

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1751

Chapter 1751

“F*ck! They actually feed in public... This is too blatant! Isn't Eric afraid of being photographed?”

“I really want to see what his girlfriend looks like. Look at the back, so simple.”

“I pretended to pass over there to see what his girlfriend looked like.” A woman stood up, “I can't accept Eric falling in love. Unless his girlfriend is very beautiful... .”

After that, the woman pretended to pass by, passing by Eric and Avery.

After seeing Avery's face, the woman was startled.

This woman... why is it so like... Avery? !

Avery didn't want Eric to feed it, but Eric insisted to feed her for fear that she could not see the dishes on the table.

After Avery was forcibly fed a few mouthfuls of vegetables by Eric, she asked him to put the vegetables into her bowl.

“Eric, it's almost time for dinner. There will be more and more guests coming to dinner. You should pay attention to your image.” Avery said, and moved into the sofa to keep a distance from him.

“This is Bridgedale, and not many people know me.” Eric said modestly.

“But Mike said that you are very popular in Bridgedale. You should go and sit opposite! When Hayden comes, Hayden will sit next to me.” Avery said so, and Eric had to go back to the opposite side and sit again.

In the hospital.

Elliot leaned on the hospital bed and closed his eyes.

Chad took the dinner he bought out of the bag and opened it. He received a call from Norah Jones last night. After hearing that Elliot had fainted, he immediately came with his bodyguard.

Chad: “Boss, please have some porridge!”

Chad held the porridge and asked, "Do you want me to feed you?"

Elliot opened his eyes: "My hands are fine. Leave it alone, I'll eat it later."

"The warm porridge I bought will probably get cold after a while." Chad glanced at the time, and said, "It's half past six."

Elliot sat up straight and picked up the porridge bowl: "Did you tell Mike when you came over?"

"No." Chad took out his dinner from the bag, "I'm here to see you, I don't need to tell him. Why are you thinking of going to Avery? Didn't you really break up with her?"

Elliot: "Mike told you?"

"Well." Chad lowered his eyes, "When the security guard gave them the diary, I...I happened to be talking to Mike on the phone."

Elliot's posture of holding the bowl stiffened.

"Avery has never contacted Layla. Layla is very sad. Layla is my daughter, and I feel sorry for her." Elliot explained the reason.

Chad: "But don't you want Avery to see Layla and Robert?"

"Have I ever said such a thing?" Elliot raised his eyebrows, his pale face showed an angry blush, "I seem to have really treated her to her. You said something like that."

Chad saw that Elliot was angry, and immediately unscrewed a bottle of water and handed it to him: "Boss, I know what you are saying is angry. You drink the water first, and you will be smooth."

"You know. What I said was angry, but she really came with me. She said that if she didn't see the child, she couldn't see the child, how cruel she is!" Elliot was already full of anger.

Chad put the porridge bowl in his hand on the cabinet. he immediately took back the water that was handed over.

If he knew it earlier, he wouldn't talk about Avery.

He doesn't eat in a mood now, and he can only ask the doctor to prescribe him nutrient solution later.

Chad lowered his head silently and ate. Out of the corner of his eye, he was always watching Elliot.

Chad saw that Elliot picked up the phone with a solemn expression on his face. Looking at Elliot's face, it seems that he intends to block Avery's contact information!

Elliot turned on the phone and didn't want to do anything. Because he's too angry, he used his phone to dispersed his anger.

Unexpectedly, after turning on the phone, Elliot saw a message from Norah Jones.

Norah Jones sent him a few photos and asked him if the woman in the photos was Avery.

Elliot hadn't seen Avery for several months. But the moment he opened the photo, he immediately recognized Avery's figure.

Chapter 1752

In the photo, Eric was sitting beside her intimately, holding chopsticks and feeding her.

Ah!

He finally understood why Avery insisted on a divorce, and was so heartless towards him and the child! Because she was getting along with Eric!

"Boss, don't block Avery yet!" Chad thought that his face was so ugly that he was blocking Avery, so he advised, "Anyway, Avery is your child's biological mother. In the future, for the sake of the child There will be times when you need to get in touch."

Elliot had blue veins bulging on his forehead and gritted his teeth: "Thank you for reminding me."

Chad: "???"

"Since Avery is divorced, I have no right to interfere with her anymore. She wants to be with whomever she wants! I don't care! A woman who can easily empathize and leave love is not worth my sincerity!" Elliot said excitedly, his fingers trembling and he opened the address book and added Avery's contact number to the blacklist.

Afterwards, he opened major social accounts and moved Avery to the blacklist one after another.

Chad was stunned when he watched his series of operations!

If there was no one in the ward now, Chad really wanted to slap himself to death!

Originally, the boss didn't want to block Avery, but it's all his fault that he mentioned this sentence in a whim, which inspired the boss to block Avery!

"Boss, you..." Chad's heart was cut like a knife, like a sting in his throat.

"Chad, get out!" After Elliot blocked all contact information of Avery, the whole portrait was hollowed out.

He wanted to be alone and quiet.

Chad didn't want to provoke him, so he immediately took the lunch box and walked out.

Dining room.

After Norah Jones sent Elliot a message, he did not receive any reply.

She didn't know if Elliot didn't see it, or if he saw it and didn't want to go back.

From Norah Jones's observation, Eric seems to be pursuing Avery, but Avery doesn't mean that to Eric.

In fact, as soon as Norah Jones entered this restaurant, he recognized Avery.

She has seen Avery's photos on the Internet and a series of interviews with Avery, so even if she has never seen Avery in real life, she will feel familiar when she sees it in reality.

When the others in the group were surprised who the woman beside Eric was, she had secretly photographed the moment of their intimate feeding.

She admits she's scheming, but doing so makes her happy.

Avery has been by Elliot's side for so many years, and gave birth to three children for Elliot, but she still failed to stay by Elliot's side in the end.

What does this mean? Show that they are not the right people.

A successful man was bound to experience many women.

But in the end, there was only one person who accompanied him to his old age.

Norah Jones felt that she would be the woman who would accompany Elliot to his old age. Because she was smarter, wiser, and understands what men need.

3 days later.

Gwen and Eric finished filming the promotional video of the car brand, and then successfully got the endorsement contract of the car brand.

After signing the contract, Gwen paid out of her own pocket and invited everyone to dinner.
