

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2573

Chapter 2573

Siena first went to the auxiliary building to take a look; Lucas was no longer at home, so she came to the back kitchen of the main building.

Seeing her coming, Mrs. Perry smiled and said, “Young Master is not at home tonight; you can rest at home!”

“Master asked me to come over at noon, so I came here. I see him not at home anymore.” Siena said as she assisted Mrs. Perry with the dishes.

“He went to the Lawson family to celebrate the Lawson family’s daughter’s birthday! He just left not long ago!”

Mrs. Perry said,

“Master Hogan went with him and brought a lot of expensive gifts.”

Siena froze for a moment.

It turned out that he said he had something to go out today and was going to celebrate the daughter of the Lawson family’s birthday.

What a coincidence! Unexpectedly, she had the same birthday as the daughter of the Lawson family.

“I heard that today’s birthday party invited a lot of dignitaries from the city! It was held at the Lawson family’s manor, and Madam Hogan couldn’t go if she wanted to! Because the Lawson family only invited Young Master Lucas, and the master will have to come back first.” Mrs. Perry couldn’t stop talking about this gossip, “Young Master Lucas is really lucky! He was actually taken by Miss Piper’s family. Miss Piper’s parents didn’t stop it, which means that Young Master Lucas and Miss Piper are still possible. “

Siena responded: “Young Master is handsome, and girls really like him!”

“Haha! You also like Young Master Lucas, right?” Mrs. Perry glanced at Siena and said, “There are no outsiders here, you don’t need to say sorry. If I were 20 years younger, I would also be fascinated by Young Master Lucas’s appearance. He doesn’t look like the master at all. It is said that he looks like his mother. His mother must be a great beauty.”

“Hmm. The Eldest Young Master and the Second Young Master are actually a bit like the Master, especially the Second Young Master.” Siena chatted with Mrs. Perry.

“Yes. Madam has always said that the master prefers the second young master because the second young master looks more like the master. The second young master goes abroad to study, and the tuition fee for a year is quite a lot! It is more expensive than the previous tuition of the eldest young master. I heard that the master secretly gave the second young master extra pocket money.” Mrs. Perry lowered her voice a lot. Siena remembered that the second young master wanted to repay his debt. Thinking about it, the second young master did have a lot of pocket money. “How should I put it? The three young masters are the master’s own sons, and the master must value them all. But now the master’s most important thing should be Young Master Lucas. If Young Master Lucas can marry Miss Piper, Madam will not dare to bully Young Master Lucas anymore.” When Mrs. Perry said this, she took a special look at Siena and said, “Siena, you don’t have to feel bad, Young Master Lucas is destined to marry a woman of the right family. It’s not something ordinary people can imagine.”

Siena concealed her embarrassment with a smile: “As long as Young Young Master Lucas is happy, I will be happy.”

Mrs. Perry: “Yeah. He is really good to you. We all know that his teacher is for you. You can get a salary and not delay your studies. You must be good at it. Only by taking the exam can you be worthy of Young Master Lucas’s kindness to you.”

Siena: “I know. I will definitely take the exam.”

For lunch, Siena ate with Mrs. Perry in the back kitchen of the main building.

After lunch, Siena helped to clean up the back kitchen and returned to the auxiliary building.

The teacher would come over in the afternoon.

In the evening, Lucas said he would help her celebrate her birthday.

So even though Lucas was not at home now, Siena’s mood didn’t fluctuate much.

Mrs. Perry was right.

Lucas was the Hogan family’s young master, and there had to be more than one young lady willing to marry him, Miss Piper.

When the time comes, he could choose any young lady to marry, and he could live a comfortable life in the future.

She could only be Lucas’s nanny at best.

After all, Lucas had already promised that she would be willing to hire her as a nanny in the future.

Thinking of this, she felt a bit of bitterness in her heart.

She really didn't want to be a nanny for a lifetime.

She studied so hard in order to get rid of this poor life in the future and make a difference.

Her mother-in-law said that as long as she studied hard, she would surely succeed in the future.

Time flies, and it's night.

Siena cooked a bowl of noodles and ate them. Someone knocked on the door of the auxiliary building while she was washing the dishes.

She thought it was Lucas who came back, immediately put down the bowl, ran to the door quickly, and opened it.

“Second Young Master.”

“I thought it was Lucas who came back! He is not at home today, you can rest.” Cyrus Hogan said, “Don't you know that he went to celebrate the daughter of the Lawson family's birthday? Probably tonight, they won't come back.”

Siena: “But Young Master Lucas said that he would come back tonight.”
