

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3034

Novel Chapter 3034 -Although no outsiders were looking at her now, she still wanted to drill a hole in embarrassment.

She struggled with what to wear for a long time, wondering if she would be laughing at by his employees if she didn't look good, and even wondered if others would think she looked like a butterfly if she dressed too ostentatiously... As a result, when the team was built, it was necessary to wear uniform clothing.

After Joanna sent Hayden the size of her clothes, she called Juliette.

Joanna: "Juliette, I'm really embarrassed! They ordered uniform outfits to participate in the team building."

On the other side of the phone, Juliette's tone was nonchalant, and she persuaded: "What's so embarrassing! You are not an employee of their company, and no one can stipulate that you must wear their company's team building uniform! Let me tell you, you don't wear the same clothes as them, team building clothes are usually ugly! You should dress up nicely, that's right!"

"But I have reported my size to Hayden, and he said to wear their team building uniform for me." Joanna was even more embarrassed, "Forget it, I'll wear the same one as them! If I lose it, I can also find teammates through clothing."

Juliette: "What's going on in your head? You went out with Hayden to play, not to explore, so why did you lose it?"

Joanna: "But I haven't traveled very far, so I don't have a good sense of direction."

Juliette suddenly smiled: "Do you want me to go with you? When you fall in love with Hayden, I will silently protect you behind you!"

Joanna got goosebumps all over her body: "Don't! When I'm with him, I'm quite uncomfortable. Even in real life, he's quite serious..."

Juliette: "Then you still like him so much."

"I just like him who looks cold. Let me tell you, I've liked this type of male since I was a child. Although I'm often nervous when I'm with Hayden, I still like being with him." Joanna didn't mean to show off on purpose, but Juliette was stuffed with a mouthful of dog food by her.

"Joanna, I'm eating out now, and I'll pass by the neighborhood where you live when I go home later, can I go over and visit your villa later?" Juliette had long wanted to visit, but it was only a week ago Mrs. Picard was sick and hospitalized, so she had no chance.

Joanna: "Okay! You can come over anytime tonight."

Juliette: "That's good. I should be there in half an hour, you wait for me! Let's meet and talk."

Joanna: "Uh-huh!"

After hanging up the phone, Joanna searched the Internet for some portable supplies for team building.

She could make some simple medicines or snacks because she was going to a remote location.

Hayden called Harry and asked Harry to prepare two sets of clothes for Joanna.

Harry was shocked: "Boss, are you planning to bring Joanna to team building together?"

"Yeah. I saw a saying on the Internet, saying that if you want to get to know a person, you should take her on a trip." Hayden was plausible.

Harry had also read this sentence, but weren't travel and team building two different things?

"Boss, do you think our team building is to go on a trip?" Harry couldn't laugh or cry.

"Is there any difference?" Hayden asked back.

"Of course there is a difference. There is no trip where thousands of people go together, right?" Harry couldn't help laughing, "I suggest you go out with Ms. Picard alone."

"I've never been alone with her, I'm afraid she'll be embarrassed." Hayden had already made up his mind and went to the team building.

Harry: "You are afraid of embarrassment! I think Ms. Picard is very enthusiastic, and she can chat with anyone!"

Hayden's expression turned pale after hearing the assistant's complaints.

"If you are told to prepare clothes, you can prepare them. Why are you talking so much?" Hayden said angrily.

Harry: "Boss, Ms. Picard is not an employee of our company. In fact, it is fine for her to wear her own clothes. Girls are more beautiful. If you let her wear our company's team building uniform, will she not be very happy?"

Hayden: "She asked for it herself."

Harry: "Oh...Okay! I'll notify the administration right away, and I'll send the clothes to Ms. Picard tomorrow."

Hayden: "Um."

Harry: "By the way, aren't we going to stay outside for two days and one night at that time? Don't we live in a tent at night? We arranged for two employees to live in a tent. Will we arrange for her to live in a tent with other female employees of the company?"
