Novel Chapter 2950 -“Okay! How did you learn today? You don’t even know how to make desserts! It’s a pity that only you can go to Foster’s house.” Juliette followed Joanna into the baking area.

“Although I don’t know how to make desserts, I have a good memory! The boss taught me very carefully, and I remembered everything!” Joanna put on her apron and began to wash her hands.

“I didn’t expect such a rich boss to make cakes for others!” Juliette teased, “I really envy Avery’s life. I guess no matter what you want to do or eat, you will enjoy door-to-door service. “

“No! We went to eat at an outside restaurant at noon today. It’s in a restaurant near their community.” Joanna wanted to show that even the super rich are just like ordinary people.

Except for Hayden, everyone in the Foster family was very easy-going towards Joanna.

“Have you seen Elliot?” Juliette asked.

“Yes. I have seen all the people in their family.” Joanna replied, “The people in their family are all good-looking and have a good temperament. Even if they don’t wear big names or jewelry, you can tell who they are at a glance.”

“Then what do you think of me?” Juliette was a little confused about what Joanna said, so she wanted a reference.

“You ask me that, how should I answer!” Joanna couldn’t say that you are not!

“Haha! I know your answer. I just want to know what kind of temperament you are talking about. Of course I can’t compare with people like them.” Juliette was not angry at all, “If you can marry Hayden foster and go to their house, then I will have a rich best friend, and I can also enjoy the arrogance of a super rich man in the future.”

“Don’t dream, let’s work hard and strive to become a rich generation.” Joanna took out the ingredients that needed to be used, “I think it’s better to make money on your own and spend it than to marry into a wealthy family. If you don’t have the skills, marrying into a wealthy family is a very stifling way to change your class. You need to know how to make money on your own.”

Juliette: “Have you ever thought that money can solve 99% of the difficulties and troubles? Those women who marry into wealthy families don’t know how happy they are. As long as people live, they may be wronged, even if they don’t be wronged by the husband, it is also possible to get angry from friends, relatives, and children. Are you right? As long as the benefits obtained are large enough, it is nothing to be wronged."

Joanna thought about Juliette's words seriously.

Finally, Joanna said, "Honestly speaking, do you think I don't want to marry a handsome and rich man like Hayden? The key is that he won't marry me."

Juliette laughed loudly: "I thought you were really chilling towards Hayden!"

"If I really have a crush on him, where did the kid come from? I also like handsome guys, okay?" When Joanna said this, her face was blushed uncontrollably.

"Joanna, even if you don't fight in the future, you don't have to worry about it for the rest of your life. I checked last night. Even if you don't rely on the Foster family, Hayden's net worth is an astonishing sum. In the future, your two children will do whatever they want. You can inherit a lot of property. In the future, you just need to have a good relationship with your son."

Juliette continued to add: "If I were you, I would also send Gia to the Foster family. This way Gia can inherit a fortune in the future."

Joanna felt that what Juliette said was actually reasonable.

The people in the Foster family were very nice and generous. If she send Gia to the Foster family, they would definitely treat Gia very well.

Even if Hayden was busy with work and didn't have time to take care of the children, Avery and Elliot had time.

However, Joanna was a little bit reluctant.

"I'll raise it by myself first!" Joanna replied, "My mother also likes Gia very much now, and she is willing to help me take care of the child. I don't have any difficulties in life now."

Juliette: "I understand your feelings. It would be cruel for you to send both children away. Please keep Gia by your side! Our business will get better and better in the future, and we can give Gia a very good life,"

Joanna: "Well, that's what I thought."

One and a half months later, the Spring Festival comes.

This year Joanna would not go back to her hometown for the New Year.

Novel Chapter 2951 -If she went back to her hometown, people would talk about her because she had a child.

Fortunately, the family members understood her feelings and offered to reunite with her if she didn't go back to her hometown.

Joanna rented the same house as before.

Before, they shared the rent with Juliette, but after Juliette returned home, Joanna rented the entire 2BHK apartment by herself.

After having a child, Joanna's mother came to help take care of the child. Two bedrooms and one living room were just enough to live in.

After Joanna's father and her younger brother came over, the house seemed a little smaller.

Joanna proposed to open a room for her younger brother in the hotel, so that she and Gia would share a room, and father and mother would share a room.

But her younger brother didn't agree.

Her younger brother, Finn Picard was now in the first year of high school. Most other boys at this age were in the rebellious period of youth, but Finn was very sensible because of poor family conditions.

He knew that although his sister opened a dessert shop now, the shop was funded by others, and her sister had to bear the living expenses of her mother and niece, Gia, which was a lot of pressure.

And during the New Year, hotel room rates were also higher than usual.

"Sister, I'll just sleep on the sofa. Or on the floor." After putting down his luggage, Finn walked to the crib and looked at the little niece lying in it.

"Finn, your sister is rich now." Joanna wanted Finn to live better.

"When you have money, save it to buy a house! Are you planning to rent a house all the time?" Finn said, "I'm not yet 18 years old, and you let me live in a hotel alone, aren't you worried about my safety?"

Joanna was very moved by Finn's words.

"I will make more money and try to buy a house as soon as possible," Joanna said, "I'll go buy a folding bed! The sofa is too small, you must be uncomfortable sleeping."

"Sister, I'll go with you." Finn was afraid that the things he bought were too heavy for his sister to carry.

"Okay. I just want to buy milk powder too." Joanna planned to change Gia to another kind of milk powder.

After the siblings went out, they went to the largest shopping mall nearby.

In a few days, it would be the Spring Festival. Now most of the office workers were on holiday, and there were people shopping everywhere outside.

The two of them first went to the maternity and baby store to buy a new can of milk powder, and then went to a store that sold household items.

"Huh? I remember the last time I came here, it was selling furniture!" Joanna stood in a flower shop, a little confused.

"Sister, did you remember the wrong floor?" Finn was here for the first time, so he was even more unfamiliar with it.

"Forget it, let's buy a bunch of flowers and go home!" Joanna took Finn into the flower shop.

Less than two minutes after they entered the flower shop, Hazel and Robert also entered the flower shop.

Avery used to buy the goods for the new year every year, but since she had a grandson at home this year, she made a list and asked Robert and Hazel to come out and buy them.
