

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3078

Novel Chapter 3078 -The secretary's room suddenly fell silent.

Harry walked up to Hayden, and asked, "Boss, what are your orders?"

Hayden: "My little sister is graduating soon. I should prepare a graduation gift for her."

Hayden suddenly remembered that Hazel was going to Thopiavelle soon, so he wanted to buy her a gift.

Harry: "Boss, what gift do you want to give Hazel? Should I pick it out for you, or should we go together?"

Hayden: "I'll go with Joanna."

Harry: "..."

After Hayden finished speaking, he left.

Hayden came out of the company and went home to pick up Joanna.

After Joanna got into the car, she said, "Not only do you have to give gifts to Hazel, but you also have to give gifts to Layla! Didn't you say that you will hold a party to announce the good news of her pregnancy?"

Hayden: "Well, let's buy a gift for Robert by the way!"

"Yeah. You decide on Robert's gift, and I'll choose Layla and Hazel's gift." Joanna began to think about what gift to choose for the two of them.

Hayden added: "Buy a gift for your brother too. Last time he came over, I didn't have a word with him."

"Haha! My younger brother is quite afraid of you. He's a bit introverted, and he doesn't dare to talk to strangers." Joanna joked with a smile, "My mother always said that it would be better if my personality and his were reversed. I'll be bolder. My brother is a little timid."

"Why is he afraid of me?" Hayden asked, "I treat him very well!"

Joanna: "He thinks you are too powerful."

"Don't be afraid when you see powerful people. Make friends with people who are stronger than you, and learn from others' strengths." Hayden shared his experience with Joanna.

“The next time my brother comes over, you tell him.” Joanna teased, “I’m not very afraid of you.”

“I’m sure you’re not so afraid of me now. But in the beginning, you were a little bit afraid of me.” Hayden recalled the scene of reuniting with Joanna.

At that time, Joanna hardly dared to look him in the eye.

“I’m not afraid, I’m shy.” Joanna explained, “Although I don’t know you well, I know you’re not a bad person. I could tell from the first time we got together in the hotel. “

Hayden: “You know I’m not a bad person, so you dare not tell me the news of your pregnancy?”

“I searched your information after I was pregnant. You are in Bridgedale all year round. If I tell you that I am pregnant, what will you do if you take the child to Bridgedale? Anyway, I thought a lot at the time, and finally made a decision.”

Hayden: “I don’t blame you anymore. It’s not easy for you to conceive and have a baby by yourself.”

Joanna said, “It’s true that I suffered a lot. The main reason is that my parents didn’t agree with me giving birth to the child at first. Because I didn’t tell them that the child I was carrying was yours. They were afraid that my child would affect my future marriage. At that time, I decided to have a child with the attitude of never getting married again. What I thought was that if I had to have a child in the future, if I had a child with you, the child’s genes would definitely be better.”

Hayden: “...You think so beautifully! This is a proper way to leave the father and keep the son!”

“If I could support two children, I would really not have contacted your family.” Joanna looked serious.

Hayden was a little worried: “Then don’t I have to thank you for being so poor?”

Joanna couldn’t help laughing out loud: “My mother said that everything in the world is predetermined. Don’t look back on things that have passed, and you can save a lot of trouble.”

Recommended Novels