When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2870 —

Hayden heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, Luisa was not a close family member of Aunt Tammy.

“Dance well, I believe you will have a better future.” Hayden politely rejected her.

Luisa was a smart person and understood Hayden’s implication.

“Hayden, do you not like my appearance and figure, or my profession? I don’t have to be a dancer.” Luisa made the last struggle.

“It’s not worth giving up your career for your family.” Hayden gave a loyal advice.

After a while, the waiter brought over two cups of coffee.

After the coffee was finished, Hayden checked the time and paid the bill.

When the two of them appeared in the church, Tammy and Avery didn’t know what they were talking about, and they laughed happily.

Seeing the two of them coming back, their laughter stopped abruptly.

They returned so soon?

Were they dissatisfied?

Was Luisa dissatisfied with Hayden, or was Hayden dissatisfied with Luisa? Avery pondered in her heart.

And Tammy knew in her heart that Hayden must be dissatisfied with Luisa.

Because on the way here, Luisa had already checked Hayden’s information on the Internet.

For Hayden, Luisa was 100% satisfied.

She even told Tammy that she was willing to give up her career for Hayden.

“Have you finished your coffee?” Avery took the lead to break the awkward situation, “Do you want to go outside again?”

“Mom, it’s cold outside.” Hayden gently reminded his mother not to match up again.

Avery looked at Luisa with regret: "Luisa, let's have a meal together later!"

"Auntie, thank you. But no need. I cooked at home, I can go back and eat." Luisa politely refused.

Eating together would only feel awkward if the blind date didn't work out.

"I'll take you back." Tammy immediately walked out of the church with Luisa.

After the two of them left, Avery looked at Hayden and asked, "Can't you two chat together?"

"No." Hayden's eyes flashed with embarrassment, and he replied truthfully, "Mom, don't you think her voice is a little harsh?"

Avery looked surprised: "Her voice...is it harsh? I think it's very sweet!"

"I got goosebumps when I heard it." Hayden felt goosebumps for the first time hearing someone speak.

He didn't say anything bad about Luisa in front of Luisa, because he knew that Luisa was a very good girl, but she just wasn't suitable for him.

"I see, you don't like this kind of sweet girl." Avery analyzed, "Next time I'll ask them to introduce you to someone who is not so sweet."

"Mom, don't bother. I'll solve it myself." Hayden said.

If Hayden hadn't had a nightmare last night and was entangled by a group of girls, he wouldn't have told his mother about finding a partner today.

Avery: "Don't be shy! Blind dates are very normal."

"Mom, I don't want to go on a blind date." After Hayden had this blind date experience today, he never wanted to go on a blind date a second time.

Avery respected Hayden's decision: "Okay then! I'll send your Auntie Tammy a message later, telling her not to help you find any more. If you find it yourself, you should go out more often! Otherwise, the company and the family will be separated every day. How do you find a girlfriend?"

Hayden: "Let's talk about it after Layla's wedding!"

At noon, the mother and son went to the hotel to meet Elliot and the others.

Unexpectedly... Gwen's family also came.

“Auntie, uncle.” From the corner of Hayden’s eyes, he caught a glimpse of a young girl sitting with them.

This was brought by Gwen.

In the morning, Gwen heard from Elliot that Hayden was looking for a girlfriend, so she hurriedly brought a new model signed by her company recently.

Gwen’s vision in choosing models was very vicious.

This young girl had a unique classical beauty in facial features, a taller figure, and was not very old.

“Hayden, this is Hallie, a newcomer to our company, who is nineteen years old this year.” Gwen introduced to Hayden with a smile.

After Hayden’s gaze stayed on Hallie’s face for two seconds, he turned to look at Elliot.

It must be what his father said to his aunt, that’s why his aunt brought the girl to introduce him.

“Hello, Hallie.” After Hayden greeted Hallie, he changed the topic, “I’m a little hungry, let’s eat!”

Elliot could see that Hayden was unhappy, could it be that he was unhappy with the girl Tammy introduced?

Elliot secretly took out his phone and sent a message to Avery under the table.

Not even a message.

After he edited the text on the phone, he showed it to Avery directly.

Because from the moment he put the phone under the table, Avery’s gaze had been fixed on him.

After seeing the text on his screen clearly, Avery immediately took her mobile phone and typed a few words: [I don’t like the son’s vision is still relatively high. He doesn’t want our introduction. He said he finds it by himself. So let’s not mind our own business.]

“What are you two doing under the table!” Gwen saw that something was wrong with them, so she asked directly.

Avery immediately raised her head and smiled: “Your brother asked me why Tammy didn’t come.”

Gwen seemed to have been reminded, and immediately asked: “Why didn’t Tammy come? Aren’t you together in the morning?”

“She stated that she would return at night to eat.” Avery said, “We have ordered two sets of menus in total. Let’s see which one is delicious.”

“Well, didn’t you say that Layla came? Why hasn’t she come yet?” Gwen glanced at the time, “Why don’t I call her!”

Just as Gwen finished speaking, Layla pushed open the door of the private room.

“Mom, aunt, uncle...” Layla didn’t come alone.

She brought her best friend Daisy with her.

“Daisy, come and sit down.” Avery knew Daisy, so she welcomed her warmly.

Layla sat down next to Hayden, but her eyes fell on Hallie who was next to Gwen.

Layla: “Auntie, who is this beautiful girl?”

“Uh... her name is Hallie, and she is a model. She just signed it and haven’t started working yet!” Gwen looked at Hayden when she said this. After a glance, “Isn’t your brother still single? I thought he didn’t have any friends of the opposite sex around him, so I brought Hallie here to meet your brother.”

Daisy couldn’t help laughing out: “Layla, you don’t have any friends in private. Didn’t you talk to Aunt Gwen? It’s kind of funny for Brother Hayden to deal with two blind dates all at once, haha.”

Hayden couldn’t help but blush when he heard Daisy’s words.

“Auntie, did my dad tell you? My dad didn’t tell me.” Layla said, “My sister told me. It made me angry. This is the first time I took the initiative to find a girlfriend.”

“I told you about your brother’s conditions, if you want to find, what kind of girlfriend you can’t find!” Daisy came here to make up the numbers, “You don’t have to worry at all, okay. “

She had a boyfriend whom she had been dating for a long time. Although they broke up, she knew herself and felt that she was not good enough for Hayden.

“But I think you are very good! Didn’t you also say that my brother is handsome?” Layla certainly hoped that her best friend could be with her brother.

Wasn’t this the same as kissing?

Avery glanced at Hayden.

Hayden didn’t talk much in the first place, and in this embarrassing situation, he couldn’t speak much anymore.

“Okay, everyone should be hungry too, let’s eat first!” Avery said with a smile.
