When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2816–

Otherwise, if Hazel returned to class, she would undoubtedly find herself surrounded by classmates who would want to talk to her about the internship.

When she was about to walk to the university gate, someone called her name from behind.

It's Xiomara.

Hazel stopped and waited for Xiomara to run over.

Xiomara: "Hazel, how did you do in the morning exam? We have the same exam room in the afternoon. Let's have dinner together!"

Hazel: "I'm going to order takeaway."

"Oh, are you going home?" Xiomara was stunned. After a while she said, "I thought you were planning to go out to eat, and you would be with me!"

After Xiomara said this, Hazel was a little embarrassed: "Then let's go out to eat together!"

Xiomara: "Haha, let me treat you. Don't worry, I won't ask you about the internship. Because I asked my aunt."

Xiomara's words made Hazel's face even redder.

Hazel: "What did your aunt say?"

"My aunt asked the acquaintances at the TV station, but others couldn't explain clearly. Later, someone told my aunt that the selection of interns was done according to the normal process, saying Your recording works are excellent." Xiomara let go of her doubts about Hazel, "Although others didn't show your works to my aunt, but my aunt said that she believes you are great now, and I believe you too."

Hazel: "Xiomara, thank you! Actually, I'm still a long way from being great, but I'll try my best to catch up with my predecessors."

Hazel and Xiomara came to a restaurant, and after they sat down, Hazel picked up the menu and handed it to Xiomara and said: "Let me treat you to this meal!"

Xiomara: "Haha, you can also please. After all, you are paid for your internship."

“Is the internship paid for?” Hazel didn’t know that the internship was paid.

She thought that the TV station could give students the opportunity to practice, and the students would benefit more, similar to hospital interns, who also had no salary.

“Is there no salary for the internship?” Xiomara was stunned, “I don’t know, but I think if you go to work, if the other party doesn’t pay you, it won’t make sense?”

Hazel: “I haven’t signed the internship contract yet, I don’t know Is there any money for internships? But I read a news article before, saying that interns in hospitals have no money during their internships.”

Xiomara: “Oh...hospitals are special, but TV station internships must be paid. I heard that If you perform well during the internship, you can directly enter the TV station after graduation. Hazel, do you want to become the official host of the city station?”

Hazel thought for a while, then nodded.

At least she liked this line of work now, and wanted to be an excellent host.

Xiomara: “You want to be very big, I don’t know if you can do it. My dream is also to become a host of the TV station.” Xiomara looked at the menu, ordered the dish she wanted, and handed the menu to Hazel.

Hazel: “Xiomara, don’t be depressed. You are so good, you must be fine. If I can stay in city station in the future, I will recommend you when they choose interns.”

Most likely because Xiomara just expressed her trust in her, allowing her to drop her barriers against others. In fact, her parents didn’t stop her from making friends at university.

“Then I’m going to hug your thigh well.” Xiomara smiled brightly and was very happy, “Don’t worry about what those people in university talk about you.”

Hazel: “Hahaha!”

...

After the three-day exam, Hazel dared not stop, Contact Teacher Joly immediately.

“You have a good rest tonight, and you come to find me tomorrow. After the exam, relax and don’t be too nervous.” Hector’s voice was very soft, which greatly relieved Hazel’s nervousness.

Hazel: “Teacher Joly, have the other interns started working?”

Teacher Joly: "The junior and senior students have already started working. The sophomore is the same as you and finished the exam today. When the time comes, your programs will be next to each other. She is From 2:00 to 2:50, you are from 3:00 to 3:30."

Hazel replied, "Okay."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2817—"Do you know why 3 o'clock was arranged for you?" Teacher Joly asked.

"The program at 3 o'clock is half an hour. I'm a newcomer, I don't have any experience, and my foundation is not as solid as that of a sophomore. Maybe a half-hour program is already difficult for me." Hazel said her own view.

Hector didn't expect her to be so clear.

Hector: "I really think so. If you can broadcast the half-hour program well, it will be very good for you at this stage."

Hazel: "Teacher Joly, I will work hard."

"By the way, you'll come the TV station tomorrow. If your parents send you here, that's fine, but they shouldn't accompany you. I am aware of your low-key demeanour. You should maintain a low profile while you're learning. If not, there will be many voices after your identity is revealed and things start to affect to you."

Hazel: "You're right. I won't let my parents send me off."

Hector: "Then we'll see you tomorrow."

Hazel: "Okay, see you tomorrow."

The next day, 10 o'clock in the morning.

Hazel took a taxi to city station alone.

After she went to the front desk to verify her identity, she took the elevator to the 12th floor according to the guidance of the front desk.

The 12th floor was the broadcasting hall.

Hazel came out of the elevator and shivered nervously.

She found Studio 6 according to the detailed information sent to her by Hector.

Hector was standing inside at the moment.

Seeing Hazel coming, Hector immediately waved to Hazel and let her in.

Hazel immediately went to Hector's side.

Hazel met her sophomore senior.

At this moment, the senior was sitting in the chair of the host and broadcasting.

The senior was dressed in a suit, her hair pulled back into a ponytail, and her features were uncomplicated. Her voice was relaxed, she had a dignified expression on her face, and she appeared composed and professional as she stared at the teleprompter in front of her.

After the senior finished broadcasting, Hector put forward some suggestions for her trial broadcast just now, and then asked the senior sister to sign the internship contract with the staff.

Senior sister: "Teacher Joly, can I come and watch the trial broadcast of my university girl later?"

"Yes!" Hector nodded.

Senior sister looked at Hazel, smiled and said, "Hello, Hazel! I am your senior, you can call me Sloane or Ms. Sloane."

"Hello, Miss Sloane, you just played really well I was fascinated by it." Hazel boasted.

"Hahaha! You are so sweet. Teacher Joly pointed out a lot of problems to me just now. I still have to work hard. I will come and watch your pilot after I sign the contract!" After Sloane finished speaking, she followed the staff out up.

After they went out, Hazel looked at Hector: "Teacher Joly, I think Miss Sloane's broadcasting is really good."

"Her broadcasting was indeed good. But you are not bad." Hector boasted, "Come here and read the script first! I'll give you half an hour, is that enough?"

Hazel followed Hector to the studio and picked up the script on the table.

It's exactly the same as what her senior sister broadcast just now.

Hazel: "The manuscript is not too long, it shouldn't take half an hour."

“Although there is a teleprompter, I hope you can read the press release by heart and even memorize it.” Hector asked Hazel, “When you come to work officially, Try to come in advance to read the manuscript and prepare.”
