Chapter 2378

In addition to being bored, she would also be cranky.

“Or if you send me up the mountain, I can guarantee that I will never go down the mountain for the rest of my life.” Siena begged while pulling her mother-in-law’s clothes.

“Siena, you can’t go back to the mountain in the future. Because Avery may go to the mountain at any time. Miss won’t let you go back there again.” The mother-in-law held Siena’s little hand tightly, “If you really want to go to school, I will discuss it with the Miss.”

When the mother-in-law said this, she saw Siena looking away.

The mother-in-law followed Siena's eyes— She saw that several people were staring at them with the maliciousness of watching a play in their eyes, and they were talking about it unabashedly.

“This little girl is so pitiful! There is such a big scar on her face! It is estimated that surgery will not be able to remove it when she grows up.”

“It's a pity. This little girl's eyes are very beautiful...”

“I guess that's all. Don't dare to send it to school! This will definitely scare other children.”

The mother-in-law shouted at the women:

“A group of long-tongued women!”

After the mother-in-law roared, the women Walk away immediately.

“Mother-in-law, they said I would scare other children.” Siena reached out and covered her right face.

Her right face was covered with terrible scars. It's like there were several large worms about to crawl out of the skin...

Mother-in-law: "No. When others see the scar on your face, they will only think that you are a very courageous child and will not despise you. You must not feel inferior because of this. Siena, you only have the scar on your face, Only in this way can you cover your original appearance. Only in this way is the safest, you know?"

"But mother-in-law, this thing on my face is itchy." Siena would always uncontrollably want to reach out and scratch the itch on her face. Every time Siena's mother-in-law saw it, she would stop Siena.

“After a while, you’ll get used to it. You can’t tear it off not only during the day, but also when you sleep at night.” Mother-in-law urged, “No matter who asks you, you can’t say it’s fake! These scars are yours. Your amulet! It can save your life! Remember that?!”

If it wasn’t for the scary scar on Siena’s face, her mother-in-law would never take Siena out of the house.

This method was thought up by the Miss, and mother-in-law thought this method was very good.

“Mother-in-law, I remember.” Siena’s eyes were full of tears.

Although Siena was still a child, she already had a love for beauty. She wanted to be beautiful, and she didn’t want to wear ugly scars on her face, but she didn’t dare not listen to her mother-in-law’s words.

Thinking that she would have to wear such an ugly scar mask to live in the future, be pointed and talked about by others, and might scare others, she couldn't help crying.

“Don't cry!” The mother-in-law immediately held her little face and raised her face, “Siena, don't cry! This trivial matter is not worth crying at all! Don't you want to avenge your mother? You have a bloody vengeance on your shoulders, you must be strong!”

Revenge...what a strange and distant word.

She's only four years old, she's never met her mother, she couldn't remember anything about her, she didn't want revenge, she just wanted to live like other kids.

But she knew that if she spoke her heart out, her mother-in-law would definitely be angry.

Siena held back her tears and quickly adjusted her mood.
