When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2866 — The next day, morning.

Avery went downstairs and saw Hayden sitting in the living room reading a magazine, and immediately walked up to him.

Avery: “Woke up so early? Why don’t you sleep more?”

“Sleep well.” Hayden put down the magazine and looked at his mother, “Robert is working so hard now? When I woke up, he also got up. He said that the company has not yet a holiday, he has to go to work until the last day.”

Avery glanced at dining table: “Has Robert gone out?”

“Yes. He took breakfast and left.” Hayden said, “I think he drove a cheap car, is this specially bought for work?”

Avery nodded: “He wants to try the feeling of being an ordinary person, so he just let him go.”

“He must have been infected by little sister!” Hayden didn’t this opportunity, because everyone knew that he was Elliot’s son.

Although his business was not in Aryadelle, his reputation in Aryadelle was no less than that of Elliot.

As a result of Dream Maker’s worldwide popularity, wherever he travelled, there were people who knew him.

“Yeah! It’s good to let Robert feel how hard it is to be an ordinary person.” Avery was a little hungry, and asked Hayden, “Have you had breakfast?”

“No.” Hayden placed the magazine on the bookshelf and informed his mother. Together, they walked to the dining room.

“Accompany me to see Layla’s wedding later.” Avery thought that Hayden should have nothing else to do, so she took the initiative to say, “Your father has something else to do today.”

“Okay.” Hayden picked up the Milk cup, took a sip of milk, “Are you planning to hold the wedding after the next year?”

Avery: “I chatted with Layla last night. She wanted to do it quickly. Let’s do it according to her will!”

Hayden didn't say anything. Considering that Layla had already obtained a certificate with Eric, they were now legally married.

"Can you go to Bridgedale a little later after the next year? You can leave after your sister's wedding." Avery peeled the egg shells, and said calmly, "I have to tell Mike and the others later."

"Okay. My little sister hasn't come down yet, so you haven't gotten up yet?" Hayden felt that the house was a little deserted.

"She probably stayed up late to practice last night. Your little sister is very hardworking." Avery glanced at the wall clock in the dining room, "I'll go to her room to see after eating."

"Where's Dad?" Hayden asked.

"He's still sleeping! He went to bed very late last night. He was probably thinking about Layla's wedding. It's not good for him to interfere too much, or not to interfere."

"Mom, are you not insomnia?" Hayden asked again.

"No! I sleep well. Since Hazel came back, I am very happy every day." Avery showed a smile, "Layla and Eric are also very good together. I don't have to worry about Layla being wronged. Although I feel a little sad occasionally, children will grow up. I was with your father back then, isn't it the same?"

"Mom, what kind of girlfriend do you think I should find?" Hayden puffed up Courage to ask this question.

Avery thought she heard it wrong, and stared at his son for several seconds before realizing that it was not a dream.

Avery: "Of course I'm looking for someone you like."

"I've never met someone I like." Hayden frowned slightly.

He had always been less interested in the opposite s-e-x than in his career.

"Don't doubt yourself. Not everyone can meet someone they like." Avery was surprised that his son talked about this topic with her, and she was also very happy to talk about this topic with his son. "Some people have very strong feelings, so you might be able to tell right away if they're the type of person you like. And some individuals—who tend to be very introverted—need to get along with others in order to form relationships."

"You may be the latter." Avery also added, "Because your father is also the latter."

Avery handed the peeled egg to Hayden.

“I think emotional matters are very troublesome.” Hayden ate the eggs in two bites.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2867 — Avery: “Yes, you can use feelings as an adjustment to your work. Otherwise, working every day, don’t you find it boring?”

Hayden: “There are new problems at work every once in a while, and I don’t find it boring.”

If he felt that work was boring, he wouldn’t be so peacefully single until now.

Avery: “Then what do you think about this topic with your mother now?”

“Mom, I don’t resist getting married, but I don’t know how to find a wife.”

Avery’s face turned red.

This matter might be really difficult for Hayden. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have told his mother so solemnly.

But this was not a problem for Avery.

“How about that, I’ll call your Auntie Tammy later, she knows a lot of girls, I’ll ask her to bring girls to meet you?” Avery took a deep breath, “You can chat casually first, then go on a blind date. What are your thoughts?”

Hayden wanted to refuse.

What the assistant said last night was deeply imprinted in his mind. But as soon as the words came out, he agreed.

After breakfast, Avery went upstairs to Hazel’s room to have a look.

Hazel had already got up, but she was practicing basic skills in the room.

“Baby, let’s practice after breakfast!” Avery had a smile on her face.

Hazel glanced at the time, and immediately walked to the door of the room: “I forgot to check the time. Mom, is brother up yet?”

Avery: “Your elder brother woke up early in the morning.”

Hazel: "Ah? Why is there no sound? I thought elder brother didn't wake up."

"Our house is soundproof. Go and eat!" Avery couldn't restrain the joy in her heart, and secretly said to her daughter, "Probably your elder brother was stimulated by your sister's marriage. He took the initiative to tell me about finding a girlfriend."

Hazel was very excited: "Is elder brother looking for a girlfriend?"

"No, I'm looking for it, and I'm going to ask your Auntie Tammy to introduce me to a suitable girl for him."

Hazel nodded fiercely: "I must introduce you better."

"I haven't told your Auntie Tammy yet. Go down and have breakfast, I'll come and talk to your Auntie Tammy." After Avery told Hazel, she immediately went back to the master bedroom and called Tammy.

Elliot forced himself to wake up from the dream after hearing his wife's voice in the distance while he was sleeping.

"Did I wake you up by talking on the phone?" Avery had already finished talking with Tammy on the phone.

Tammy said that she would contact the girl immediately, and promised to meet the two of them at noon.

Elliot rubbed his sleepy eyes, and said in a hoarse voice, "Who were you talking to just now?"

"I was on the phone with Tammy! Husband, our son has decided to find a girlfriend!" Avery went to the bed and sat down, holding With Elliot's big palm, the joy on her face seemed to be that her son was about to get married soon.

"Which son?" Elliot frowned. He thought it was Robert, that's why he frowned.

In his mind, Hayden was a member of the unmarried and infertile family.

"Hayden! Who else could it be? Robert hasn't graduated yet!" Avery touched Elliot's face, "I'm really surprised. It's rare that he can figure it out. I'll ask Tammy to help find a suitable candidate. I don't know many unmarried girls!"

"Is Tammy's introduction reliable? Why don't you let Gwen introduce it?" Elliot trusted his own sister more.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2868 — “Do you think that what Tammy introduces will surely catch our son’s eyes? I didn’t like it, let Gwen introduce it.” Avery had already thought about it, “Hayden has promised to stay at home until after Layla’s wedding. He will stay at home for a long time! There is plenty of time to meet girls.”

Elliot nodded and frowned slightly: “I’m not used to my son’s sudden behavior. Is he stimulated?”

Avery nodded: “He should be stimulated. Layla is as old as him, and Layla is going to get married. Now, it’s not that he doesn’t want to start a family at all, and it’s normal to have thoughts now.”

Elliot responded, and suddenly a flame rose in his heart, wanting to help his son find a wife quickly.

But upon reflection, which girl in this world was deserving of such a superb son?

“Did he say what kind of wife he wants?” Elliot asked.

Avery shook her head: “He doesn’t know at all. Because this is the first time in his life that he has considered this issue.”

Elliot rubbed his eyebrows: “Then let’s find more girl for him to choose from.”

Avery: “Don’t let my son will be picky and disrespectful to other girls. Let him get along with each other slowly.”

“How long do we have to get along?” Elliot lifted the quilt and got out of bed, “I’ll talk to those around me later. Ask a friend, if you can find a girl who knows everything, that’s the best.”

“Don’t spread the word. Otherwise, things will get serious, and I’m afraid it won’t end well.” Avery reminded, “Our son has a relatively low-key personality. “

“Since he told you the matter, he just wants us to help him.” Elliot expressed his opinion, “Let’s see how the girl Tammy introduced today!”

“Yes.”

At 10 o’clock, In order to see the scene, Avery went out with Hayden and went to the church where Layla had her wedding ceremony.

Elliot took Hazel to the resort hotel where the wedding banquet was held in Layla.

“Dad, I’m really looking forward to my brother’s blind date today.” Hazel sat in the car with a look of anticipation.

“You want to go with them, right?” Elliot fastened his seat belt and signaled the driver to drive.

“Even if I go with them, I can’t go on a blind date with my brother.” Hazel expressed her thoughts, “I just want to see what Auntie Tammy introduces to my brother.”

Elliot: “Auntie sent you the photo.”

“Let’s see if brother and that girl are destined to be together!” Hazel said this, but changed the subject, “Dad, what are we going to the hotel for now?”

“Trying dishes.” Elliot replied, “Your sister will also come to eat at noon.”

Hazel: “What about mom and brother?”

“See how your brother is doing with each other.” Elliot’s face was very gentle.

Seeing his dad’s gentle look, HAZel grinned, “Dad, do you really want to hug your grandson?”

Elliot glanced at Hazel, and the smile on his face remained unchanged: “No. Your eldest brother is abroad all year round. If he can find someone to accompany him, your mother and I will not be so worried. As for the grandson...we don’t force him. They can have children if they want to. “

Hazel: “Dad, you are so open-minded.”

Elliot: “Because if you meet someone you really like, you will definitely want to have children with him. If you don’t like each other, there is no need to have children. You don’t even need to get married.”

Hazel deeply agreed with what her dad said.

in the church.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2869 — Avery met and chatted with the person in charge of decorating the church site.

After a while, Tammy brought a young, beautiful and good-looking girl over to meet them.

“Avery, Hayden.” After Tammy greeted them with a smile, she introduced the girl beside her, “This is Luisa, the daughter of a friend of mine. She will graduate next summer. She has already started an internship. Now, she’s more free. I saw a coffee shop nearby, you can sit and chat slowly.”

Tammy knew how to take care of the mentality of young people.

She would never say too much to embarrass young people, and she would never be a light bulb.

Avery took a look at Luisa.

Luisa was very good-looking, with exquisite and foreign features, tall and slender, neither fat nor thin, just right.

Avery smiled and said to Hayden: “You go buy Luisa a cup of coffee! I haven’t seen your Auntie Tammy for a while, and we both have to chat alone.”

Hayden started walking.

Luisa immediately followed.

After seeing the two of them leave, Tammy held Avery’s hand and smiled from ear to ear.

“What do you think of Luisa? This is the best girl I know in my circle of friends. I didn’t introduce the girls in my relatives to Hayden because they are not good enough... Luisa is learning to dance and she has won many international awards. You can tell by her temperament, she is different from ordinary people.”

Avery was very satisfied with Luisa, “She is indeed very beautiful. Is this your friend’s daughter?”

“No, it’s the daughter of a poker friend of mine. Her family’s conditions are good, she’s an only child! But they are willing to let their daughter go to Bridgedale with Hayden to settle down. After all, Hayden is so good. Who wouldn’t want to marry their daughter to Hayden!” Tammy pulled Avery to sit down on the pew in the church, “Because her mother always mentioned Luisa to me, and showed me a video of Luisa dancing. So you said let me introduce a girlfriend to Hayden, I just thought of her. Would you like to watch the video of Luisa dancing?”

Avery nodded, “Let me see.”

Tammy found Luisa’s video and clicked on it for Avery to watch.

After watching it, Avery was attracted by Luisa’s dancing posture.

“This girl is really good, but I don’t know if Hayden likes it or not.” After watching the video, Avery thanked Tammy, “I don’t have any girls suitable for Hayden, let alone Hayden.”

“Don’t worry. As long as Hayden has this kind of heart now, he can easily find the girl he likes. If I can’t introduce you, you can ask Gwen to introduce her! Gwen knows more beautiful girls. She has so many friends. If it doesn’t work, let him go out to participate in some social activities. As long as he goes out more, he will definitely find his wife.”

Avery nodded.

in the coffee shop.

Hayden ordered a cup of latte, and then heard Luisa introduce herself.

Luisa had learned dance since she was a child, because her mother learned dance, and she was influenced by her mother.

Her father was in business, and she was the only daughter in the family.

Now as an intern, she had performed with her mentor all over the world to gain experience.

“Hayden, don’t you like me too much? I think you have been silent.” After Luisa finished talking about her family situation and her own situation, Hayden didn’t respond.

After thinking about it for a few seconds, Hayden asked politely, “What’s your relationship with Auntie Tammy?”

“My mother runs a dance training class, and Auntie Tammy used to dance in my mother’s training class. Later, they played cards together... they can be regarded as card friends!” Luisa said shyly.
