Chapter 2276

Norah's eyes flickered and she said, "No. Sasha is very suspicious and doesn't trust me very much."

Before this plan, Norah made numerous calls to Sasha's number, sent numerous text messages, and She transferred countless sums of money to the bank card number she provided earlier.

Perhaps it was her money that moved Sasha.

Sasha texted her back a few days ago.

Norah also thought of a way to assassinate Travis after Sasha replied to her.

Sasha's number on her original phone was not the real Sasha's number.

Just a bait.

Others didn't know Sasha's real number, so Travis had no way of obtaining evidence.

It was precisely because of this that the plan could be so smooth and successful.

Travis exhausted his organs and finally lost.

This gave Norah great confidence.

"Sasha said that if I could share the Jones family's property, she would consider meeting me." Norah continued, "I don't have the Tate Industries now, and I don't have a decent job. She thinks that I have no value in dealing with me. She is very realistic and very cautious. She is even more cautious than Travis. Travis was self-righteous, but Sasha is not."

"After all, Sasha has no power or money." Madelyn said, "Does she know Haze's whereabouts? "

Norah: "Sasha wouldn't reveal it. She just told me to get Travis's estate and then contact her."

"Norah, you don't need to find Haze's whereabouts. Didn't you do something for Elliot? He hurt you. Being chased and killed by Travis, it is your fate that you survive. You and Elliot have already settled. There is no need for you to find a daughter for him!" Madelyn didn't want the woman to have any more relationship with Elliot, "If you can Getting some of Travis's property will be enough for you to have food and clothing for the rest of your life."

Norah had her own considerations: "I'm looking for Haze, of course not to complete Elliot, but for myself. Mom, have you seen a news? Many years ago, Elliot spent billions to find the whereabouts of his sister Shea. Although all relevant news was deleted later, since Elliot said such words, he must be able to afford so much money."

Madelyn immediately understood what her daughter meant.

Norah wanted to find Haze before Elliot and the others, and then trade with Elliot.

"I'm still saying that, be careful." Madelyn urged, "Money is more important than life. But For people like us who don't have a background, wealth is a risk."

"I know. Wait for me. I will let you know when there is progress." Norah said and hung up the phone.

The other side.

Emilio met his father's lawyer.

The two sat down in the private room of a teahouse and drank tea.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2277

Chapter 2277

After the lawyer sat down, he looked at Emilio with a smile in his eyes, "I should call you Mr. Jones in the future."

When the lawyer usually saw Emilio, he called him 'Second Young Master' just like everyone else.

Emilio did not expect lawyers to be so direct.

"Lawyer Lake, did my father really leave an estate to me?" Emilio couldn't believe it, so he asked, "My father always said that I was not able to work, and would rather donate all his property than leave it to his children..."

"Haha! That's what your father said. If he doesn't say that, how can he encourage you to work hard?" Lawyer Lake did not immediately tell him the contents of his will, "Your father has a rather eccentric temper. A little bit, you should feel the same, right?"

“Well. My father never praised me. But my eldest sister said that My father praised me privately. I didn’t expect that it was after his death that I found out that he praised me.” Emilio brewed tea and said helplessly, “To be honest, I don’t feel how incompetent I am, because my father told me that I was incompetent day after day, which caused me to stop believing in myself many times. “

“I understand your feelings. That’s why I said on the phone that your time has come. No one will point fingers at you in the future. You can show your skills.” Lawyer Lake said, “When your father was alive, In fact, every day he was hesitant about how to divide his property.”

“I can imagine how entangled he is. He often says that he should donate all his property. The more he said that, the more he was reluctant to donate it all.” Emilio answered, “And he didn’t have any feelings for his own children. We were all just pawns in his hands.”

“Your father told you to donate it, but he didn’t say that to me. He’s not someone who completely disregards blood ties. Although he made so much money to show his own ability, he certainly didn’t want to see his children and grandchildren suffer miserably.”

“You said my father very well. Maybe he was different in front of outsiders and his own children.” Emilio would not lie to compliment because his father left him an inheritance.

Lawyer Lake: “Maybe! Your father gave me the same feeling as other rich people except for being suspicious. Most rich people are suspicious.”

Emilio: “Well.”

“You may be suspicious of your father, but there is no specific.” Lawyer Lake said with a smile, “Your father contacted me every day.”

“You said this just now. But I didn’t take it seriously.” Emilio looked at Lawyer Lake, “Why did my father wanted to contact you every day?”

Lawyer Lake lowered his voice and said, “Because he had to revise his will every day.”

Emilio: “...”

“It’s not that I’m exaggerating, it’s true. Yes, he took time to talk to me every day about you and your siblings.” Lawyer Lake said, “Before your elder brother made a mistake, your father valued your elder brother the most. Because he has a good working ability. Since he worked, he has given to your father a lot of money. But after he made a mistake, your father completely removed him from the list of heirs. So your elder brother won’t get a dime of inheritance.”

Emilio was not surprised by this.

“Let’s talk about your eldest sister, your dad used to consider giving your eldest sister some of the property. Because your eldest sister’s working ability is not bad. It’s just that after her marriage, she was not in good order in her private life, and it was revealed that she was messing with Jayce Grewal, which led to disharmony with her husband, and finally ended in divorce. After your eldest sister divorced, she fell in love with Jayce Grewal, who was not in the right household, and your father was very angry. Your father’s legacy.”

Emilio was very surprised when he heard this.

“My eldest sister is not at fault except for falling in love with a younger man. How many girlfriends does my dad have? Compared with him, what kind of love history does she have?” Although Emilio had no relationship with the eldest sister, but he felt that it was somewhat outrageous that his father did not give anything to the eldest sister because of such a trivial matter.

“You are his children, he can ask you to do things according to his ideas, but you can’t ask him. This is his idea.” Lawyer Lake told Emilio Travis’s attitude.

“But if my eldest brother and eldest sister don’t share a penny of property, aren’t others even less qualified?” Emilio analyzed rationally, “Only me and eldest brother and eldest sister work in Jones’s company, and the others do not serve the Jones family at all. “

Chapter 2278

“Actually, it can’t be calculated as you said. After all, you are not your father’s employees, but children. Other children, as long as they don’t make big mistakes, can get a little soup. Your elder brother and elder sister, If they don’t work at Jones’s house, maybe they can get some points!”

Lawyer Lake explained.

Emilio felt ironic. Just like his father’s life, it’s like a farce.

“Emilio, you are lucky.” Lawyer Lake changed the subject and looked at him with the eyes of an elder, “Your father left you almost all of his property. Why do I say you are lucky, because you happened to bring Jones family back at that time. Norah’s mobile phone has contacted Sasha, which makes your father very satisfied. So when your father revised his will for the last time, he gave you almost all the property. He originally planned to give you not so much property.”

Emilio: “...”

His heart went up and down with Lawyer Lake’s words, which was very exciting.

If what Lawyer Lake said is true, then he is really lucky enough.

If the last time his father revised his will was when he had made him angry, he might have gotten nothing.

This thing was really incredible and unpredictable.

After all, who knew that Travis revised his will every day?

This was more exciting than stock trading! Kind of like opening a blind box.

“You may not have imagined that your father originally considered giving Norah an inheritance. He said that Norah is the one with the most similar character among all his children.” Lawyer Lake continued to share Travis’s gossip with Emilio, “Your father likes Norah very much. He may not show it to you, but he told me that privately.”

“Actually, his behavior was quite obvious.” Emilio replied, “At least I could see it at the time. The tone of my father’s speech to Norah was different from the way he looked at Norah, and it was a pity that Norah was offended at the time. If Norah didn’t offend Elliot and didn’t seek asylum to find my father, the outcome might be different.”

“It’s all fate. You’re the best of all Mr. Jones’s children.” Lawyer Lake said firmly, “When do you think the will will be announced?”

“I’ll talk to the other brothers and sisters tomorrow. Don’t worry about releasing the will. Let’s wait until the body of my father is found!” Emilio was a little excited now and needed to calm down.

At the same time, he also needed to make follow-up deployments.

Travis’s inheritance had been given to him, and he must keep his inheritance from being taken away by Norah and others.

After meeting with Lawyer Lake, Emilio returned to his residence under the escort of bodyguards.

When he got home, he walked around the living room excitedly.

The joy on his face was undisguised, and the mood he wanted to share was uncontrollable.

Most of the friends around him were wine and meat friends, and it was not suitable for them to talk about such important things.

Avery’s face naturally appeared in his mind.

Avery said that she regarded him as a friend. Now he especially wanted to share this happy event with Avery.

But Aryadelle was late at night, so it's not suitable to disturb Avery.

In the evening.

Norah invited Camila Jones, the elder sister of the Jones family, to meet.

Camila didn't want to meet Norah at first. After all, Norah helped Elliot deceive his father of $14 billion, and it didn't take long.

For someone like Norah, who had the scheming and shrewdness, and dared to put things into action, Camila felt that she couldn't afford to offend her.

Chapter 2279

Even if Travis was gone, Camila didn't dare to associate with her.

But Norah said on the phone that she wanted to talk to her about the division of the inheritance, which made Camila unable to hold back and went out to make an appointment.

.....

Aryadelle.

Foster family.

Avery and Elliot were sitting at the dining table for breakfast.

Avery opened the phone and took a look. A news about New Year's Day popped up.

These days, she had been with Elliot at home, and she had no idea what day had passed.

She thought that New Year's Day would take a few days to arrive, but the news pop-up window made her realize that it would be New Year's Day in half a month.

"Elliot, it's almost New Year's Day." Avery put down her phone and chatted with Elliot, "Do you feel that when you're not working, life goes by so fast?"

Elliot wanted to go along with her, but he didn't want to lie, "I work every day. So it's not particularly deep."

Since Avery allowed Elliot to use the computer, Elliot had been working every day.

“Okay, it seems that I have to arrange some work for myself.” Avery envied him for adjusting his life to a normal track so quickly, “Aren’t you dizzy?”

Elliot thought about this question and answered honestly: “When I was just discharged from the hospital, I occasionally felt pain at the location of the wound. But I didn’t feel dizzy.”

“You are in good health. If someone else is like you, and two stabs are on the head, the mental state is definitely not as good as yours.” Avery continued to envy him.

“I recovered so well, mainly because you took good care of me.” Elliot didn’t forget to praise her, “If you hadn’t been at home with me every day, I would have not recovered so well.”

“It has nothing to do with me in your recovery.” Avery analyzed rationally, “You have a good physique and recover quickly, but I can’t help you much.”

“If you weren’t at home with me, I would have gone to work long ago. Going to work every day and running back and forth will definitely not be as good as it is now.” Elliot explained to her from another angle.

Avery looked at him in shock: “Elliot, if it weren’t for me, would you really go to work in your situation?”

“Yeah. Although I haven’t had a craniotomy before, I’ve also had a serious car accident. At that time, I became a vegetative person and almost died in bed, have you forgotten?” Elliot’s tone was light, and the words ‘almost died in bed’ came out of his mouth, as if he was not breaking through the gate of h-e-l-l, but playing an adventure game.

“Are you proud? You had a car accident, but you didn’t wake up immediately.” Avery teased.

“What I mean is that if I didn’t die in the beginning, I must have good luck.” Elliot talked eloquently, “It’s just a craniotomy. Compared with my original injury, it’s nothing at all.”

Avery was also dreaming. Unexpectedly, she could hear from Elliot’s mouth the words ‘If I don’t die, I will have good luck’.

Avery: “A lot of people who do evil, probably think like this.”

“Think more about the good.” Elliot picked up the milk cup and took a sip of milk, “If I’m not feeling well, I’ll definitely rest at home. I’m not stupid.”

Avery can't help laughing: "I saw the news just now that many people are going to temples to pray for the New Year. This year seems to have done a lot, and it seems that nothing has been done, and it will pass in a flash."

Elliot heard what she meant: "Do you also want to go to the temple to pray for blessings? Let me go with you!"

Avery shook her head without hesitation: "You can't drive up to that temple. You have to climb up. First of all, this is not suitable for you. Second, people on the mountain are too many, and it is not suitable for you to go."

"Then I will accompany you to the foot of the mountain, and you can climb up by yourself. I will wait for you at the foot of the mountain, okay?" Elliot wanted to accompany her out.

Even just looking at the scenery outside was better than staying at home all day.

Avery hesitated for a while, but in the end, unable to resist the powerful thoughts in her heart, so she nodded.

Chapter 2280

Bridgedale.

Norah waited in the restaurant for about half an hour before the eldest sister Camila.

Camila was not late on purpose.

"The road is blocked! I forgot to tell you that the restaurant you chose has a very average taste. Don't look at it as if it's popular, it's all because of its good location. Even if you open a pancake stand here, the business will be booming..." Camila said, and sat down in the chair.

"I live near here, so I chose this one." Norah explained with a smile, "Eldest sister, Travis is dead, has Emilio ever looked for you?"

Camila's expression froze slightly: "Who told you about Travis's death? Didn't he find the body yet? Emilio didn't look for me. After all, my father's body hasn't been found yet..."

"Hahaha! Emilio already knew that Travis was dead." Norah laughed, "It's just that he didn't tell you."

Camila's face changed suddenly, and a burst of anger floated up: "How do you know that our father is dead? How did you know that Emilio knows about this?"

"I'm telling you this, in fact it's useless. Based on Travis's attitude towards you during his lifetime, it is estimated that he will not give you any property." Norah gave her a crit, "Don't you still have expectations?"

"Norah, you invite me out, just to hit me with these words?" Camila's face turned purple.

Norah looked at her with time: "Eldest sister, I just told the truth, you can't take it anymore? If it really hits you, won't you go crazy?"

Camila's chest heaved rapidly. Her breathing also became hot: "Norah, don't call me eldest sister! the sound is disgusting!"

"Then Emilio calls you eldest sister, don't you feel disgusted? Travis is dead, Emilio is the biggest beneficiary. Believe it or not, Travis may have given all his property to Emilio alone? Travis prefers sons to daughters, this matter Everyone knows it, you don't know it, right?" Norah picked up the kettle on the table and poured tea and gave it to Camila, "Eldest sister, drink some tea to reduce the fire."

Why didn't Camila know that her father was a lot of boy and young girl, why didn't she know that her father didn't like her, maybe she really didn't give her anything?

It's just that she didn't want to think her father was so heartless!

After graduating, she joined Jones's family to work. In her last marriage, she followed her father's arrangement and married a man she didn't like.

Even if the new boyfriend she found later made her father dissatisfied, her father wouldn't leave her a penny, right?

"Norah, you said my father died, where did you get the news?" Camila calmed down a little after taking a sip of water.

"Because I know where Travis's body is. As long as I want, I can expose his body at any time." A smug smile appeared on Norah's face, "I dare to appear in public today, which is the best proof."

Camila's face turned pale with fright: "You killed my father!"

"If he doesn't die, I have to die. Eldest sister, can't you understand such a simple thing? He is not only your dad, but also my dad. If he didn't want me to die, how could I kill him?"

Camila took a deep breath and accepted this terrible truth.

“Eldest sister, do you want to verify what I just said?” Norah said calmly, “Travis must have given all the inheritance to Emilio. And Emilio has probably asked Travis’s lawyer. Emilio must know everything now. But he didn’t tell you. I guess he’s thinking about how to keep these inheritances.”

Camila: “How to verify? If Emilio is killed and doesn’t say anything, is it possible that I can pry his mouth open?”

Norah: “As long as I disclose Travis’s body, you can go to Travis’s lawyer?”

Camila suddenly realized: “Where is my father’s body?”

“Eldest sister, don’t you think that I asked you out for food? Shall we drink tea?” Norah chuckled softly, “If Travis didn’t share the inheritance with you, are you going to grit your teeth and admit the grievance, or come with me and find a way to get back what belongs to us from Emilio? “
