Chapter 2802

“Hey, don’t take it apart yet.” Robert felt a little ashamed to take it apart in public, so he said to Eric, “We’ll see when you go back to your room.”

Eric immediately understood that this gift might be unusual.

He immediately took the gift and went back to the room.

Layla immediately looked at Robert with vicious eyes: “What did you give him? You didn’t tell me you wanted to give him a gift before you came here.”

Robert cleared his throat and quickly explained: “I gave him a disc. It’s just an ordinary disc. Isn’t he going to recuperate at home now? I’m afraid he’ll be bored.”

“Discs? His family doesn’t necessarily have a machine to put discs in.” Layla always felt that the discs Robert gave Eric must not be innocent.

At this time, Hazel said: “Sister, I gave him a book. It is the kind of book with more positive energy.”

Layla completely believed in Hazel, so she nodded: “Very good, He enjoys reading books a lot after leaving the circle. It’s better as a gift from you.”

Hazel was praised, and a blush appeared on her cheeks.

“Little sister is really good. She bought the wrapping paper at the stationery store, and then wrapped it herself.” Robert also praised.

Layla: “Are you really that skilled at gift-wrapping, little sister?”

Hazel blushed even more, “This is very simple. Sister, if you need to wrap a gift in the future, I can wrap it for you.”

Layla nodded: “Okay!”

After a while, Eric put the gift inside and came out.

Hazel secretly took a deep breath, and after Eric came over, she asked: “Uncle Eric, I want to discuss something with you.”

Eric said kindly: "What's the matter, tell me!"

"It's just... I don't want to call you Uncle Eric in the future. Because you are not so much older than my sister, I want to call you brother." Hazel said the request.

After hearing Hazel's words, Eric immediately glanced at Layla.

Layla didn't meet his gaze, but replied to Hazel: "You can call him brother if you want, he won't care about such trivial things."

"Oh..." Hazel responded obediently, and then helped Eric to sit down on the sofa, "Brother Eric, I heard from my mother that you can't work now and you have to recuperate at home. It seems to be recuperating for half a year, isn't it?"

Eric was indeed unable to work now. He only took a few steps in the house, and his mother was worried.

Just now when he took the gift to the room, his mother stood not far away and stared at him, for fear that something might happen to him.

In fact, he was now in much better health than he was in the hospital before, and it's okay to get out of bed and walk occasionally.

"Yeah." Eric replied, "How are you doing at University?"

"I'm fine at University. Brother Eric, do you have to take medicine every day?" Hazel continued to ask.

"Well. Because there will be rejection. So I need to take anti-rejection medicine." Eric looked at Robert again, "Robert, how are you?"

"Brother Eric, I'm fine. Our whole family is fine, and I hope you are fine now, and nothing will happen to you." Robert followed Hazel and changed his name to Brother Eric.

"I'm fine now. I take my medicine on time every day." Eric smiled, "You don't have to worry about me."

"Brother Eric, do you live here in the old house during your recuperation?" Robert asked, "If you will stay here for the rest of the day, then my little sister and I will come to see you often when we are on vacation."

Eric was about to answer when Layla said, "He's only live here temporarily."

Hearing this, Eric looked at Layla with some puzzled eyes.

Eric had promised his parents that he would live here from now on.

Eric's parents had retired, so he could take care of them with peace of mind.

In his current situation, if he insisted on going out to live, it would only worry his parents.

"I'm contacting a nurse. When I find a suitable nurse, you can move in with me." Layla explained to Eric, "I came here today to discuss this matter with your parents."

The expression on Eric's face was a little cold.

Layla was talking about consulting Eric's parents, not Eric.

The reason Layla said that was because she knew that Eric would not agree.

Since Eric refused, of course Layla could only discuss it with his parents.

Seeing that Eric was unhappy, Hazel immediately pulled Eric's mother over.

"Auntie, my sister said that she wanted to discuss with you about Brother Eric's future life." Hazel said.

Mrs. Santos nodded, then walked to Layla, sat on the sofa with Layla, and chatted:
"Where are you going to take Eric?"

"I bought a house near the company before. At that time, I will bring a nanny from my parents' house and recruit a nurse to take care of Eric." Layla said her plan, "Auntie, you and uncle are getting old, I don't want to make you too tired. If you want to see Eric, you can go to see him at any time."

Mrs. Santos hesitated.

Layla said before that when Eric woke up, she would marry Eric.

If Mrs. Santos stopped Layla from taking Eric away, it would be bad for their relationship.

After much hesitation, Mrs. Santos nodded, "Okay, just make an agreement with Eric. You can do whatever you want."

“Okay, I’ll bring it here for you to see when I find a nurse.” Layla said.

Mrs. Santos nodded and looked at Eric at the same time. Judging by Eric’s appearance, she noticed that Eric seemed unwilling.

“Auntie, you have a really nice personality.” Hazel was afraid that Eric would refuse, so she immediately changed the topic.

“Haha, your uncle has a better personality. After our family counts, Eric is a bit more stubborn.” Mrs. Santos said with a chuckle, “But Eric is better than us. He has goals since he was a child and knows his own what is he going to do.”

“I’m a fan of Brother Eric. Brother Eric is really good.” Hazel worshiped and said, “Auntie, can you tell us something about Brother Eric when he was a child?”

“Haha! I-I told your sister, and your sister knows.” Mrs. Santos said, got up and went to the room, took out a thick photo album, “This is Eric’s photo album when he was young, he was very handsome and very attractive. People liked him very much.”

Hazel took the photo album and flipped through it carefully.

Robert also came over and watched together.

“Look, I’m going to the kitchen to check on the soup.” After Mrs. Santos finished speaking, she walked towards the kitchen.

Eric gave Layla a look.

“Whatever you want to say, just say it here. Aren’t you tired of walking around?” Layla said directly, “My brother and sister are not outsiders.”

Eric blushed when he heard Layla say that.

He didn’t directly reject Layla’s plan just now, just to save Layla’s face.

“Let’s talk in the room.” Eric stood up from the sofa.

Layla wanted to put him on the sofa so he wouldn’t be walking around all the time.

But thinking about the topic they were going to talk about next, there might be a dispute, it was better to go to the room to talk.

Layla was not out of her own face, but because she was afraid that his parents would hear badly.

Layla helped Eric into the room and closed the door.

The moment she closed the door, Robert and Hazel's eyes immediately shifted from the photo album to the door.

"Brother, do you think the two of them will quarrel?" Hazel knew that Eric didn't want to move in with her sister.

Although Eric didn't directly refuse just now, his expression and eyes were already obvious.

Without hesitation, Robert shook his head: "Even if they argue, they won't yell or make a scene. Both the elders and we are present. They'll pay attention for sure."

"Oh, yes. However, I believe Brother Eric will avoid talking to Sister because of living together. Brother Eric had a bad expression just now..." Hazel said in a low voice.

Robert shrugged: "The two of them have to discuss their own affairs. Even if we want to help, we can't solve the real problem."

"Yes. Brother Eric was so cute when he was young! Like a porcelain doll." Hazel said while looking down at the photo album.

"It's really good-looking. Many people on the Internet said that he had plastic surgery before. If you look at his childhood photos, you will know that he didn't have plastic surgery at all."

"Is there anyone else who says that about Brother Eric? Why are these people like this!" Hazel dissatisfiedly said, "Even if Brother Eric's plastic surgery has nothing to do with them."

"Look at your little angry face, funny! Since Brother Eric is well-known, others will talk about him! He can only become well-liked when it is talked about by others. Many famous people aren't all that well-liked, and they can't wait for people to talk about it! Black and red are also red whether it is true or false, positive or negative!" Robert patted his sister's head and explained with a smile.

"Okay! I don't understand these things." Hazel calmed down.

“A person who can get ahead in the entertainment industry, the psychological endurance is definitely beyond what we can imagine.” Robert analyzed, “Didn’t Auntie just say that Brother Eric has clear goals since he was a child? He is really good. Some good-looking people, in my opinion, prefer to be brainless.”

Hazel couldn’t help laughing: “Second brother, you are also very good-looking!”

Robert coughed lightly: “I said a lot, not all.” After a pause he added, “But Brother Eric is amazing.”

in the room.

Eric refused to move to the house in Layla.

Layla was not surprised.

Before coming here, Layla had already made psychological preparations and coping plans.

“You let your parents take care of you, don’t you really think it’s wrong?” Layla asked Eric, “The two of them are old, wouldn’t you let them enjoy their old age?”

Eric listened to her words and was speechless. He didn’t feel that his parents were too old to move. And his mother seemed to be very happy to take care of him every day. But Layla was right.

Eric also wanted to make his parents more relaxed, have more time and space for themselves, and go out more to have a look and have fun.

“I asked you to live with me, and I didn’t want to do anything to you. Don’t think too much.” Layla saw that he had listened to what she said, so she continued, “You live with me, nanny and the nurse to take care of you. My house has three rooms, one for you, one for me, and one for the nurse. The nanny doesn’t live at home.”

Eric: “It’s not necessary. I can go back to my own house. You can also hire nurses and babysitters yourself.”

“Do you think your parents will let you live by yourself?” Layla asked back, “Since you don’t want to bother me so much, why didn’t you save me? You saved me, but did you want me to keep my distance from you, taking it for granted? You have your own thoughts, but please consider my feelings too.”

Her voice increased a little.

Eric blushed because of her training.

They both knew what the problem was.

Each of them was aware of the other's thoughts. The current argument was started simply to see who would compromise first.
