

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3043

Novel Chapter 3043 -After Hayden paid the bill, he took the water from her hand.

“When you take a bath at night, don’t let your fingers touch the water.” Joanna looked at his injured finger, “Your wound is not shallow. Even if I was stabbed while peeling shrimp, I didn’t bleed like you. At that time your managers were all scared.”

Hayden: “It doesn’t actually hurt.”

“Although it’s a small wound, it’s better to pay attention. After all, it’s out of town. If your mother finds out, she will definitely feel distressed.” Joanna Continue to walk forward with him, “Your mother said that you have never been in a relationship before. Have you ever met a girl who makes your heart beat?”

“I’ve never thought about this problem before. because I will have a lot of work-related issues to deal with.” Hayden told her the secret in his heart, “I set a goal when I was very young. This goal is to surpass my father in career.”

Joanna looked at his face, and shocked.

“I didn’t have a good relationship with my dad when I was young, so I was eager to surpass him, as if I had control over the family.” Hayden continued to explain, “That’s why I never had time to fall in love.”

” I’ve been in love.” Joanna shyly said, “But it’s because of my low self-esteem. Because I came to study in a big city from a very remote place. Even if someone chases me, I dare not agree. I dare not even try. I am a very timid person.”

“I didn’t see that you were timid.” Hayden remembered the first time the two of them had happened in the hotel, “After all, you took the initiative that time.”

Joanna’s face turned red: “I saw that you were so uncomfortable at the time... I wanted to help you. Of course, it was also because you were so handsome that I became obsessed with s*x.”

Hayden: “...”

Joanna: “That was the most outrageous thing I’ve ever done in my life, but I don’t regret it.”

She was so honest all of a sudden that Hayden didn’t know how to answer the question.

After they continued walking for about ten minutes, they arrived at the commercial street.

This street was all about selling things.

They sold everything.

Joanna liked to visit this kind of small shop the most.

“Let’s go in and have a look!” Joanna naturally took Hayden’s arm and entered a gift shop.

She was attracted by a plush doll with a cute shape.

She picked up the plush doll and showed it to Hayden: “I think my daughter will definitely like this.”

“Then buy it.” After Hayden finished speaking, he asked, “Do you like it?”

Joanna nodded: “I like it.”

“Then Just buy two. One for each of you and your daughter.” Hayden didn’t think about it.

Joanna’s heart warmed, “Since you bought it for your daughter, why don’t you buy one for your son too! Otherwise, what should they do if they rob each other?”

Hayden: “Well, then buy one for your son.”

Joanna smiled and said: “I’ll buy you one too, okay? You see, these four dolls wear different clothes! Putting them together looks very festive.”

Hayden didn’t like this type of toy, but when he saw Joanna’s happy face, he nodded.

Coming out of the shop, they continued on their way.

Passing by a shop selling special clothes, Joanna was attracted again.

“That shawl is so beautiful! Auntie will look great if she wears it on.” Joanna entered the store and walked directly to the model wearing the shawl.

When she was about to reach out to touch the fabric, the shop owner came over and said, “Miss, this shawl is a valuable item in our store. If you don’t buy it, you’d better not touch it. If you want to know its fabric and design inspiration, I can help you with it.”

Joanna withdrew her hand in embarrassment, “Boss, how much is this shawl?”

“86,000.” The boss replied.

Seeing that Joanna's face turned red, Hayden immediately took out his bank card from his wallet: "We bought it."

Joanna looked at him in surprise.

He said 'we bought', not 'I bought'.

Recommended Novels