

Novel When His Eyes Opened Read Chapter 3103

Novel Chapter 3103 -Layla said with a 'poof': "Little sister, I have never eaten your cooking! You actually ran to cook for others!"

Hazel: "Sister, if you want to eat the food I cook, I'll make it for you when I go back!"

Layla: "How dare I let you cook! Cooking is very hard!"

Hazel: "It's not hard to cook a meal once in a while! It's just that I don't cook very deliciously, so I dare not show off my cooking skills in front of you."

Layla: "If Mom and Dad know that you are cooking for Lucas over there, they will definitely be angry."

Hazel: "Don't tell them! I used to be in Thopiavelle, and I was his nanny. I don't think it's very hard to cook."

Layla: "Okay! Since you don't think it's hard, then you can do it! Anyway, you have to come back in a few days."

Hazel: "Got it! Sister, how is your health? Is the baby okay?"

Layla laughed: "I'm fine! The baby is fine too! You take good care of yourself outside, and you must remember not to reveal your identity. After all, the security over there is not very good, I'm afraid your identity will be exposed, Aaron can't keep you safe."

Hazel: "Sister, I understood."

After talking on the phone, Hazel started to take care of the dishes.

Time flies, and it's evening.

Hazel cooked three dishes and one soup, picked up her phone, and checked the time.

Hazel said to herself: "Why hasn't the boss come back yet? He shouldn't have to work overtime!"

Hazel didn't have Lucas's number, so she could only wait at home.

When Aaron called, Hazel answered it immediately.

“Hazel, why haven’t you come back yet? Are you off work now? I’ll pick you up!” Aaron’s voice came.

Hazel: “I’m at my boss’s house! He didn’t let me go to his company. So I cook for him at his house. I can’t leave until he comes back.”

Aaron: “Huh? Are you going to be his nanny?”

Hazel: “You can’t say that. At least you can’t tell my parents that. I just cooked dinner for him.”

Aaron: “Hazel, you don’t touch the water with your ten fingers at home! How can you cook for him? If your parents find out about this, how sad they will be!”

Hazel: “Don’t tell them, they won’t know if they don’t.”

Aaron: “Did Lucas save the earth in his previous life? I really envy this kid!”

Hazel: “Then come over and eat together. I made four dishes, and he couldn’t finish them all by himself.”

Aaron: “How can I explain our relationship when I go? Send me a location, and I’ll wait for you nearby.”

Hazel: “Okay.”

At seven o’clock in the evening, Lucas returned home.

Seeing Hazel and the food on the table, Lucas was taken aback for a moment.

Hazel: “What are you doing in a daze! I finished it at five o’clock, but I didn’t know you left work so late! I heated it again in the middle. Go wash your hands!”

Lucas: “You’ve been at my house all afternoon?”

Hazel: “That’s right! Didn’t you realize that your house is cleaner? I mopped the floor, wiped the tables and cabinets, and washed the sofa covers. You can put them on after they are dry tomorrow and stop sitting on the sofa. “

Lucas was shocked.

Hazel: "Why are you unhappy? Don't worry, I didn't go to your room. If you don't believe me, go and see, it's still a mess!"

Lucas: "So how much labor fee should I pay you now?"

Hazel: "Haha, no need! I haven't done housework for a long time, and it's quite fun to do it once in a while."
