

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3093

Chapter 3093

The call was quickly connected.

“Baby, are you going home?” Avery’s voice came softly from the other side of the phone.

These days when Hazel left home, Avery missed her daughter very much every day.

And often have nightmares. Dreamed that various accidents happened to her daughter in Thopiavelle.

Avery didn’t tell her daughter about these things, for fear of affecting her mood.

“Mom, I’m not going home for the time being. I’m calling you because I want to discuss something with you.” Hazel struggled and said, “Didn’t I graduate? I have found a job here in Thopiavelle. I want to stay here and work for a while.”

Avery was stunned.

“Didn’t you go to Thopiavelle to play? Why did you find a job there? What kind of job did you find? Isn’t there any in Aryadelle? There should be anything you want in Aryadelle, right? Even if you don’t have it in Aryadelle, Dad and I can do it too.”

Hazel: “Mom, I don’t want to stay in Thopiavelle because of work...it’s because of being alone...”

“Who? Who? What’s his name?” Avery realized that something was wrong, “Hazel, tell mom clearly, otherwise mom is worried. Mom wants to find you immediately.”

Hazel: “Mom, don’t get excited. Things are not as scary as you think. When I was in Thopiavelle, there was a boy who treated me very well. Maybe I fell in love with him because of this. I saw him today, Although he didn’t recognize me, I still think he is the same as before, and I still like him a little bit...”

Avery raised her throat: “What’s the boy’s name? You tell mom, mom will go and find out.”

Hazel: “Lucas Hogan. Uncle Mike understands.”

Avery: “Mike knows about this?!”

Hazel: "I told Uncle Mike before. Mom, he has opened a company now, and I want to work for his company. But I don't want the bodyguard Aaron to follow me. It will be very strange to others..."

Avery: "Are you going to work now?"

Hazel: "Tomorrow!"

Avery: "Then don't worry. I'll investigate this boy. I'll call you back when I'm done."

Hazel: "Mom, are you angry?"

Avery: "No. How could mom be angry? Everyone will have someone they like. It's normal for you to find someone you like, but you haven't told mom about it before, so mom is very surprised now."

Hazel: "Mom, he's just an ordinary person. Don't expect too much from him."

Avery: "Mom knows. Since you don't go to work until tomorrow, you should go back to the hotel with the bodyguard first."

"oh."

After hanging up the phone, Avery turned around and found that Elliot was sitting next to her at some point, eavesdropping on her phone conversation.

"Honey, what did my daughter say?" Elliot knew it was Hazel calling, but he couldn't hear what Hazel said clearly.

Avery took a deep breath: "My daughter has a boy she likes in Thopiavelle. That boy's name is Lucas Hogan. And Mike knows it too. I'll call Mike now and ask what's going on."

Elliot: "What?! Hazel in our family has a boy she likes?! What's the background of that kid?"

Avery: "Our Hazel is a normal person. It's normal for her to have a boy she likes. It's not normal if she doesn't have a boy she likes! Don't be so excited!"

Avery said, and dialed the phone to Mike.

Recommended Novels