Novel Chapter 3071 -More than an hour later, the new name of Dorian was born.

—Liam Tate

Why did Mr. Picard give Dorian this name?

Because when everyone couldn't think of a nice name, Mr. Picard said something, why not call his name Liam! It's easy to remember and nice to hear.

Elliot and Avery were immediately frightened.

When Dorian grew up and went to school, he would definitely be laughed at by his classmates.

So, Mr. Picard made a compromise and took the name Liam.

After lunch, Hayden sent Joanna's family to the villa in the city center.

"Uncle and aunt, when Joanna comes back, I will transfer this villa to her name. This will be your home from now on." Hayden said.

Joanna gave him two children. As compensation, he gave Joanna a villa, which was understandable.

Mr. Picard and Mrs. Picard dared not accept it.

On the way back to Foster's house.

Hazel saw the serious expressions on the faces of her father and mother.

"Mom, why don't I go find Sister Joanna!" Hazel broke the silence.

"Your elder brother doesn't even know where she went." Avery replied, "Where did you find it?"

Avery called Joanna, but Joanna's phone was turned off.

Hazel: "Sister Joanna has a best friend who is the other owner of their dessert shop. I'll ask her best friend."

Avery: "Okay! It just so happens that we will pass by there later, so you can ask. If you can't get the result, forget it. Joanna is also an adult, and she should have made the decision after careful consideration."

Hazel: "Well, let me ask first."

When they arrived at the dessert shop, Hazel entered the shop.

Coincidentally, Juliette was here.

"Hazel, what do you want to eat? I'll get it for you." Juliette greeted him warmly.

Hazel: "Sister Juliette, I'm not here to buy things. I'm here to ask you about Sister Joanna's whereabouts."

The expression on Juliette's face suddenly stiffened a bit: "She went abroad to relax."

Juliette: "D*mn! She was scared and didn't dare to face it, so she hid."

Hazel: "Why do you want to do this? My elder brother is not a monster, why does sister Joanna hide?"

Juliette: "I don't know why she is like this. She doesn't tell me the truth."

Hazel: "Do you know where she is?"

Juliette hesitated for a while, then wrote Hazel an address.

"This is the hotel she stayed in abroad. She didn't want to tell me, but I forced her to tell. She had never been abroad, and she ran out alone. I was worried, so I asked her to tell me the name of the hotel." Juliette gave Hazel the paper with the address on it, "Hazel, are you looking for her alone? It's not safe. You might as well give your elder brother the address and ask him to find her."

Hazel: "My elder brother is a little angry, and he's been very busy with work recently, so let me go! I often go abroad, and I'm not afraid of being alone."

After thanking Juliette, Hazel came out of the dessert shop with the address.
