Novel Chapter 2958 -“Is the business in the store very good now?” Avery felt relieved after hearing her words.

“Well. After the launch of new products on New Year’s Day, the business has improved a lot! There are a lot of old customers who deposit money in our store, and the income is not bad.” Joanna told Avery truthfully, “Auntie, I really want to thank you. If it weren’t for you, the store’s business can’t be so good.”

“Why are you being so polite. I’m relieved to see you living a good life.” Avery said here, thinking of something, “By the way, Joanna, I want to ask you, how much can your shop do Desserts in a day now? For example, if my daughter’s company thinks of ordering desserts for employees in your store once a week, I don’t know if your store can supply them.”

Joanna was flattered, and replied: “Our store can sell about a thousand desserts every day. Because the sales volume has increased a lot compared to last year, I plan to hire a few more employees.”

“Haha! That’s really good. Layla’s company needs about 500 desserts. You can send 500 desserts to her company every Friday. Do you think it’s okay?” Avery was afraid that Joanna would be embarrassed to accept it, so she explained, “The previous contract with the dessert shop has expired. In addition, the desserts in your shop are now delicious, so Layla considers looking for you. She is afraid that after looking for you, you will be exhausted, so she didn’t dare to tell you.”

“Thank you, Auntie. I’m really happy that you can trust me. But I recommend Layla to order from GD Dessert. They have more styles of desserts and more choices.” Joanna said sincerely.

Avery especially appreciated Joanna’s point.

Her sincerity came from the inside out, and getting along with her made people feel very comfortable.

“Just come to your house to order. If you feel that there is still a shortage in your store, then you should work harder. I believe that you will not be worse than the boss of GD Dessert in the future.” Avery was determined to support Joanna.

Joanna couldn’t refuse her kindness, so she had no choice but to agree.

“By the way, my husband’s company also orders desserts. Their company orders 500 copies every Wednesday.” Seeing that Joanna agreed, Avery continued, “Do you know that Hayden has established a branch in Aryadelle? Their company also has to order desserts, but they are not that big at the beginning, just order 200 copies a week. It will be delivered on Monday.”

Joanna: “..”

Today, she was the one who came to pay Avery a New Year’s greeting, but Avery sent her three big orders.

She felt that she was not here to pay New Year’s greetings, but to worship the God of Wealth.

With these three big orders every week, even if the store’s business was not usually good, the monthly sales of the store would be considered.

“Auntie, why don’t you sign the contract first. I’ll give it to them first, and I’ll talk about it after they taste it.” Joanna was a little afraid that she couldn’t afford Avery’s love.

“How can this work, you must sign the contract first! Sign it today.” Avery smiled kindly, “The sales volume in your store is so high now, it has accepted the test of the market. Don’t worry about other things, the next step is to recruit people, don’t be too tired yourself.”

Joanna: “Alright.”

in the evening.

Hayden returned home.

Avery immediately handed him an order contract.

“Hayden, when you go to work tomorrow morning, send this contract to Ju-Ji Dessert and sign it to Joanna.” Avery explained with a smile, “I ordered weekly desserts for your company at Joanna’s place today and send it to your company every Monday afternoon. I originally planned to sign the contract today, but Joanna said that their store had never received such a large order, and there was no formal contract. So I asked your father’s lawyer to draw up the contract.”

Hayden was a little unbelievable: “Mom, you ask Dad’s lawyer to draw up this kind of contract for you.”

“What’s the matter?” Avery originally wanted to find the legal counsel of the Tate Industries, but because of the oolong incident before, Avery was embarrassed to find the other party.

“There is no need for a contract at all. Just write down the price and number of services on the receipt.” Hayden looked at the name signed by his mother on the contract, and his temples twitched a few times, “Mom, just sign your own name. How did you sign me?”

“Of course it’s better to buy your company’s desserts in your name!” Avery said, “Are you unwilling to send the contract over? Are you afraid of seeing Joanna? Are you in love with Joanna? So you’re running away? “

Novel Chapter 2959 -Hayden was speechless.

He really admired his mother’s brain hole.

“Mom, I’ll send it over tomorrow morning.” Hayden compromised.

“That’s right! It’s just sending a contract. Why did you react so much just now? I saw that your company is quite close to her store.” Avery continued to tease his son, “After I saw the location of your company, I suspect that you deliberately chose the company near her dessert shop.”

Hayden: “.....Mom, coincidence! It’s really a coincidence! Besides, I didn’t decide the location of the company alone, it was decided by our entire Aryadelle team. If you don’t believe me, go and inquire about it in the company.”

“I don’t want to inquire.” Avery turned around with a smile, and went to tease his grandson, “Hayden, would you like to see your son? Joanna came to see him today and said that he is getting more handsome as he grows!”

Hayden walked up to his son and glanced at him.

“What else did she say?” Hayden originally wanted to say ‘Mom, I’m hungry’, but the words changed as soon as he uttered them.

Probably because he wanted to face it bravely, so as not to be misunderstood by his mother that he was in love with Joanna and avoid all topics related to her.

“She said that she will work hard to do a good job in her career, and strive to become as successful as GD Dessert in the future.” Avery replied, “She is really a hardworking and motivated person. She is very much like me when I was young.”

Hayden: “???”

Hayden had met Joanna, and also had brief contact with Joanna.

He didn't see a trace of his mother in Joanna at all.

"Why don't you hug your son?" Avery took out Dorian from the crib and stuffed it into Hayden's arms.

"Mom, I haven't taken off my coat yet, and I haven't washed my hands." Hayden said helplessly after being forced to pick up his son.

"Oh...it's okay. You won't see many people all day long." Avery said, "Hold the baby for a while, and I'll call your sister to see when she will come back."

Seeing his mother walk away, Hayden immediately freed up a hand and put the contract aside.

He felt that his son was getting fatter and fatter. He couldn't see much difference with the naked eye, but it felt obviously heavier when he held her son.

"Little fat, you know how to eat every day. Be careful that you will become a big fat man." Hayden scolded his innocent son in a low voice.

"Hayden, what do you think my grandson is doing?" Elliot came out from nowhere, and hugged his grandson into his arms, "Where is my grandson getting fat? He just had a physical examination, and the doctor said his weight is just right."

Hayden was speechless, took the contract and went back to his room to change clothes.

the next morning.

During breakfast, Avery was afraid that Hayden would forget about the contract, so he reminded him again.

Hayden took out the folded contract from his pocket and showed it to Avery.

Hayden: "How could I forget what you told me?"

Novel Chapter 2960 -Avery was satisfied, and confessed: "You have a better attitude towards others."

“Mom, I’m very polite to her every time.” Hayden replied, “I know you want to match me and Joanna, but you can’t force things about your relationship.”

“I didn’t force you. I just asked you to treat her a little bit better. After all, she is the mother of Dorian!” Avery reasoned with his son, “You see her family is not well-off, let’s take care of her if we can!”

Hayden nodded and agreed: “So every time you help her, I think you do a good job. With you taking care of her, I don’t have to worry.”

Avery: “...”

“Mom, I’m full.” Hayden finished his milk and was ready to go to work.

“Are you used to lunch? I won’t bother asking the driver to deliver the meal to you.” Avery was afraid that his son would not eat well for lunch.

No matter how delicious the food outside was, it was not as hygienic and nutritious as cooking at home.

“No need, Mom, I may not be at the company at noon.” Hayden wiped his mouth with a tissue, and then went out.

Ju-Ji Dessert.

After Joanna went to work, she received a message from Avery, saying that Hayden would come over to sign the contract for her later.

She could see that Avery wanted to create opportunities for her and Hayden.

“Woo! Joanna, you are simply amazing!” Juliette came to the dessert shop early this morning for the first time ever.

Because Joanna told her last night that Avery had placed three big orders in the store.

Juliette was so happy that she didn’t fall asleep all night.

When Juliette asked her family for money to invest in a dessert shop, the family was very disapproving of the investment but she couldn’t hold back.

Juliette made it clear to her family that she would go on a blind date as planned if this investment didn’t work out.

The family would no longer meddle in her marital affairs if the investment was a success.

Her parents accepted the bet because they were confident Juliette would fail.

Therefore, Juliette's insomnia was not caused by her ability to earn a lot of money, but rather by her excitement over gaining her marriage's independence.

She was naturally delighted to be able to earn more money and avoid having to ask her family for assistance.

"Why did you come so early?" Joanna was also in a good mood, so they hugged each other.

Juliette: "I'm having trouble falling asleep. I haven't been able to sleep at all since you called me last night and said that! You are aware that as soon as you called me last night, I hurried to my parents' room to tell them about the incident. Do you realize how highly they regard me? They have never regarded me with such admiration."

Joanna couldn't laugh or cry: "Even if there are three more orders, our store's monthly income cannot compare with your father's company!"

Juliette said cheerfully, "The Foster family placed these three orders, so it's not about the money! It implies that there is a tenuous connection between our family and the Fosters. Even though the connection is not strong, my parents can still boast about it. Joanna, you have my sincere gratitude! If not, I might have married a man I don't like right now! I'm so lucky!"

Joanna: "We are all lucky. We will work harder in the future to make the store stronger and bigger."

Juliette: "Well! Stronger and bigger!"

Having said this, the two began to discuss the next recruitment work.

When Hayden came over, the store had passed its busiest stage.

The front desk girl gave him a swish as Hayden entered the store.

Hayden was tall, dressed nicely, and had a very attractive face. He belonged to the kind of beings from which it was impossible to turn away after just one look.

He walked to the dining table where he ordered, and asked, "Has Joanna come to work today?"

The front desk girl nodded sharply, and then shouted loudly, "Boss Picard! A handsome guy is looking for you!"

Joanna immediately walked out of the office when she heard the employee's shout.

Joanna had just posted a job advertisement on the Internet. She and Juliette decided unanimously to hire several pastry chefs at a high price, and if any of them were particularly talented, they would offer shares.

Novel Chapter 2961 -As long as the store continues to improve, it should be acceptable to make a profit.

After seeing Hayden, Joanna's expression froze for a few seconds, and then she smiled: "Mr. Tate, hello. Auntie told me that you signed the contract for me."

Hayden took out the contract from his pocket.

It was just one page.

What kind of contract was that!

Hayden handed the crumpled contract folded by himself to Joanna.

Joanna took the contract and glanced at it. Hayden had already signed it, so she was left to sign it.

"I'll go to the office to get the pen. You take a moment." After Joanna finished speaking, she walked towards the office.

Hayden wanted to see what her office looked like, so he followed her.

Ju-Ji Dessert shop was really small.

At least for Hayden, the scale was small.

Even a dessert shop of this size had its own office.

With such curiosity, Hayden followed Joanna's office.

Unexpectedly, Juliette was also in the office.

When the girl at the front desk called Boss Picard just now, Juliette wanted to go out with Joanna to meet the person. However, she didn't go out because she was too eager to come this morning and didn't make up properly.

Who knew Hayden would come to the office.

"Mr. Tate!" Juliette immediately smiled when she saw Hayden, "I didn't know you would come over today, but I didn't prepare well!"

Juliette moved a chair and put it in front of Hayden.

Juliette: "Mr. Tate, sit down!"

Hayden glanced at the chair, then said coldly: "No need. I'll be leaving right away."

"Mr. Tate, it's hard for you to come here. Do you want to try the new products in our store? I'll pack some for you and take you back to try!" Juliette said with a doggy face, "I really admire you! Can I take a photo with you?"

After hearing what her best friend said, Joanna almost couldn't hold the pen in embarrassment.

Hayden's words of refusal were already on his lips, but he suddenly remembered what his mother had told him during breakfast, so he endured it.

"What's your relationship with Joanna?" Hayden asked.

"We are good friends, and business partners!" Juliette knew that Hayden came to the store because of Joanna, so Juliette pulled Joanna over, "Why don't we take a group photo with the three of us?!"

Hayden didn't want to take a photo with Juliette alone, so he agreed to take a group photo.

Juliette immediately went out and called the the front desk girl to help take pictures.

In the office, Joanna handed the signed contract to Hayden.

Because the atmosphere was too embarrassing, Joanna didn't know what to say, so Joanna had nothing to say: "I didn't expect you to write very delicately."

Hayden: "That's my mother's words."

Joanna couldn't help laughing: "Why is Auntie like this? Hahaha! You must be forced by Auntie to order our desserts, right?"

“No. My mother paid the money, and she didn’t force me.” When Hayden said this, Juliette pulled the the front desk girl over.

It was better to use Joanna’s phone than Juliette’s, which she had originally intended to use to take pictures.

“Joanna, use your mobile phone to take a picture! When the picture is finished later, you can send it to Mr. Tate!” Juliette also wanted to match them up.

Joanna couldn’t resist, so she had to turn on the phone.

The moment she turned on her phone, she suddenly remembered that the background picture of her phone was a photo of twin babies!
