Novel Chapter 3024 -“Change auntie to another ward!” After Hayden finished speaking, he was about to contact the hospital.

Joanna said, “I asked the nurse, and the nurse said that there are too many patients recently, and there is no room with fewer people.”

Hayden: “You go to accompany your mother first, and I will communicate with you.”

After Hayden finished speaking, he walked away.

Joanna looked at his leaving back with an indescribable sense of security in her heart.

She called Hayden tonight, but she didn't think that Hayden would come to the hospital to visit her mother.

She just hoped that he could go to the villa to accompany Gia.

Joanna had no idea how the nanny would treat Gia if there was no master at home.

Joanna walked to her mother's hospital bed and told her about Hayden's visit.

“I just saw him. I thought he would come over and talk to me! Why didn't he come in and left.” Mrs. Picard was not in so much pain, but her complexion was still very bad.

“He said it was too crowded for you to live here, so he went to help and asked if there were any wards with fewer people.” Joanna replied, “Mom, I think he treats us very well. I wonder if the man is also so kind in other people's situation.”

Mrs. Picard smiled and replied: “Many men don't even care about their own children. How could they care about the woman's family. Hayden really has nothing to say to our mother and daughter.”

Joanna: “But you are also very kind to him! You even cook for him today!”

“It's nothing to cook two meals. I don't know how many meals I made for your father. Your father never let me live in a villa for a day.” Mrs. Picard said cheerfully, “I didn't expect Hayden to come to the hospital to see me. If it wasn't for you, how could he come to see me...Joanna, I think he should also like you. Otherwise, he wouldn't be so kind to us.”

“Mom, stop talking.” Joanna glanced at the door.

Hayden had already arrived. He was chatting with a middle-aged man at the door of the ward.

Joanna had no idea who that man was.

After a while, Hayden strode into the ward.

“Auntie, I’ve changed your ward. Can you get out of bed now?” Hayden walked to the bed and asked.

“Yes, yes, but this bottle of medicine has not been finished yet.” Mrs. Picard said.

“I’ll hold it for you.” Hayden immediately picked up the medicine bottle.

Joanna was caught off guard watching this scene.

“Mr. Tate, let me get the medicine bottle!” A nurse came over and took the medicine bottle from Hayden’s hand, “I’ll send the patient to the ward first, and you guys bring the patient’s things here.”

Seeing her mother go out with the nurse, Joanna immediately started to pack her things.

In fact, there was nothing to clean up.

Only her mother’s bag and her own bag.

She hadn’t had time to go home to get the daily necessities.

“Is that all?” Hayden saw that she was carrying two bags, so he took one from her hand.

“Yeah. I’ll go back to get things later.” Joanna said, “Who are you looking for? When I asked, they said that there are no less crowded rooms.”

“I asked my dad to find a relationship.” Hayden was not afraid of losing face, “I don’t have any contacts in Aryadelle.”

Many people in Aryadelle knew and liked his father well.

Hearing his frank words, Joanna couldn’t help laughing out: “Thank you! Actually, for us, as long as we have a hospital bed, it would be great if we can see a doctor.”

Hayden: “Your mother is old, and the ward with a lot of people is too noisy, so she can’t sleep well.”

“Yeah. But my mother’s surgery is minor, and the doctor said she could be discharged in a week.” Joanna sighed, “I was initially a little anxious, but now I’m not as terrified. However, my parents are getting older and more prone to illness.”
