

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2813 –

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2813–Hazel only responded slightly.

“Haha, maybe when you meet someone you like in the future, you will think differently. But we will talk about it later. You are about to go to a TV station for an internship, and I am really proud of you.” The nanny’s words made Hazel calm and her mood fluctuated a little more.

But she was not as nervous and depressed as before, and her sister’s enlightenment was helpful.

About two hours later, Layla came back with Eric.

Hazel assisted in the kitchen while the nanny prepared meals.

After Layla helped Eric to sit on the sofa, she called Hazel out of the kitchen.

“Little sister, do you want to go to the studio to try out what it’s like to be an anchor?” Layla asked, “Eric has someone he knows in another TV station, and when their studio is free, someone can show you to them...”

Without even thinking about it, Hazel immediately shook her head: “Teacher Joly said that he will let me familiarize myself with the working environment in advance. I don’t need to bother my brother-in-law.”

As soon as the word ‘brother-in-law’ came out, the atmosphere froze up.

Layla wanted to laugh, but held back.

Eric’s face turned red, probably because he didn’t expect Hazel to change her words immediately.

“Hazel, your sister and I...” After Eric slowed down, he wanted to explain.

“I know you and my sister won’t get married for the time being. But my sister has moved to your house. As long as you don’t have any accidents in the future, you will definitely marry my sister!” Hazel interrupted Eric and added, “It doesn’t matter if I call you brother-in-law now.”

From the moment Eric gave Layla the keys to the house, he was doomed to be passive in the future.

“You really don’t need to go to the TV station to practice in advance?” Eric changed the subject.

Hazel insisted on shaking her head: “Thank you, brother-in-law, but there is really no need. Teacher Joly said that more training is the same. I will do what other interns do. I believe I will not be much worse than them.”

Two calls of brother-in-law successfully made Eric blush hot.

“So inappropriate?” Layla teased Eric, “When Robert calls your brother-in-law together, don’t you want to find a hole to drill?”

Hazel smiled and stood up, wanting to pour a glass of water for Eric: “Brother-in-law, which glass is yours? Let me pour you a glass of water!”

“Let me pour it for him!” Layla’s face was also slightly red.

On the way back to pick Eric, Layla took the initiative to tell him about Hazel’s upcoming internship.

The reason Layla said this was to distract Eric’s attention.

Unexpectedly, after hearing this, Eric wanted to help Hazel.

Although Hazel did not accept Eric’s kindness, Layla felt that the familiar Eric was coming back soon.

In the evening, Robert came over to have dinner, and took Hazel home by the way.

On the way back after eating, Robert asked Hazel: “Little sister, did you find that there seems to be no barrier between our sister and Brother Eric?”

Hazel: “Then did you notice that I called Brother Eric my brother-in-law?”

Robert: “...”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2814 –

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2814—“Brother Eric agreed?” Robert really noticed this.

“He didn’t consent, but he also didn’t object. Already, my sister has moved in with him. They appear to be together to outsiders even though they don’t share a room.” Hazel chuckled as she said, “Brother Eric has actually always liked my sister. My sister showed me Brother Eric’s iPad, which was crammed with my sister’s pictures and videos.”

Robert was shocked: “Brother Eric hides so deeply! I had no idea he had such feelings for my sister.”

“Our sister is beautiful, talented, and smart, how normal it is for Brother Eric to like her! If I were a man, I would like her too.” Hazel boasted bluntly, “I-I think my sister is much prettier than me.”

“You don’t have to belittle yourself just to praise your sister.” Robert glanced at her, “You don’t have any make-up or dress up. If you put on a little make-up and dress up, you are no worse than our sister.”

Hazel: “Anyway, I think my sister is more beautiful than me.”

“All right, my sister is beautiful.” Robert didn’t argue with Hazel, “Little sister, I’m going on vacation soon, you go to work during winter vacation, I’ll pick you up!”

Hazel didn’t even think about it, so she refused: “I received notice of my show at 11:00 p.m., despite Teacher Joly telling me it begins at 3:00 a.m. I don’t want you to deliver me because it’s too late. Just hand it off to the driver.”

“At night I’m still up at 11:00 p.m.!” Robert wanted to send Hazel to work in person, “I’ll take you to work and then come back. After you download the broadcast, the driver will pick you up.”

“Second brother, why do you have to send me? I don’t want to bother you.” Hazel asked, “Don’t you want to do something on your own during the winter vacation? Didn’t you say you want to work at Dad’s company?”

Robert: “Even if I work, I still spend the evenings at home! Dad won’t arrange important jobs for me because I’m still young. Simply send you to work, please. There isn’t any cause. I just want to be polite to you because my sister is moving out and my older brother isn’t here.”

What Robert said made Hazel feel a little sad suddenly.

Hazel: “Brother, do you think that the two of us will move out from home in the future?”

Robert shook his head: “I think that if you find someone you like in the future, you will also marry. Then I will be alone with my parents.”

Hazel couldn’t help laughing after hearing what Robert said, “Brother, won’t you move out after you get married?”

Robert shook his head again: “Why move out? Our house is so big, I will live at home.”

Hazel: “Today, however, a lot of people get married, move out, and don’t want to live with their elderly parents.”

“If my future wife doesn’t want to live with me in our house, then I won’t get married! Little sister, don’t use the old man to describe Dad Mom, they are still very young in my heart.” Robert also raised the corners of his lips, “I never thought about leaving them. Even if I wanted to work with my eldest brother, I didn’t plan to stay with my eldest brother for the rest of my life.”

After listening to Robert’s words, Hazel breathed a sigh of relief.

Hazel: “Brother, I’m just like you. I also like to stay with my parents.”

“That is satisfactory. If the future husband you find is not so powerful, you are welcome to bring him to live with us. Certainly, parents will not dislike it.”

Hazel casually agreed: “Okay!”

She looked out of the car window.

There was a cold wind blowing outside the window, the shadows of the trees were swaying under the street lamps, and there were no pedestrians on the road.

The whole city was lit with neon lights, but the streets were indescribably deserted.

When the siblings returned home, Avery immediately asked, “Hazel, is your sister angry?”

“Why is she angry? My sister is fine! She is very happy today.” Hazel replied truthfully.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2815–Avery: “Your father is in a mood today and refuses to help your sister move. I want to watch your father at home...” Avery expressed her worries, “So I am afraid that your sister will think wildly.”

Hazel: “No. Mom, sister is not such a stingy person. You can promise her to be with my brother-in-law, she is already very satisfied.”

“Have you changed the name Brother to brother-in-law?” Avery said and smiled.

Hazel: “They’re all living together. It will be a matter of time before I call him brother-in-law! Anyway, he didn’t object.”

“Hahaha, it doesn’t matter. Your sister has already recognized him.” Avery breathed a sigh of relief, “Your teacher Joly came here this afternoon for a while. He said he came by the way. He asked you to contact him when you are free, and he will take you to the stage to familiarize yourself with the environment.”

Hazel nodded her head: “Okay, I’ll get ready for the exam next. Only after the exam will I be free.”

Avery: “Then you should send him a message and make it clear.” Avery took Hazel and sat down on the sofa, “Teacher Joly said that among the eight interns that have been selected this time, you are the youngest. As a freshman, many people are discussing in private. He asks you to stand up to this wave of pressure and prove your ability with practical actions. After your ability improves, no one will say anything.”

Hazel nodded: ” Mom, I will work hard.”

“I know you are working hard. Teacher Joly said that you are very hardworking. You should also pay attention to regulating your emotions and don’t put too much pressure on yourself. Besides, even if this internship doesn’t go well, it doesn’t count. Your life has just begun, and you may not be a host for the rest of your life.” Avery said in relief.

Hazel: “Mom, I know. But I want to do well.”

Hazel had a high sense of worth. Everyone was now bringing up her. She believed that if she didn’t perform well in this internship, she wouldn’t be able to stand on her own two feet in university in the future.

Avery: “Well, it’s a bit late, let’s take a shower and rest!”

“Okay. Mom, I’m going to work on the first day, and my second brother will send me there. I have already agreed with him.” When Hazel was about to go back to her room, she remembered this, “A sophomore in our university Senior sister has also been selected. Her show is ahead of me.”

Hazel was afraid that her parents would send her there together, and everyone would recognize her parents by then.

Avery: “Okay! Then your father and I will watch your show at home.”

Hazel didn’t want her parents to stay up late to watch her show, but she knew she couldn’t stop it.

The next day.

Hazel went back to university to take the final exam.

After the exam, a classmate wanted to talk to her, but before the classmate could speak, the professional teacher came to her first.

Her professional teacher didn't know that she signed up for an internship as an anchor, nor did she know how she was selected.

So now she came to find Hazel to find out the situation.

Hazel put her bag on her back and followed the teacher to leave.

The professional teacher: "Hazel, I'm really surprised that you can be selected as an intern anchor. Can you tell me what happened? Don't worry, I won't tell anyone else."

Hazel couldn't say it was Hector Joly who gave her a chance, so she could only avoid talking about it: "You will see my performance when the time comes! I will try not to embarrass you."

The professional teacher laughed: "Actually, I see your progress. There is a big difference between talking now and when you first entered school. You usually work hard on training!"

Hazel nodded.

"Very good. Since you have this internship opportunity, you must cherish it. Maybe you will be one of my most proud students in the future." The professional teacher patted her on the shoulder, "You have an exam this afternoon, I won't waste your time."

"Thank you teacher." After Hazel thanked her, she planned to go back to her residence to review.
