

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3096

Novel Chapter 3096 -Seeing her coming to work, Niko immediately greeted her with a smile: "Hazel, after careful consideration all night, I have arranged for you a position that is more suitable for you."

Hazel: "What position?"

"Boss's assistant." Niko said, "From now on, you can just listen to Lucas alone."

Without thinking, Hazel immediately agreed: "Okay! Is he at work now?"

Niko: "No." Niko picked up a piece of paper, "His phone number and his home address are written on it. Now go buy a breakfast and send it to him."

Hazel took the paper and glanced at it: "Okay. I'll go right away."

After Hazel left, Niko sighed: "It seems that this woman really came here for Lucas! Lucas is so lucky! To be spotted by such a beautiful girl! How come I don't have such good luck?"

Hazel bought a small steamed bun, then took a taxi to Lucas's house.

Lucas lived very close to the company.

It took ten minutes by taxi, and within half an hour by foot.

Hazel carried his breakfast and rang the doorbell of Lucas's house.

After a while, Lucas opened the door.

Seeing Hazel, Lucas narrowed his eyes: "What are you doing at my house?"

Hazel ignored his astonished expression and went straight into his house.

"Niko asked me to come. He asked me to be your assistant." Hazel put the breakfast on the coffee table in the living room, "Boss, the breakfast is still hot, you can eat it while it's hot!"

Lucas closed the door and walked to the living room.

Hazel had already started to walk around his house and start tidying up.

"What are you doing?" Lucas frowned, very puzzled, "Did I ask you to clean it up?"

Hazel: "Let me help you tidy up, the house will be more tidy. I know you don't like tidying up the house..."

"Are we familiar? You put my clothes down!" Lucas looked at her dirty clothes in her hand, "Is it the same when you are with others? Automatic nanny?"

Hazel put down his clothes: "No! Boss, I don't treat others like this."

Lucas: "Then why are you doing this to me?"

"I'm your assistant! It's my duty to help you do what I can." Hazel said, and began to clean up the trash on the coffee table.

Lucas rubbed the center of his eyebrows and sat down on the sofa.

"Boss, eat breakfast! If you don't eat breakfast, you will easily get stomach problems." Hazel reminded.

Lucas: "I haven't brushed my teeth yet."

"Then go brush your teeth!" Hazel put the trash into the trash can, "Boss, don't worry, I won't go to your room. I'll clean up the living room for you."

Lucas got up and went to wash up.

After a while, he came out.

Hazel had almost tidied up the living room.

There were three more bags of garbage on the ground.

"Boss, doesn't your mother live with you?" Hazel glanced at the guest room just now. Although there were beds in the guest room, there was no sign of living in it.

"You seem to know everything about me. What else do you know?" Lucas frown and asked.

Hazel: "I heard that your mother is sick. She doesn't live with you, is she in the hospital?"

Lucas: "Who did you hear that my mother was sick? Who are you?"

Hazel stood where she was, a little tangled.

She really wanted to tell Lucas her true identity, but she was afraid that after telling her, she wouldn't even have to be friends.

After all, her current status was far from that of Lucas's.
