

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3067

Novel Chapter 3067 -Beside, the nanny saw this warm scene and couldn't help but take a photo with her mobile phone.

At this time, Elliot came over and asked Joanna where Avery had gone.

"Auntie is looking at the fruit trees in the backyard." Joanna replied.

Elliot nodded, hesitated for a while, and said, "It's normal for children to fight, so you don't need to feel too stressed. Robert was often beaten by Layla when he was a child! As long as he doesn't hit hard, it's basically fine."

Because the one who was beaten was Dorian, Elliot didn't think it was a big problem.

If it was Gia who was beaten, Elliot would not have this attitude.

"Yes, I know." Joanna replied with a smile.

"When will Hayden come back for dinner?" Elliot asked.

Joanna didn't contact Hayden during the day. Hayden didn't take the initiative to send her a message, and he didn't call to say when he would come back for dinner.

"I'll call and ask." After Joanna finished speaking, two nannies immediately picked up the two children in her arms.

Joanna found her mobile phone from her bag and called Hayden.

Hayden answered the phone quite quickly.

Joanna: "When are you coming back for dinner?"

"I'm a little busy today, so I won't go back for dinner. You don't have to wait for me." Hayden replied.

Joanna remembered what Tessa said to her again.

Hayden's company was in trouble, that's why he was so busy!

"Well, remember to eat!" Joanna reminded.

"Okay. You and your daughter go to bed early at night, so you don't have to wait for me." Hayden was afraid that she would wait for him, so he made an agreement with her in advance.

After Joanna answered, she hung up the phone.

“Uncle, he said he won’t come back for dinner.” Joanna said to Elliot.

“Then don’t wait! Let’s eat!” After Elliot finished speaking, he was going to call Avery in the backyard.

“Don’t you wait for Robert and Hazel?” Joanna asked.

“The two of them won’t come back to eat tonight.” Elliot replied, “They will only eat at home on weekends, and they usually eat out.”

Joanna nodded.

After dinner, Joanna bathed the two children and dressed them respectively.

The nanny prepared two bottles of milk and handed them to the two little milk dumplings.

“Joanna, I’ll take Gia to sleep at night!” The nanny smiled and discussed with Joanna, “So as not to affect your rest.”

Joanna knew that the wages would be higher if children were brought to sleep, not all maids were willing to sleep with children.

“Have you agreed with Auntie Tate?” Joanna asked.

“Well. We chatted during the day. The main reason is that you and Hayden are about to get married, newlyweds, and it will be inconvenient to sleep with a child.”

Joanna: “...”

The nanny said it very implicitly, but Joanna understood it in seconds.

“Since you have made an agreement with Auntie Tate, it will be hard for you to take care of the child at night.” Joanna had to work during the day and take the child to sleep at night. It would indeed be more difficult.

If someone took the child to sleep, it was definitely willing.

“It’s not hard. Do you want to play with the children for a while, or go to take a bath and rest?” the nanny asked.

“Take the child away!” Joanna wanted to be alone for a while.

The two nannies left the room with the two children in their arms.

Joanna's heart suddenly became empty.

She sat by the bed blankly, thinking about what she should do, whether to quit.

If she chose to quit, she would definitely not be able to take Gia with her.

Recommended Novels