

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3064

Novel Chapter 3064 -The front desk girl immediately went to the office and called Joanna.

“I can’t see that woman’s eyes because she is wearing sunglasses, but I can tell she is rich.” The front desk girl reported the situation to Joanna, “She carries a Hermes handbag! The clothing she wears is also exquisite! I’ve never seen her before! Her hair appears to have been lavishly maintained, and her skin is also exceptionally healthy. It appears as though she is wearing foundation, but the naked eye cannot detect any powder!”

It was the first time for the front desk girl to see such a delicately dressed woman.

After hearing what the front desk girl said, Joanna’s heart began to beat.

“Did she say who she is?” Joanna asked.

“She didn’t say anything. She just said that she has something very important to talk to you.”

Hearing this, Joanna didn’t dare to delay, and immediately walked out of the office.

After coming out, Joanna saw the young woman carrying the Hermes backpack at a glance.

After Joanna came out, the woman took off her sunglasses and looked at Joanna carefully.

Joanna saw the woman’s complete face clearly.

She was indeed very delicate and very foreign. She was as beautiful as a doll, even more beautiful than the heroes in many TV dramas.

Joanna was dumbfounded.

“Ms. Picard, hello.” Tessa Sutton took the initiative to speak to Joanna, “I want to chat with you alone!”

Like a magical force, Joanna followed her out before asking her who she was.

The sun was hot outside, but the temperature was not too hot.

Tessa took Joanna to a nearby park.

Tessa took the lead and sat down on a bench in the park.

Behind the bench was a plane tree.

The sycamore tree completely covered the sun, and it was very cool to sit in the chair.

Joanna sat down beside her and asked, "I don't know what to call you?"

"My name is Tessa Sutton." Tessa looked at Joanna's face and introduced herself, "I know you don't know me. I didn't know you at first, but I heard that Hayden took you to participate in the company's team building, and he acquiesced to you that you're his girlfriend, I'm very curious about you, so I came to you."

Joanna understood.

Tessa was Hayden's suitor.

"Ms. Sutton, I'm just an ordinary person." Joanna said modestly.

"I know. I have your information in my hand. Your family is ordinary... No, it should be said that your family is a little poor. Your house is very dilapidated, your father is a coolie, and your mother does not work. Your brother still in school." Tessa said the information she had collected.

The politeness on Joanna's face was gone.

Tessa could talk about her whatever she wanted, but talking about her family in front of her made her feel uncomfortable.

There was a word called borderline.

Tessa had no sense of boundaries towards her, which was also an expression of disrespect for her.

"Miss Sutton, my family is indeed not rich, but my parents support me and my younger brother with their own hands. To me, they are great." When Joanna said this, she changed the subject, "You told my staff that there is something wrong with me. Important things, don't know what important things are?"

Tessa was not in a hurry, and said eloquently: "My father's name is Winston Sutton, you can check his rank on the Internet." Having said that, Tessa paused, and then said, "You are not good enough for Hayden I know that his family style is relatively good, his parents don't care about him, and their family doesn't see each other, so if Hayden insists on marrying you, you can marry into their family without any difficulty."

Joanna's mind kept echoing what Tessa said, 'You are not worthy of Hayden'.
