

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2151

Chapter 2151

“We don’t need to deal with Norah next. Travis hates Norah to the bones now, as long as Travis finds Norah, Norah will definitely be worse than death.” Elliot analyzed the matter to her.

Avery: “Elliot, why didn’t you tell me in advance?”

“Because I’m not sure if Norah will take the bait.” Elliot explained, “She only transferred the money this morning. I plan to meet you at night to tell you.”

Avery: “...How did you get her hooked?”

“After you told me that what happened in Yonroeville was her doing, I sent people to find her parents. Even if Margaret didn’t die, I would Get revenge on Norah.” Elliot said slowly, “But she took the bait, it shouldn’t be entirely because of her parents in Aryadelle. From the moment she failed on both of us, there was no way for her to escape.”

“Where are you now?” Avery listened to his methodical voice and felt that the former Elliot was back.

The familiar sense of security gave her a sigh of relief.

“Lunch break at home. Avery, I want to go back to Aryadelle to see the children.” Elliot was woken up, he simply lifted the quilt and got out of bed, “I haven’t seen them for a long time, I have to go back to see them.”

Elliot wasn’t talking to Avery to discuss, but to inform her.

Avery: “Elliot, I know you want to have children. We can ask the bodyguards to bring them here.”

“They have to go to school. Usually they only have two days off on weekends.” Elliot told her his thoughts, “Something happens to me if I stay here. I can’t be trapped here just because I’m afraid of something happening.”

Avery was silent for a moment, unable to refute him.

Avery: “Then I’ll go back to Aryadelle with you.”

“You invited a team to work with you. If you leave, will it be bad?” Elliot thought for a while, “I’ll come back in a few days, and I’ll be fine. “

Okay! Layla and Robert will definitely be very happy to see you. And Shea... You really should go back to Aryadelle to meet them." Avery figured it out, "you will leave tomorrow."

Avery: "Hmm."

After speaking, Avery looked at the phone screen and hesitated.

The $14 billion that Norah deceived from Travis is now in Elliot's hands. Does Avery want to tell Emilio about this?

Usually, no matter what happened to the Jones family, Emilio would tell Avery.

In all fairness, Emilio treated her very well.

After a brief hesitation, she sent Emilio a message and explained the truth.

Now that the matter is a foregone conclusion, even if the Jones family is told the truth, Travis will not change anything.

When Emilio saw the message she sent, she felt a huge sense of helplessness in her heart.

At the same time, the doubts in his heart were also resolved.

He said how could Norah be so bold and dare to tease Travis like this, it turned out that Elliot was behind the scenes.

Afternoon.

Travis woke up.

Seeing Emilio standing beside the hospital bed, Travis stared at him with scarlet eyes: "Did you find Norah? What are you doing here? Go find her!"

"Dad, it's useless to find Norah." Emilio said calmly, "Your money has been transferred to Elliot by Norah. It's not Norah, but Elliot who calculated you. Of course, for Elliot, it's not a calculation, it's revenge."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2152

Chapter 2152

Probably due to the too much stimulation today, Travis's psychological endurance has increased a lot.

After hearing what Emilio said, Travis didn't get sicker because of his anger.

He stared straight at the white wall in front of him, and the entire portrait was enchanted and frozen.

Emilio looked at his father's absent-minded appearance, as if he saw his father suddenly aged ten years before his eyes.

This sluggish mental state did not exist in Travis in the past.

"Dad, this money should not be recovered. You still want to open it up!" Emilio spoke again, comforting his father, "How much did you borrow? We will pay it back later."

Travis said: "Emilio, I'm not dead yet! Even if Margaret and Emmy are dead, but it doesn't change that Elliot is now a living dead! I have never been afraid of anyone in my life! Elliot is richer than me. What's the matter, I'm going to fight with him!"

"Dad, you'd better recuperate first! Your health is the most important thing." Emilio said calmly.

"You're such a jerk! You can't relieve my worries at all. What else can you do other than give me a funeral after I die?" Travis said. His blood pressure has stabilized a little now, and he felt that he would not die in a while, so his temper had changed to extra large.

"Then I'll go first." Emilio didn't want to get in his way here, nor did he want to get angry here.

Travis felt a little awkward when he saw that his son was leaving. He knew that what Emilio said just now was too ugly.

"Emilio!" Travis stopped his son, "Go and see Emmy. If she is really dead, then you go and handle her and Margaret's funeral in person!"

Emilio: "What do you want me to do? Be more grand or simple?"

Travis pondered for a few seconds, and then said: "Of course it's a bit more grand. Margaret is the winner of this year's March Medical Award. I will list the guest list for you, and you will inform you one by one when the time comes."

Emilio: "Okay."

"Emilio, I will leave this matter to you, you must do it well." Travis said earnestly, "You are my son, I have nothing to hide from you, half of the $14 billion is borrowed from the bank. I have to return principal with interest."

Emilio felt like a mountain was on his body, and his mood became heavier.

Emilio: "Dad, you asked me to do a good job, it's just a funeral, what can I do no matter how good it is?"

"Hehe, the funeral is just a cover! If it wasn't for turning over, do you think I would hold a funeral for this mother and daughter? Now I can't wait to pull Margaret's skin and slap her tendons! Let her never be born again!" Travis said this, his face flushed red, but he was in a good mood, "You go to the funeral first, the others I will arrange another person to do it. Whether our Jones family can turn over or not depends on this game!"

Emilio couldn't understand the mystery in his father's words, but seeing his father's full of confidence, he should have an idea in his heart.

After all, his father still doesn't trust him enough.

In the past few years, his father trusted most was Margaret.

It's a pity that Margaret was affectionate and politeness to him on the surface, but in fact he had other plans in his heart.

No, Margaret ruthlessly abandoned Travis when her goal was achieved.

Emilio felt that his father was actually quite pitiful. There was nothing he could do except take his anger on other people.

In the evening.

Avery returned home and showed Elliot the small gift she bought when Elliot came back.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2153

Chapter 2153

"If you take it back to your two children, you say it's a gift you bought for them." Avery thoughtfully explained, "You disappeared for so long, and the two children were worried and sad, so you brought a gift back, they'll be happier."

Elliot took a look at the gift she bought.

The gift she bought for Layla was a beautiful hairpin.

"My daughter's hobbies haven't changed over the years." Elliot chuckled.

"Layla is pretty, she likes any kind of jewelry. She's still young, so it's not appropriate to wear necklaces, bracelets, etc., so hair clips are better."

“There are many such toys in Aryadelle, I can buy them for him when I go back to Aryadelle.”

“It doesn’t take up space, you put them in the suitcase.” Avery said, taking the two gifts and walking towards the master bedroom, “Is the flight booked?”

Elliot: “It’s fixed. We will take off at 11 o’clock tomorrow.”

“Okay. You have returned to Aryadelle. If you feel unwell, you must go to the hospital immediately.” Avery explained earnestly, “Elliot, actually I think the children should be fine fine if they came here.”

“Avery, I’ve already bought the ticket and I’ve already called Layla.” Elliot knew that Avery couldn’t let go of herself, so he reassured, “I’ll be fine. My body will be fine, I know. I feel like I’m no different from before.”

Avery: “Because you are at home now, you don’t have to travel long distances. It takes ten hours on the plane, and the feeling of weightlessness when the plane takes off and landed. I’m afraid You can’t take it.”

“Avery, according to what you said, I can’t go anywhere but stay here.” Elliot patiently persuaded her, “If I can only live so fragile, it doesn’t really matter.”

Avery: “You can’t. Think only of yourself, not my feelings and the child’s.”

The two entered the master bedroom, and Avery took out a small suitcase and packed him.

“I’m sure I’m not as vulnerable as you think.” Elliot followed behind her, watching her pack,

“Actually, you don’t need to pack, there is everything at home in Aryadelle.”

“Then let’s go buy some gifts later! Pack a box of gifts and Go back.” Avery brought him a brand new set of toiletries and a spare set of clothes.

There’s plenty of space left in the trunk.

“Well, go for a walk after dinner.” Elliot thought that he was about to go back to see the two lovely children, and the corners of his mouth couldn’t restrain his rise, “I’ll give you that money from Travis!”

Avery blushed and turned to the side. Looking over at him: “What are you doing for me?”

“You have to spend a lot of money to find someone to study the device in my head together?” Elliot made a random excuse, “I’m already very uneasy for you to be burdened. I want you to spend money...”

“Don’t do this... If you want to give money, then give it. I’ll just take it.” Avery got goosebumps, “You’re still normal. One point, talk to me like before.”

Elliot smiled and took out a bank card from his pocket and handed it to Avery: “Travis owes a lot of debt now, I wonder if he can pay it off before he dies.”

Avery: “Travis deserves it. If he didn’t mess with us, we wouldn’t harass him like this.”

Elliot: “Yeah.”

After dinner, the two went shopping and bought gifts for the children.

At the same moment, Emilio received the funeral guest list from his father.

Emilio glanced at the list and saw Avery’s name in the list.

He wasn’t sure if Avery would come to Margaret and Emmy’s funeral, so he dialed Avery.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2154

Chapter 2154

“Avery, in three days, our family will hold a funeral for Margaret and Emmy. Can you come to attend?” Emilio asked, “If you don’t have time, forget it.”

“Your dad helps them. A funeral?” Avery questioned, “Your dad should hate Margaret to death, why did he help her with a funeral?”

“I don’t know.” Emilio really didn’t know the reason. Besides, he didn’t want to reveal Travis’s plan to Avery anymore. Now the Jones family was in debt of $7 billion, a figure he couldn’t imagine. He couldn’t stand on the opposite side of his father and help Avery and Elliot.

“Oh...let’s talk about it in three days!” Avery thought for a while, and replied, “Is your dad okay?”

Emilio: “Not so good. He borrowed $7 billion from the bank.”

“Emilio, You want to open up. That’s his debt, not yours. You don’t have to pay for him.” Avery didn’t know what to say other than comfort.

Because it was impossible for Avery to return the money to Travis.

Elliot told Avery that when Norah transferred money to him, according to his request, he noted the money for the purchase of the concept machine, so even if Travis went to court, he would not be able to get it back.

Travis could only go to Norah. And Norah didn't have so much money to return Travis.

Therefore, Travis could only eat this dumb loss abruptly.

As long as Elliot thought that Travis's half-life hard work had been pitted by himself, he would feel a sense of revenge.

Avery's mood was the same as his.

She couldn't be soft-hearted, let alone soft-handed, to a wicked person like Travis.

Emilio: "Avery, although my dad owes so much money, we will definitely be able to pay off the debt. You don't have to pretend to comfort me."

"Since you think I'm fake, why did you invite me to Margaret's funeral?" Avery retorted, "I'm not familiar with Margaret. I don't have any friendship with you either. If I have time to fake it with you, it's better to lie in bed and sleep for a few more minutes."

"I just called and invited you according to the list my dad gave me. if you don't like to participate then don't come." Emilio was in a bad mood, so he just kept talking.

"Okay, I see." Avery hung up the phone.

Elliot saw that Avery finished talking on the phone angrily, walked in front of her, and touched her hair: "Emilio?"

"Well. Emilio's mad at us." Avery put the phone in the bag, and said, "He is from the Jones family after all. Now the Jones family has almost been hollowed out, and his life has undergone great changes. I was not the same as him. Today's incident just made us all recognize this. One point."

Elliot: "I heard you say the funeral, Margaret's?"

"Yeah! Travis was planning to hold a funeral for Margaret and Emmy and wanted to invite me." Avery saw Elliot's face change, as if it was dangerous she immediately said, "I won't go. We and Travis have completely torn apart our faces. Travis must have no good intentions in inviting me."

"It's good that you have this vigilance." Elliot breathed a sigh of relief.

"I'm not stupid." Avery said and walked forward, "I just want to quickly crack the device in your head. I don't even have time to go back to see the children, where can I go to participate in Margaret's funeral?"

Elliot: "Well."

Two days later, Aryadelle.

Elliot came out of the airport and saw Ben Schaffer and Gwen at a glance.

"Brother!" Gwen shouted excitedly when she saw Elliot.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2155

Chapter 2155

Before this, Gwen had never called Elliot so affectionately.

In the past, she always thought that Elliot was an invulnerable god, but after experiencing this incident, she found that Elliot was just an ordinary person with flesh and blood.

Elliot didn't expect that Gwen would suddenly change her name to call him brother, which was a little uncomfortable.

Elliot strode up in front of them, and before he could speak, Ben Schaffer followed suit and called out brother.

Elliot: "..."

"He is my brother, not your brother!" Gwen glared at Ben Schaffer, "I haven't married you yet!"

"Gwen, you have already agreed. I proposed, you have to marry me sooner or later." Ben Schaffer was not convinced, "You said before that you would marry me when you found your brother. Now that your brother is back, when will we have the wedding?"

Elliot: "Is the wedding ready?"

"It's ready! My parents prepared it." Ben Schaffer explained, "I should have prepared it, but after your accident, I'm really not in the mood to prepare for the wedding."

"Since you're ready, then you two get married as soon as possible!" Elliot meant that while he was still in good health, he could still see them getting married, so the wedding should be done as soon as possible.

Ben Schaffer couldn't understand his overtones.

Ben: "I'm not in such a hurry. Wait for Avery to solve your problem..."

"Her senior said that she might not be able to solve my problem for the rest of her life." Elliot asked Ben to think about some practical problems, "You are not young. Now, hurry up and settle down so your parents can feel at ease."

"Brother, why don't you ask me for my opinion? How do you turn your elbow out?" Gwen pulled Elliot's arm, "I'm your sister!"

Elliot was not used to Gwen being so close to him, so he pushed her hand away, "Ben Schaffer is the best choice you can find now."

"Isn't Ben just richer than me? I'm younger than him..." Gwen whispered softly.

"I know him well, and his advantages are not only reflected in economic aspects." Elliot explained to Gwen in detail, "Ben will not treat you badly. If you go out and find a man yourself, can you guarantee that others will always treat you well?"

How can you guarantee that Ben will always be good to me?" Gwen retorted to Elliot, "Unless you stay alive and become his boss."

"You are wrong." Elliot corrected Gwen, "I am not his boss, we two are partners."

Gwen: "..."

Ben Schaffer felt amused when he heard the words of the two brothers and sisters: "Okay, let's get in the car first! Elliot, Gwen has already decided to marry me, so don't worry about me. I can tell you for sure that I conquered her with my personal charm. It has absolutely nothing to do with my money."

Gwen broke down: "Don't you try going bankrupt now?"

Ben Schaffer: "...."

After the three of them got into the car, the car drove towards Foster's house.

"I thought Avery would come back with you." Gwen asked, "Brother, how long will you be back?"

"About a week!" Elliot replied, "Avery is very busy."

"Has the research progressed?" Ben Schaffer was concerned about the inquiry.

Elliot: "Margaret died, leaving nothing behind."

"This Margaret is really vicious! You have no grievances with her, why does she torture you like this? She can die, why not put the device in your head? why doesn't she tell you about it clearly?" Ben Schaffer frowned, feeling that the matter was very difficult, "What happened to Travis?"

"Margaret didn't tell him any relevant clues. So I asked Norah to put him on the line. He will face huge debts next."

"Find the solution." Ben Schaffer prayed.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2156

Chapter 2156

"You must never say such things in front of Avery." Gwen felt that Avery was under a lot of pressure, "She didn't go back to Aryadelle with her brother, she must be more anxious about this matter than anyone else."

"I haven't contacted her since I returned to Aryadelle. I know she's busy, so I don't dare to disturb." Ben Schaffer said, looking at Elliot, "Elliot, I think you are in a good state of mind now, and you look fatter a little than before. Avery raised you well!"

Gwen: "My brother is fat? I think he is much thinner than before."

"That's because you haven't seen Avery just pick him up. At that time, he was very thin, and he looked a bit scary." Ben Schaffer added fuel to it, "I didn't dare to tell you at that time, I was afraid that you would feel bad."

Gwen's nose was sour.

"Okay, your brother is back now, don't be sentimental." Ben Schaffer said, reminding Elliot, "Shea heard that you came back today, and took the child to live at your house last night."

Elliot heard Shea's name, the expression on his face suddenly softened a lot.

Not long after, the car arrived at Foster's house.

The car slowed down and slowly drove into the front yard.

In the yard, Shea and Wesley, Layla and Robert, Jun and Tammy, Maria and Kara... they filed out of the room.

when Elliot got out of the car, they all walked towards him.

It seemed like it's New Year's Eve at home.

“Why are you all here?” Elliot wasn’t quite used to so many people surrounding him, “Layla, why didn’t you go to school?”

“Dad, you’ve already died once, and you almost can’t come back. If I go normally Don’t you feel sad about going to school?” Layla looked at her father’s face and said bitterly, “Fortunately you are back, otherwise I will have no father.”

Layla said, her eyes were red.

Elliot immediately took Layla into his arms: “Layla, Dad should come back to see you sooner.”

“Dad! Dad hugs me!” Robert saw his dad hugging her sister, he was instantly jealous and shouted.

When Elliot heard Robert’s scream, he immediately let go of Layla and looked at his younger son.

But in just a few months, Robert had grown a little taller. Originally, his small face was chubby, but now he was not so fleshy.

“Why are your siblings still jealous?” Tammy teased, “Layla, don’t argue with your brother.”

“Hmph! Smelly brother! I won’t let him!” Layla held Elliot’s body and didn’t let go.

Tammy: “Layla, I’m not partial to your brother, I’m afraid your father can’t stand it.”

After hearing this, Layla immediately let go of her father.

Seeing this opportunity, Robert immediately hugged his father’s leg.

Elliot picked up Robert with one hand and held Layla with the other, and walked into the house.

“Dad brought you a lot of gifts. It just so happens that Maria and Kara are also there. Can the four of you share them together?” Elliot discussed with Layla.

“Dad, the three of them are children, but I’m not a child!” Layla retorted, “I’m going to junior high school, I’m a big kid!”

Elliot: “Okay, our Layla is a big child.”

“Big kid! Not a big child! Dad, you are not allowed to call me a child!” Layla said seriously, “I don’t want to be a child.”

“Layla, you would always be a child in Daddy’s heart. Because Daddy wanted to hold you up forever in the palm of his hand.” Elliot looked at Layla’s face that looked like Avery, and couldn’t help but feel numb.

Others either sighed, or were blushing numbly.

“Elliot, are you so nasty to Avery? How could I hear Avery say that you don’t have a few nice words in your mouth, and how come your daughter’s mouth is like honey?” Tammy chastised Elliot.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2157

Chapter 2157

“Tammy, you don’t need to satirize Brother Elliot. Brother Elliot has gone through a near-death experience, and his mentality must have changed. Moreover, I think Brother Elliot doesn’t speak love to Avery because he has done more.”

Everyone’s eyes turned to him.

“Uh... I mean, Brother Elliot is a doer, and he must take good care of Avery. Otherwise, can Avery follow him so determinedly?” Jun said, and picked up his daughter Kara. I want to take my daughter to the kitchen to find something delicious.

Kara hummed and pushed Jun away.

“I don’t want to play with you. I want to play with sister Layla, brother Robert, and little sister Maria!”

Jun was disgusted by his daughter Kara and was a little sad.

At this time, Elliot’s bodyguard came in with Elliot’s suitcase.

Elliot took the box from the bodyguard and opened it.

Inside was a box full of gifts.

The four little guys immediately surrounded the suitcase.

“Hmph, I think you want to share gifts!” Jun couldn’t help laughing as he watched his daughter’s two little hands grab gifts in the suitcase.

Mrs. Cooper brought the dishes to the table and called them to eat.

“How are you feeling now?” Wesley walked to Elliot and asked, “Is there any discomfort? If there is any discomfort, you must tell me in time. Avery sent me a message and asked me to ask you every day. “

“Avery is really worried about me going back to Aryadelle. But I’m not as vulnerable as she thought. I feel very good now. I’m very happy.” Elliot said, looking at Shea next to Wesley, “Shea, Even if I die, you have to live a good life. If I die before you, that’s normal.”

Shea was originally happy, but when she heard what Elliot said, she frowned: “I don’t want you to die.”

Elliot: “Everyone will die.”

Shea: “I don’t want you to die in front of me.”

“This is beyond your control.” Elliot wanted her to learn to accept reality.

In the past, Elliot had protected her so well that her psychological endurance was particularly poor.

“Elliot, don’t talk to her about this topic. You are back now, and everyone is very happy. We won’t talk about such a heavy topic today.” Seeing Shea clenching her fist, Wesley interrupted the topic immediately.

While eating, Avery’s video call came.

It was late at night in Bridgedale now.

Elliot took the video call and saw that Avery was wearing pajamas, but she looked in good spirits.

“Avery, you haven’t slept yet?” Elliot asked, “Didn’t you say you don’t have to stay up all night and wait for me to report safety?”

“You didn’t report safety to me at all.” Avery complained, “It’s been an hour and a half since you arrived, and I haven’t seen you give it to me. I sent a message. Did you forget me as soon as you returned to Aryadelle?”

Elliot was stunned, then set the camera to the rear and showed Avery to everyone in the dining room.

When Avery saw so many people at home, the expression on her face instantly stiffened.

“Hahaha! Avery, you’re blaming him wrong. Ben Schaffer and I picked him up at the airport. After we picked him up, we dragged him all the way to chat, but he didn’t even have time to take out his cell phone. When he got home, he was caught by a group of people. I don’t even have the time to drink water when I am surrounded.” Gwen explained for him.

Avery: “Did you all ask for leave? Today is not the weekend!”

Gwen: “Yes! We have all asked for leave! It’s a pity that you and Hayden didn’t come back. It would be better if you two came back!”

Elliot felt that it was too noisy, so he took his mobile phone and left the dining room.

“Avery, don’t go to Margaret and Emmy’s funeral tomorrow.” Elliot reminded, “I heard that Travis was discharged from the hospital.”
