate Industries and kill Avery’s AN Technology. If Avery knew about this, how uncomfortable she would be! I can’t take it anymore... Wouldn’t the boss want to force Avery to death?”

Ben Schaffer saw that Chad had tears in his eyes, and immediately took his hand and patted on his shoulder.

“Chad, what is Avery’s situation now? Can her eyes recover?” Ben Schaffer asked in a deep voice.

“Yes, but an operation is required.” Chad took a deep breath and quickly adjusted his mood.

Ben Schaffer breathed a sigh of relief: “If she can recover, that’s good. Maybe Elliot also knows that her eyes can recover.”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1726

Chapter 1726

“Even if her eyes can recover, what is the difference between her and the disabled now?” Chad still didn’t understand what Elliot did, “Is the boss’s heart made of stone?”

“Chad, calm down first. Ben Schaffer pressed him into the chair and sat down, “Since Elliot knows about this, it means that he and Avery must have had a good conversation in private. As for the result of their negotiation, although it is unbelievable. We can’t change the situation.”

Chad calmed down a little after listening to Ben Schaffer’s words.

Chad sighed, “I almost asked him why he did this to Avery just now. Fortunately, I held back, otherwise I might have to get out of bed now.”

“He is in the anger of divorce now, and he has something to do with Avery. It’s very irrational.” Ben Schaffer said, “Wait until he calms down.”

“I can’t be angry right now. When Avery’s eyes recover, there’s nothing to say about this.” Chad quickly calmed down. “Brother Ben, the old employees of Tate Industries, besides Vice President Locklyn, have they dismissed others?”

Ben Schaffer shook his head: “What are you thinking! Vice President Locklyn is always unable to do the next job himself, so he took the initiative and offered to resign. Other employees have done a good job. If they don’t mention resignation, Elliot will not trouble them.”

“Well.”

“But I think it would be better for the Tate Industries to change its name.” Ben Schaffer put forward his own opinion, “After all, this company has nothing to do with Avery anymore. It would be too embarrassing to continue to bear the name of the Tate Industries.”

Chad couldn’t help but think, “Brother Ben, go and propose to the boss! It is too strange that the company’s name remains unchanged. I don’t believe that the boss doesn’t respond. If the company name doesn’t change, outsiders don’t know how to talk about it! If Tate Industries really surpasses AN Technology in the future and causes AN Technology to close down, then It’s too ironic! Others thought Avery killed herself.”

Ben Schaffer shrugged, “I mentioned it yesterday, and he said he wouldn’t change it. He was competing with Avery.”

“Scary.” Chad pursed his lips and took a deep breath.

Ben: “Chad, if you don’t want to change jobs, it’s like before, nothing happened. Don’t worry about other things. He’s just a dynamite keg now. Don’t say you dare not mess with him. I don’t dare to mess with him now. .”

Chad: “Understood.”

In the evening.

Elliot finished his day's work and returned home.

He received a call from Mrs. Cooper this afternoon, saying that Layla was back. So he got off work a little earlier than usual today.

He called and asked the teacher at the summer camp. The teacher said that Layla did not want to continue participating in the next activities, and offered to withdraw from the summer camp.

The teacher wanted to call him to explain the situation, but Layla said she would go home and tell him in person.

When Elliot returned home, he looked around for Layla's figure.

"Sir, Layla was picked up by Eric." Mrs. Cooper walked up to him and reported to him, "It took about half an hour."

No wonder Layla wanted to withdraw from the summer camp on her own initiative, because Eric came back!

Elliot immediately took out his mobile phone and prepared to call Eric.

Mrs. Cooper explained: "Sir, I have asked, and Eric said to take Layla out for a meal, and when the meal is over, she will be brought back." Although Mrs. Cooper's explanation, Elliot still dialed Eric.

Eric answered the phone quickly.

"Send my daughter back within half an hour. Otherwise, you will never see my daughter again." Elliot demanded sharply.

Eric sneered: "You might as well build a cage and lock Layla."

"There are 29 minutes left!" Elliot turned a deaf ear to his sarcasm.

Eric snorted coldly and hung up the phone.

Half an hour later, Eric sent Layla home.

As soon as Layla entered the house and saw Elliot's face, she suddenly turned pale. She ate half of the meal and was brought back by Eric.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1727

Chapter 1727

If her father hadn't called Uncle Eric, Layla wouldn't have come back hungry.

After Eric sent Layla home, he left without saying hello to Elliot.

Mrs. Cooper had poured a glass of water and was going to give it to Eric, but Eric's car had already driven away.

Elliot took the water cup from Mrs. Cooper's hand and drank it all at once.

"Layla, you didn't discuss with your father about your withdrawal from the summer camp, did you?" Mrs. Cooper took her to wash her hands, "You can't do this next time."

Layla didn't want to talk about this topic.

After washing her hands, an idea came to Layla's mind: "Grandma Cooper, have you listened to Uncle Eric's new song?"

Mrs. Cooper shook her head: "I don't listen to songs very much."

"Uncle Eric's new song is super nice! I'll show it to you. Listen!" Layla turned on her phone and played Eric's new song "Blind" in an external sound box.

After hitting the play button, she turned the song up to the max.

In an instant, the melody spread throughout the first floor.

Elliot didn't pay attention to Eric's new song, but Eric accepted a live interview and talked about the new song was written for a man, and he had an enemy relationship with this man.

Ben Schaffer immediately decided that Eric's song was written for Elliot, so Ben Schaffer pushed Eric's new song to Elliot.

Of course Elliot didn't want to listen to Eric's songs. Ben Schaffer told him that it was written to him by Eric, so he listened patiently.

After listening to about half of it, he turned off the song.

This kind of nonsense song is really bad! Listening for one more second, I feel like I'm wasting time and killing lives.

What's more hateful is that this song was written to scold him, and he couldn't listen to it anymore.

Mrs. Cooper didn't know that Eric wrote this song to scold Elliot, so when Layla asked Mrs. Cooper if the song was good, Mrs. Cooper said it was good.

Elliot's face was silently gloomy.

"Layla, go and listen to your father!" After saying this to Layla, Mrs. Cooper went to the kitchen to serve dishes.

Layla immediately ran to Elliot with her phone.

"Dad! Have you listened to Uncle Eric's new song?" Layla had a kind smile on her face.

Elliot hadn't seen his daughter smile so brightly in a long time.

The daughter must not know that this song was written by Eric to scold him, so her daughter came to share this song with him.

Thinking of this, he decided not to destroy the warm atmosphere.

Elliot: "Dad heard it just now."

"Oh...you must not have heard clearly, I'll play it for you again." Layla said, turning the song on.

The melody suddenly floated around Elliot's ears.

——Separation seems to be yesterday, my world is dark. In a desolate city, the wind is wrapping my body, I seem to be blind and blind, and I am boundless, you take everything from me, and you laugh at me for not being free and easy... I seem to be blind and blind, The wind dried my tears, I have forgotten the pain you gave me.

Elliot listened to the absurd and uninhibited lyrics and endured to the limit.

He grabbed his daughter's cell phone and paused the song and said, "Layla, this kind of song is not suitable for children of your age."

Layla blinked innocently: "Dad, I played it for you. Uncle Eric said this song was written for you."

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1728

Chapter 1728

Elliot looked at the smile on his daughter's face, as if a knife had been stabbed in his heart.

The daughter knew that this song was written for him, which made his heart block, and she took the initiative to play it to him.

Really his good daughter!

“Layla, you left the summer camp, so what’s your plan next?” Elliot changed the subject.

Layla: “I want to play with Uncle Eric. He said that he can take me to the event next time.”

“If he participates in the event, you go with me, what is this? Even if you want to be a big star in the future, Dad wants you to It’s his own strength, not his popularity.” Elliot taught his daughter hard.

Layla is being preached and is not happy.

“I went to play with Uncle Eric, but I didn’t want to do anything.” Seeing Elliot frowning, Layla didn’t seem to want herself to be with Eric, so she pouted.

“When my mother still lived here, I could go and play with Uncle Eric every year during the long vacation!” Layla said here, her aggrieved eyes reddened.

Suddenly, there was a cry in the room on the first floor.

Robert woke up.

Robert started to attend early morning classes this summer. He came back from school at four o’clock in the afternoon.

Probably because Robert was tired from playing in the early childhood class during the day, he fell asleep when he got home.

If Avery was at home, Robert would never be allowed to sleep at this point in the afternoon, because if he fell asleep at this point, he would not be able to fall asleep at night. This would be messy.

Now that Avery is not at home, Mrs. Cooper is soft-hearted towards the child.

Mrs. Cooper heard Robert’s cry and immediately ran out of the kitchen to hug Robert.

Elliot looked at Layla’s little face with tears in her eyes, and his heart softened.

“Layla, it’s not that Dad doesn’t agree to let you go to Eric’s place. You will be entering the third grade in the second half of the year. Dad has read the textbook for the third grade, and the difficulty has increased a lot. If you also want to take the first place in the second half of the year, Then you can use the next vacation to review your third grade homework in advance.”

Elliot crouched down and coaxed his daughter softly.

Layla listened to his words, and her small mouth gradually relaxed.

“If I take the first place in the second half of the year, then you will let me see my mother, okay?” Layla made her request.

The expression on Elliot’s face suddenly covered a layer of frost: “Layla, you are the first in the test, it is for yourself, not for others.”

“You mean, I will never see my mother in the future?” Layla frowned.

“Dad doesn’t mean that. If your mother wants to see you, she will naturally come back to you.” Elliot held her slender arms with both hands, “Layla, wait for your mother to come to you, okay?”

Something has caused her to be very rebellious to him recently.

Basically whatever Elliot said, she wanted to confront him. In fact, every time she saw his embarrassed and sad expression, she felt uncomfortable.

Every time she calmed down, she would reflect on herself. Her father was almost obedient to her, and Elliot was very patient and loving towards her.

Whenever her attitude towards her father improved a little, as long as she made a video call with Hayden, she would forget about her father’s goodness and stand up barbs all over again.

In such repeated emotions, jumping around, she felt that her spirit was about to split.

“Sister, have a meal!” After being coaxed, Robert stepped quickly to her sister’s side and held her hand.

Layla quickly adjusted her mood and walked towards the dining room, holding Robert’s hand.

Bridgedale.

After Gwen finished her day’s work, she returned to her residence.

Taking off her high heels and putting on slippers, she tied up her long hair as she walked towards the bathroom.

She took over an auto show event today and put on heavy painted makeup on her face. She doesn't know if she's allergic to paint, but her face is a little itchy.

After removing her makeup, her face turned red. She put on a mask and walked to the sofa to sit down.

She picked up the phone, turned it on, and saw the message from Ben Schaffer: [Call me after get off work, I have something to ask you.]

She lazily dialed his number, and Ben answered in seconds.

"You got off work so early today?" Ben Schaffer's voice came.

"You think I'm a machine! I got up at six o'clock this morning. If I don't get off work earlier, I'll be dead outside." Gwen cut to the chase, "What do you want to ask me?"

"Why didn't you tell me about Avery's blindness? If it wasn't for Chad going to Bridgedale this time, I would never have known about it."

Gwen jumped up and stood up from the sofa. The mask on his face fell to the ground with a 'click'.

"Avery is blind!"

Ben Schaffer was on the phone and took a deep breath: "After Avery went to Bridgedale, you haven't met her?"

"No! I told you that I'm very busy, you think I'm lying to you?" Gwen picked up the mask on the ground, threw it into the trash can, and quickly walked towards the bathroom, "How could Avery be blind? What's going on? I wanted to find her before, but Hayden asked me to work hard, so I didn't go."

"It's very late on your side, see if you're free tomorrow, go and see for yourself." Ben Schaffer said.

Gwen: "I'll call Mike now and ask."

Ben: "Well."

"Does my second brother know about this? Avery is blind, why did he divorce Avery? By the way, when did Avery become blind? Before or after their divorce?" Gwen was a little dizzy.

"It should be after the divorce. When they divorced, they met. Avery was fine at the time." Ben Schaffer speculated here and paused, "No, she found out that there was a problem with her eyes before the divorce."

"I'll call Mike to ask." Gwen hung up the phone, found Mike's number anxiously, and dialed it.

Mike answered the phone quickly.

"Mike, Ben Schaffer told me that Avery is blind, why didn't you tell me? I haven't seen Avery for so long, I thought she is all right! I want to see her now." She said anxiously .

Mike replied, "She's already asleep, don't come here. Shouldn't Ben Schaffer know about it today?"

Gwen sighed, "Yes! He said that Chad told him. He blamed me for not telling him, but You hide it from me, I don't know anything at all. Why didn't you tell me about such a big thing?"

Mike snorted, "Tell you, can you heal her eyes? Avery doesn't need mercy now. Elliot is really interesting. He didn't even say anything."

Gwen: "My second brother already knew?"

Mike: "Well."

"My second brother already knew that Avery was blind, but he still divorced Avery. How can my second brother do this?!" Gwen gasped in anger, "I didn't expect him to be such a sc*mbag who didn't take responsibility."

Mike: "If you insist on visiting Avery, don't mention these things in front of her. It took a long time for her to calm down."

"Oh... ok. I'll see her tomorrow. I promise never to mention Elliot. I will never call him brother in the future. I don't have such a big brother!" Gwen gritted her teeth angrily.

Mike sneered: "He did disgusting things, but it's not just this. I didn't dare to tell Avery, I was afraid Avery couldn't take it."

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1730

Chapter 1730

Mike told Gwen that Elliot planned to use Tate Industries to deal with Avery's AN technology in Bridgedale.

Gwen was so angry that she had a heart attack. Because she was so angry and she couldn't do anything to Elliot, she turned her anger on Ben Schaffer.

Ben Schaffer and Elliot were on the same boat. She hung up Mike's phone and put Ben Schaffer on the blacklist.

Mike finished talking on the phone, his mouth was dry, so he went to find a water glass to get some water.

In the master bedroom, Avery didn't fall asleep. She had to lie down for a long time every night to fall asleep.

It's easier to fall asleep during the day, and at night, bits and pieces of the past always come to mind.

She can control her emotions now, and can't help crying when she thinks of the sad part. She heard what Mike said in the living room just now.

Her hearing has improved dramatically since she lost sight of her eyes. She heard Mike say that Elliot planned to use Tate Industries to deal with her AN technology.

Had she heard the news a month ago, she would have been heartbroken and disheartened.

But now, there is no ups and downs in her heart.

She even lost her child, what could be more important than a child?

The next morning.

Gwen hurried over. Originally, Mike told her last night that after asking her to come over, he should not radiate negative energy in front of Avery.

But when she saw Avery, her tears could not be controlled.

Gwen: "Avery, I should have come to see you earlier. Is it hard for you to be like this?"

Avery raised the corners of her mouth and said softly and powerfully: "Gwen, are you here today on leave? I heard that you work very hard."

"It's up to me whether I'm busy with work. Although my agent is a bit strict, he still respects me. I want to make more money, so I take on a lot of work." Gwen sniffed, her voice hoarse. "Avery, what are you going to do next? Is Elliot crazy to treat you like this! I'm going to be mad at him!"

Mike reminded sharply, "Gwen, didn't you agree not to mention him?"

"I can't even scold him?" Gwen said, and suddenly realized that it was not appropriate to mention this in front of Avery, "Avery, I won't say anything."

"It's okay. Don't cry, it's all over." Avery wanted to get her a tissue, but couldn't see where the tissue was, so she could only give up.

"When will you be able to regain your light?" Gwen looked at her expressionless eyes. She had such beautiful eyes, but she couldn't see anything.

Avery: "It's almost time."

"Obviously I haven't found the right cornea yet." Mike took off the stage.

Gwen silently kept this matter in mind.

After leaving Avery's house, she immediately pulled Ben Schaffer out of the blacklist. If she can't find the cornea in Bridgedale, she can only try to find it in other countries.
