Chapter 2797

“Yeah! Dad, I also talked to the second brother. I know you are more worried about my night shift. I don’t think this is a problem, nor should it be a difficulty that hinders my progress. I can do it during the winter vacation. Sleep during the day and go to work at night.” Hazel had already decided to go to practice.

Elliot could hear the determination in Hazel’s tone, and knew it was useless to say anything.

Hazel might be submissive if she were stopped forcibly, but she would undoubtedly be troubled inside.

“I’ll call Hector Joly and ask him to arrange a better time slot for you.” Elliot still didn’t want Hazel to stay up late to work.

“Dad, don’t embarrass Teacher Joly.” Hazel said seriously, “This is the regulation of the TV station, and I don’t want to be a person who breaks the rules. And my current ability is not up to the level of broadcasting a good time and I may not be able to perform well because of being too nervous.”

Elliot listened to his daughter, was silent for a few seconds, and decided to follow her.

He knew that his daughter could definitely endure hardships. After all, she had endured hardships every day for the past 18 years.

“You try it first when the time comes. If you don’t feel comfortable, you must tell your parents.” Elliot urged.

“I will.” Hazel’s mood suddenly improved, “Dad, I’m shopping with Lilly and Maria now. I haven’t played with them for a while, and I’m so happy now.”

Elliot listened Hazel’s laughter and the expression on her face relaxed a lot.

Elliot: “Have you brought bodyguards?”

Hazel: “Well. Uncle bodyguards have been following us!”

“Then you go shopping! Buy what you like, don’t be reluctant to spend money. You can also buy whatever Lilly and Maria like. You can buy them for them. I’m afraid they won’t be willing to spend money.” Elliot continued to instruct.

“Okay, dad. Go to bed!”

After talking on the phone, Elliot came out of the bathroom.

Avery was woken up, opened her eyes, and looked towards Elliot.

“What time is it?” Avery reached out and rubbed her eyes.

“It’s 3:30 a.m.” Elliot strode to the bed, flung his long legs, and got on the bed, “I just called Hazel, did it wake you up?”

Avery’s voice was hoarse, and she reached out to hug Elliot: “Well, I heard a sound, I thought I was dreaming. Why did you call my daughter at this time? What happened?”

“Your daughter is planning to go to a TV station for an internship during the winter vacation. Hector Joly arranged for her to host at night. The show, my daughter will have to work the night shift. It will be very hard. Of course I don’t want my daughter to be so tired, but she has already decided to go.” Elliot explained the matter to Avery.

“Oh... work the night shift! It’s very tiring.” Avery sighed slightly, “But since Hazel has made up her mind, let’s not interfere.”

“No interference. I wanted to tell Hector Joly to give her a better time, but she refused. She doesn’t want to be special.”

Avery responded: “Actually, Hector Joly has opened the back door for her by letting her go for an internship. My daughter should also know this very well, so I don’t want to trouble Hector Joly any more.”

Elliot: “It must have opened the back door! My daughter said that this kind of internship position is usually done by junior and senior students.”

Avery: “Then we returned to Aryadelle and asked Hector Joly to do it.” Let’s meet Hector Joly!”

Chapter 2798

“Are you going to thank Hector?” Elliot didn’t think it was necessary. Because he paid a lot of tuition for Hector.

Moreover, the internship that Hector arranged for Hazel was a night shift, it would be nice if Elliot didn’t blame Hector.

Avery: "It's not what you think. Because I haven't met him yet, I just had a meal together. Doesn't our daughter like broadcasting and hosting? Hector is a senior in this industry. My daughter should be very happy."

Elliot: "Okay, I'll arrange it when I return home."

"Well... Did you say anything else to your daughter?" Avery was a little dizzy, so she closed her eyes.

"She is shopping outside with Lilly and Maria now, and she said that she hasn't played with them for a long time, and she is very happy today." Elliot's voice was very hoarse, "Midnight host...how about watching my daughter's show? we have to watch the show in the middle of the night..."

Hazel was going to host a show, and as it was first time so Elliot would definitely watch it.

"Don't there be replays in general programs? You can wait for the replays." Avery lazily said, "But it's my daughter's first time hosting, so I should send her to the TV station, and go directly to the TV station to watch her live broadcast."

Elliot: "You go, then I will definitely go too. It is the first time for our daughter to go to work, so we should indeed send her there."

Aryadelle.

After shopping around the mall for a while, the three sisters sat down in a tea restaurant to eat and drink.

"Hazel, you will come to play with us often when you are free in the future, okay? If you don't come to me, I won't dare to come to you." Lilly took a sip of her drink and said, "Mom and Dad said that you study very hard, and I'm afraid that looking for you to play will affect your study."

"I will look for you when I have free time. I have been making up lessons for the past few months because my ability is too far behind my classmates. In addition, my sister had an accident a while ago, and she asked for leave to go to Bridgedale for a while. It's been a while, so I don't have much time to come out to play." Hazel replied sincerely, "I am very happy to play with you."

"Sister Hazel, we also like to play with you! When you go to work in the TV station, our family will be watching your show in front of the TV." Maria said with a smile.

“No need! I’m hosting a show very late. Don’t watch my show.” Hazel replied, “Besides, it’s very likely that some small accidents will happen to me when I host a show for the first time. If I let you see it, then it’s too embarrassing!”

“We won’t laugh at you. And it’s your first time hosting a show, even if you make a mistake, no one will laugh at you. I saw a video before, that is, many well-known hosts are hosting the show Sometimes, I often read wrong words!” Maria comforted her, “Anyway, no matter how well you broadcast, I adore you.”

“Haha, with your support, I am not so nervous.” Hazel said and changed the conversation, “You two are at college, are there any boys chasing you?”

Maria laughed, “My sister is so beautiful, many boys like her!”

“Don’t talk nonsense. Boys who say they like me At least 99% of the people here are because they are curious about my illness.” Lilly said calmly, “I don’t plan to fall in love, nor will I get married. From now on, I will stay at home with my parents.”

“Lilly, as long as you are happy, I will support you in whatever you do.” Hazel said, and asked Maria, “You are also very beautiful! Are there any boys chasing you?”

Maria: “Yes! But I’m not yet 18, and my parents don’t let me fall in love before the age of 18. Sister Hazel, what about you?”

Hazel: “My parents didn’t say that. Probably because I said that studying is the most important thing when you’re studying! “

“Then do you have a boy you like at University?” Maria looked at Hazel with a gossipy face.

Hazel shook her head: “I’m not very familiar with the male students in our class.”

“Why? They don’t want to play with you?” Maria asked.

Lilly saw through everything: “It’s clear that Hazel doesn’t play with them. Hazel doesn’t have time to play with us, so how can she have time to play with others!”

Hazel: “Lilly, you really understand me.”

Chapter 2799

Ten days later.

After Eric was discharged from the hospital, he boarded the Foster family's private jet and flew back to Aryadelle.

After the plane stopped at the airport, Elliot sent someone to send Eric and his parents away.

After watching the car go away, Elliot patted Layla on the shoulder.

"Get in the car! We're going home too. Your younger siblings miss you very much."
Layla came back to her senses, and said disappointedly: "Dad, he still hasn't promised me."

Elliot: "You didn't force him now. Let's talk about it when he's in better health!"

Layla frowned, and muttered, "He's really a deadhead. He's dead."

Elliot: "If he wasn't like that, I'm afraid you wouldn't like him so much."

Elliot's words were to the point.

Layla likes Eric, not only because of Eric's own strength, but also because of his character.

Whether two people could last long and whether their personalities fit were very important factors.

After the father and daughter got into the car, the driver drove the car to Hazel's University.

They had to go to Hazel's University to pick up Hazel first, and then go home together.

An hour later, they picked up Hazel at Nantah University.

Hazel was very excited when she saw her parents and sister.

Hazel: "Mom, dad, sister, are you okay?! I miss you so much!"

Layla: "We're doing well! Maybe we've gained weight."

Hazel stared at her sister's face: "No! Sister, you are still so skinny."

"Don't comfort me. Mom asked the nanny to make me some soup every day. The pants I bought last year are a little tight this year." Layla couldn't help laughing, "Little sister, how about you? How are you studying recently? With your classmates, do you get along well?"

“Everything is fine.” Of course, Hazel would not let her family worry about her, “I started to do an internship at a TV station during the winter vacation. Teacher Joly said that if I perform well during the winter vacation, I can continue to do an internship at the TV station until graduation.”

“I heard it’s a night shift?” Layla looked distressed.

“It’s the night shift first. If I perform well, I’ll adjust my time slowly.” Hazel was full of motivation, “You don’t have to worry about me. I’m really looking forward to this internship.”

“Just as long as you like it.” Layla touched Hazel’s head, “If you love it, you won’t feel tired.”

Hazel: “Sister, you are so right.”

“Hahaha! Because I have a deep understanding!” Layla felt that the relationship between herself and Eric was like this, and her relatives were not optimistic about it, but she still decided to take a gamble, “When I get married, you will be my bridesmaid!”

Hazel’s face became hot: “Sister, when will you get married?”

“Within a year.” Layla had already made plans.

Hazel: “Oh, good. I want to visit brother-in-law...Eric during my break. Sister, you can go with me when the time comes!”

“Yeah.” After a pause, Layla explained, “Eric hasn’t agreed to be your brother-in-law yet. Don’t shout that in front of him.”
