

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3109

Novel Chapter 3109 -When Hazel was cooking at noon, she received a video call from Hayden.

Hazel didn't dare not accept her brother's video call.

She specially turned off the fire in the kitchen, went to the balcony to pick up the video call.

She took the phone, adjusted the light, and smiled sweetly at the camera: "Brother, how is your wedding preparations with Sister Joanna going?"

Hayden: "It went well. Where are you?"

Hazel: "At Lucas's house."

Hayden frowned: "Why are you at his house? Is he there? Let me see him."

Hazel: "He's not here! He's gone to work."

"Since he's not here, what are you doing at his house?" Hayden felt that this was not good.

Hazel: "I...I want to cook for myself, so I came to his house and lent him the kitchen."

Hayden: "Can you cook?"

Hazel: "Hey, it's not very tasty."

Hayden: "Are you cooking for him?"

Hazel: "Brother, I'm bored when I'm idle! It's time to practice my cooking skills. When I get home, I'll cook for you."

Hayden: "Do you know that men won't cherish you if you're like this?"

Hazel: "My sister told me, and Aaron also told me, I know what I'm doing...Brother, don't worry about me. I'll go back right away, and I probably won't come here in the future gone."

Only then did Hayden let out a sigh of relief: “Be careful when cooking. If you can’t do it, you can order takeaway. Why do you cook it yourself? Why do you work so hard?”

Hazel: “Brother, I understand.”

Hayden: “Come back tomorrow or the day after tomorrow?”

Hazel: “The day after tomorrow! I should go shopping tomorrow and buy gifts for you.”

Hayden: “Okay. Take Aaron with you when you go shopping.”

Hazel: “Yes.”

After hanging up the video call, the smile on Hazel’s face disappeared.

The eldest brother made a video call, but he was actually urging her to go back.

Hazel returned to the kitchen, made lunch, and walked towards Lucas’s bedroom.

After leaving here tonight, she would not come here again.

Before leaving, she wanted to tidy up Lucas’s bedroom.

Lucas’s bedroom was very messy, but there was no unpleasant smell.

Hazel walked to the closet, looking for a clean four-piece suit.

As a result, in the process of rummaging, she saw a small black box.

This small box is placed in the innermost part of the closet, and it seems to be hidden in it on purpose.

Driven by curiosity, Hazel took out the box and opened it.

The moment he opened it, she was stunned.

Inside the box, there was a bracelet.

This bracelet belonged to her mother-in-law.

Hazel suddenly remembered the past three years ago.

Because she couldn't repay the money she owed, the creditor snatched her mother-in-law's bracelet.

Later, when she paid back the money, the creditor said that her debt had been paid off. It was returned by the young master of the Hogan family.

At that time, she thought that the second young master helped to return it, and thanked the second young master for this. At that time, the second young master also admitted this matter.

If the second young master helped to repay the debt, how could the mother-in-law's bracelet be here at Lucas?

Hazel put the bracelet away and put it back in place.

She quickly came out of the bedroom, picked up her bag, and went out.

She was going to ask Cyrus to clarify.

Noon, meal time.

Niko pushed open Lucas's office door: "Lucas, where are you going to eat at noon?"

Lucas remembered that Hazel had cooked for him at noon, so he waved his hands: "Go and eat by yourself!"

Niko chuckled: "Did Hazel cook for you? Ask her to cook more, I'll try it too!"
