

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3065

Novel Chapter 3065 -“I know I’m not good enough for Hayden, but people go to high places and water flows to low places. Why can’t I find a man who is better than me? Do you mean that my family is poor, so I have to find a man who is also poor to marry, is it?” Joanna retorted to Tessa neither humble nor overbearing.

Tessa: “Hehe! I understand your desire to climb higher branches too well!”

“I have indeed climbed the ladder, but even if Hayden is not the boss of the Dream Maker Group, I still like him.” Joanna blushed, expressing her attitude.

“Oh, if you like him, then don’t be his fool. Do you know what difficulties Hayden’s company encountered in Aryadelle?” Tessa asked.

Joanna shook her head.

She was only with Hayden and knew nothing about Hayden’s business affairs.

Moreover, even if the two of them got married in the future, with Hayden’s character, he would never tell her about the business because she didn’t understand at all.

“Only my family can help him.” Tessa said with her head held high.

“How is it possible... Can’t Hayden’s father help him?” Although Joanna didn’t know anything but she knew that Elliot was very good.

With Elliot’s connections and rights in Aryadelle, he would definitely be able to help Hayden.

“I didn’t expect you to know nothing about Hayden’s family.” Tessa sneered, “Hayden and his father are completely incompatible in their careers. His father doesn’t care about him. It should be said that he doesn’t allow his father to intervene in his affairs. If Hayden failed to start a business in Aryadelle, and he will probably return to Bridgedale. If you don’t believe me, you can go to Foster’s house and ask. See if what I said is true.”

Joanna didn’t speak.

She would find out.

“Joanna, as long as you leave Hayden, I can give you a sum of money! If you really like him, you should quit. Only when Hayden is with me can his career in Aryadelle develop smoothly!” Tessa took out a bank card from her bag and handed it to Joanna.

Joanna glanced at the bank card, but didn’t answer it.

In the evening, she returned to Foster's house after getting off work.

Hayden hadn't come back yet.

After the May Day holiday, Hayden was obviously busy.

He worked in the study until late last night before going back to bed.

Joanna was in a drowsy sleep and couldn't wake up, so she didn't talk to him.

"Joanna, are you tired from work?" Avery walked up to her holding Gia and asked.

"It's okay. Not tired." Joanna smiled at Avery, and then smiled at her daughter, "Auntie, can I ask you a question?"

Without hesitation, Avery said, "What's the question? Just ask it directly. I'll tell you everything I know."

Joanna nodded.

"Then let's go outside and talk!" Joanna smiled, "I want to ask about Hayden."

"Okay!" Avery immediately gave Gia to the nanny, and then went to the backyard with Joanna.

The fruit trees in the yard were growing well.

After looking at a few fruit trees, Avery turned to look at Joanna: "Joanna, didn't you say you have a question and want to ask me? What do you want to ask?"

Joanna: "Auntie, I think Hayden and uncle have a good relationship, but I heard today that the two of them are completely independent in their careers..."

"That's right! Their companies are involved in completely different industries." Avery replied, "Hayden doesn't like others to intervene in his business. So we never ask him about his company. Any difficulties he has, he overcomes by himself and won't tell us. He has a stubborn personality and a strong personality. You should be able to feel it when you are with him. He is a very strong person."

Joanna's heart sank little by little.

Recommended Novels