

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2021

Dream Maker Group.

Avery got out of the car and saw the Dream Makers Group Building, and was a little stunned: "Why did you come here?"

"Boss, didn't you say you came here?" The bodyguard was stunned for a moment.

"Have I said that?" Avery rubbed her temples, not remembering it at all.

"You said you can go anywhere, I said come to the Dream Makers Group to see, you had no objection!" The bodyguard restored the matter.

"Oh... I was playing on my phone at the time, and I didn't hear what you said after that." Avery didn't want to come here, but since she's here, let's go and see Mike.

"Boss, I think you've been unhappy every day since you met with the Jones family. Are there people poisonous?" The bodyguard teased, "If you really think Elliot is in their hands, you can find someone to kidnap Travis and let him release Elliot."

Avery: "I just guess that Elliot is in his hands. I don't have any evidence to prove this, so I can't be too aggressive for the time being. The enemy is in the dark, we are in the light, so don't act rashly. I feel that Elliot is still alive, otherwise they wouldn't send me those two photos. What's the use of them wanting a dead person? If Elliot is really dead, they can completely return his bones to me."

"Boss, I think your analysis is reasonable. Since Elliot is not dead, then you shouldn't keep your face." The bodyguard was in a very good mood, "This building is really magnificent! If I don't become your bodyguard in the future, can you let me come to work here? I'm willing to even look at the door."

Avery: "Don't jump like that."

The bodyguard scratched his head embarrassedly: "I really think this place is very beautiful and has a sense of space and art."

Avery: "Then From today, you will be here to guard the gate!"

The bodyguard: "No no! Boss, what I said is that I will not be able to work by your side in the future..."

“Since you can’t work by my side, how can you guard the gate here?” Avery retorted, “Are you dissatisfied with me? Would rather come here to guard the gate than follow me.”

The bodyguard: “Boss! I didn’t mean that! I’m loyal to you, how can you doubt me like this?”

Avery: “I’m kidding you. Do you want a new Dream Makers car?”

Bodyguard: “..”

Happiness comes so quickly that people are caught off guard.

The bodyguard wanted to refuse. After all, when he was in Yonroeville, Avery was almost killed due to his dereliction of duty. How could he dare to accept Avery’s gift now?

“Thank you, boss!” Although the bodyguard was ashamed to receive the gift, but he really wanted it too much.

Avery took out her mobile phone, dialed Mike, and explained to him that he wanted to send a new car to the bodyguard.

Mike was puzzled: “That bodyguard of yours, used to be in Yonroeville...”

Avery: “I bought it for him with my own money, I didn’t say it was free.”

Mike: “Is it a question of money? It’s a question of his work attitude..You treat him so well, but he neglects his duties...”

Avery: “He followed me everywhere for work. Never cry when tired, never complained. Never back down when faced with danger.”

“You pay him such a high salary, what is there to shout about being tired.” Mike retorted.

Avery: “If it wasn’t for money, why didn’t he stay with his wife and children in Aryadelle?”

Mike was persuaded, so he allocated the manager below to have them receive them.

Originally, Mike wanted to receive them in person, but Avery refused.

Avery didn’t want to be too high-profile.

After a while, a supervisor found Avery and the bodyguard and took them to the car factory.

“Miss Tate, what kind of car do you want?” The supervisor asked hurriedly.

Avery looked at the bodyguard: “Aqi, what color does your wife like?”

“My wife?” The bodyguard was stunned, “Boss, what are you asking my wife for?”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2022

Avery: “I’ll give your wife a car! It suddenly occurred to me that you work by my side most of the year and rarely have time to take care of your family, so I bought a car for your wife.”

After listening to Avery’s explanation, The bodyguard’s eyes suddenly turned red: “Boss, I thank you for my wife! In fact, she has always supported my work and is very grateful to you.”

Avery: “What color does your wife like?”

Aqi: “Just white! White is simple and elegant.”

The two chatted and followed the supervisor to the car factory.

Avery thought that she would see Emilio here.

She reached out and rubbed her eyes, and looked in Emilio’s direction again –

“Isn’t that the second young master of the Jones family?” The bodyguard also saw Emilio, and did not doubt that he was blindsided, “Why is he here?”

“Mr. Jones booked a car with us a while ago. I guess he came to see the car today.” The supervisor replied, “Do you know each other?”

Avery replied.

Not far away, Emilio heard the movement on their side, so he looked towards them. Seeing Avery, his eyes lit up and he immediately walked towards her.

“Avery, why are you here?” Emilio seemed to be very familiar with Avery, and the smile on his face was very confusing.

“Buy a car.” Avery replied, “Are you here to buy a car too?”

“Yes! Isn’t my dad going to marry Margaret? I ordered a car for Margaret as their wedding gift. Emilio said, “What color car do you want to order? I know their executives...”

“No need. I’ll just order an ordinary white car.” Avery accepted his kindness, “Thank you!”

“You went to my dad’s house in the morning, are you happy to meet Margaret?” Emilio received a call from Avery early this morning, and Avery asked him to help lead the way to Travis’s residence.

Emilio didn’t want to help, but Avery begged him.

“Margaret said that her hands are shaking now and she can’t have surgery anymore. Have you heard of this?” Avery asked.

Emilio shook his head: “I only see Margaret at dinner occasionally. I didn’t hear she say this.”

“...Have you eaten lunch? I’ll invite you later! Thank you for your help this morning.” Avery invited.

“Okay! I happen to be hungry.” Emilio agreed. His narrow fox eyes turned for a moment, and he said again, “I heard that the canteen of this company is good, why don’t you invite me to eat here!”

Avery was stunned for a moment, then nodded.

“Then let’s go eat now! I got up too early in the morning and ate breakfast too early, so I’m very hungry now.” Emilio said, reaching out and grabbing Avery’s arm.

“You go to see the car with this supervisor, and I’ll go to the cafeteria with Emilio first. When you’re done with your work, go to the cafeteria to find me.” Avery explained to the bodyguard.

The bodyguard didn’t dare to be careless: “Boss, just order a white car. I don’t need to look at the car. I’ll go to the cafeteria with you.”

Emilio saw her bodyguard follow and teased: “Your bodyguard is really responsible. During the day, can I still eat you?”

“Before my boss had an accident in Yonroeville, it happened during the day.” The bodyguard rushed back.

“Yes, it’s better to be careful.” Emilio retracted his gaze.

After the group arrived at the cafeteria, Avery and Emilio took their plates and went to cook.

“Why did your father hurt your elder brother, can you tell me?” Avery asked Emilio in a low voice.

“Avery, do you know why I asked you to invite me to the cafeteria?” Emilio asked back.

Avery: “Why?”

“Because I know you will ask me about these sensitive topics.” Emilio’s eyes read, “I have seen you through a long time ago, “The bodyguards who protect me have my dad’s eyeliner in them.”

Avery: “.....”

This is what she never thought of.

“My dad sent someone to monitor me under the guise of protecting me. Do you still think it’s weird that he attacked my eldest brother?” Emilio said in a low voice, the corners of his mouth raised.

He seems to have long looked down on such an abnormal father-son relationship.

Avery: “But there has to be a reason, right? Although I don’t talk to your dad much, but your dad is a normal person after all...”

“You don’t think of him as a normal person, then everything that happened in the Jones family, you can understand.” Emilio said and started cooking.

Avery’s eyes moved from his face to the vegetable cooking window in front.

After preparing the dishes, the two found a corner and sat down.

The two of them knew nothing about it, and found a place where people were sitting at the adjacent tables.

In this way, Emilio’s bodyguard can only sit a little farther away.

“You said that your father is abnormal, what kind of abnormality? Does he have a mental illness? Does Margaret know?” Avery felt like a melon eater at the moment. She originally investigated the Jones family to find out the whereabouts of Elliot. But now, she felt that what happened to the Jones family was completely beyond her imagination.

If Travis is not a normal person, then Elliot's situation becomes even more dangerous!

"It's not as exaggerated as you think. I don't think he's mentally ill. He should have become more inflated and extreme after he became rich... He thought he was omnipotent... Probably it's also because the people around him are holding him, so his behavior is getting weirder." Emilio said.

"Since Travis's not mentally ill, why did he kill your elder brother? There must be a reason, right?" Avery breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as Travis is not a psychopath, then Elliot may still be saved.

Emilio: "My eldest brother fell in love with someone he shouldn't..."

"Women?" Avery frowned.

"Yes. That woman used to have a good relationship with my father. But there is no distinction. My eldest brother had a good relationship with that woman half a year ago... In fact, my eldest brother also knows that once my father finds out about this, my father will definitely want to get angry. So they fell in love secretly, but my dad found out."

Avery thought it was outrageous and absurd: "That woman had a good time with your dad, but she didn't have a name or distinction. Later, she broke up and talked to your eldest brother. Falling in love... I think it's a bit awkward, but as long as they don't feel inappropriate... your dad won't be..."

"After my dad found out about this, he let the bodyguards beat my eldest brother and I was there at the time." Emilio smiled bitterly, and continued, "what does this have to do with me? He called me specifically to let me see my eldest brother's fate with my own eyes... A beating is not enough. When the driver took my eldest brother to the hospital, he sent a bodyguard and rammed my eldest brother's car."

Avery was horrified, and her back was sweating: "Your father is definitely sick...this is sick! I used to think Elliot was a devil...but he is far less cruel and ruthless than your father!"

"He didn't kill my elder brother. It shows that he still thinks about father and son in his heart. Love it! Otherwise, my eldest brother would have died long ago." Emilio ate with relish, as if he was not disgusted by this at all.

Avery has completely lost her appetite. She unscrewed the cap of the water bottle and took a sip of water.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2025

“But I still can’t figure it out... If what you said is true, why did your dad come to beg me to cure your elder brother?” Avery murmured, “Do you regret the initial atrocity?”

“You think too much. There is no word regret in my dad’s dictionary. I don’t know why he asked you to save my elder brother, but it must not be what you think.” Emilio said firmly.

Avery looked at Emilio’s face and was fascinated.

“If you keep looking at me and don’t eat, my bodyguard will be suspicious.” Emilio reminded her in a low voice, “If you want to continue the investigation, you’d better not be angry.”

Emilio reminded her to let her Avery immediately recovered.

She gave Emilio a smile, then picked up the chopsticks and started to eat.

Avery: “After hearing you say so much, it feels like your life is not easy! If you make a mistake one day, will your dad treat you like your elder brother?”

Emilio: “Yes.”

“Your dad should be cautious. Think about it? You are his last son. If you are tossed away, who will his family property be left to in the future? Didn’t you say that he prefers sons to daughters?”

“He’s not the kind of person who cares about things after death. Maybe he will squander his property as much as possible before he dies.” Emilio shrugged, “But as long as I don’t make mistakes, he won’t touch me either. At least he hasn’t looked for me in the years I went back to Jones’s house. To me, he can be regarded as a kind father.”

“That’s good, so when you find a girlfriend in the future, you must first inquire clearly to see if the other party has any relationship with your father before.” Avery reminded kindly.

Emilio: "Hahaha...I'm not interested in women."

Avery was stunned: "You, do you like men?"

"How can you make up your mind so much? I don't like women and also don't like men. Born in such a family, it's not bad that I'm not tired of the world. If I change to someone with less mental capacity, I'm afraid I'll go crazy early." Emilio said, the food on his plate has been swept away.

Avery felt a little embarrassed about this topic, so she changed the topic: "You have such a good appetite."

"The food here is really good. Maybe I'm too hungry. Can you tell me in advance when you ask me for help next time? When Emilio said this, he yawned, "I'm going back to catch up on sleep."

"Well, let's go! If I have any questions I don't understand in the future, I'll ask you again." Avery saw him getting more and more pleasing to the eye.

Probably the more she knows about his family, the more pitiful she feels.

Or maybe it was because Emilio said that he was not interested in women, so he let go of his guard.

"Avery, although I'm not interested in women, my mother keeps forcing me to start a family. So I should still find a woman to start a family. I think you're good... First of all, you have nothing to do with my father, this is greatly reduced my troubles..."

"Shut up!" Avery's affection for him disappeared in an instant.

"Hahaha! Then I'm leaving!" After Emilio turned around, his bodyguards immediately followed.

Seeing them disappear in front of her eyes, Avery was always uneasy.

"Boss, what are you talking about with him, I see you being happy for a while and frowning..." The bodyguard sat down in Emilio's place.

"Nothing to talk about." Avery took chopsticks and dialed it unconsciously on the plate.

Avery was thinking why Travis wanted to find herself to treat Caleb.

What kind of medicine is in Travis's gourd?

After a while, her cell phone rang.

It was Travis who called.
